The Kingston Daily Freeman.

VOL. XVLI.—No. 123. CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 12, 1917. PRICE TWO CENTS.

22 BODIES FOUND IN INDIANA TOWN

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New Castle, Ind., March 12.—New Castle, famed for its beautiful homes, was a city of death and ruins today. Dawn found hundreds of searchers combing the debris for the missing. Already 22 bodies had been recovered and it was believed as many more would be found under the wreckage. Militiamen from Muncie, Logansport and Crawfordsville were there to take charge of the work of rescue and relieve 200 special deputies of the work of policing the town made necessary by the discovery that looters, posing as rescuers, had seized upon the darkness to ply their ghastly work. Every house left standing upon its foundations, every church, every school building was in use as a hospital or a shelter for the hundreds of homeless, whose misery was added to by biting cold winds.

Throughout the long night the work of rescue had gone on in the midst of darkness, lighted only by lanterns and the headlights of automobiles. The plant supplying New Castle with electric light was demoralized by the tornado and gas had been shut off in the fear that fire would add its horror to the tragedy.

New Castle lies in a small pocket 45 miles northeast of Indianapolis. On the north, the west and the south it is flanked by hills. Apparently the air currents were attracted by the depression and from the hills many persons watched the tornado wreak its fury without danger to themselves.

The tornado broke unheralded save by lowering clouds and a sprinkle of rain. Suddenly it broke into a violent downpour and from the west the huge, funnel-shaped cloud bore down upon the city. Hundreds of persons were on the street as the tornado's roar betokened its coming. It hit the town squarely, demolished the few first houses in its path, lifted to miss the main section of the business district, taking a few roofs in its passage, then dived again and laid low every house in a trip five blocks wide.

Panic followed in the wake of the storm. Five minutes after it struck it had gone, but a drenching rain continued.

Hundreds who had escaped the tornado rushed frantically to the south side where the worst damage occurred. Despite the rain fire broke out in several places and had gained headway before the fire department, hampered by telephone poles and trees which strewed the streets, could reach them. The damage from the flames was small, however.

From every direction, by vehicle, in autos and afoot, farmers from the surrounding country began coming into town and joined the rescuers. City authorities took charge of things, homes and other buildings were thrown open for the homeless and injured and the bodies of the dead were gathered up and placed in temporary morgues.

But while all of New Castle mourned, determined citizens began the work of reconstruction.

Mayor J. Leb Watkins, with his home a mass of ruins, but happy because he and his family had escaped injury or death, directed citizens' committees in their work. He shut off the gas and coal to prevent fire. He supervised the work of a relief committe which will help the needy, he mobilized the workers from the factories and stores to clean up the wreckage, and restore order. It was estimated $100,000 would be needed for relief work.

RAILWAY STOCKS LEAD IN TRADING

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, March 12.—The feature of the initial trading on the stock exchange today was the prominence of the railway issues. Union Pacific advanced 1½ to 137, and Reading 1⅝ to 95⅝. Substantial gains were also made in Lehigh Valley, Southern Railway, Southern Pacific and many other issues in this group. Gulf States Steel rose 4 points to 129½. Lackawanna Steel 2⅛ to 87 and Westinghouse a point to 52½. Steel Common rose ⅜ to 113¼, but lost this advance under moderate sales. The copper shares made moderate advances, with Chile Copper advancing ⅝ to 27⅝. American Smelting rose ⅜ to 107¼, and reacted to 106⅝.

Pennsy Seeking C. N. E. Road.

That the Pennsylvania Railroad is to acquire possession of the Central New England railroad, of the capital stock of which the New York, New Haven & Hartford owns more than 99 per cent, is the report in Poughkeepsie which persists despite lack of confirmation from any officials of the Central New England. It is rumored that the Central New England will pass under the control of the Pennsylvania as a consideration in the negotiations, which are being made to unite the Pennsylvania and New Haven systems more closely both financially and physically.

For Vicksburg Jubilee.

Civil War veterans are interested in the coming Vicksburg jubilee and reunion to be celebrated by all those who served in the Civil War from 1861 to 1865. The celebration will be held on the government domain within the Vicksburg National Military Park October 16, 17, 18 and 19.

GERARD MAY RELATE STARTLING STORY

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Havana, March, 12.—Startling revelations of German diplomatic intrigues will be made by James W. Gerard, former American ambassador, after he reports to Secretary of State Lansing and President Wilson, it was reported before the Gerard party sailed for Key West today.

Gerard's purpose, his friends said, is to furnish President Wilson with an effective weapon to combat the pacifist element in congress. His revelations, it is understood, will be given as much publicity as possible and will go a long ways toward clearing up any doubts in the United States of Germany's attitude. The former ambassador believes it to be his duty to inform the American public, members of his party declared, and will back up his statements with documentary evidence.

Gerard himself declined to submit to interviews when approached by newspaper men here, but several members of his party brought to Havana first hand information regarding internal conditions in Germany. They reported that Germany, threatened with starvation, is counting upon three factors to save her from defeat. These are:

An effective submarine campaign that will starve England into making peace.

A revolution in Russia.

Withdrawal of Italy from the war.

The new submarine war had been in operation only a few days when the ambassador and his party left Germany and none of the U-boats had returned with reports. But absolute confidence prevailed throughout the empire that the new warfare would bring England to her knees. Gerard will so report to President Wilson upon his arrival in Washington.

The German people, members of Gerard's party agreed, heard the news of the severance of diplomatic relations with the United States with the greatest indifference. They do not believe that the United States can become a real factor in the war. On the other hand they are watching closely internal conditions in Russia and Italy.

A revolution in Russia, or action for a separate peace, are confidently looked forward to in Berlin official circles. The German government is watching closely reports of food riots and demoralization of the Russion munitions and transportation system and unquestionably German agents are backing the peace propaganda in Petrograd. So confident are the Teutons that Russia can undertake no great offensive for many months that they have stripped the eastern front of men and guns and have massed them in the west to meet the expected spring offensive of the British.

German agents are also active in Italy, members of the Gerard party reported. The Germans believe effective submarine operations in the Mediterranean will cut off Italy's supply of coal and cause her munition factories to suspend operations and bring about Italy's defeat.

Kingston Youth in Trouble.

Thomas Johnson, formerly of Kingston, was brought to Walden by Chief of Police Ronk from Winsted, Conn., on a warrant sworn out by Eva Yorkes of Walden, who asserts the young man is the father of her baby born on New Year's day. Johnson had previously been arrested and was on parole. According to the Newburgh News, Johnson had been keeping company with another Walden girl to whom he had given a diamond ring on Christmas. This girl, with a girl chum, left Walden last Friday for Stamford, Conn., and through their movements the police were enabled to trace the fugitive. Johnson is 22 years of age and dark complexioned, his father being a colored man and his mother white. The family formerly resided near Rosendale.

Entertainment at South Rondout.

At the South Rondout M. E. Church, Friday, March 16, at 7:45 p. m., a St. Patrick's entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society. Beck, Furman and Beck, musical entertainers, will delight the audience with instrumental music in several selected numbers, and among other good things Samuel Tinnie of Port Ewen will entertain with his realistic impersonations of Harry Lauder. An enjoyable evening will be missed if you don't attend. The usual admission will be charged. After the entertainment ice cream will be on sale.

Crawford Under Indictment.

Samuel Oakley Crawford, also known as the Rev. Arthur Worthington, was indicted by the grand jury at Goshen Saturday as a fourth offender and upon conviction will be faced with imprisonment for the remainder of his life. Bail was fixed at $10,000. Crawford pleaded not guilty and said he was ready to be tried anywhere. He is in poor health.

Miscarriage of Justice.

Because the Orange county grand jury failed to indict Frank Mayette of Maybrook, District Attorney Hirschberg has asked permission to re-submit the case alleging a grave miscarriage of justice inasmuch as the other alleged violators of the excise law were indicted upon similar evidence.

FOOD RIOTS IN RUSSIAN CITIES

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Stockholm, March 12.—Serious food riots, coupled with peace demonstrations have occurred in both Petrograd and Moscow.

Cossacks charged with a wild mob that formed in the Russian capital Thursday night and wrecked butchers shops and in the melee a number of persons were injured. For more than an hour the mob raged. The tramway service was stopped, shops were smashed and parades went through the streets.

The Petrograd newspapers have been suppressed. General Chavaloff, military commander, has issued a proclamation, warning the people that the troops will shoot to kill if orders to move on are not obeyed.

No news has been received in Petrograd from Moscow for two days. It is feared that mobs are in control of the city and have interrupted telegraphic communication. Advices from Petrograd today said troops were being held in readiness to move to Moscow to suppress rioting.

Charges that food speculators have reaped enormous profits have incensed the people of Petrograd. Opponents of the government in the Duma have made bitter attacks upon officials responsible for the food distribution. Debate over the food question has resulted in hot clashes.

Only fragmentary reports on Thursday's food riots in Petrograd have reached Stockholm. The crowds formed in the afternoon and marched on several factories, demanding that all workers go on strike until the government provides food at reasonable prices. One factory, where the workmen failed to respond to the strike call was stoned and some of its smaller buildings wrecked by the rioters.

Several thousand women were in the mob when it began a parade through the principal thoroughfares. Cossacks rode across the street intersections, breaking the mob up into little groups and using whips freely.

STOLEN COAT GETS TWO IN TROUBLE

Harvey Delamater, Who Stole it, Got 60 Days in Albany Pen, and Julius Alcon, Who Bought it of Harvey, Pays $10 Fine.

An overcoat stolen from a Standard Oil Company drummer at the Eagle Hotel on Friday evening was the cause of Harvey Delamater, who stole it, being sentenced to the Albany pen for 60 days, and Julius Alcon of the Strand, who bought it of Harvey, paying a fine of $10 this morning in recorder's court when the matter came up for settlement before Recorder Lang.

Harvey was arrested Friday evening and on Saturday the case was adjourned until this morning. Harvey explained to the court that he had applied at the Eagle for a job and later left with the overcoat. Friday evening he went into Alcon's store on the Strand and told a tale of wanting to raise money to pay his hotel bill and asked Alcon if he would give him a couple of dollars for the overcoat. Finally after some dickering Alcon bought the coat for $1.30. Shortly after that Harvey was arrested by the police and made a confession. This led the police to notify Alcon to appear in court to explain how he got the overcoat, which was valued at about $20.

After hearing Harvey's story Recorder Lang sentenced Harvey to the pen, and immediately after disposing of Harvey's case Sergeant Phinney arraigned Alcon on a charge of receiving stolen goods. Alcon informed the court he did not know the coat had been stolen and told practically the same story as that related by Harvey regarding how he had come to purchase the coat. He said that Harvey had never sold him anything before but that he had sold Harvey clothing last year.

Recorder Lang fined Alcon the amount stated and warned him it would be the best policy hereafter when buying anything that looked somewhat suspicious to get in touch with the police and tell them about it.

Big Spool Sank in River.

A huge spool carrying 6,200 pounds of lead conduit and copper cable, worth $6,200, sank through the old wharf at the foot of Mill street, Poughkeepsie, Saturday afternoon and plans of the federal authorities to illuminate the Poughkeepsie bridge were delayed as a result. The spool will be raised today with the assistance of a diver in the employ of John A. Comerford and searchlights will soon illuminate the bridge structure now guarded by militiamen.

Failed to Pay Pool Tax.

It is said that nearly every fire company in Poughkeepsie and some of its private clubs have been found to be violating the law in having failed to pay the $5 annual tax to Collector Roscoe Irwin at Albany.

Twenty Home Defenders.

Twenty Poughkeepsie men have enrolled in the Home Defense League which is being formed as an auxiliary to the city's police department.

DETACHMENT NO. 3 AT NEW HURLEY.

THREE OFFICIALS ARE UNDER ARREST

Further Developments Expected as Result of John Doe Probe in Poughkeepsie—Held for Grand Jury Action.

Further developments are expected in the judicial probe which is underway of the Poughkeepsie city administration. Three city officials, George E. Irving, inspector of buildings; Albert C. Rust, president of the board of education; and James H. Slater, alderman from the Third ward, have been arrested on warrants issued by Justice Morschauser as the result of testimony taken in the probe and it is expected that others will follow.

The arrests of Messrs. Irving and Rust were made Saturday afternoon, they were arraigned before Justice Morschauser, pleaded not guilty to the charges, waived examination before the court, and were held in $250 bail each to await the action of the grand jury which meets in April. Alexander C. Dow appeared as Mr. Irving's counsel while Mr. Rust was represented by Frank D. Lown and Charles F. Cossum. John F. Ringwood is Alderman Slater's lawyer.

In the information of the district attorney upon which the warrant for the building inspector's arrest was issued, it is charged that he received a check for $534.55 for carpenter and repair work done on fire stations, the work being done, it is alleged, by the firm of Irving & Ackert, he was senior partner of the firm of which Javy Ackert was junior partner.

Mr. Rust it is alleged in the information upon which a warrant for his arrest was issued, received $1,189.44 for carpenter and repair work, the firm of W. H. Rust & Son, of which he was owner, did on the board of health building at 24 Washington street, and $92.72 for work done by the firm on the Adriance Memorial Library building. Friends of Mr. Rust assert that five city officials urged him to accept the work.

GUARDSMEN GET OFF LIGHT.

Pay and Privileges Forfeited as Result of Fighting.

Duncan L. Moore and Oscar W. Whiten, privates of Company K, were arraigned for sentence before a military court at the state armory on Saturday and given light sentences on their pleas of guilty. Both privates will forfeit 30 days' pay and in addition will relinquish all privileges for 20 days, according to the sentence imposed by the court. The sentence was announced by Colonel Klein, of the Tenth Regiment. The arrest and court-martial of the two privates resulted from a mix-up a week ago, in which the two privates, together with a civilian, a brother of Whiten, attacked Julian B. Hinds, a member of Company K, who was doing guard duty at the state armory. During the affair Hinds's rifle was discharged accidentally, the bullet embedding itself in the floor of the armory.

MacMillen's Hands Without Equal.

Francis Macmillen, the phenomenal violin virtuoso, who plays at the high school auditorium on Wednesday evening, March 14, bears the reputation of having a left hand which by reason of its peculiar form is said to be better adapted in playing the violin than that of and other violinist of repute. This distinction is well merited as it is doubtful if anyone else has a hand which is apparently moulded to the neck of the instrument so perfectly as that of Macmillen. Colossal works abounding in long reaches and almost impossible stretches are performed by Macmillen with as much ease as if he were playing a simple version of Home, Sweet Home. In fact his technical mastery of his instrument has long been the despair of his rivals. Macmillen will close the 1916-1917 series of concerts given by Harry P. Dodge of this city.

Suffragist in Mexican Congress.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Mexico City, March 12.—Miss Herlinda Galindo, a suffragist, was elected to the lower house of congress in yesterday's elections, it was announced today. It is estimated that General Carranza received more than 600,000 votes for the presidency. Only scattering votes were cast for his opponents, Francisco Garcia and Fernando Calderon.

STREET CAR STRIKE IN WASHINGTON

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, March 12.—Half of Washington walked to work today. In the early hours of the morning nearly 1,000 street car men employed by the Washington Railway and Electric Company walked out after President Clarence P. King had refused all offers to mediate the differences between them and the company.

Their places were immediately taken by more than six hundred strike breakers imported by the company, but its service was paralyzed during the rush hours.

One-half of the city's service was unimpaired—the lines operated by the Capitol Traction Company having compromised all differences with its employes.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

The remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Willard Couchman were taken on Saturday to Catskill and interred in the Thompson street cemetery.

The funeral of Noah LeFevre, who died on Wednesday in Poughkeepsie, was held at the Selfridge funeral chapel, Saturday. The Rev. Frederick S. Arnold, curate of Christ Church, officiated. The bearers were friends of the family. Interment was in the New Paltz cemetery.

The funeral of Sidney M. Terpening took place on Sunday from his late residence at Ulster Park and was largely attended. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Van Oostenbrugge. The remains were brought to Kingston for interment in Wiltwyck cemetery.

The remains of Eleazer Hornbeck, who died in Brooklyn last week, were brought to Kingston on Sunday and later interred in the Tongore cemetery. Mr. Hornbeck for several years was a resident of Kingston, occupying a house on Lafayette avenue, and had many friends in town.

Susan Bunt, widow of the late John Bunt, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph E. Palen, No. 96 St. James street. She is survived by one son, Charles Bunt, and one daughter, Harriet, wife of Joseph E. Palen. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mrs. Palen on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The interment will be in the St. Remy Cemetery.

Frank G. Eisenberg, formerly of this city, was killed in Brooklyn on Saturday. He was a son of Frank Eisenberg of this city and had made his home in Brooklyn for several years. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Jennie Tice of this city and one daughter, and also by his father and one sister, Mrs. John M. Kennedy of Downs street. The remains will be brought to Kingston and the interment will take place in Wiltwyck Cemetery on the arrival of the 2:25 o'clock West Shore train on Wednesday.

The funeral of Albert M. Cooper took place on Sunday afternoon from Trinity M. E. Church and was largely attended. His fellow employes of the W. J. Turck Company attended the funeral in a body and there were many beautiful floral tributes. The services were conducted by the Rev. P. C. Weyant, pastor of the church. The honorary bearers were members of the consistory of the church, and the active bearers were Wesley D. Hale, Albert Mauterstock, S. E. Eighmey, Alfred Tongue, Harry H. Flemming and Floyd S. Towne. The interment was in Montrepose cemetery.

City League Games.

The East Sides of the Y. M. C. A. still lead the City Bowling League. This evening three games are scheduled in the league. At the Y. M. C. A. the Elks will play the East Sides, the West Sides and St. Peter's No. 2 will bowl at St. Peter's alleys, and at the Elks alleys the Rondout Bowling Cub and St. Peter's No. 1 will clash.

Mr. Van Wagonen Ill.

The condition of John K. Van Wagonen, who is ill with pneumonia in Catskill, was reported Saturday as unchanged. Mrs. Van Wagonen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Beach, who were summoned from Florida, arrived in Catskill Saturday morning.

PLOT TO DESTROY U. S. NAVY YARD

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Philadelphia, March 12.—Destruction of the Philadelphia navy yard was plotted by a band of Teutonic conspirators, federal agents declared today following the arrest of Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert K. Fischer.

Sufficient explosives have been smuggled aboard the interned German raiders, Prinz Eithel Friedrich and Kronprinz Wilhelm to destroy the navy yard and menace the southern part of Philadelphia, the secret service men reported.

The disclosures were made after the arrest of the Fischers on a smuggling charge. In their home was found documentary evidence of German conspiracies extending throughout the nation and centering in Philadelphia.

Federal agents had made five arrests today, all on technical charges of "smuggling contraband" aboard the German raiders here. Those under arrest are Henry Roehner, a prominent German merchant; Adelbert K. Fischer, former German army officer, and son-in-law of Ad Koerting, "The Carnegie of Germany"; Mrs. Helen Fischer, and two employes of Roehner. Officers are attempting to locate Mrs. Paul Hespe, wife of Lieut. Hespe, one of the officers interned at the navy yard here. Mrs. Hespe is alleged to have made mysterious weekly trips to New York.

American naval secrets have been discovered by interned Germans at the navy yard here, the officers state, and have been communicated to German secret agents throughout the country by means of ciphers. Ship chronometers and the "clock cipher" have been used in giving German agents valuable information.

Philadelphia city officials are thoroughly aroused today and believing their city is threatened by the presence of the raiders and some several hundreds of interned sailors here they will ask Washington officials for the immediate removal of the interned vessels.

PLATTEKILL.

Plattekill, March 12.—A masquerade dance will be held in the Grange Hall Friday evening, March 17. Those who mask will have to remain with their masks on until 12 o'clock. A fine time is expected and a large assemblage is hoped for.

On account of the death of Miss Ethel Benedict's aunt, the exercises to be held in School District No. 1 were postponed until Wednesday afternoon of the past week. A fine attendance encouraged the children, who entertained their listeners extremely well. Rev. and Mrs. Roy Knight and Miss Emma Harris gave musical selections and Mrs. Knight sang. Recitations, dialogues and singing by the scholars gave the finishing touches to an extra fine program.

A change has been enacted in the schedule of local mails between this village and Newburgh. At present the mail carrier, Edward J. Birdsall, leaves Plattekill at 7 a. m. and returns from Newburgh 1:15 p. m. Under the new system the carrier has to live in Newburgh, so as to leave Newburgh at 9 a. m. and return at 2 p. m. Although this gives local people the advantage of earlier mails, it also takes away the convenience of shoppers and visitors to Newburgh who formerly took advantage of the convenient transportation.

O. B. Ronk and family moved their belongings to Orange Lake on Tuesday.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Robert Schaefer Tuesday afternoon.

Miss H. Augusta Gerow spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Gerow, in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Minard and baby daughter spent Sunday visiting relatives.

Mrs. Harry Gerow and daughter, Evelyn, enjoyed an auto ride to New Paltz with relatives Friday.

The repeated sounds of gasoline engines announce the sawing of local wood piles, so the people are preparing for the winter weather we are still having and enjoying.

Mrs. James B. Palmer recently fell over a foot stool and injured one of her eyes quite seriously.

Mrs. George Brewer, a former resident of this village, died in Newburgh several days ago.

Sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives of Fred Gans, who formerly lived in this place, and who died at his home in Highland Saturday.

Freeze May Cost a Foot.

Reuben Bailey was taken to the hospital in Kingston this week. Several weeks ago he froze his feet and the neglect of proper care left their condition such that it may be necessary to amputate all or part of one foot.—Pine Hill Sentinel.

C. of C. in Two Cities.

A complete industrial survey of Newburgh is to be made by its Chamber of Commerce. The Poughkeepsie chamber is planning to start an expansion campaign next week.

Kellerman Curriculum.

According to a new faculty edict, all Vassar students must learn to swim. A modern natatorium will replace the present small swimming pool.

MARLBOROUGH HAS SCHOOL BOARD ROW

Notice That Miss Yonker Would Not Re-engaged as Teacher Cause of Hostilities—Mr. Eckerson Resigns.

The village of Marlborough is in the throes of a battle between the parents and pupils of the high school on the one hand and the board of education on the other, which has thus far resulted in the resignation of one member of the board and may culminate in the resignation of the board as a whole, says the Newburgh News.

The dispute centers about action on the part of the board of education which many of the people of Marlborough consider "highanded," and have refused to accept. Recently, without apparent reason, the board sent a letter to Miss Frances Yonker, a teacher in the Marlborough high school, stating that after the close of the present term, the young lady would not be engaged again to teach.

Miss Yonker, who comes from Livingston Manor, has taught Latin and French in the high school for the past three years and has given the greatest satisfaction, it is said. Under her tuition, the scholars have passed their examinations with better marks than previously; apparently she has pleased parents and pupils alike and is regarded as highly capable and efficient. Miss Yonker, of course, requested that some reason be assigned for the summary action on the part of the board, but none was forthcoming.

Great indignation was felt by the Marlborough citizens with whom Miss Yonker is very popular, and immediately a number of petitions were sent about and signed by many residents of the village. The pupils themselves prepared a petition, while the parents also had one, urging that Miss Yonker be retained for the coming year. These petitions were presented about two weeks ago by Attorney John Rusk, at a meeting of the board, but no action was taken.

Will Make Things Hot.

The board of education includes W. Y. Velie, Cornelius Eckerson and H. S. Tuthill and the wrathy citizens of Marlborough have contrived to "make things so hot" for the board as one declared this morning, that Mr. Eckerson has presented his resignation. He has been on the board for the past six years. The other members feel that if they may not exercise their authority in this matter, the time has come for their resignations also.

The assertion was made today that members of the board wish to create a vacancy in the faculty of the high school that the position may be offered to Miss Irene Cotton, daughter of the Rev. George Cotton, the Presbyterian minister. The Rev. Cotton, has supplied the pulpit in Marlborough for the past year or so, having come from Kansas. His daughter is said to be qualified to teach languages, and it is understood the board thinks the position should be given to a local young lady in preference to an outsider. And here is where the two factions clash.

Friends of Miss Yonker, who seem to be in the majority declare they will not permit her dismissal without rhyme or reason.

David Taylor is principal of the high school, and it is said that Miss Yonker is considered next to him in point of capability. There are 10 teachers on the staff.

With wrath rankling in the pupils and their parents and determination glittering in the eyes of the school trustees, the next move is awaited on all sides with breathless interest.

METTACAHONTS.

Mettacahonts, March 12.—Miss Orpha Krom of Lee, Mass., is at present spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Krom.

Mrs. Eli Rider wishes to thank, through the columns of The Freeman, all those who helped or in any way assisted to make the supper of the Ladies' Aid Society a success at the schoolhouse on Friday evening. Among those who were faithful helpers were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kelder, Miss Sadie Simpson, Mrs. Josiah Krom, Mrs. Charles B. Osterhoudt and also Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Osterhoudt, Mrs. William Miller, Miss Carrie Depuy, Miss Blanche Markle, and to thank all those who, in any way helped. The proceeds from the supper and entertainment amounted to $32.94, clear of all expense.

Many from this place attended the oyster supper at the Whitfield school house on Friday evening, March 9. They report a good oyster supper and an enjoyable time all around.

"Colonel," the black and white hound dog of John Vandermark, is missing from home. Anyone seeing or knowing anything of the whereabouts of this dog will grant a favor by notifying the owner.

Miss Lulu Hendrickson is spending several days as the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hendrickson. Miss Hendrickson is greatly improved from her sickness of last fall. Her grandparents went to Accord on Wednesday and brought Miss Lulu to their home. She plans on returning home on Saturday.

William Dingy and family will move in the near future.

Eli Rider has his incubaters set for an early hatch of chickens.

The Kingston Daily Freeman.

VOL. XVLI.—No. 123. | CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 12, 1917. | PRICE TWO CENTS.

22 BODIES FOUND IN INDIANA TOWN

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New Castle, Ind., March 12.—New Castle, famed for its beautiful homes, was a city of death and ruins today. Dawn found hundreds of searchers combing the debris for the missing. Already 22 bodies had been recovered and it was believed as many more would be found under the wreckage. Militiamen from Muncie, Logansport and Crawfordsville were there to take charge of the work of rescue and relieve 200 special deputies of the work of policing the town made necessary by the discovery that looters, posing as rescuers, had seized upon the darkness to ply their ghastly work. Every house left standing upon its foundations, every church, every school building was in use as a hospital or a shelter for the hundreds of homeless, whose misery was added to by biting cold winds.

Throughout the long night the work of rescue had gone on in the midst of darkness, lighted only by lanterns and the headlights of automobiles. The plant supplying New Castle with electric light was demoralized by the tornado and gas had been shut off in the fear that fire would add its horror to the tragedy.

New Castle lies in a small pocket 45 miles northeast of Indianapolis. On the north, the west and the south it is flanked by hills. Apparently the air currents were attracted by the depression and from the hills many persons watched the tornado wreak its fury without danger to themselves.

The tornado broke unheralded save by lowering clouds and a sprinkle of rain. Suddenly it broke into a violent downpour and from the west the huge, funnel-shaped cloud bore down upon the city. Hundreds of persons were on the street as the tornado's roar betokened its coming. It hit the town squarely, demolished the few first houses in its path, lifted to miss the main section of the business district, taking a few roofs in its passage, then dived again and laid low every house in a trip five blocks wide.

Panic followed in the wake of the storm. Five minutes after it struck it had gone, but a drenching rain continued.

Hundreds who had escaped the tornado rushed frantically to the south side where the worst damage occurred. Despite the rain fire broke out in several places and had gained headway before the fire department, hampered by telephone poles and trees which strewed the streets, could reach them. The damage from the flames was small, however.

From every direction, by vehicle, in autos and afoot, farmers from the surrounding country began coming into town and joined the rescuers. City authorities took charge of things, homes and other buildings were thrown open for the homeless and injured and the bodies of the dead were gathered up and placed in temporary morgues.

But while all of New Castle mourned, determined citizens began the work of reconstruction.

Mayor J. Leb Watkins, with his home a mass of ruins, but happy because he and his family had escaped injury or death, directed citizens' committees in their work. He shut off the gas and coal to prevent fire. He supervised the work of a relief committee which will help the needy, he mobilized the workers from the factories and stores to clean up the wreckage, and restore order. It was estimated $100,000 would be needed for relief work.

RAILWAY STOCKS LEAD IN TRADING

By Telegraph to The Freeman

New York, March 12.—The feature of the initial trading on the stock exchange today was the prominence of the railway issues. Union Pacific advanced 1½ to 137, and Reading 1⅝ to 95⅞. Substantial gains were also made in Lehigh Valley, Southern Railway, Southern Pacific and many other issues in this group. Gulf States Steel rose 4 points to 125½. Lackawanna Steel 2⅛ to 87 and Westinghouse a point to 52½. Steel Common rose ⅞ to 113¼, but lost this advance under moderate sales. The copper shares made moderate advances, with Chile Copper advancing ⅝ to 27⅞. American Smelting rose ⅞ to 107¼, and reacted to 105⅞.

Pennsy Seeking C. N. E. Road.

That the Pennsylvania Railroad is to acquire possession of the Central New England railroad, of the capital stock of which the New York, New Haven & Hartford owns more than 90 per cent, is the report in Poughkeepsie which persists despite lack of confirmation from any officials of the Central New England. It is rumored that the Central New England will pass under the control of the Pennsylvania as a consideration in the negotiations, which are being made to unite the Pennsylvania and New Haven systems more closely both financially and physically.

For Vicksburg Jubilee.

Civil War veterans are interested in the coming Vicksburg jubilee and reunion to be celebrated by all those who served in the Civil War from 1861 to 1865. The celebration will be held on the government domain within the Vicksburg National Military Park October 16, 17, 18 and 19.

GERARD MAY RELATE STARTLING STORY

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Havana, March, 12.—Startling revelations of German diplomatic intrigues will be made by James W. Gerard, former American ambassador, after he reports to Secretary of State Lansing and President Wilson. It was reported before the Gerard party sailed for Key West today.

Gerard's purpose, his friends said, is to furnish President Wilson with an effective weapon to combat the pacifist element in congress. His revelations, it is understood, will be given as much publicity as possible and will go a long ways toward clearing up any doubts in the United States of Germany's attitude. The former ambassador believes it to be his duty to inform the American public, members of his party declared, and will back up his statements with documentary evidence.

Gerard himself declined to submit to interviews when approached by newspaper men here, but several members of his party brought to Havana first hand information regarding internal conditions in Germany. They reported that Germany, threatened with starvation, is counting upon three factors to save her from defeat. These are:

An effective submarine campaign that will starve England into making peace.

A revolution in Russia.

Withdrawal of Italy from the war.

The new submarine war had been in operation only a few days when the ambassador and his party left Germany and none of the U-boats had returned with reports. But absolute confidence prevailed throughout the empire that the new warfare would bring England to her knees. Gerard will so report to President Wilson upon his arrival in Washington.

The German people, members of Gerard's party agreed, heard the news of the severance of diplomatic relations with the United States with the greatest indifference. They do not believe that the United States can become a real factor in the war. On the other hand they are watching closely internal conditions in Russia and Italy.

A revolution in Russia, or action for a separate peace, are confidently looked forward to in Berlin official circles. The German government is watching closely reports of food riots and demoralization of the Russian munitions and transportation system and unquestionably German agents are backing the peace propaganda in Petrograd. So confident are the Teutons that Russia can undertake no great offensive for many months that they have stripped the eastern front of men and guns and have massed them in the west to meet the expected spring offensive of the British.

German agents are also active in Italy, members of the Gerard party reported. The Germans believe effective submarine operations in the Mediterranean will cut off Italy's supply of coal and cause her munition factories to suspend operations and bring about Italy's defeat.

Kingston Youth in Trouble.

Thomas Johnson, formerly of Kingston, was brought to Walden by Chief of Police Bonk from Winsted, Conn., on a warrant sworn out by Eva Yorkes of Walden, who asserts the young man is the father of her baby born on New Year's day. Johnson had previously been arrested and was on parole. According to the Newburgh News, Johnson had been keeping company with another Walden girl to whom he had given a diamond ring on Christmas. This girl, with a girl chum, left Walden last Friday for Stamford, Conn., and through their movements the police were enabled to trace the fugitive. Johnson is 22 years of age and dark complexioned, his father being a colored man and his mother white. The family formerly resided near Rosendale.

Entertainment at South Rondout.

At the South Rondout M. E. Church, Friday, March 16, at 7:45 p. m., a St. Patrick's entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society. Leck, Furman and Beck, musical entertainers, will delight the audience with instrumental music in several selected numbers, and among other good things Samuel Tinnie of Port Ewen will entertain with his realistic impersonations of Harry Lauder. An enjoyable evening will be missed if you don't attend. The usual admission will be charged. After the entertainment ice cream will be on sale.

Crawford Under Indictment.

Samuel Oakley Crawford, also known as the Rev. Arthur Worthington, was indicted by the grand jury at Goshen Saturday as a fourth offender and upon conviction will be faced with imprisonment for the remainder of his life. Bail was fixed at $10,000. Crawford pleaded not guilty and said he was ready to be tried anywhere. He is in poor health.

Miscarriage of Justice.

Because the Orange county grand jury failed to indict Frank Mayette of Maybrook, District Attorney Hirschberg has asked permission to re-submit the case alleging a grave miscarriage of justice inasmuch as the other alleged violators of the excise law were indicted upon similar evidence.

FOOD RIOTS IN RUSSIAN CITIES

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Stockholm, March 12.—Serious food riots, coupled with peace demonstrations have occurred in both Petrograd and Moscow.

Cossacks charged with a wild mob that formed in the Russian capital Thursday night and wrecked butchers shops and in the melee a number of persons were injured. For more than an hour the mob raged. The tramway service was stopped, shops were smashed and parades went through the streets.

The Petrograd newspapers have been suppressed. General Chavaloff, military commander, has issued a proclamation, warning the people that the troops will shoot to kill if orders to move on are not obeyed.

No news has been received in Petrograd from Moscow for two days. It is feared that mobs are in control of the city and have interrupted telegraphic communication. Advices from Petrograd today said troops were being held in readiness to move to Moscow to suppress rioting.

Charges that food speculators have reaped enormous profits have incensed the people of Petrograd. Opponents of the government in the Duma have made bitter attacks upon officials responsible for the food distribution. Debate over the food question has resulted in hot clashes.

Only fragmentary reports on Thursday's food riots in Petrograd have reached Stockholm. The crowds formed in the afternoon and marched on several factories, demanding that all workers go on strike until the government provides food at reasonable prices. One factory, where the workmen failed to respond to the strike call was stoned and some of its smaller buildings wrecked by the rioters.

Several thousand women were in the mob when it began a parade through the principal thoroughfares. Cossacks rode across the street intersections, breaking the mob up into little groups and using whips freely.

STOLEN COAT GETS TWO IN TROUBLE

Harvey Delamater, Who Stole it, Got 60 Days in Albany Pen, and Julius Alcon, Who Bought it of Harvey, Pays $10 Fine.

An overcoat stolen from a Standard Oil Company drummer at the Eagle Hotel on Friday evening was the cause of Harvey Delamater, who stole it, being sentenced to the Albany pen for 60 days, and Julius Alcon of the Strand, who bought it of Harvey, paying a fine of $10 this morning in recorder's court when the matter came up for settlement before Recorder Lang.

Harvey was arrested Friday evening and on Saturday the case was adjourned until this morning. Harvey explained to the court that he had applied at the Eagle for a job and later left with the overcoat. Friday evening he went into Alcon's store on the Strand and told a tale of wanting to raise money to pay his hotel bill and asked Alcon if he would give him a couple of dollars for the overcoat. Finally after some dickering Alcon bought the coat for $1.30. Shortly after that Harvey was arrested by the police and made a confession. This led the police to notify Alcon to appear in court to explain how he got the overcoat, which was valued at about $20.

After hearing Harvey's story Recorder Lang sentenced Harvey to the pen, and immediately after disposing of Harvey's case Sergeant Phinney arraigned Alcon on a charge of receiving stolen goods. Alcon informed the court he did not know the coat had been stolen and told practically the same story as that related by Harvey regarding how he had come to purchase the coat. He said that Harvey had never sold him anything before but that he had sold Harvey clothing last year.

Recorder Lang fined Alcon the amount stated and warned him it would be the best policy hereafter when buying anything that looked somewhat suspicious to get in touch with the police and tell them about it.

Big Spool Sank in River.

A huge spool carrying 6,200 pounds of lead conduit and copper cable, worth $6,200, sank through the old wharf at the foot of Mill street, Poughkeepsie, Saturday afternoon and plans of the federal authorities to illuminate the Poughkeepsie bridge were delayed as a result. The spool will be raised today with the assistance of a diver in the employ of John A. Comerford and searchlights will soon illuminate the bridge structure now guarded by militiamen.

Failed to Pay Pool Tax.

It is said that nearly every fire company in Poughkeepsie and some of its private clubs have been found to be violating the law in having failed to pay the $5 annual tax to Collector Roscoe Irwin at Albany.

Twenty Home Defenders.

Twenty Poughkeepsie men have enrolled in the Home Defense League which is being formed as an auxiliary to the city's police department.

DETACHMENT NO. 3 AT NEW HURLEY.

THREE OFFICIALS ARE UNDER ARREST

Further Developments Expected as Result of John Doe Probe in Poughkeepsie—Held for Grand Jury Action.

Further developments are expected in the judicial probe which is underway of the Poughkeepsie city administration. Three city officials, George E. Irving, inspector of buildings; Albert C. Rust, president of the board of education; and James H. Slater, alderman from the Third ward, have been arrested on warrants issued by Justice Merschauser as the result of testimony taken in the probe and it is expected that others will follow.

The arrests of Messrs Irving and Rust were made Saturday afternoon, they were arraigned before Justice Morschauser, pleaded not guilty to the charges, waived examination before the court, and were held in $250 bail each to await the action of the grand jury which meets in April. Alexander C. Dow appeared as Mr. Irving's counsel while Mr. Rust was represented by Frank D. Lown and Charles F. Cossum. John F. Ringwood is Alderman Slater's lawyer.

In the information of the district attorney upon which the warrant for the building inspector's arrest was issued, it is charged that he received a check for $534.55 for carpenter and repair work done on fire stations, the work being done it is alleged, by the firm of Irving & Ackert, he was senior partner of the firm of which Javy Ackert was junior partner.

Mr. Rust it is alleged in the information upon which a warrant for his arrest was issued, received $1,189.44 for carpenter and repair work, the firm of W. H. Rust & Son, of which he was owner, did on the board of health building at 24 Washington street, and $92.72 for work done by the firm on the Adriance Memorial Library building. Friends of Mr. Rust assert that five city officials urged him to accept the work.

GUARDSMEN GET OFF LIGHT.

Pay and Privileges Forfeited as Result of Fighting.

Duncan L. Moore and Oscar W. Whiten, privates of Company K, were arraigned for sentence before a military court at the state armory on Saturday and given light sentences on their pleas of guilty. Both privates will forfeit 30 days' pay and in addition will relinquish all privileges for 20 days, according to the sentence imposed by the court. The sentence was announced by Colonel Klein, of the Tenth Regiment. The arrest and court-martial of the two privates resulted from a mix-up a week ago, in which the two privates, together with a civilian, a brother of Whiten, attacked Julian B. Hinds, a member of Company K, who was doing guard duty at the state armory. During the affair Hinds's rifle was discharged accidentally, the bullet embedding itself in the floor of the armory.

MacMillen's Hands Without Equal.

Francis Macmillen, the phenomenal violin virtuoso, who plays at the high school auditorium on Wednesday evening, March 14, bears the reputation of having a left hand which by reason of its peculiar form is said to be better adapted in playing the violin than that of and other violinist of repute. This distinction is well merited as it is doubtful if anyone else has a hand which is apparently moulded to the neck of the instrument so perfectly as that of Macmillen. Colossal works abounding in long reaches and almost impossible stretches are performed by Macmillen with as much ease as if he were playing a simple version of Home, Sweet Home. In fact his technical mastery of his instrument has long been the despair of his rivals. Macmillen will close the 1916-1917 series of concerts given by Harry P. Dodge of this city.

Suffragist in Mexican Congress.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Mexico City, March 12.—Miss Herlinda Galindo, a suffragist, was elected to the lower house of congress in yesterday's elections. It was announced today. It is estimated that General Carranza received more than 600,000 votes for the presidency. Only scattering votes were cast for his opponents, Francisco Garcia and Fernando Calderon.

STREET CAR STRIKE IN WASHINGTON

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, March 12.—Half of Washington walked to work today. In the early hours of the morning nearly 1,000 street car men employed by the Washington Railway and Electric Company walked out after President Clarence P. King had refused all offers to mediate the differences between them and the company.

Their places were immediately taken by more than six hundred strike breakers imported by the company, but its service was paralyzed during the rush hours.

One-half of the city's service was unimpaired—the lines operated by the Capitol Traction Company having compromised all differences with its employes.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

The remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Willard Couchman were taken on Saturday to Catskill and interred in the Thompson street cemetery.

The funeral of Noah LeFevre, who died on Wednesday in Poughkeepsie, was held at the Selfridge funeral chapel, Saturday. The Rev. Frederick S. Arnold, curate of Christ Church, officiated. The bearers were [illegible] Interment was in the New Paltz cemetery.

The funeral of Sidney M. Terpening took place on Sunday from his late residence at Ulster Park and was largely attended. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Van Oostenbrugge. The remains were brought to Kingston for interment in Wiltwyck cemetery.

The remains of Eleazer Hornbeck, who died in Brooklyn last week, were brought to Kingston on Sunday and later interred in the Tongore cemetery. Mr. Hornbeck for several years was a resident of Kingston, occupying a house on Lafayette avenue, and had many friends in town.

Susan Bunt, widow of the late John Bunt, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph E. Palen, No. 36 St. James street. She is survived by one son, Charles Bunt, and one daughter, Harriet, wife of Joseph E. Palen. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mrs. Palen on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The interment will be in the St. Remy Cemetery.

Frank G. Eisenberg, formerly of this city, was killed in Brooklyn on Saturday. He was a son of Frank Eisenberg of this city and had made his home in Brooklyn for several years. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Jennie Tice of this city and one daughter, and also by his father and one sister, Mrs. John M. Kennedy of Downs street. The remains will be brought to Kingston and the interment will take place in Wiltwyck Cemetery on the arrival of the 2:25 o'clock West Shore train on Wednesday.

The funeral of Albert M. Conner took place on Sunday afternoon from Trinity M. E. Church and was largely attended. His fellow employes of the W. J. Turck Company attended the funeral in a body and there were many beautiful floral tributes. The services were conducted by the Rev. P. C. Weyant, pastor of the church. The honorary bearers were members of the consistory of the church, and the active bearers were Wesley D. Hale, Albert Mauterstock, S. E. Eighmey, Alfred Tongue, Harry H. Flemming and Floyd S. Towne. The interment was in Montrepose cemetery.

City League Games.

The East Sides of the Y. M. C. A. still lead the City Bowling League. This evening three games are scheduled in the league. At the Y. M. C. A. the Elks will play the East Sides, the West Sides and St. Peter's No. 2 will bowl at St. Peter's alleys, and at the Elks alleys the Rondout Bowling Cub and St. Peter's No. 1 will clash.

Mr. Van Wagonen Ill.

The condition of John K. Van Wagonen, who is ill with pneumonia in Catskill, was reported Saturday as unchanged. Mrs. Van Wagonen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Beach, who were summoned from Florida, arrived in Catskill Saturday morning.

PLOT TO DESTROY U. S. NAVY YARD

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Philadelphia, March 12.—Destruction of the Philadelphia navy yard was plotted by a band of Teutonic conspirators, federal agents declared today following the arrest of Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert K. Fischer.

Sufficient explosives have been smuggled aboard the interned German raiders, Prinz Eithel Friedrich and Kronprinz Wilhelm to destroy the navy yard and menace the southern part of Philadelphia, the secret service men reported.

The disclosures were made after the arrest of the Fischers on a smuggling charge. In their home was found documentary evidence of German conspiracies extending throughout the nation and centering in Philadelphia.

Federal agents had made five arrests today, all on technical charges of "smuggling contraband" aboard the German raiders here. Those under arrest are Henry Roehner, a prominent German merchant; Adelbert K. Fischer, former German army officer, and son-in-law of Ad Koerting, "The Carnegie of Germany"; Mrs. Helen Fischer, and two employes of Roehner. Officers are attempting to locate Mrs. Paul Hespe, wife of Lieut. Hespe, one of the officers interned at the navy yard here. Mrs Hespe is alleged to have made mysterious weekly trips to New York.

American naval secrets have been discovered by interned Germans at the navy yard here, the officers state, and have been communicated to German secret agents throughout the country by means of ciphers. Ship chronometers and the "clock cipher" have been used in giving German agents valuable information.

Philadelphia city officials are thoroughly aroused today and believing their city is threatened by the presence of the raiders and some several hundreds of interned sailors here they will ask Washington officials for the immediate removal of the interned vessels.

PLATTEKILL.

Plattekill, March 12.—A masquerade dance will be held in the Grange Hall Friday evening, March 17. Those who mask will have to remain with their masks on until 12 o'clock. A fine time is expected and a large assemblage is hoped for.

On account of the death of Miss Ethel Benedict's aunt, the exercises to be held in School District No. 1 were postponed until Wednesday afternoon of the past week. A fine attendance encouraged the children, who entertained their listeners extremely well. Rev. and Mrs. Roy Knight and Miss Emma Harris gave musical selections and Mrs. Knight sang. Recitations, dialogues and singing by the scholars gave the finishing touches to an extra fine program.

A change has been enacted in the schedule of local mails between this village and Newburgh. At present the mail carrier, Edward J. Birdsall, leaves Plattekill at 7 a. m. and returns from Newburgh 1:15 p. m. Under the new system the carrier has to live in Newburgh, so as to leave Newburgh at 9 a. m. and return at 2 p. m. Although this gives local people the advantage of earlier mails, it also takes away the convenience of shoppers and visitors to Newburgh who formerly took advantage of the convenient transportation.

O. B. Ronk and family moved their belongings to Orange Lake on Tuesday.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Robert Schaefer Tuesday afternoon.

Miss H. Augusta Gerow spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Gerow, in this place.

Mr. and Mrs J. Arthur Minard and baby daughter spent Sunday visiting relatives.

Mrs. Harry Gerow and daughter, Evelyn, enjoyed an auto ride to New Paltz with relatives Friday.

The repeated sounds of gasoline engines announce the sawing of local wood piles, so the people are preparing for the winter weather we are still having and enjoying.

Mrs. James B. Palmer recently fell over a foot stool and injured one of her eyes quite seriously.

Mrs. George Brewer, a former resident of this village, died in Newburgh several days ago.

Sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives of Fred Gans, who formerly lived in this place, and who died at his home in Highland Saturday.

Freeze May Cost a Foot.

Reuben Bailey was taken to the hospital in Kingston this week. Several weeks ago he froze his feet and the neglect of proper care left their condition such that it may be necessary to amputate all or part of one foot.—Pine Hill Sentinel.

C. of C. in Two Cities.

A complete industrial survey of Newburgh is to be made by its Chamber of Commerce. The Poughkeepsie chamber is planning to start an expansion campaign next week.

Kellerman Curriculum.

According to a new faculty edict, all Vassar students must learn to swim. A modern natatorium will replace the present small swimming pool.

MARLBOROUGH HAS SCHOOL BOARD ROW

Notice That Miss Yonker Would Not Re-engaged as Teacher Cause of Hostilities—Mr. Eckerson Resigns.

The village of Marlborough is in the throes of a battle between the parents and pupils of the high school on the one hand and the board of education on the other, which has thus far resulted in the resignation of one member of the board and may culminate in the resignation of the board as a whole, says the Newburgh News.

The dispute centers about action on the part of the board of education which many of the people of Marlborough consider "highanded," and have refused to accept. Recently, without apparent reason, the board sent a letter to Miss Frances Yonker, a teacher in the Marlborough high school, stating that after the close of the present term, the young lady would not be engaged again to teach.

Miss Yonker, who comes from Livingston Manor, has taught Latin and French in the high school for the past three years and has given the greatest satisfaction, it is said. Under her tuition, the scholars have passed their examinations with better marks than previously; apparently she has pleased parents and pupils alike and is regarded as highly capable and efficient. Miss Yonker, of course, requested that some reason be assigned for the summary action on the part of the board, but none was forthcoming.

Great indignation was felt by the Marlborough citizens with whom Miss Yonker is very popular, and immediately a number of petitions were sent about and signed by many residents of the village. The pupils themselves prepared a petition, while the parents also had one, urging that Miss Yonker be retained for the coming year. These petitions were presented about two weeks ago by Attorney John Rusk, at a meeting of the board, but no action was taken.

Will Make Things Hot.

The board of education includes W. Y. Velie, Cornelius Eckerson and H. S. Tuthill and the wrathy citizens of Marlborough have contrived to "make things so hot" for the board as one declared this morning, that Mr. Eckerson has presented his resignation. He has been on the board, for the past six years. The other members feel that if they may not exercise their authority in this matter, the time has come for their resignations also.

The assertion was made today that members of the board wish to create a vacancy in the faculty of the high school that the position may be offered to Miss Irene Cotton, daughter of the Rev. George Cotton, the Presbyterian minister. The Rev. Cotton, has supplied the pulpit in Marlborough for the past year or so, having come from Kansas. His daughter is said to be qualified to teach languages, and it is understood the board thinks the position should be given to a local young lady in preference to an outsider. And here is where the two factions clash.

Friends of Miss Yonker, who seem to be in the majority declare they will not permit her dismissal without rhyme or reason.

David Taylor is principal of the high school, and it is said that Miss Yonker is considered next to him in point of capability. There are 10 teachers on the staff.

With wrath rankling in the pupils and their parents and determination glittering in the eyes of the school trustees, the next move is awaited on all sides with breathless interest.

METTACAHONTS.

Mettacahonts, March 12.—Miss Orpha Krom of Lee, Mass., is at present spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Krom.

Mrs. Eli Rider wishes to thank, through the columns of The Freeman, all those who helped or in any way assisted to make the supper of the Ladies' Aid Society a success at the schoolhouse on Friday evening. Among those who were faithful helpers were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kelder, Miss Sadie Simpson, Mrs. Josiah Krom, Mrs. Charles B. Osterhoudt and also Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Osterhoudt, Mrs. William Miller, Miss Carrie Depuy, Miss Blanche Markle, and to thank all those who in any way helped. The proceeds from the supper and entertainment amounted to $32.94, clear of all expense.

Many from this place attended the oyster supper at the Whitfield school house on Friday evening, March 9. They report a good oyster supper and an enjoyable time all around.

"Colonel," the black and white hound dog of John Vandermark, is missing from home. Anyone seeing or knowing anything of the whereabouts of this dog will grant a favor by notifying the owner.

Miss Lulu Hendrickson is spending several days as the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hendrickson. Miss Hendrickson is greatly improved from her sickness of last fall. Her grandparents went to Accord on Wednesday and brought Miss Lulu to their home. She plans on returning home on Saturday.

William Dubry and family will move in the near future.

Eli Rider has his incubators set for an early batch of chickens.

Doings of the Van Loons- with the present prices most anyone will give it a trial.

By F. Leipziger

THE question of the hour is: "Shall the privileges of the sober man be suborinated in a vain endeavor to reform the drunkard?"

We refer to present agitation of the saloon-liquor-license question. It is a subject that will not permit of narrow-mindedness or hypocrisy. A majority of the American liberty-loving people want pure beer like

Old Stock Lager

Ten per cent of the workingmen in the larger cities have beer with their lunches. Life hasn't much cheer for them, and they find solace in a pint of beer. The men who do not care to frequent saloons keep beer in their homes. It is a national beverage from which only goodness is derived if sensibly used.

PETER BARMANN Telephone 66 KINGSTON, N. Y.

MAN

A Clean Head and a Clear Head

IS WHAT

YOU NEED IN BUSINESS

"Bitter-Sweet" Shampoo will do the first trick.

Your 8 oz. bottle, 65c or at your barber's.

Fresh air, deep breathing. Right thinking will do the rest. Yours for the taking.

Try Them All Today

R. A. Straub & Son,
Box 874, Kingston, N. Y.

NATIONAL ULSTER COUNTY BANK
OLDEST BANK IN ULSTER COUNTY
A CORDIAL GREETING
awaits you at the National Ulster County Bank, where our officers will be pleased to welcome you and explain our improved facilities for handling your banking business with accuracy and dispatch.
Accounts subject to check are invited.
WALL STREET
KINGSTON, N. Y.

WANTED

Excellent opportunities offered experienced operators on all parts of shirt.

Beginners paid well. Fine chances for advancement. Steady Work.

Fuller's Shirt Factory
45-47 Pine Grove Ave.,
Kingston, N. Y.

RUTGERS ALUMNI REUNION DINNER

Dean Bevier to be Present at Banquet at the Stuyvesant on Friday Evening and Talk on Endowment Fund.

The following notice has been sent to all graduates of Rutgers College residing in Ulster county:

A Rutgers Alumni Reunion Dinner will be given at the Stuyvesant Hotel, Kingston, N. Y., at 7:30 o'clock p. m., on Friday, March 16, 1917. We hope to have a full attendance of our alumni in Kingston and vicinity. Will you try to keep that evening clear of every other engagement, and be sure to be present. Please send your acceptance to H. R. DeWitt.

Dr. Bevier, the dean of Rutgers, will be present and will give a report concerning the progress of the Endowment Fund, and the present conditions of the college. This dinner is given by the college and no tickets are needed but we must know in advance how many covers to order.

G. D. B. HASBROUCK,
HOWARD GILLESPY,
H. R. DEWITT,
Committee.

Already a number of acceptances have been received and a large attendance is anticipated.

ESOPUS.

Esopus, March 12.—Friends of J. Hadley will be sorry to learn that he suffered another stroke of apoplexy on Wednesday of last week. His physician, Dr. Ross, was obliged to resort to blood letting, and althouh weak from the loss of blood, Mr. Hadley is at present resting quite comfortably.

J. P. Ganoung has been confined to his home with a severe cold during the greater part of last week.

The Rev. R. M. Roberts and daughter-in-law visited the Rev. and Mrs. William H. Austin at Middlehope on Thursday last.

On Thursday of this week Mrs. Calvin Cole received a message announcing the sudden death of her brother, John Lund, of Chicago. Full particulars have not been obtained as yet.

John L. Schultz and the Rev. Samuel Bullen attended the seventh annual banquet of the Ulster County Citizens' League held at the sanitarium of Dr. C. O. Sahler, Kingston, on Tuesday of last week. They report a very enjoyable and profitable time.

William Witt, who for some time past, has acted as clerk in the grocery store of Hasbrouck Freer in this village, has purchased a grocery business in New York city, and with Mrs. Witt left for that city on Wednesday of last week. The store is situated on 36th street, just off 10th avenue, and was formerly owned and conducted by an uncle of Mr. Witt. Mr. Witt's friends wish him success in his new venture.

Mrs. Frank Cole has been spending a few days in Union Center visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Augustus Cole, and cousin, Mrs. Corbey.

The Pine Bark Beetle.

An insect less than a quarter of an inch long that may cause the death of large pine trees, is described in Cornell bulletin 383 recently issued by the college of agriculture. It has been found attacking white and pitch pines and is known to work also in pruce and larch, and to be widely distributed in many of the northern states.

The larva is a small white grub and, like the beetle, works in the cambium of the tree just inside the bark, making galleries and chambers in the wood. In the living tree the presence of the beetle may be indicated by "pitch tubes" through which the beetle pushes out the sawdust that results from its gallery making. The tree tries to close this exit with pitch with the result that the so called pitch tubes become prominent spots on the tree trunk.

The beetle may attack living trees but usually confines itself to dying or recently dead trees, and its attacks open the way for fungus disease and for other insects. A wet season is hard on the beetles and also aids fungi which prey on them; black carpenter ants may also destroy the beetles. In the case of felled logs removal of the bark will cause the death of all larva of the beetle and burning the bark will kill the adults.

This bulletin is said to be of interest only to entomologists and foresters and is not issued for general distribution. Requests from research workers will be filled as long as the limited edition lasts. Address the New York State College of Agriculture, Ithaca, New York.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

Deeds Recently Recorded in County Clerk's Office.

The following deeds have been filed in the office of the county clerk:

Samuel H. Shultis and wife of the town of Woodstock to Carl L. Jellingham of New York city, a parcel of land in the town of Woodstck. Consideration $2,200.

Sherman Anderson and wife of the town of Denning to Nancy M. Bunton of the same place, a parcel of land in the town of Denning. Consideration $1.

Sarah Ferguson of New York city executor of the will of Alexander Ferguson, formerly of the town of Plattekill, to Mary Ostrander of New York city, a parcel of land in the town of Plattekill. Consideration $1.

Joseph Zelt and others to Henry Zelt of New York city, a parcel of land in the city of Kingston. Consideration $1.

William E. Woodend and wife of the town of Wawarsing to Edith Crawford Moore of New York city, a parcel of land in the town of Brownsville, Ulster county. Consideration $1.

Moran School News.

With a view to "encouraging speed by discouraging inaccuracy," the Moran Business School is taking an active interest in the award plans of the various typewriter companies. Handsomely engraved certificates are being awarded to all students who are successful in meeting the requirements of tests held in the typewriting department.

A very satisfactory report was received recently from Richard F. O'Neil, son of James E. O'Neil, Crown street, who was one of the first students to enroll at the Moran School. Mr. O'Neil is making good as secretary to the manager of Sonneborn Sons, Inc., 262 Pearl street, New York city, a position requiring tact and good judgment in a large degree.

Several calls for Moran-trained stenographers and bookkeepers were received within the past week and the names of successful applicants will be published in due time. The demand for Moran graduates continues to increase with each succeeding month.

Louis Lastra, who pursued the commercial course, has secured a splendid position with a well known wholesale house in New York city. His position carries with it a considerable amount of responsibility, as well as a large salary.

The attendance record for 1917 has been the largest in the history of the school. The time is drawing near for the opening of the spring term, a very pleasant season in which to enter. And it goes without saying that the young people of Kingston and vicinity will avail themselves of this opportunity by enrolling at the Moran Business School.

Aviation Base in Dutchess.

A great aviation base for the defence of New York city has been selected in Dutchess county and negotiations are now in progress for the transfer of the William Taylor property at Dover Plains to the government at a price to be $60,000 to $75,000. There are 600 acres in the farm, which lies in a level stretch between the village of Dover Plains and the foot of Plymouth Hill.

Unclaimed Letters

List of unclaimed matter advertised at Kingston, N. Y. Week ending March 12, 1917:

Ackerman, Mrs. Inez
Barry, John
Buckley, Mrs. Mgt.
Bohenhauser, Cecilia
Crowe, Miss Ora
Dingnan, Miss Margaret. Care Mrs. Jno. Lackey, Jr.
Delamater, Irving Hasbrouck
Delamater, Mrs. Milton
France, Alexander
Hunting, Mrs. Robert Kerr
Haynes, Ada
Heard, Harry
Kelser, J. M.
Lereich, Charles
Lane, Albert
Minty, Dr.
Parker, R. S.
Richards, Mrs. J. R.
Sohley, Alfred
Tefft, Edmond
Von Sabler, Louis Hasbrouck

Published in the Kingston Daily Freeman under the law of congress giving the publication of the list of letters to the newspaper having the largest circulation.

ASK FOR and GET
Horlick's
The Original
Malted Milk
Substitutes Cost YOU Same Price.

SCOTT'S EMULSION DRIVES OUT COLDS

METTACAHONTS.

Mettacahonts, March 10.—The Willing Workers met at the home of Mrs. Jacob Baker on Saturday afternoon, March 3, and the meeting was largely attended, and had two visitors, Mrs. Simon Hornbeck of Whitfield and Mrs. Alex Brown of Leibhardt, also one new member joined us. The next monthly meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Elias P. Osterhoudt on April 7. All members are invited to be present, as there will be important work to do.

Miss Lulu Hendrickson of Accord is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hendrickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Oakley of Stone Ridge are visiting at the home of their mother, Mrs. Joe Miller.

Friends of Jacob Markle are glad to hear he is improring, under the care of Dr. Hanker of Kerhonkson.

The entertainment and social held at the school house on Friday evening, March 2, was a success.

Jacob Rider was taken with a severe attack of croup at the store on Tuesday afternoon, and was in a critical condition for some time.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

1861.—A Smart and Popular Style—Dress for Misses and Young Women, With or Without Shoulder Trimming.

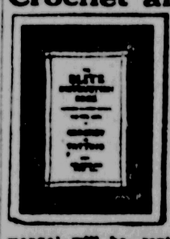
Gabardine in a new shade of gray was used for this model. The dress is finished in one-piece style, and has the fulness held at the waistline, under the belt. The shoulder trimming may be omitted. The fulness over the shoulders may be shirred, smocked or plaited. The pattern is cut in 3 sizes: 16, 18 and 20 years. It requires 6 yards of 44 inch material for a 16 year size. The skirt measures about 3 yards at its lower edge.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamp by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Catalogue Notice.

Send 10 cents in silver or stamps for our up-to-date 1917 large Spring and Summer Fashion Catalogue, containing over 550 designs of Ladies', Misses and Children's Garments in Correct Fashions, a Concise and Comprehensive Article on Dressmaking, also some Points for the Needle, (illustrating 30 of the various simple stitches), all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

A Complete Manual in Crochet and Tatting!



Just what you will say when you get our instruction book. Our Crochet and Tatting Book containing more than 50 profusely illustrated designs such as lunch cloth sets, doilies, tray cloths, towel ends, insertions, edgings, yokes for corset covers, night gowns, and a variety of Tatting designs for babywear, etc. Below each article illustrated in our instruction book will be found a complete list of materials required, together with a simplified course on all stitches used in making up the article. This complete manual will be sent upon receipt of 10 cents in stamps or silver.

Write your name and address plainly and address your letter to the Pattern Dept., Freeman Publishing Co., Kingston, N. Y.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

It was only a glad "good morning,"
As she passed along her way,
But it spread the morning's glory
Over the livelong day.
—Charlotta Perry.

BUTTERMILK DISHES.

Buttermilk, when it is easily obtained, should be used in many dishes where whole milk has seemed indispensable. Bulgarian bacteria may be procured and used in skim milk, making a most delicious drink, where the real buttermilk is not to be had, or, if used in whole milk, a deliciously flavored buttermilk is the result.

Date Gems.—To one pint of graham flour add a pint of wheat flour, a half teaspoonful of salt, a teaspoonful of soda, a quarter of a cupful of sugar, one cupful of dates, stoned and cut in small pieces, and lastly, enough rich buttermilk to make a drop batter. Bake in hot, well-greased gem pans, half filling each, and bake in a quick oven.

Buttermilk soup is a great delicacy with buttermilk lovers. Thicken with a tablespoonful each of butter and flour cooked together, and add three cupfuls of scalding hot buttermilk.

Doughnuts.—Mix a third of a cupful of sour cream, a cupful of sugar, one egg, one cupful of buttermilk, one and a half teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar, half a teaspoonful of salt, one and a quarter teaspoonfuls of soda, one teaspoonful of nutmeg, or cinnamon, or half of each, and flour to roll. Chill before rolling out. Fry in deep fat; drain on brown paper and roll in powdered sugar before serving.

Caraway Cookies.—Mix one cupful of sour cream with a cupful of buttermilk, two eggs, half a teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of soda and enough caraway seeds and flour to taste, then roll.

Griddle Cakes.—Beat well one pint of buttermilk, half a teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of soda and flour to make a thin batter. Bake a golden brown on a hot griddle.

Cake Frosting.—Put three fourths of a cupful each of buttermilk and sugar into a granite saucepan and bring to the boiling point, boil until a soft ball is made in cold water. Remove and beat with a wooden spoon until creamy and thick and of the consistency to spread.

Nellie Maxwell

W. H. CONNELLY, M. D.
Physician, Surgeon and Specialist.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
FAIR ST. KINGSTON, N. Y.
Office Hours—9:30 a. m. until 12 m.
Telephone 627-J.

"Standard"
KITCHEN SINKS
are "joys forever" in lightening labor and improving appearances. Let us show you specimens of and quote you prices on good plumbing for kitchen, bath and laundry.
L. F. BANNON PLUMBING, HEATING & CONTRACTING CO.,
16 & 18 Hasbrouck Ave.
KINGSTON, N. Y.
Telephone 91.

TIME TABLE OF ULSTER & DELAWARE RR
IN EFFECT SEPT. 10, 1916.

Trains are due to leave this city as follows:
Rondout Sta., †6:25, a7:30 a. m., †2:15 p. m.
Union Sta., †7:05, a8:00 a. m., †2:40 p. m.

Trains are due to arrive as follows:
Union Sta., †11:35 a. m., a5:15, †7:15 p. m.
Rondout Sta., †11:55 a. m., a5:35, †7:40 p. m.

† Daily except Sunday. a Sunday only.

ULSTER COUNTY
Savings Institution
280 Wall Street. Kingston, N. Y.
INCORPORATED 1851.

E. H. LOUGHRAN, President.
HARRY R. BRIGHAM,
CHARLES S. WOOD, Vice-Presidents.
J. M. SCHAEFFER, Secretary.
JOHN B. ALLIGER, Treasurer.
JAMES J. O'CONNOR, Teller.
JOHN R. T. HALL, Bookkeeper.
PHILIP ELTING, Attorney.

TRUSTEES:
John B. Alliger, G. D. B. Hasbrouck,
H. R. Brigham, E. H. Loughran,
David Burgevin, John L. McGrath,
Howard Chipp, J. M. Schaeffer,
Philip Elting, William C. Shafer,
George Hutton, C. S. Wood,
Ogden F. Winne.

For the six months ending Dec. 31st, 1916, interest was credited Jan. 1st, 1917, at 4 per cent per annum.

Interest not drawn will be added to the principal and draw interest.

Money deposited on or before April 3rd and remaining in the bank until July 1st, 1917, will be credited with three (3) months' interest.

Women and children under age have by law the control of their own saving bank accounts.

Persons living out of the city may send money by bank draft, check, post office order or express, and deposit book will be returned by mail.

ALL BUSINESS STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.

Kingston Savings Bank
573 Wall street, Kingston, N. Y.
CHARTERED 1874.

OFFICERS
MYRON TELLER, President.
GEORGE BURGEVIN,
V. B. VAN WAGONEN, Vice-Presidents.
CHARLES TAPPEN, Treasurer.
CHARLES H. DE LAVERGNE, Assistant Treasurer.
HARRY ENSIGN, Accountant.
JAMES A. BETTS, Counsel.

TRUSTEES.
James A. Betts, George Burgevin,
Zadoc P. Boice, Levan S. Winne,
Everett Fowler, D. N. Mathews,
John E. Kraft, Sam Bernstein,
Charles Tappen, A. D. Rose,
Myron Teller, Virgil B. Van Wagonen
Ervin E. Norwood.

Deposits made on or before April 3, 1917, and remaining in bank until July 1, 1917, will be credited with three (3) months' interest.

Interest will be paid on all sums from one dollar to three thousand dollars.

Accounts may be opened by mail for which a bank book will be forwarded on receipt of New York draft, certified check, postoffice or express money order.

Rooms for the convenience of ladies are a feature of the banking house.

Interest at the rate of 4% per annum was declared for six months ending December 31, 1916.

Deposits commence to draw interest from the first of each month.

Moneys withdrawn before January 1 and July 1 will not be entitled to interest.

THE RONDOUT Savings Bank
RONDOUT, N. Y

OFFICERS:
J. E. DERRENBACHER ..... President
T. C. COYKENDALL....1st Vice-President
F. H. GRIFFITHS.....2nd Vice-President
DAYTON MURRAY ..... Secretary
HERBERT HALL ..... Bookkeeper

TRUSTEES:
John D. Schoonmaker, E. Coykendall,
F. Stephan, Jr., John B. Thompson,
F. H. Griffiths, A. A. Stern,
Wesley D. Hale, T. C. Coykendall,
J. Graham Rose, H. H. Flemming,
Nicholas Steck.

Interest will be paid on all sums from $5 to $3,000.

Interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum was declared for six months ending December 31, 1916.

Interest credited semi-annually, January and July.

Moneys withdrawn before January 1 and July will not be entitled to interest.

Deposits commence to draw interest from the first of each month.

All deposits made on or before the 10th day of January and July draw interest from the first days of those months.

Banking hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Saturdays 9 a. m. to 12 m.

PINE HILL TALE WAS BADLY MIXED

With reference to proceedings recently in Port Ewen regarding the arrest of two Pine Hill boys for violation of the fish and game law, which was copied by The Freeman from the Pine Hill Optic and duly credited to that paper, Game Inspector Fred DeWitt furnishes The Freeman with a copy of the following affidavit:

Before me personally appeared Fred DeWitt, a state game protector, residing in Kingston, N. Y., deposes and says that on the 2nd of March, 1917, he went to Pine Hill and arrested Edward and Clayton Myers and brought the defendants before Justice James E. Kennedy, who resides on the Plank Road, who issued the warrants for their arrest, the complaints against the defendants were withdrawn and a settlement was effected by a civil compromise, as provided by Section 36 of the Conservation Laws, in each case a judgement of $10 was rendered and paid, and further states that the defendants did not ask for a trial by jury. He, deponent, did not pay their expenses home and did not say that De Silva hereafter could settle his own petty affairs.

FRED DEWITT,
State Game Protector.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of March, 1917.
MILTON O. AUCHMOODY,
Notary Public.

ABOUT THE FOLKS.

Attorney Robert G. Groves is in Catskill today on legal business.

Mrs. R. F. Thompson has returned to Pine Hill after spending a few months in Kingston.

Dr. Raymond Sanderson, pathologist at Vassar Hospital, Poughkeepsie, was in town on Saturday.

Miss Magdalena Brooks of New Paltz spent the week end as the guest of her father, Albert Brooks, at his home on West Chestnut street.

Miss Margaret Martin and her friend, Frank Rhodes, of Cornwall, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Martin of Broadway.

Mrs. Frank Snyder of Hurley, who was operated upon for mastoiditis at the Benedictine Sanitarium on Wednesday last by Dr. C. R. Baker, is doing nicely.

Lewis Hyatt, engineer on the West Shore railroad and formerly of Kingston, is recovering from a long illness at his home in Union Hill, N. J.

Little five-year-old Harriet Gavitt, daughter of Mr. Gavitt of the West Shore restaurant, who was recently operated upon for mastoiditis by Dr. C. R. Baker, is making an excellent recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Rodie of Kingston were week-end visitors with Mrs. J. W. Hinkley. They attended the concert given in the high school on Saturday afternoon by the Dutchess County Association of Musicians.—Poughkeepsie Eagle-News.

The Hon. William Rhinelander Stewart, president of the State Board of Charities, and F. H. Johnson, the assistant of Thomas Mott Osborne, while he was warden of Sing Sing Prison, were the guests of Judge Clearwater on Saturday.

Tool Plant Destroyed.

The plant of the Bradley Azel and Tool Company in New Windsor burned to the ground early Saturday morning entailing a loss of $25,000.

To Do Settlement Work.

Vassar girls plan to open a milk station and settlement center on lower Church street, Poughkeepsie, this spring.

Value of Advertising.

From a capital of $20,000 to $25,000,000 in 12 years through advertising is the record of a St. Louis corporation. The doubter of the virtue of printer's ink properly distributed and of the right quality will find a lot of food for thought in that fact.—St. Louis Star.

DIED.

EISENBERG—At Brooklyn, N. Y., March 10, 1917, Frank G. Eisenberg.

Interment in Wiltwyck Cemetery on the arrival of the 2:25 p. m. West Shore train on Wednesday, March 14. Relatives and friends are invited.

BUNT—In this city, March 11, 1917, Susan, wife of the late John Bunt. Funeral service at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph E. Palen, No. 96 St. James street, on Tuesday at 3 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment in St. Remy Cemetery.

HEITZMAN.—In this city, Monday, March 12, 1917, Cornelius G., the 5 year old son of Cornelius J. and Henrietta Nock Heitzman.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral from their home, No. 93 Hoffman street, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock and 9:30 o'clock at St. Peter's Church.

SISTER MARY MICHAEL—At the Benedictine Sanitarium, Monday, March 12, 1917, Sister M. Michael Armstrong, O. S. B.

Solemn requiem mass in the Benedictine Chapel, Wednesday, March 14, at 9 a. m. Relatives and friends and members of Ladies' Auxiliary of the Benedictine Sanitarium are invited to attend. Interment in St Mary's Cemetery.

Memorial Notice.

CANFIELD—In loving memory of our dear mother, Estella J. Canfield, who entered into rest March 12, 1916.

Gone, but not forgtten.
SONS AND DAUGHTER.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mills-Shuberg.

Clarence Richard Mills of Paterson, N. J., and Miss Helen Marie Shuberg of this city, were quietly married on Saturday afternoon by the Rev. P. S. Baringer, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer on Wurts street.

Federation Meetings.

On Thursday morning of this week, at 10 o'clock, the regular March meeting of the executive committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. C. K. Moulton on Elmendorf street. As this is the meeting preceding the full Federation meeting to be held on Saturday next, it is important that all members be present.

On Saturday afternoon of this week, the Twentieth Century Club will entertain the entire Kingston Federation of Women's Club at the chapel of the First Reformed Church. The meeting will be called to order at 2:30 o'clock, and two most interesting speakers will be presented during the afternoon; Miss Charlotte Rogardus, will speak about "Birds," and Miss Louise Driscoll of Catskill will speak on "The Spirit and Art of Poetry Today," and will give readings from her own poems. Such a program as this should bring out every member of the Federation on Saturday afternoon.

Schamerhorn-Wilcox.

"Woodside Place," the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilcox, in lower Main street, Highland, was the scene of a pretty spring wedding, Sunday evening, at half past six o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Ethelyn Wilcox, became the bride of Arthur J. Schamerhorn, a well known civil engineer of Pittsburgh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Schamerhorn, of Jackson, Michigan. The Rev. William Wilcox, of Baltimore, Md., a brother of the bride, performed the ceremony. Southern smilax and sweet peas were used in the decorations, arranged by Saltford of Poughkeepsie. The bridal party was led by little Miss Carolyn Van Nostrand, of Berkeley, Cal., who wore a white dress trimed with pink and carried a basket filled with sweet peas. Mrs. Charles Bieckert, of Danbury, Conn., a sister of the bride, was matron of honor, gowned in pink Georgette crepe, carrying an armful of pink roses. The bride who was given away by her father, was gowned in white satin, with net over dress and carried a bride's bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. After the ceremony, the young people left for a short wedding trip before going to Pittsburgh, to make their future home.

Mrs. Chandler Addresses Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary.

The meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. held on Friday afternoon was one of unusual interest. In absence of the president, Mrs. Powley, the vice president, Mrs. Mary Bruyn, presided. There were some seventy five members present, and eleven new members were received. Tickets for sale for the coming "Fashion Show, Musical Program and Benefit" to be given by the L. B. Van Wagenen Company at the Kingston Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and Thursday evening, were distributed as this Auxiliary will be one of the beneficiaries of the entertainment. The afternoon's program opened with a most interesting and graphic talk given by Mrs. George Chandler, in which she told of her recent experiences as a visitor on the border. Her descriptions of the climate, the country, the people and living conditions, and the difficulties attendant upon the establishment of army forces along the border were at once informing and entertaining. After Mrs. Chandler's talk, a musical program was enjoyed and afternoon tea was served.

ODDS AND ENDS.

A meeting of the Jeffersonian League will be held this evening at the club rooms on Fair street.

Seamon Brothers of Saugerties sent their automobile hearse to Kingston Sunday for use at a Tongore funeral.

The King's Daughters of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church are requested to meet at the church on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock to attend the funeral of Mrs. Bunt.

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association of School No. 2 will be held Tuesday afternoon, March 13, at the school, at 3:30 o'clock. Prof. R. J. Service of the high school will address the meeting.

The annual meeting of William R. Harrison's Bible class of St. James's M. E. Sunday school will be held at the residence of Mr. Harison, corner of Pearl and Green streets, Wednesday evening, March 14, at 8 o'clock, at which time officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

The Peter Barmann Fife, Drum and Bugle Corps will hold a special meeting on Tuesday evening, March 13, at Steeger's Hall, Foxhall avenue. All members are urged to be present as the election of officers for the year will be held and the resumption of practice for the summer will take place.

The Parent-Teachers' Association of School No. 5 started their sewing classes on Friday afternoon after school under the direction of Miss Grace Holmes, of the high school, with Miss Helen Meder as teacher. After a very successful lesson, the girls enjoyed biscuits from the Princine baking powder demonstration.

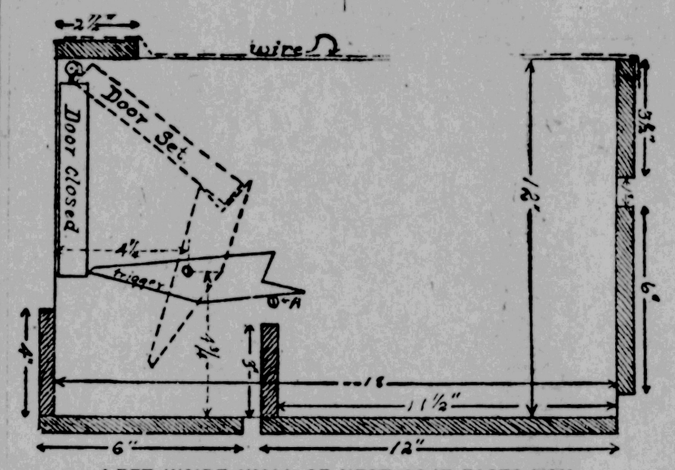
The annual Missionary Society meeting of Trinity M. E. Church will be held at the home of Mrs. B. H. Cism, 24 West Chester street, next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. We hope every member will be present as new officers for the following year will be elected. Mite boxes and all moneys must be brought in. Roll call. Helpful texts.

MISSOURI TRAP NEST IS SATISFACTORY

(By T. E. QUISENBERRY, Missouri State Poultry Experiment Station.)

There are many kinds of home-made trap nests, but none have proved so satisfactory with us as this one. The nests are of good size, 12 by 18 inches inside measure and 12 to 15 inches high. A board 8 inches high is put across the nest 12 inches from the back, which makes a nest 12 inches square, and this board holds the nesting material in place. The nests should be built in pairs. This makes a nest in which a good large hen can be comfortable either sitting or standing, which is a desirable quality in a trap nest. This door and trigger can be used on any sort of nest or box you care to use.

The body of the nest is built of light material, one-half or five-eighths inch lumber. The trigger and front door should be made of seven-eighths or inch material. Nests which are to be placed under tight droppings platform or underneath any object which will prevent the fowls from roosting on them need be covered only with one-inch mesh poultry netting. Otherwise make the top of the nest tight. It is a good idea to leave an inch opening in the back or sides of the nests for ventilation.



LEFT INSIDE WALL OF NEST AS IT FACES YOU.

Wire Door Favored.

Use a door consisting of a frame over which small mesh wire has been tacked. We like the wire door better than a solid wooden door, because of the fact that it affords ample ventilation, the lack of which is one of the main faults of the average trap nest.

The door is hung on screw eyes, which fasten in the upper edge of the frame. With a gimlet or small bit make holes in sides and partition for heavy wire near top entrance, from which suspend the doors by screw eyes. This permits the doors to swing back and forth freely, and makes a cheap hinge.

The door is checked by means of thumb buttons, which are placed on the front of the center partition and act as a stop for both doors. If you should be troubled with the buttons working loose, tighten them.

The trigger can be attached to the side of the nest box by using a long screw, but in every case it must work freely. The screw must be set squarely into the side of the box to absolutely prevent the trigger from binding against the side. Free action of this trigger is positively required.

Setting the Trigger.

The trigger must be set in such a position that when the door is swung inward and rests on the notch it will be invitingly open and at the same time this opening must be small enough to prevent the hen walking into the nest without touching the door with her back. As she steps into the nest and slightly raises the door, the trigger is released and falls backward. The door then swings down and the pointed end of the trigger rises behind it, effectually locking it.

See that the nesting material does not interfere with the trigger. Long hay or straw may eventually get piled up in such a manner as to interfere with its action. To remove the hen, simply turn the button and swing the door outward, or if you prefer, turn down the point of the trigger and swing it in toward the top of the [illegible] permitting the bird to come [illegible] nest can be set in a partition with a back door through which the hen may be removed.

It is necessary to drive a nail into the side of the box in such a manner as to check the falling trigger, when the sharp end rises to a point where it safely locks the door. The point of the trigger should rest near the bottom of the door when it is closed. The trigger resting on the back of the door prevents any hen on the outside from coming in and the door closing against the button prevents the hen in the nest from releasing herself.

Prefer Secluded Spot.

The hens prefer to lay in some secluded spot. Don't put the nest down on the floor or out where it is too light. The hens see the soft shelled eggs and the broken eggs, and they often develop the habit of egg-eating. The nests should be simple and constructed so they may be easily removed.

We prefer to place the nests under the droppings platform. This is a convenient place, and the nests do not occupy any of the valuable floor or wall space. You should have one nest to every four hens. Keep the nests absolutely clean and remove the nesting material quite often.

DAMAGED FEED FOR POULTRY

At Present Prices Poultryman May Find It Economical to Buy Good Grade of Salvage.

In buying salvage wheat the factor of whether or not the chickens will eat it is very important. There are two kinds of salvage wheat. One is water soaked, which when it comes through a fire smells very strong and has a bad taste. The hen will turn this down every time.

Fires occurring in elevators where there are no fire-fighting facilities leave the wheat in a better condition. There may be a little charred wheat in it, but the fiery and water-soaked odor is not present; consequently the palatability of the grain is not much affected. At the present prices one may find it paying to feed a good grade of salvage.

FEEDS FOR BREEDING STOCK

Keep in Mind Importance of Materials Carrying Proper Proportion of Protein and Fats.

In feeding your breeding stock, keep well in mind the importance of balanced feeds, those carrying the proper proportion of protein, carbohydrates and fats.

Make regular use of hoppers to contain mash feeds and beef scrap, either of which poultry can have access to at all times; also the grit, oyster shell and charcoal. The hens are wiser than many give them credit for, and will, if given this chance, do their own "balancing."

PREVENT BIG POULTRY LOSS

Much Money Can Be Saved Poultryman by Keeping Houses Comfortable—Clean Up Now.

Half the chickens hatched in the United States die of the white diarrhea; 75 per cent of the chicken raisers in the country have losses from roup.

The way to prevent these losses is by keeping the poultry comfortable and clean. The time to overhaul the poultry yards and houses is now.

BAD TRAITS ARE INHERITED

While Chickens Are Maturing, Watch Distinguishing Characteristics and Cull Undesirables.

It has been proved that criminal tendencies are inherited, and that crime runs in families. If it were not true that the laws of heredity were evident in the culture of chickens, there would be no possibility of breeding with any assurance of obtaining a desired color, size or shape. While, then, the chickens are maturing and their distinguishing characteristics are asserting themselves positively, be on the lookout for bad characters and weed out the undesirables. The bully is pressing a tendency that was born in her. She interferes with the contentment of the flock, and keeps the rest in a continual state of excitement. This in turn affects their laying, their appearance and their health, and she should be dealt with drastically. The feather-puller and egg-eater are in the same class, and they should all go the same road—to the market.—Clemson College Bulletin.

KANSAS RATION FOR WINTER

Dry Mash Made of Cornmeal, Middlings, Meat Scraps, Linseed Oil Meal and Alfalfa.

The ration used in winter feeding on the poultry farm of the Kansas State Agricultural college is a dry mash made according to the following formula: 60 pounds of cornmeal, 60 pounds of wheat middlings or shorts, 50 pounds of meat scraps, 30 pounds of wheat bran, 10 pounds of linseed oil meal, 10 pounds of milled alfalfa, and 11 pounds of salt.

This is fed in connection with a scratching feed thrown into the litter and consisting of three parts of wheat, two parts of corn and one part of oats, all by weight. Grit, oyster shell and charcoal are kept before the birds all the time, and they are fed once a day all the green food they will eat clean in half an hour.

If skim milk is fed, the meat scrap in the dry mash is cut one-half. In order to induce the hens to drink enough of the milk, they should be given no water.

Commercial Value of Soy Bean.

Oil mills on the Pacific coast have been operating for several years with soy beans imported from Manchuria and have found a ready sale in that region for the oil, cake, and other products.

Oh! What a Story!

Her father (coming suddenly into the room)—"Eh, what is this?" Her Lover—"I was telling Miss Budd a story." Her Father—"With your arm round her waist?" Her Lover—"Er—yes, sir. It was a love story."

CASH AND CREDIT

FURNISH your home without cash. Never let money matters stand between your family and a comfortable pretty home. No salary is so small, no income so big, but what our credit system can help you. So many of the nice homes you envy, were bought just in this way.

We help you in a dozen ways—low prices, the easy payment plan, splendid new styles of furniture, carpets, etc.

You'll enjoy a little call at our store----so will we. We never urge a sale.

We sell lower on time than others do for Cash.

The Quality First Store
ROSE-GORMAN-ROSE, INC
"FORMERLY CARL'S"

FOR YOUNG FOLKS

Sleepy Time Story About Kind and Unkind Trees.

THE REWARD OF EVERGREENS.

Experience of a Lame Robin Which Could Not Fly Away With Its Companions—How the Oak and the Beech Were Punished For Their Lack of Hospitality.

I am going to tell you tonight, said Uncle Ben to little Ned and Polly Ann, about

THE TALKING TREES.

Once upon a time as the little birds were making their long journey to the pleasant warm countries where birds spend the winter a little robin was left behind. He had a lame wing, and lame winged birds never can fly far.

Little robin looked about in the strange woods where, tired out, he had to stop. He crept up to a gnarled old oak tree whose branches soared a hundred feet into the air.

"Please let me stay with you all winter," the little bird pleaded. "Your leaves will shelter me from the winter winds."

But the oak was proud. "Go away," he said. "I do not want tramp birds like you about my branches."

The little bird sped to the beech tree, but the beech tree made believe not to hear the robin.

"The maple is so lovely. Perhaps she is also kind," the little bird said. And he went to the maple tree to ask her for shelter. But the maple tree was not kind.

He flew to the little stream along which the white birch trees gleamed, but the birches said that they were not strong enough to take lodgers.

As, tired and sorrowful, the little bird started away on his lame wing a dark, shaggy tree standing on the hill slope called to him. "Here you are welcome to shelter, little wanderer." It was the tall pine tree with thick needles which could turn off the roughest winter wind.

"I, too, have a home for you," called the tall, dark spruce. And the stately cedar whispered that if the little bird cared to live near the dwellings of man not to overlook its sheltering branches in the garden.

"As for me," called the little juniper, "though I may not be able to offer shelter, my berries will provide you with food, to which you are welcome as long as you need them."

And so the little bird stayed with these kind ones, and every morning and every evening he sang them a little song of gratitude.

Old King Winter heard it one day and learned the bird's story. He said to one of his wildest winds:

"Go out into the woods and strip those unkind trees of the leaves of which they are so proud, but the trees that have been kind and willing to share what they had with the unfortunate shall always wear their green leaves all winter."

Happy Days of Ice and Snow.

Photos by American Press Association.

RESTING AFTER A SPIN.

Old Mrs. Northwind and sprightly Jack Frost are friends of little folks. If it were not for the activities of these two worthies there would be little joy in the land for the devotees of coasting and skating. Many people complain and rail against the ice and snow, but boys and girls are loud in their praises. The little lady in the picture was snapped while resting after a strenuous hour on her gleaming skates. Like her playmates, she revels in such sports.

The Milkman.

Our milkman, he comes every day,
No matter if it rains and pours.
He never seems to mind a bit
What it is doing out of doors.

And in the middle of the night
I hear him coming up the stairs.
He tiptoes to our door and leaves
Our milk and leaves our neighbors theirs.

Our Indians.

The most probable theory of the origin of the American Indian is that which links the Indian with the Mongoloids of East Africa, whose physical characteristics are strikingly similar to those of the American aborigine. Between the Indian and the Japanese there are many pronounced resemblances, and some excellent authorities are of the opinion that it was from that eastern race that the Indian originally sprung. If, as some think, the Eskimos are the best representatives of the Indian as he was upon his arrival here, the theory of the Japanese origin is immensely strengthened, since the likeness between the Eskimo and the Japanese is striking.

How They Save.

"You'd be surprised to know how much Mary and I have saved since we got the car," said the first suburbanite.

"How's that?" inquired his astonished friend.

"Well, you see, every Sunday morning we eat a light breakfast and start out for a spin. Around noon we happen to be near the Joneses or the Smiths and, of course, we drop in. They invite us to stay. Then on the way back we have to pass the Williamses or the Henrys, and they ask us to supper."

"But you have to pay them back, don't you?"

"No, that's the best part of it. Since we got the car we are never at home."—Kansas City Star.

Never Fails.

"Look here; I want you to take back this alarm clock you sold me awhile back."

"Why, my dear sir, that's the most reliable alarm clock on the market."

"That's just the trouble. It's too doggoned reliable. I never get a chance to oversleep any more."—New York World.

Doings of the Van Loons- with the present prices most anyone will give it a trial.

By F. Leipziger

THE question of the hour is "Shall the privileges of the sober man be subornated in a vain endeavor to reform the drunkard?"

We refer to present agitation of the saloon-liquor-license question It is a subject that will not permit of narrow-mindedness or hypocrisy A majority of the American liberty-loving people want pure beer like

Old Stock Lager

Ten per cent of the workingmen in the larger cities have been with them lunches Life hasn't much cheer for them, and they find solace in a pint of beer The men who do not care to frequent saloons keep beer in their homes It is a national beverage from which only goodness is derived if sensibly used

PETER BARMANN Telephone 66 KINGSTON, N Y

MAN

A Clean Head and a Clear Head

IS WHAT

YOU NEED IN BUSINESS

"Bitter-Sweet" Shampoo will do the first trick

Your 8 oz bottle, 65c or at your barber's

Fresh air, deep breathing Right thinking will do the rest Yours for the taking

Try Them All Today

R A Straub & Son,
Box 874 Kingston N Y

NATIONAL ULSTER COUNTY BANK
ELDEST BANKING HOUSE IN ULSTER COUNTY
KINGSTON, N. Y.

A CORDIAL GREETING

awaits you at the National Ulster County Bank where our officers will be pleased to welcome you and explain our improved facilities for handling your banking business with accuracy and dispatch

Accounts subject to check are invited

WALL STREET

WANTED

Excellent opportunities offered experienced operators on all parts of shirt.

Beginners paid well. Fine chances for advancement. Steady Work.

Fuller's Shirt Factory
45-47 Pine Grove Ave.,
Kingston, N. Y.

RUTGERS ALUMNI REUNION DINNER

Dean Bevier to be Present at Banquet at the Stuyvesant on Friday Evening and Talk on Endowment Fund

The following notice has been sent to all graduates of Rutgers College residing in Ulster county

A Rutgers Alumni Reunion Dinner will be given at the Stuyvesant Hotel Kingston N Y at 7 30 o clock p m on Friday March 16 1917 We hope to have a full attendance of our alumni in Kingston and vicinity Will you try to keep that evening clear of every other engagement and be sure to be present Please send your acceptance to H R DeWitt

Dr Bevier the dean of Rutgers will be present and will give a report concerning the progress of the Endowment Fund and the present conditions of the college This dinner is given by the college and no tickets are needed but we must know in advance how many covers to order

G D B HASBROUCK
HOWARD GILLESPY
H R DEWITT
Committee

Already a number of acceptances have been received and a large attendance is anticipated

ESOPUS

Esopus March 12 —Friends of J Hadley will be sorry to learn that he suffered another stroke of apoplexy on Wednesday of last week His physician Dr Ross was obliged to [illegible] weak from the loss of blood Mr Hadley is at present resting quite comfortably

J P Canoung has been confined to his home with a severe cold during the greater part of last week

The Rev R M Roberts and daughter in law visited the Rev and Mrs William H Austin at Middle hope on Thursday last

On Thursday of this week Mrs Calvin Cole received a message announcing the sudden death of her brother John Lund of Chicago Full particulars have not been obtained as yet

John L Schultz and the Rev Samuel Bullen attended the seventh annual banquet of the Ulster County Citizens League held at the Sanitarium of Dr C O Sahler Kingston on Tuesday of last week They report a very enjoyable and profitable time

William Witt who for some time past has acted as clerk in the grocery store of Hasbrouck Freer in this village has purchased a grocery business in New York city and with Mrs Witt left for that city on Wednesday of last week The store is situated on 36th street just off 10th avenue and was formerly owned and conducted by an uncle of Mr Witt Mr Witt's friends wish him success in his new venture

Mrs Frank Cole has been spending a few days in Union Center visiting her mother in law Mrs Augustus Cole and cousin Mrs Corbet

The Pine Bark Beetle

An insect less than a quarter of an inch long that may cause the death of large pine trees is described in Circular [illegible] recently issued by the college of agriculture It has been found attacking white and pitch pines and is known to work also in spruce and larch and to be widely distributed in many of the northern states

The larva is a small white grub and like the beetle works in the cambium of the tree just inside the bark making galleries and chambers in the wood In the living tree the presence of the beetle may be indicated by pitch tubes through which the beetle pushes out the sawdust that results from its gallery making The tree tries to close this exit with pitch with the result that the so called pitch tubes become prominent spots on the tree trunk

The beetle may attack living trees but usually confines itself to dying or recently dead trees and its attacks open the way for fungus disease and for other insects A wet season is hard on the beetles and also aids fungi which prey on them black carpenter ants may also destroy the beetles In the case of felled logs removal of the bark will cause the death of all larva of the beetle and burning the bark will kill the adults

This bulletin is said to be of interest only to entomologists and foresters and is not issued for general distribution Requests from research workers will be filled as long as the limited edition lasts Address the New York State College of Agriculture, Ithaca, New York

REAL ESTATE SALES

Deeds Recently Recorded in County Clerk's Office

The following deeds have been filed in the office of the county clerk

Samuel H Shultis and wife of the town of Woodstock to Carl L Jellingham of New York city a parcel of land in the town of Woodstock Consideration $2 200

Sherman Anderson and wife of the town of Denning to Nancy M Bunton of the same place a parcel of land in the town of Denning Consideration $1

Sarah Ferguson of New York city executor of the will of Alexander Ferguson formerly of the town of Plattekill to Mary Ostrander of New York city a parcel of land in the town of Plattekill Consideration $1

Joseph Zelt and others to Henry Zelt of New York city a parcel of land in the city of Kingston Consideration $1

William F Woodard and wife of the town of Wawarsing to Edith Crawford Moore of New York city a parcel of land in the town of Brownsville Ulster county Consideration $1

Moran School News

With a view to encouraging speed by discouraging inaccuracy the Moran Business School is taking an active interest in the award plans of the various typewriter companies Handsomely engraved certificates are being awarded to all students who are successful in meeting the requirements of tests held in the typewriting department

A very satisfactory report was received recently from Rinnard F O Neil son of James E O Neil Crown street who was one of the first students to enroll at the Moran School Mr O Neil is making good as secretary to the manager of Sonneborn Sons Inc 262 Pearl street New York city a position requiring tact and good judgment in a large degree

Several calls for Moran trained stenographers and bookkeepers were received within the past week and the names of successful applicants will be published in due time The demand for Moran graduates continues to increase with each succeeding month

Louis Lastra who pursued the commercial course has secured a splendid position with a well known wholesale house in New York city His position carries with it a considerable amount of responsibility as well as a large salary

The attendance record for 1917 has been the largest in the history of the school The time is drawing near for the opening of the spring term a very pleasant season in which to enter And it goes without saying that the young people of Kingston and vicinity will avail themselves of this opportunity by enrolling at the Moran Business School

Aviation Base in Dutchess

A great aviation base for the defence of New York city has been selected in Dutchess county and negotiations are now in progress for the transfer of the William Taylor property at Dover Plains to the government at a price to be $60 000 to $70 000 There are 600 acres in the farm which lies in a level stretch between the village of Dover Plains and the foot of Plymouth Hill

Unclaimed Letters

List of unclaimed matter advertised at Kingston N Y Week ending March 12 1917

Ackerman Mrs Inez
Barry John
Buckley Mrs Mgt
Bohenhauser Cecilia
Crowe Miss Ora
Dingman Miss Margaret Care Mrs Jno Lackey Jr
Delamater Irving Hasbrouck
Delamater Mrs Milton
France Alexander
Hunting Mrs Robert Kerr
Haynes Ada
Heard Harry
Kelser J M
Lereich Charles
Lane Albert
Mintz Dr
Parker R S
Richards Mrs J R
Sohler Alfred
Tofft Edmond
Van Sahler Louis Hasbrouck

Published in the Kingston Daily Freeman under the law of congress giving the publication of the list of letters to the newspaper having the largest circulation

ASK FOR and GET
Horlick's
The Original Malted Milk
Substitutes Cost YOU Same Price.

SCOTT'S EMULSION DRIVES OUT COLDS

METTACAHONTS

Mettacahonts March 10 —The Willing Workers met at the home of Mrs Jacob Baker on Saturday afternoon March 3 and the meeting was largely attended and had two visitors Mrs Simon Hornbeck of Whitfield and Mrs Alex Brown of Leibhardt also one new member joined us The next monthly meeting will be held at the home of Mrs Elias P Osterhoudt on April 7 All members are invited to be present as there will be important work to do

Miss Lulu Hendrickson of Accord is the guest of her grandparents Mr and Mrs Joe Hendrickson

Mr and Mrs Floyd Oakley of Stone Ridge are visiting at the home of their mother Mrs Joe Miller

Friends of Jacob Markle are glad to hear he is improving under the care of Dr Hanker of Kerhonkson

The entertainment and social held at the school house on Friday evening March 9 was a success

Jacob Rider was taken with a severe attack of croup at the store on Tuesday afternoon and was in a critical condition for some time

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

1861 —A Smart and Popular Style— Dress for Misses and Young Women, With or Without Shoulder Trimming

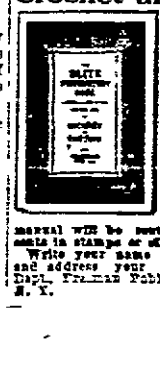
Gabardine in a new shade of gray was used for this model The dress is finished in one piece style and has the fulness held at the waistline under the belt The shoulder trimming may be omitted The fulness over the shoulders may be shirred smocked or plaited The pattern is cut in 3 sizes 16 18 and 20 years It requires 6 yards of 44 inch material for a 16 year size The skirt measures about 3 yards at its lower edge

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps by the Pattern Department The Freeman Rondout, N Y Be sure to state the size wanted

Catalogue Notice

Send 10 cents in silver or stamps for our up-to-date 191 Large Spring and Summer Fashion Catalogue containing over 550 designs of Ladies Misses and Children's Garments in Correct Fashions a Concise and Comprehensive Article on Dressmaking also some Points for the Needle (Illustrating 30 of the various simple stitches), all valuable hints to the home dressmaker

A Complete Manual in Crochet and Tatting!



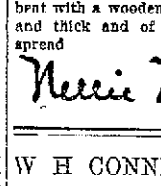
Just what you will say when you get our Instruction Book Our Crochet and Tatting Book containing more than 50 profusely illustrated designs such as Irish crochet sets, doilies, tray cloths, towel ends, insertions, edgings yokes for corset covers, night gowns, and a variety of Tatting designs for baby wear etc. Below each article illustrated in our instruction book will be found a complete list of materials required, together with a simplified system so all stitches used in working up the article. This complete manual will be sent upon receipt of 10 cents in stamps or silver

Write your name and address plainly and address your letter to the Pattern Dept. Freeman Publishing Co. Kingston, N. Y.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

I' was only a glad good morning
As she passed along her way
But it spread the morning's glory
Over the lifelong day
Charlotta Perry

BUTTERMILK DISHES



Buttermilk when it is easily obtained should be used in many dishes where whole milk has seemed indispensable Bulgarian bacteria may be procured and used in skim milk making a most delicious drink where the real buttermilk is not to be had or if used in whole milk a deliciously flavored buttermilk is the result.

Date Gems —To one pint of graham flour add a pint of wheat flour a half teaspoonful of salt a teaspoonful of soda a quarter of a cupful of sugar one cupful of dates stoned and cut in small pieces and lastly enough rich buttermilk to make a drop batter Bake in hot well greased gem pans half filling each, and bake in a quick oven

Buttermilk soup is a great delicacy with buttermilk lovers Thicken with a tablespoonful each of butter and flour cooked together, and add three cupfuls of scalding hot buttermilk

Doughnuts —Mix a third of a cupful of sour cream a cupful of sugar one egg one cupful of buttermilk one and a half teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar half a teaspoonful of salt, one and a quarter teaspoonfuls of soda one teaspoonful of nutmeg or cinnamon or half of each and flour to roll Chill before rolling out Fry in deep fat drain on brown paper and roll in powdered sugar before serving

Caraway Cookies —Mix one cupful of sour cream with a cupful of buttermilk, two eggs half a teaspoonful of salt one teaspoonful of soda and enough caraway seeds and flour to taste then roll

Griddle Cakes —Beat well one pint of buttermilk half a teaspoonful of salt one teaspoonful of soda and flour to make a thin batter Bake a golden brown on a hot griddle

Cake Frosting.—Put three fourths of a cupful each of buttermilk and sugar into a granite saucepan and bring to the boiling point, boil until a soft ball is made in cold water Remove and beat with a wooden spoon until creamy and thick and of the consistency to spread

Nellie Maxwell

W H CONNELLY, M D.
Physician Surgeon and Specialist
Eye Ear Nose and Throat
FAIR ST KINGSTON, N Y
Office Hours—9 30 a m until 12 m
Telephone 627-J

"Standard" KITCHEN SINKS

are "joys forever" in lightening labor and improving appearances. Let us show you specimens of and quote you prices on good plumbing for kitchen, bath and laundry

L F BANNON PLUMBING HEATING & CONTRACTING CO.
16 & 18 Hasbrouck Ave
KINGSTON, N Y
Telephone 91

TIME TABLE OF ULSTER & DELAWARE RR

IN EFFECT SEPT 10, 1916

Trains are due to leave this city as follows

Rondout Sta., †6.25, a7.30 a. m., †2.15 p. m.
Union Sta., †7.05, a8.00 a. m., †2.40 p. m.

Trains are due to arrive as follows.

Union Sta., †11.35 a. m., a5.15, †7.10 p. m.
Rondout Sta., †11.55 a. m., a5.35, †7.40 p. m.

† Daily except Sunday. a Sunday only.

ULSTER COUNTY Savings Institution

280 Wall Street. Kingston, N Y
INCORPORATED 1851

E H LOUGHRAN, President.
HARRY R BRIGHAM
CHARLES S WOOD
Vice Presidents
J M SCHAEFFER
Secretary
JOHN B ALLIGER
Treasurer
JAMES J O'CONNOR
Teller
JOHN R T HALL,
Bookkeeper
PHILIP ELTING,
Attorney

TRUSTEES

John B Alliger, G D B Hasbrouck, H R Brigham, E H Loughran, David Burgevin, John L McGrath, Howard Chipp, J M Schaeffer, Philip Elting, William C Shafer, George Hutton, C S Wood, Ogden F. Winne.

For the six months ending Dec 31st, 1916, interest was credited Jan 1st, 1917, at 4 per cent per annum.

Interest not drawn will be added to the principal and draw interest.

Money deposited on or before April 3rd and remaining in the bank until July 1st 1917 will be credited with three (3) months interest

Women and children under age have by law the control of their own saving bank accounts

Persons living out of the city may send money by bank draft, check, post office order or express and deposit book will be returned by mail

ALL BUSINESS STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.

Kingston Savings Bank

273 Wall street, Kingston, N Y.
CHARTERED 1874.

OFFICERS
MYRON TELLER, President.
GEORGE BURGEVIN,
V. B VAN WAGONEN,
Vice-Presidents
CHARLES TAPPEN,
Treasurer
CHARLES H DE LAVERGNE,
Assistant Treasurer
HARRY ENSIGN,
Accountant.
JAMES A BETTS,
Counsel.

TRUSTEES.

James A. Betts, George Burgevin,
Eadee P Boice, Levan S Winne,
Everett Fowler, D N Mathews,
John E Kraft, Sam Bernstein.
Charles Tappen, A D Rose
Myron Teller, Virgil B Van Wagonen
Ervin E Norwood

Deposits made on or before April 3 1917 and remaining in bank until July 1, 1917 will be credited with three (3) months' interest

Interest will be paid on all sums from one dollar to three thousand dollars

Accounts may be opened by mail for which a bank book will be forwarded on receipt of New York draft, certified check, postoffice or express money order

Rooms for the convenience of ladies are a feature of the banking house

Interest at the rate of 4% per annum was declared for six months ending December 31, 1916

Deposits commence to draw interest from the first of each month

Moneys withdrawn before January 1 and July 1 will not be entitled to interest

THE RONDOUT Savings Bank

RONDOUT, N. Y

OFFICERS:

J E DERPENBACHER, President
T C CORKENDALL, 1st Vice-President
F H GRIFFITHS, 2nd Vice-President
DAYTON MURRAY, Secretary
HERBERT HALL, Bookkeeper

TRUSTEES

John D Schoonmaker, E. Corkendall,
F Stephan, Jr, John S Thompson,
F H Griffiths, A. A. Stern,
Wesley D Hale, T C Corkendall,
J Graham Rose, H H Flemming,
Nicholas Stock,

Interest will be paid on all sums from $5 to $3,000.

Interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum was declared for six months ending December 31, 1916

Interest credited semi annually, January and July.

Moneys withdrawn before January 1 and July will not be entitled to interest.

Deposits commence to draw interest from the first of each month

All deposits made on or before the 10th day of January and July draw interest from the first days of those months.

Banking hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Saturdays 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Kingston Daily Freeman.

TERMS:
Per Annum in advance $5 00
Per Month ..... .12
Ten Cents Per Week.

Entered as Second-class matter at the post-office at Kingston, N. Y.
Published by Freeman Publishing Company, at 3-9 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y. Jay E. Klock, President; Alfred DuFlon, Secretary and Treasurer. Addresses 3-9 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y. Louise M. Klock, Vice-President, 243 Albany Avenue, Kingston, N. Y.

Member American Newspaper Publishers' Association.
Member New York Associated Dailies.
Official paper of Kingston City.
Official paper of Ulster County.

Please address all communications and make all money orders and checks payable to Freeman Publishing Company, 3-9 Broadway.

Telephone Calls:
New York Telephone—Main Office, Downtown, 1875. Uptown Office, 852.

KINGSTON, N. Y., MARCH 12, 1917.

When, in opening the Newburgh Automobile Show, State Highway Commissioner Duffey emphasized the necessity for completing the Storm King Highway within another year, he was taking up a matter in which the entire Hudson Valley has a direct interest to say nothing of the State at large and the good folk of Orange county. The Storm King road is one of the two important connecting links in a trunk highway along the west shore of the Hudson; the Rondout bridge is the other. Both are essential numbers on the Highway Department program for the next season. This West Shore highway is entitled to preference from the fact that it would necessarily become a main artery in any scheme of defense, the presence of West Point and the Iona Island munitions station on this side of the river making improved highways an essential. When the few millions that the Federal Government is going to give New York State for highway work are expended, it would seem a most proper step that these should be used solely for the completion of trunk highway systems, or connecting links. Highway preparedness is one of the most useful forms that defense preparations can take, especially within a State occupying the peculiarly valuable strategical position that New York does on the military maps.

That a large proportion of the people of the United States have themselves raised the funds for the carrying on of German propaganda throughout the United States is the disquieting charge which has developed as the result of an arrest of a swindler in New York city. Investigators assert that $5,000,000 raised for the relief of German sufferers never left this country but were put to the dubious duty of footing the bills of the pro-German sentiment builders. It will take more than the mere statement of profers to convince of the truth of this charge. If it be true, many sincere men and women have been wickedly misled into contributing toward a fund to injure their country, in the belief that their contributions were being directly applied to the aid of war sufferers in the Fatherland. In view of the serious nature of these reports, it is the duty of the subscribers to these war relief funds to do a little investigating upon their own hook. It ought not to require any undue effort to ascertain whether such funds ever reached Germany and, if not, whether they were applied to the acceleration of public sentiment and to the furtherance of diabolical schemes with Mexico and other nations to our discredit and damage.

There are found persons in this country as well as in Germany who defend the Kaiser's proposition to Mexico and Japan on the ground that war was expected. But the important fact is that a state of war did not exist and that even now war is still an uncertain matter of the future. Had the two countries been at war, Germany could have justified her effort to secure allies against the United States, but as the case stands she secretly committed an act of war by seeking such alliances while still openly professing friendship for the United States and publicly discussing the continuance of peaceful relations.

Northern folk who are acquainted with rice only in the form of pudding, or as a gummy mush to be eaten with sugar, know little of the qualities of this enormously nutritive cereal that are brought out by the proper cooking—a steaming rather than a boiling so that each swelled grain may remain individual and retain its original shape. Year in and year out the average Southerner daily eats rice thus prepared with unfailing appetite, taking successive helpings of it on his plate with his meat, gravy and vegetables. In a word, rice is made a staff of life second only to bread in its various forms. Now that potatoes are virtually prohibitive in price, Northern and Western victims of the potato habit could not do better than to make trial of the Southern modification of the Asiatic methods of rice eating.

The Japanese have spurned the German invitation to an alliance that reached or was to reach them via Mexico and have declared their changeless fealty to their present allies. This is only what might have been expected under the circumstances and is sufficient for the present, but you never can tell about the future. No alliances are permanent, and nations seem to be able to join forces after warring with each other much more readily than individual men. Japan and Russia, for example, are now allies, although twelve years ago they clutched each other in a death grapple. Perhaps it would be too much to say that nations are as soulless as corporations, but international alliances are mere matters of policy and policy changes with shifting conditions. The future may yet see Japan and Germany lined up together, to say nothing of Mexico.

LITTLE LAUGHS.

Mrs. Parker—"Our new cook has learned all my ways." Parker—"Don't worry. She may improve."—Life.

Cholly—"Will you marry me if I stop smoking cigarettes?" Miss Bright—"No, Mr. Sappy, I couldn't think of marrying a man who did nothing."—Boston Transcript.

"He speaks several languages fluently." "The accomplishment must be a source of satisfaction." "It isn't. He can't think in one language without getting suspicious of himself in several of the others."—Washington Star.

"Your constituents don't seem to agree with some of your remarks." "No," replied Senator Sorghum. "A whole lot of people never seem to pay the slightest attention to anything I say except when they disagree with it."—Washington Star.

"I met Glithers just now. He had a hoe, a rake, and a large package of garden seed." "Going to plant something, eh?" "Oh, no. Of course not. I think he got those things together for the purpose of attending a directors' meeting at his bank."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Sparks was talking to Perkins of the latter's recent move to a suburb, and during the course of his remarks, put the following inquiry: "Sparks, now that you're living in the country, don't you miss the early morning noise and the bustle of the city?" "Yes, said Sparks, "if I miss the 6:35 train."—Puck.

Real Enjoyment.

A man came up to a lecturer in a hotel and said, with enthusiasm:

"Well, sir, I enjoyed your lecture very much last night."

"I didn't see you there."

"Oh, I wasn't there."

"Well, what do you mean by telling me you enjoyed my lecture when you were not present?"

"Oh, I bought tickets for my girl's father and mother and they both went."—Christian Herald.

The Colonel Was Clever.

The soldiers marched to the church and halted in the square outside. One wing of the edifice was undergoing repair, so there was room for about half the regiment.

"Sergeant," ordered the colonel, "tell the men who don't want to go to church to fall out."

A large number quickly availed themselves of the privilege.

"Now, sergeant," said the colonel, "dismiss the men who did not fall out and march the others to church—they need it most."—Boston Transcript.

A Good Horse.

Old Mr. Caswell was an inveterate horse trader, and also a good deal of a wag.

One day he swapped a decidedly disreputable looking nag, and after the deal was consummated he said:

"Now, sir, I'll tell yer fair an' square. That horse has got two faults."

"Yes, and more, too, I guess," assented the other. "But what are the two you mention?"

"Well," confided old Caswell, slowly, "if he gets out in the field he's the hardest horse to catch ye ever see, an' when yer catch him he ain't worth a cuss."—National Magazine.

His Funniest Story.

Of all the funny stories I recall at the present moment, I think I can work up the best laugh over the tale of the two Irishmen who were arguing about the relative merits of New York and Chicago. You know there is a type of person who, when he knows nothing about a thing and finds you don't either, will start in and explain it to you. These two were both of that kind. Said one:

"Why, in New York we have grass growing right on the roof, just the same as down on the ground. You can have your front yard on top of the house."

"That's nothin," declared the other. "In Chicago we play golf on the roofs."

"Golf? You mean that game where you knock a ball back and forth across a net?"

"Yes, that's it."

"You dommed idjut, that's not golf! You're talking about croquet."

"Well, I meant to say croquet."

"Yes," said the other one, "I know you couldn't mean golf. How would they get the horses up on the roof for a golf game?"—Everybody's Mazagine.

TWENTY AND TEN YEARS AGO.

March 11, 1897.—Building at 580 Broadway, owned by E. T. McGill, damaged by fire.

Death of Mrs. Rebecca Shader at West Hurley.

March 12, 1897.—Appellate division of supreme court denied motion of reargument of Colonial case, where condemnation of Kingston City's track had been denied.

Mayor Wieber vetoed resolution calling for appointment of a committee of aldermen to oppose establishment of a board of public works.

March 11, 1907.—An act amending the city charter and providing for appointment by mayor of three fire commissioners introduced in legislature.

Michael Jerson died at his home on West Pierpont street, aged 67 years.

March 12, 1907.—Health board ordered all connections with the Twaalfskill brook discontinued.

Ladies' Aid Society Election.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Church of the Comforter was held Wednesday evening, March 7, in the Sunday school room. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. N. Freer; vice-president, Mrs. G. Shufeldt; secretary, Mrs. A. DeForest; treasurer, Mrs. R. Kelder; flower committee, Mrs. C. Lasher. Mrs. Kelder has held the office of treasurer for the past sixteen years. All reports of the past year were read and accepted, and showed a most successful year. Fifteen new names were added to the society making a total membership of seventy-three. A social hour was spent, to which the ladies' husbands were invited. Refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, coffee, cake and cream.

Contractor Was Beaten Up.

Contractor John McKeefrey, who was held up, beaten and robbed in Brooklyn one night last week, has returned to Saugerties and says he feels none the worse for the experience.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

You'll be glad to see the spring styles in Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

Varsity Fifty Five

Very unusual values; and very desirable colorings and fabrics. You have your choice of 1, 2, or 3 button models; patch pockets; different cuffs and other details.

Belt backs

Every young man and every young spirited man ought to have one of these belt-back variations in his wardrobe this season--they're the big favorites.

Varsity Six Hundred

The best of the spring overcoat styles are the Varsity Six Hundred; some with belts; others loosely draped; variations for everbody. Prices easy.

Every fabric used by Hart Schaffner & Marx is strictly all wool; they were the first makers of clothing to adopt that standard at a time when cotton mixtures were very common. They have maintained it always. It's an important point right at this time when the market conditions are so unusual.

They're here: Boys' and Children's Suits and Top Coats. Spring neckwear, hats, shirts, hosiery---A remarkable service for you; the goods are gathered in your interest and sold that way; the more we do for you, the more we do for ourselves.

Boys' and Children's Department 2ND Floor

S. COHEN'S SONS

331 Wall St. Tele. 900 Kingston, N. Y.

GUN ON S.S. ROCHAMBEAU ©INTERNATIONAL

FRENCH 77-MILLIMETRE GUN ON S. S. ROCHAMBEAU.

The French liner Rochambeau was the first Allied merchant ship to arrive at the port of New York armed fore and aft. The picture shows the Rochambeau's 77-millimetre stern gun, attended by two expert French gunners.

Standardized Lines

Less time consumed in the actual selling, means more time for personal contact with our friends.

Our shelves hold only standardized lines—products half sold by a name of merit gained by years of service. They cost more to us—in money—but they leave time for the often hurried motorist to request a fog-lifting explanation of that point. That's what we want. To illustrate, consider MILLER Geared-to-the-Road TIRES.

Here is an established brand—a product deep-rooted in the regard of thousands of motorists. It is a real pleasure to sell Millers. No arguing—no visions of a scowling, returning face. A quick sale. And the saved time can be devoted to assisting you.

This is the fourth of a weekly series outlining our policies and plans for serving the motorists of Kingston. Watch for them all!

Universal Tire & Rubber Co.
L. G. DUTTON, Mgr.
286 Fair Street
Phone 410 Kingston, N. Y.

Don't Throw It Away—Have It Replated!

ELECTRO PLATING

In Gold, Silver or Nickel
Brass Plating, Bronzing, Lacquering, Japanning?

We make a specialty of Restoring Antiques, Repairing and Replating Silverware. Save labor by having the metal parts on your Auto Nickel Plated.

Prices Reasonable. Work Guaranteed

The W. G. Browne Manufacturing Co.
'Phone 316-J
Kingston — New York

Richard Tappen

Greenkill Avenue, At Sterling Street

MASONS' BUILDING MATERIAL

Lehigh Portland Cement
King's Windsor Plasters
Plaster Boards
Sewer Pipe & Flues
Fire Brick & Clay
Slate Surfaced Roofing
Tiger Hydrated Lime
Plastic Roofing Cement
Beaver Board

CITY OF KINGSTON BONDS AT AUCTION.

Pursuant to the General Municipal Law of the State of New York, Chapter 247 of the Laws of 1913, the City Charter of the City of Kingston, N. Y., and an ordinance passed by the Common Council of said city, on July 5th, 1916, the undersigned treasurer of the City of Kingston, will sell at public auction at the City Hall, in said city, on the 15th day of March, 1917, at 10 a. m., bonds issued for the purpose of paying the school's bonded indebtedness amounting to the sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars as follows:

Erecting and equipping new high school bonds $10,000 in denominations of $1,000 each, payable April 1st, 1936.

Said bonds must be paid for on day of delivery, on or before the 31st day of March, 1917.

Said bonds will bear interest at the rate of 4½ per cent, payable semi-annually on the 1st days of April and October.

The principal and interest of said bonds will be payable at the office of the treasurer of said city.

Dated, Kingston, N. Y., March 5, 1917.
WARD B. EVERETT,
City Treasurer.

CITY TREASURER'S NOTICE.

Special Assessment.

Notice is hereby given that I have received the warrant for the collection of the special assessment of 75 per cent of the expenses incurred in the construction of a sanitary sewer in Andrew street between a point at or about 130 feet from Broadway and the existing sewer in Andrew street at junction of Lavan street, in the city of Kingston.

The same has been left with me for collection at my office in the city hall, in said city; that for thirty days from the date of this notice the said assessment may be paid without additional fees or charges, and that for the twenty succeeding days 2 per centum additional will be collected.

If any of the said special assessments shall remain unpaid at the time last mentioned, I shall give a written or printed notice to the person or persons against whom such assessment stands charged, requiring them to pay such unpaid assessment to me at my office within thirty days thereafter, with 5 per centum fees thereon, and one dollar for such notice, as required by the city charter.

Dated at the Treasurer's Office, City of Kingston, March 10th, 1917.
WARD B. EVERETT,
City Treasurer.

CITY TREASURER'S NOTICE.

Special Assessment.

Notice is hereby given that I have received the warrant for the collection of the special assessment, of 75 per cent of the expenses incurred in the construction of a sanitary sewer in Cornell street between South avenue and Tremper avenue, in the city of Kingston.

The same has been left with me for collection at my office in the city hall, in said city; that for thirty days from the date of this notice the said assessment may be paid without additional fees or charges, and that for the twenty succeeding days 2 per centum additional will be collected.

If any of the said special assessments shall remain unpaid at the time last mentioned, I shall give a written or printed notice to the person or persons against whom such assessment stands charged, requiring them to pay such unpaid assessment to me at my office within thirty days thereafter, with 5 per centum fees thereon, and one dollar for such notice, as required by the city charter.

Dated at the Treasurer's Office, City of Kingston, March 10th, 1917.
WARD B. EVERETT,
City Treasurer.

ADVERTISERS ESTIMATE THE VALUE BY THE CIRCULATION.
And The Freeman has a circulation double that of all other Kingston dailies combined.

ACCORD FARMER A SUICIDE IN BARN

Luther Van Vliet's Land Purchase Had Preyed Upon His Mind is Belief—Was Well Thought of in Accord.

Some time Saturday night Luther Van Vliet, a well known resident of the town of Rochester, committed suicide by hanging himself to a mow pole on the farm occupied by him as tenant and located opposite the Reformed Church at Accord. The farm is owned by B. Morss Tremper of Kingston and has been leased by Van Vliet for years. This year they farm was sold and it became necessary for him to move, so recently Van Vliet bought the Arthur Osterhoudt place near by and, according to the judgment of neighbors, paid an exorbitant price for it. It is presumed that this preyed upon his mind until he became temporarily insane and while in that state committed the act.

Mr. Van Vliet and his sister lived alone and it has been his custom evenings to walk out to the neighbors or down to the village and when he went out Saturday night his sister thought nothing of it. He did not appear Sunday morning and when his sister went out to the barn she found the doors wide open and her brother's body hanging immediately within the door and in full view of the house for he had thrown the doors wide open. He had tied a rope over a mow pole and had placed a ladder against it, then tied the rope around his neck, climbed the ladder and jumped off the effect of the drop breaking his nexk. It was nearly noon Sunday morning before his body was discovered.

He is survived by two brothers and two sisters: Edgar Van Vliet and Josephus; and Mrs. Cyrus Hendrickson and Miss Lizzie Van Vliet.

Mr. Van Vliet was well thought of by his neighbors and friends. He was always kind hearted, genial and neighborly and was the last man when in his right mind to commit such an act.

GRANITE.

Granite, March 12.—Miss Tessa Decker from Poughkeepsie spent Saturday at her home here.

The social which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Addis Saturday evening was well attended. There were twenty-eight present. Music, singing and games were the amusements, and a bountiful supper was served at 10:30. The guests report having spent a very pleasant evening.

Fletch Turner is drawing lime from Henry DeVoe's lime kiln at Accord.

Mrs. Adam Turner was a Kingston visitor on Friday last.

Mrs. Will Addis entertained the members of the M. E. Ladies' Aid Society at a sewing circle Thursday afternoon at her home, March 8.

Mrs. Myron Markle after spending the past week in Wallkill with her sister, who is very ill, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Adam Turner entertained a number of friends on Thursday to a quilting party.

Harris Van Wagenen is very sick at this time. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

The Rev. Mr. Pryne and wife of Kerhonkson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Selah Sheldon on Saturday last.

Miss Hazel Turner of this place and Miss Letia Hanker of Kerhonkson, were visiting friends in Ellenville Saturday.

Miss Dorothy Sheldon was the guest of her friend, Miss Olive Sherman, on Friday evening.

The Misses Annie and Lucy Rose are ill with the grip.

MONTOMA.

Montoma, March 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Irving Parker of Kingston called in this place one day last week.

Miss Kathryn DeGraff, who has been spending a couple of weeks with relatives in Kingston, has returned home.

R. W. Stoutenberg is employed at Stewart Jones's.

C. V. Keogan took a trip to Kingston on Wednesday.

Mrs. Edward Stoutenberg and children and Mrs. Truman Phillips and daughter, Elmira, visited Mrs. O. F. DeGraff on Friday.

The Misses Ruth Stratton and Elizabeth DeGraff spent Thursday evening with Liela Moore of Glenford.

The Boy Scouts of this place were in Woodstock Saturday afternoon drilling.

Lucas Stoutenberg called in Woodstock Saturday morning.

Mrs. Edward Stoutenberg and children spent Saturday with Mrs. V. Bonesteel.

Mrs. Alfred DeGraff and Miss Nellie Yerry called in this place Saturday afternoon.

There will be a play and an oyster supper in the Glenford M. E. Hall on Tuesday evening March 13. Come one and all.

Need Catskill Bridge Guard.

Enterprising junk thieves have pried off the 85 pound bronze memorial tablet on the concrete bridge spanning Catskill creek. The tablet said to be worth $17 for old metal. It was placed in 1906 and carried the names of town officials of that year.

For Polishing Furniture.

The polish generally used on mission furniture is the dull wax finish. If, instead of applying only wax, alternate coats of boiled linseed oil and wax are used, a polish will be obtained which is brighter and more durable than the ordinary finish.

SPRING 1917

The New Season's Styles

in apparel, fabrics and accessories are daily drawing the women who get THE NEW THINGS FIRST to Van Wagenen's—recognizing style authority.

Tickets May be Obtained

from any Auxiliary members or through
Mrs Geo. Chandler
Mrs James Dwyer
Mrs F. R. Powley.

Announcing

Van Wagenen's

Spring Fashion Show

And Benefit Concert

Kingston Opera House

Wednesday and Thursday—March 14th and 15th

At 2:30 Each Afternoon.

The Correct Spring Fashions

will be worn by two-score charming young women of Kingston, Saugerties, Ellenville and Tannersville.

An Exceptional Musical Program

will be rendered by the following Kingston Artists—

Miss Helen Stern, Soprano
Earle Hummel, Violinist
Hermann La Tour, Tenor
Harry P. Dodge, Pianist

Aesthetic Solo Dances

By Miss Agnes Dorsey and Miss Marjorie Richards

Local Institutions to Be Benefited

The entire proceeds to be divided between the Women's Auxiliaries of the

Kingston City Hospital
Benedictine Sanitarium
Young Men's Christian Association

THE FREEMAN'S CENT-A-WORD ADLETS SAVE MONEY, TIME AND WORRIMENT---PUT YOUR "WANTS" UP TO THE LITTLE HUSTLERS

PINE HILL TALE WAS BADLY MIXED

With reference to proceedings recently in Port Ewen regarding the arrest of two Pine Hill boys for violation of the fish and game law, which was copied by The Freeman from the Pine Hill Optic and duly credited to that paper, Game Inspector Fred DeWitt furnishes The Freeman with a copy of the following affidavit

Before me personally appeared Fred DeWitt a state game protector residing in Kingston N Y deposes and says that on the 2nd of March last he went to Pine Hill and arrested Edward and Clayton Myers and brought the defendants before Justice James F Kennedy who resides on the Frank Road who issued the warrants for their arrest the complaint against the defendants were withdrawn and a settlement was effected by a civil compromise as provided by section 36 of the Conservation Laws in each case a judgement of $10 was rendered and paid and further states that the defendants did not ask for a trial by jury He deponent did not pay their expenses home and did not say that De Silva hereafter could settle his own petty affairs

FRED DEWITT
State Game Protector

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 6th day of March 1917
MILTON O ALCHMOODY
Notary Public

ABOUT THE FOLKS

Attorney Robert C Groves is in Catskill today on legal business

Mrs R F Thompson has returned to Pine Hill after spending a few months in Kingston

Dr Raymond Sande son pathologist at Vassar Hospital Poughkeepsie was in town on Saturday

Miss Magdalena Brooks of New Paltz spent the week end as the guest of her father Albert Brooks at his home on West Chestnut street

Mrs Margaret Martin and her friend Frank Rhodes of Cornwall spent Saturday and Sunday with Lord Mrs John Martin of Broadway

Mrs Fraul Snyder of Hurley who was operated upon for mastoiditis at the Benedictine Sanitarium on Wednesday last by Dr C R Baker is doing nicely

Lewis Hyatt engineer on the West Shore railroad and formerly of Kingston is recovering from a long illness at his home in Union Hill N J

Little five year-old Harriet Gavitt daughter of Mr Gavitt of the West Shore restaurant who was recently operated upon for mastoiditis by Dr C R Baker is making an excellent recovery

Mr and Mrs Robert R Rodie of Kingston were week end visitors with Mrs I W Hinkley They attended the concert given in the high school on Saturday afternoon by the Dutchess County Association of Musicians—Poughkeepsie Eagle News

The Hon William Rhinelander Stewart president of the State Board of Charities and F H Johnson the assistant of Thomas Mott Osborne while he was warden of Sing Sing Prison were the guests of Judge Clearwater on Saturday

Tool Plant Destroyed

The plant of the Bradley Axel and Tool Company in New Windsor burned to the ground early Saturday morning entailing a loss of $25 000

To Do Settlement Work

Vassar girls plan to open a milk station and settlement center on lower Church street Poughkeepsie this spring

Value of Advertising

From a capital of $20 000 to $25 000 000 in 3 years through advertising is the record of a St Louis corporation The doubter of the virtue of printers ink properly distributed and of the right quality will find a lot of food for thought in that fact—St Louis Star

DIED

EISENBERG—At Brooklyn N Y March 10 1917 Frank G Eisenberg

Interment in Wallwick Cemetery on the arrival of the 2 o p m West Shore train on Wednesday March 14 Relatives and friends are invited to attend

LENT—In this city March 11 1917 Susan wife of the late John Bunt Funeral service at the residence of her daughter Mrs Joseph F Palen No 39 St James street, on Tuesday, at 2 p m Relatives and friends are invited Interment in St Remy Cemetery

REDTMAN—In this city Monday March 12 1917 Cornelius G the 4 year old son of Cornelius J and Henrietta Nolk Heffman

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral from their home No 9 Hoffman street Wednesday morning at 9 o clock and 9 30 o'clock at St Peter's Church

SISTER MARY MICHAEL—At the Benedictine Sanitarium Monday March 12 1917 Sister M Michael Armstrong O S B

Solemn requiem mass in the Benedictine Chapel Wednesday March 14 at 9 a m Relatives and friends and members of Ladies Auxiliary of the Benedictine Sanitarium are invited to attend Interment in St Mary's Cemetery

Memorial Notice

CANFIELD—In loving memory of our dear mother, Estella J Canfield who entered into rest March 12 1916

God but not forgotten
SONS AND DAUGHTER

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mills-Shuberg

Clarence Richard Mills of Paterson N J and Miss Helen Marie Shuberg of this city, were quietly married on Saturday afternoon by the Rev P S Barlinger, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer on Wurts street

Federation Meetings

On Thursday morning of this week at 10 o'clock, the regular March meeting of the executive committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at the home of the president Mrs C K Moulton on Elmendorf street As this is the meeting preceding the full Federation meeting to be held on Saturday next it is important that all members be present

On Saturday afternoon of this week the Twentieth Century Club will entertain the entire Kingston Federation of Women's Club at the chapel of the First Reformed Church The meeting will be called to order at 2 30 o'clock and two most interesting speakers will be presented during the afternoon Miss Charlotte Lugardus will speak about Birds and Miss Louise Driscoll of Catskill will speak on The Spirit and Art of Poetry Today and will give readings from her own poems Such a program as this should bring out every member of the Federation on Saturday afternoon

Schamerhorn Wilcox

Woodside Place the home of Mr and Mrs W E Wilcox in lower Main street Highland was the scene of a pretty spring wedding Sunday evening at half past six o'clock when their daughter Miss Helen Wilcox became the bride of Arthur J Schamerhorn a well known civil engineer of Pittsburgh son of Mr and Mrs Stephen Schamerhorn of Jefferson Michigan The Rev William Wilcox of Baltimore Md a brother of the bride performed the ceremony Southern smilax and sweet peas were used in the decorations arranged by Saltford of Poughkeepsie The bridal party was led by little Miss Carolyn Van Nostrand of Berkeley Cal who wore a white dress trimmed with pink and carried a basket filled with sweet peas Miss Charles Beckert of Danbury Conn a sister of the bride was matron of honor gowned in pink Georgette crepe carrying an armful of pink roses The bride who was given away by her father was gowned in white satin with net overdress and carried a bride's bouquet of white roses and sweet peas After the ceremony the young people left for a short wedding trip before going to Pittsburgh to make their future home

Mrs Chandler Addresses Y M C A Auxiliary

The meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y M C A held on Friday afternoon was one of unusual interest In absence of the president Mrs Fowler the vice president Mrs Mary Brown presided There were some seventy five members present and eleven new members were received Tickets for sale for the coming Fashion Show Musical Pageant and Benefit to be given by the L S [illegible] Company at the Kingston Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and Thursday evening were distributed as this Auxiliary will be one of the beneficiaries of the entertainment The afternoon's program opened with a most interesting and graphic talk given by Mrs George Chandler in which she told of her recent experiences as a visitor on the border After descriptions of the climate the country the people and living conditions and the difficulties attendant upon the establishment of army forces along the border were at once informing and entertaining Mrs Chandler's talk A musical program was enjoyed and afternoon tea was served

ODDS AND ENDS

A meeting of the Jeffersonian League will be held this evening at the club rooms on Fair street

Seamon Brothers of Saugerties sent their automobile hearse to Kingston Sunday for use at a Tongore funeral

The King's Daughters of the Clinton Avenue M E Church are requested to meet at the church on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock to attend the funeral of Mrs Bunt

The regular meeting of the Parent Teachers Association of School No 2 will be held Tuesday afternoon March 13 at the school at 3 30 o'clock Prof R J [illegible] service of the high school will address the meeting

The annual meeting of William H Harrison's Bible class of St James's M E Sunday school will be held at the residence of Mr Harrison corner of Pearl and Green streets Wednesday evening March 14 at 8 o'clock at which time officers will be elected for the ensuing year

The Peter Parmount Fife Drum and Bugle Corps will hold a special meeting on Tuesday evening, March 13 at Steeper's Hall Foxhall avenue All members are urged to be present as the election of officers for the year will be held and the resumption of practice for the summer will take place.

The Parent Teachers Association of School No 2 started their sewing classes on Friday afternoon under the direction of Miss Grace Horne of the sign school with Miss Helen Ieder as teacher After a successful lesson the girls enjoyed biscuits from the Princine baking powder demonstration

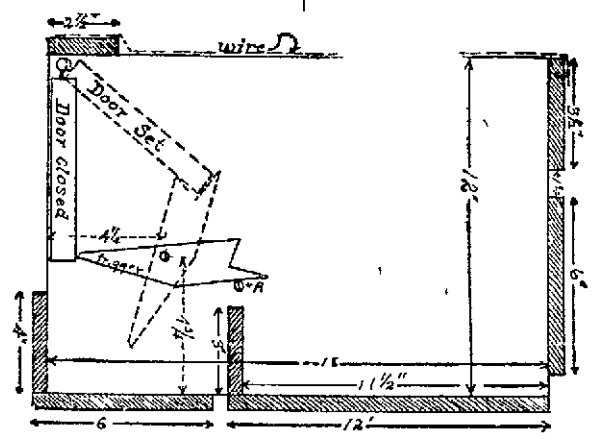
The annual Missionary Society meeting of Trinity M E Church will be held at the home of Mr B H Cism 24 West Chester street next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock We hope every member will be present as new officers for the following year will be elected Mite boxes and all moneys must be brought in Roll call Helpful texts

MISSOURI TRAP NEST IS SATISFACTORY

(By T E QUISENBERRY, Missouri State Poultry Experiment Station.)

There are many kinds of home-made trap nests, but none have proved so satisfactory with us as this one The nests are of good size, 12 by 18 inches inside measure and 12 to 15 inches high. A board 8 inches high is put across the nest 12 inches from the back, which makes a nest 12 inches square and this board holds the nesting material in place. The nests should be built in pairs This makes a nest in which a good large hen can be comfortable either sitting or standing which is a desirable quality in a trap nest This door and trigger can be used on any sort of nest or box you care to use

The body of the nest is built of light material, one half or five-eighths inch lumber The trigger and front door should be made of seven-eighths or inch material Nests which are to be placed under tight droppings platform or underneath any object which will prevent the fowls from roosting on them need be covered only with one-inch mesh poultry netting Otherwise make the top of the nest tight It is a good idea to leave an inch opening in the back or sides of the nests for ventilation



LEFT INSIDE WALL OF NEST AS IT FACES YOU

Wire Door Favored

Use a door consisting of a frame over which small mesh wire has been tacked We like the wire door better than a solid wooden door because of the fact that it affords ample ventilation the lack of which is one of the main faults of the average trap nest

The door is hung on screw eyes which fasten in the upper edge of the frame With a gimlet or small bit make holes in sides and partition for heavy wire near top enhance from which suspend the doors by screw eyes This permits the doors to swing back and forth freely and makes a cheap hinge

The door is checked by means of thumb buttons which are placed on the front of the center partition and act as a stop for both doors If you should be troubled with the buttons working loose tighten them

The trigger can be attached to the side of the nest box by using a long screw but in every case it must work freely The screw must be set squarely into the side of the box to absolutely prevent the trigger from binding against the side Free action of this trigger is positively required.

Setting the Trigger.

The trigger must be set in such a position that when the door is swung inward and rests on the notch it will be invitingly open and at the same time this opening must be small enough to prevent the hen walking into the nest without touching the door with her back As she steps into the nest and slightly raises the door, the trigger is released and falls backward, The door then swings down and the pointed end of the trigger rises behind it effectually locking it

See that the nesting material does not interfere with the trigger Long hay or straw may eventually get piled up in such a manner as to interfere with its action To remove the hen, simply turn the button and swing the door outward or if you prefer turn down the front of the trigger and swing it toward the top of the [illegible] permitting the bird to [illegible] the nest can be

Prefer Secluded Spot.

The hens prefer to lay in some secluded spot Don't put the nest down on the floor or out where it is too light The hens see the soft shelled eggs and the broken eggs and they often develop the habit of egg eating The nests should be simple and constructed so they may be easily removed

We prefer to place the nests under the droppings platform This is a convenient place and the nests do not occupy any of the valuable floor or wall space You should have one nest to every four hens Keep the nests absolutely clean and remove the nesting material quite often

DAMAGED FEED FOR POULTRY

At Present Prices Poultryman May Find It Economical to Buy Good Grade of Salvage

In buying salvage wheat the factor of whether or not the chickens will eat it is very important There are two kinds of salvage wheat One is water soaked which when it comes through a fire smells very strong and has a bad taste The hen will turn this down every time

Fires occurring in elevators where there are no fire fighting facilities leave the wheat in a better condition There may be a little charred wheat in it but the fiery and water soaked odor is not present consequently the palatability of the grain is not much affected At the present prices one may find it paying to feed a good grade of salvage

FEEDS FOR BREEDING STOCK

Keep In Mind Importance of Materials Carrying Proper Proportion of Protein and Fats

In feeding your breeding stock keep well in mind the importance of balanced feeds those carrying the proper proportion of protein carbohydrates and fats

Make regular use of hoppers to contain mash feeds and beef scrap either of which poultry can have access to at all times also the grit oyster shell and charcoal The hens are wiser than many give them credit for and will if given this chance, do their own balancing

PREVENT BIG POULTRY LOSS

Much Money Can Be Saved Poultryman by Keeping Houses Comfortable—Clean Up Now

Half the chickens hatched in the United States die of the white diarrhea 75 per cent of the chicken raisers in the country have losses from roup

The way to prevent these losses is by keeping the poultry comfortable and clean The time to overhaul the poultry yards and houses is now

BAD TRAITS ARE INHERITED

While Chickens Are Maturing Watch Distinguishing Characteristics and Cull Undesirables

It has been proved that criminal tendencies are inherited and that crime runs in families If it were not true that the laws of heredity were evident in the culture of chickens there would be no possibility of breeding with any assurance of obtaining a desired color size or shape While then the chickens are maturing and their distinguishing characteristics are asserting themselves positive be on the lookout for bad characters and weed out the undesirables The bully is pressing a tendency that was born in her She interferes with the contentment of the flock and keeps the rest in a continual state of excitement This in turn affects their laying their appearance and their health and she should be dealt with drastically The feather puller and egg eater are in the same class and they should all go the same road—to the market.—Clemson College Bulletin

KANSAS RATION FOR WINTER

Dry Mash Made of Cornmeal Middlings, Meat Scraps Linseed Oil Meal and Alfalfa

The ration used in winter feeding on the poultry farm of the Kansas State Agricultural college is a dry mash made according to the following formula 60 pounds of cornmeal 60 pounds of wheat middlings or shorts 40 pounds of meat scraps 30 pounds of wheat bran 10 pounds of linseed oil meal 10 pounds of milled alfalfa and 10 pounds of salt

This is fed in connection with a scratching feed thrown into the litter and consisting of three parts of wheat two parts of corn and one part of oats all by weight Grit, oyster shell and charcoal are kept before the birds all the time, and the hens are fed once a day all the green food they will eat clean in half an hour

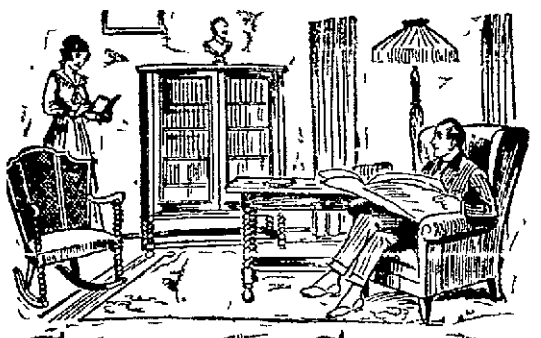
If skim milk is fed the meat scrap in the dry mash is cut one-half In order to induce the hens to drink enough of the milk they should be given no water

Commercial Value of Soy Bean

Soy bean oil mills have been operating for several years with soy beans imported from Manchuria and have found a ready sale in that region for the oil cake and other products.

Oh! What a Story!

Her Friend (to the hero coming into the room)—Eh what is this Her Lover—"I was telling Miss Budd a story" Her Father—"With your arm round her waist" Her Lover—"Er—yes sir It was a love story."



CASH AND CREDIT

FURNISH your home without cash. Never let money matters stand between your family and a comfortable pretty home.

No salary is so small, no income so big, but what our credit system can help you. So many of the nice homes you envy, were bought just in this way.

We help you in a dozen ways—low prices, the easy payment plan, splendid new styles of furniture, carpets, etc.

You'll enjoy a little call at our store----so will we. We never urge a sale.

We sell lower on time than others do for Cash.

The Quality First Store
ROSE-GORMAN-ROSE, INC
"FORMERLY CARL'S"

FOR YOUNG FOLKS

Sleepy Time Story About Kind and Unkind Trees

THE REWARD OF EVERGREENS.

Experience of a Lame Robin Which Could Not Fly Away With Its Companions—How the Oak and the Beech Were Punished For Their Lack of Hospitality

I am going to tell you tonight said Uncle Len to little Ned and Polly Ann about

THE TALKING TREES

Once upon a time as the little birds were making their long journeys to the pleasant warm countries where birds spend the winter a little robin was left behind He had a lame wing and some wicked birds never can fly far

Little robin looked about in the strange woods where tired out he had to stop He crept up to a gnarled old oak tree whose branches soared a hundred feet in the air

I beg let me stay with you all winter the little bird pleaded Your trees will shelter me from the winter winds

But the oak was proud Go away he scold I do not want tramp birds hop you about my branches

The little bird sped to the beech tree but the beech tree made believe not to hear the robin

The maple is so lovely Perhaps he is also kind the little bird said And he went to the maple tree to ask her for shelter But the maple tree was not kind

He came to the cedar stream along which the white birch trees gleamed but the birches said that they were not strong enough to have lodgers

Sadder and sorrowful the little bird started away on his lame wing a dark, shaggy tree standing on the hill slope called to him Here you are welcome to shelter Pity's wanderer It was the tall pine tree with thick needles which could turn off the roughest winter wind.

I, too have a home for you" called the tall dark spruce And the stately cedar whispered that if the little bird cared to live near the dwellings of man not to overlook its sheltering branches in the garden

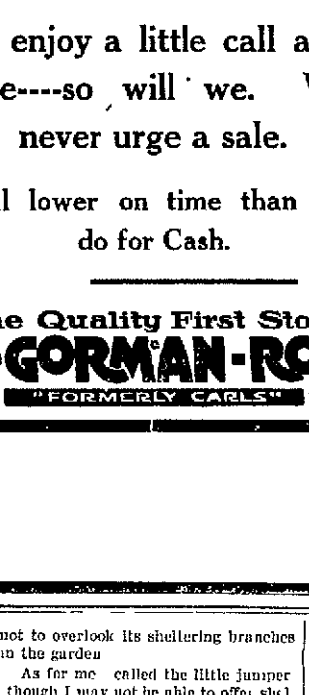
As for me called the little juniper though I may not be able to offer shelter my berries will provide you with food to which you are welcome as long as you need them

And so the little bird stayed with these kind ones and every morning, and every evening, he sang them a little song of gratitude

Old King Winter heard it one day and learned the bird's story He said to one of his wildest winds

Go out into the woods and strip those unkind trees of the leaves of which they are so proud But the trees that have been kind and willing to share what they had with the unfortunate shall always wear their green leaves all winter

Happy Days of Ice and Snow



Photos by American Press Association
RESTING AFTER A SPIN

Old Mrs Northwind and sprightly Jack Frost are friends of little folks. If it were not for the activities of these two worthies there would be little joy in the land for the devotees of coasting and skating Many people complain and rail against the fee and snow but boys and girls are loud in their praises The little lady in the picture was snapped while resting after a strenuous hour on her gleaming skates Like her playmates, she revels in such sports

The Milkman

Our milkman he comes every day,
No matter if it rains and pours
He never cares to mind a bit
What it is doing out of doors

And in the middle of the night
I hear him coming up the stairs
He tiptoes to our door and leaves
Our milk and leaves our neighbors theirs

Our Indians.

The most probable theory of the origin of the American Indian is that which links the Indian with the Mongoloids of East Africa whose physical characteristics are strikingly similar to those of the American aborigine Between the Indian and the Japanese there are many pronounced resemblances and some excellent authorities are of the opinion that it was from that eastern race that the Indian originally sprung If, as some think, the Eskimos are the best representatives of the Indian as he was upon his arrival here the theory of the Japanese origin is immensely strengthened since the likeness between the Eskimo and the Japanese is striking

How Troy Save

You'd be surprised to know how much Mary and I have saved since we got the car said the first suburbanite

How's that? inquired his astonished friend

Well you see every Sunday morning we eat a light breakfast and start out for a spin Around noon we happen to be near the Joneses or the Smiths and of course we drop in They invite us to stay Then on the way back we have to pass the Williamses or the Henrys and they ask us to supper

But you have to pay them back, don't you

No that's the best part of it Since we got the car we are never at home —Kansas City Star

Never Fails.

Look here I want you to take back this alarm clock you sold me awhile back

Why my dear sir that's the most reliable alarm clock on the market.

That's just the trouble It's too determined reliable I never get a chance to oversleep any more."—New York World

Every Thing For the Sport Girl and the Simple Gowned Woman

Dame Fashion has certainly shown her handiwork this spring season in the new creations she has decreed to be worn by the fair sex. Never has there been a season for such beautiful novelties and never have we been more abundantly prepared to meet this demand.

A Novelty Season in Wash Goods

This season will surpass every previous season in novelties; every thing in Wash Goods are novelties.

Reception Voiles—38 inches wide, the popular wash fabric, in floral, plaids, black and oriental designs. Specially priced 29c

Embroidered Voiles—38 inches wide, white grounds in colored, striped embroidered, in spot designs 39c

Wofen Embroidered Voile—38 inches wide, in beautiful combination stripe effects 59c

Shadow Printed Ombre Effects—38 inches wide, in the two tone colorings, interwoven in cord effects 50c

New Skirtings—38 inches wide; these are expected to be extremely popular, heavy cord effects in colored stripes .....50c and 69c

White Gabardine Skirtings—36 inches wide in all the newest weaves of its class. Priced, 39c to 45c

Sport Coatings

Among the new arrivals this past week were some handsome sport coatings, 54 inches wide, beautiful color combination, in the wide stripe and plaid effects, with a rich lustre finish of velour, $1.50 to $2.85

Plain Coating Velour—54 inches wide, colors chartreuse, gold, green and blue. These are light weight coatings, suitable for afternoon and evening wear, especially adapted for opera capes $3.00

Silk and Lingerie Waists

Georgette Crepe and Lace Silk Waists—In all the new colors of chartreuse, gold, shadow lawn, green, maize, flesh and white, from .....$3.95 to $10.00

Lingerie Waists—Of Batiste and Novelty Voiles, of checks and stripes, all white filet lace and embroidery trimmed, priced from $2.00 to $5.75

Sport Stripe Shirt Waists—Beautiful new voile waists in rich color combination of sport stripes with corded effects .. $3.00 and $4.95

WATCH OUR ADVERTISEMENT NEXT WEEK

Wonderful Array of Cretonnes

Cretonnes for draperies are the popular favorite this spring season. The combinations are really beautiful and many are the copies of the oriental and French designs, in bird and floral designs. Prices from .....25c to 50c

Window Shades—We are prepared to make estimates in furnishing homes with window shades, same may be had in the oil opaque, linoline and lonsdale, colors white, ecru or green, prices according to size of shade from...35c to $1.00

Scrims—Now is the time to make up you summer curtains for the cottage or home. We have a beautiful line of the newest effects in plain and figured .....25c to 50c

Gloves! Gloves!

It is a well known fact that in another season if the war continues Kid Gloves will be at a premium. There are few skins or gloves being imported today and many domestic skins are being substituted.

We congratulate ourselves that we are prepared to offer all imported French Kid Gloves and Washable Kid Gloves (the latter are made in America but the skins are imported) thus insuring you of the best gloves obtainable.

Monopole Kid
Alexander Kid
Washable Kid
$1.75 a pair

NOTE—We know these same gloves are selling in New York stores for $2.00 and $2.25.

Silk Dresses for Easter at Popular Prices

We offer here a fine collection of all that is new in Silk Dresses:

at $15.00 This lot comprises of Silk Taffeta and Georgette Dresses, beautifully made, some daintily embroidered, others with overskirts and some in coat effects, specially priced at $15.00

at $19.50 This lot includes Taffeta Dresses with Georgette Sleeves and overskirt effect, large pocket trimmed, at $19.50

at $21.50 Dresses of Georgette Crepe and Crepe Meteor, all box plaited, also Taffeta dresses in the latest styles, at $21.50

at $25.00 These are very stylish models, made of Taffeta, in stripes and checks and plain colors, trimmed in large Georgette collars, some long overskirt effect, velvet trimmed $25.00

SEE OUR AD. NEXT WEEK

G. A. HART and CO.
KINGSTON, N.Y.

SEE OUR AD. NEXT WEEK

PURITY IN OUR BEVERAGES

Absolute purity ought to be a factor included always in your Whiskey and Wine buying, but positively when it's for family use. We lay great stress upon Purity. The age and flavor of our stimulants appeal instantly to those who know the genuine article from the spurious. We can give you the pure, straight Whiskey that will at once commend itself to all for family use. If it's a question of quality at the price you will be well suited.

If you live at some place remote from Kingston, order from us by mail.

New York Wine & Liquor House

52 STRAND and 58 FERRY ST.
KINGSTON, N. Y.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against William G. Kingsley, late of the city of Kingston, county of Ulster, deceased, intestate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Merritt B. Kingsley, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, at his residence, 317 W. Thomas street, in the city of Rome, Oneida county, N. Y., on or before the first day of May, 1917.

Dated, October 24, 1917.

MERRITT B. KINGSLEY, Administrator.

Ward J. Cagwin, Attorney, Rome, N. Y.

—the one thing you've always wished a cigarette would do.

Wednesday you'll get the facts about

Chesterfield

WANT "ADS INSERTED AT THE SMALL COST OF CENT-A-WORD

SILK FLAG FOR ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

At the Sunday morning service at St. John's Church, this city, the new silk flag presented by parishioners of the church, was used for the first time. This handsome flag, the size of the regulation government flag is of rich silk, with a finish of gold colored silk fringe. The flag staff is surmounted by a gilt eagle, and a gold colored silk cord and tassels complete the appointments. Dean Kleiss, of the Boy Scouts of St. John's was the fortunate first color bearer, and at the close of the processional he placed the flag in its standard beside the lectern. In speaking to the congregation, of the gift of the flag, the rector, the Rev. J. I. Blair Larned, called attention to the fact that it was the gift, not of one, but of the majority of the parishioners, all of whom were interested in the idea of such a gift. The fact of the many donors, proved the truth of the statement, "in union here is strength," whether applied to state or church. Mr. Larned then spoke of the need of aroused patriotism at this time, and reminded his congregation that in the early days of history religion was practically patriotism. Today, there is only one word greater than patriotism, and that is Christianity. Now, as never before the two should be used together as symbols of the highest living for every man, woman, boy and girl. In closing, Mr. Larned paraphrased the New Testament words as follows: "How can you love God whom you have not seen if you love not your country which you have seen?"

SAUGERTIES

Saugerties, March 12.—On Saturday employes of the Saugerties Manufacturing Co. received a bonus of 5% on their earnings for the past six months.

The Rev. J. V. Wemple of the Reformed Church Monday afternoon conducted the funeral services in the mortuary chapel over the remains of Mrs. Charles Abeel, who died at Schenectady on March 9. The interment was in Mountain View Cemetery.

Contractor John McKeefrey of Brooklyn spent Saturday at his summer home on Market street.

Trinity Episcopal Church was opened for services Sunday, after an expenditure of $15,000, made for improvements, decorations and organ repairs. During the past six months the church services were held in the chapel. The dedication ceremonies will be held later when Bishop Greer will be present.

Miss Helen Stern of Kingston rendered a solo in an artistic manner at the morning service in Trinity Episcopal Church Sunday morning.

The Saugerties Ministers' Association met Monday afternoon at the home of the Rev. H. I. Hoag on Ulster avenue. The Rev. R. P. Ingersoll of the Baptist Church addressed the association.

Frank Hillebrant of Partition street is in New York city for a few days.

Miss Beatrice Whittaker of Valley street spent Sunday in Poughkeepsie.

George DuBois is ill at his home on Dock street.

The Rev. Father Roche of Esopus, N. Y., preached in St. Mary's Church on Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. A. Hurry and Mrs. Rutger Hurry of New York city are spending a few days at the Maxwell House.

First Aid Classes Tuesday.

In view of word just received from Washington Headquarters of the American Red Cross, the three classes in first aid work for women, will be enabled to hold their first meeting in the downstairs room of the Kingston City Library Tuesday, at the following hours: Class at 10 a. m. Class at 2 p. m. Class at 4 p. m. All class members are asked to bring pencils and note books with them, and to be in attendance promptly on time, as promptness is one of the first requisites of valuable service.

Divorce Decree Granted.

Catherine Markle has been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from her husband, Frederick J. Markle, by Justice G. D. B. Hasbrouck. The action was brought by Mrs. Markle against her husband before Judge Hasbrouck in supreme court. According to final decree filed with the county clerk Mrs. Markle is allowed $50 counsel fees and is given the custody of the two children. Alimony in the sum of $5 a week is allowed.

Bought Meyer Property.

The Meyer property at No. 90 Broadway has been bought by Jacob Balzam, who conducts the barber shop in the building. Mr. Balzam will make many improvements to the property and completely renovate the building.

Sensible Rejoinder.

"Don't you think," asked the young man with the long nose, "that Miss Quickstep dresses as much like a man as possible in order to get herself talked about?" "On the supposition that she does," replied the other young man, with a frosty glitter in his eye, "I suggest that we defeat her purpose by not talking about her. Understand?"

Stains on Leather.

Ink stains on brown leather can be removed by a weak solution of oxalic acid. Apply with a small paint brush, but only allow a few minutes to elapse before wiping the solution away. Two or three applications may be necessary to remove an old deep-seated stain.

LIGHTWEIGHT OVERCOATS FOR SPRING

Relations have been broken off with King Winter.

Ambassador Frost has been handed his passports--- it's time to think of your new Spring Overcoat.

THE HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER

has scored a hit with their new overcoat creations.

The new coats are alive with the military spirit--some belted all 'round, others with the saddle bag pocket effect. Swagger models, loose and shaped in--dress coats and all 'round coats. Our assortments include every new fabric, color and pattern,

$18 $20 $25

"The Kuppenheimer House in Kingston."

MARBLESTONE'S

GERMAN PRISONERS. ©INTERNATIONAL

GERMAN PRISONERS SEARCHING FOR THEIR WOUNDED COMRADES.

Many German mines buried at a recent mine explosion near Douaumont resulted in the death of a great number of Germans. The French immediately after the explosion sent newly captured German prisoners to search the ruins for their comrades among the debris. The picture shows them at work.

Deceived by a Cloud.

The instinct of animals is sometimes supposed to be more infallible than human reason, but a scientist's observations of the katydid rather contradict that opinion. The katydid, with its musical membranes, produces two distinct "songs," one peculiar to the night and familiar to everybody, the other a daytime tune, which is rather a rasp than a melody. According to the scientist mentioned, it is sometimes quite comical to hear the singers suddenly change their tune when a dark cloud obscures the sun, immediately resuming their daytime song when it has passed. This recalls the hens that go to roost during a solar eclipse.

Old and Modern Customs.

Palm Sunday in certain places is called "Fig Sunday" from the custom of eating figs on this day, as snapdragons on Christmas eve, plum pudding on Christmas day, oranges and barley sugar on St. Valentine's eve, pancakes on Shrove Tuesday, salt codfish on Ash Wednesday, frumenty on "Mothering Sunday" (mid-Lent), cross buns on Good Friday, gooseberry tart on Whitsunday, goose on Michaelmas day, nuts on Allhallows, and so on.—London Chronicle.

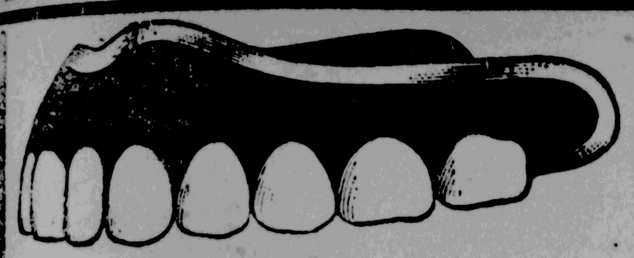
Absurd.

Bootmaker (who has a deal of trouble with his customer)—I think, sir, if you were to cut your corns I could more easily find you a pair. Choleric Old Gentleman—Cut my corns, sir! I ask you to fit me a pair of boots to my feet, sir! I'm not going to plane my feet down to fit your boots!—London Telegraph.

MRS GERARD ON LEFT. ©INTERNATIONAL

MRS. JAMES W. GERARD LEAVING PARIS FOR U.

Mrs. James W. Gerard, wife of the former ambassador to ... saying good-by in the corridor of the special train at the Gare ... Paris, to Miss Sharp, the daughter of the American ambas... France. From Paris the ex-ambassador, Mrs. Gerard and the staff proceeded to Spain to board the steamship Infanta Isabel ... Havana. From Havana the party is to proceed to Key West, wh... special train will convey Mr. Gerard to Washington.



Cady "Fee Bill"

Examination Free; Painless Extraction of teeth, with Local Anaesthetic, each 50c; Silver Filling $1.00; Porcelain Filling $2.00; Gold Filling, from $2.00; Gold Inlays, from $3.00; Porcelain Crowns, $5.00; Gold Crowns, $5.00; Bridgework, per tooth, $5.00; Porcelain Gum Plates, $20.00; Roofless Plates $20.00; Gold Plates, $50.00; Rubber Plates, $8.00, $10.00 and $15.00. No charge for extractions when plates are ordered.

Hours—9 to 9. Sunday, 9 to 1 p. m.

CADY DENTAL OFFICE

324 Wall St. Kingston, N. Y.

Shirt Operators Wanted At Once

Who will work in a spotlessly clean day light factory, good healthful sunshine in every nook and corner.

At noon you can spread out your lunch in a clean up-to-date lunch room.

An enjoyable noon hour is assured in our large reception room—singing, dancing and all other amusements.

We guarantee to give you work all year—no slack seasons.

Positions are open for all the different parts of shirts.

F. Jacobson & Sons

SMITH AVENUE AND CORNELL STREET

KINGSTON, N. Y.

THE FAMOUS

METZ CAR

IS COMING TO TOWN

Winner of Glidden Tour

And Holder of Many Other Records

Runabout Touring $600

Most Economical Car, 24 miles to Gallon

Mr. George Starr, our representative, will be at the Eagle Hotel, March 12th and 13th.

ROBT. LURIE & CO., Eastern Distributors — 240 West 56th St. New York City

Good Proposition for Live Agents

THE LABEL ON THE BOTTLE

is what tells the story, you don't have to look farther. Our beer is appreciated most by those who base their choice upon merit, and know it when they find it. The man who has found our beer, always demands it, he will never take a substitute, because no other will suit him quite as well. Be sure the label on your bottle bears the name of Red Monogram.

Geo. Hauck & Sons' Brewing Co.

Guarantee Radiator Works

EXPERT REPAIRING ON

AUTO RADIATORS, LAMPS AND WINDSHIELD GLAZING

Fenders, Tanks and Floor Trays Made to Order and Repaired

Radiators, Lamps, Windshields Sold and Exchanged

7 MAIN ST. Phone 223 Kingston, N. Y.

POST DITTUS NOT OFF MILITIA MAP

Bayonets Dipped Into Ink These Spring-like Days and Guardsmen Gambol. Making One Another Goats for Kidding Comment.

We received a bundle of magazines today and you ought to see Jack Reed. (Read.)

Clear the way men. Private Krueger (Sitting Bull) has been painted up, and is now on the war path. Private Basch (Old Iron Tail) did the painting.

Discovered—A couple of new hairs on Jim Howard's bald head.

Private Basch is in his glory. We have received a keg of fish.

We wonder why Private Saulpaugh does not go to Gardiner any more? (This double duty is awful. Is it not Frank?)

Private Bunten received six letters today. Oh, please Bunt ask them to write to some one else once in a while.

A debate is to be held tomorrow night. The topic will be, "Will Sergt. Duncan mop the floor each morning or not?"

Sergeant Luedtke says they need not think he will mop the floor if Duncan wins. We expect another debate very soon then.

The boys out here have organized an orchestra.

Post Dittus is some place. And we extend a most cordial invitation to all people to visit us.

Privates Howard and Norton were seen chopping wood today. And the only reason for it was: Could not leave dear old Kingston on time. But they say, "We should worry. That's how Lincoln got his start."

Cook Carter, better known as steeplejack, took an ascension today. Old Glory was caught on the top of the pole and it took little Bob to release it.

Private Simmons expects to get a hair cut soon. Will some kind person send Barber Schupp a lawn mower?

Bill Clarke is acting chauffeur for Lieut. Dittus. Remember the old saying, "Safety First," lieutenant!

Private A. Schupp wishes to challenge any women to a dish washing contest. Better not accept ladies, as he sure is some dish washer.

Sergt. Duncan amused the men recently with a few stunts. The first was tumbling through a putty blower and he got throught it very nicely.

Here's to Lieut. Dittus,
The commander of our post.
Of all the officers we ever met,
Him we love the most.
We'd swear for him. We'd tear for him.
The Lord knows we'd bear for him.
We'd lie for him. We'd sigh for him.
We'd drink the reservoir dry for him.
We'd curse for him. We'd do worse for him.
Kick up a thundering fuss for him.
We'd weep for him. We'd leap for him.
We'd go all night without sleep for him.
We'd fight for him. We'd bite for him.
We'd stay on guard all night for him.
We'd plead for him. We'd bleed for.
We'd go without any feed for him.
We'll shoot for him. We'll root for him.
When anyone tries to rival him.
We'll deal for him. We'll steal for him.
Such is the love we feel for him.
We'll slide for him. We'll ride for him.
We'll swim against the tide for him.
We'll try for him. We'll cry for him.
But we'll be gosh darned if we'll die for him.

PHOENICIA.

Phoenicia, March 12.—John E. Wright, died at his home in Chichester on Wednesday evening. He had been sick most of the winter. The funeral service was held in home on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. E. Bohne-Echoit of the M. E. Church officiated. Interment at the lower cemetery at Chichester.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lord, who have been spending some time in New York city, returned home last week.

Miss Grace Smith is home for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Emma Simpson returned home on Friday, last week, after a long visit with friends in Binghamton and Brooklyn. We are glad to see her home again.

We have heard that Howard Winnie plans to move to Kingston. We are mighty sorry to Mr. and Mrs. Winnie leave us.

The three notaries public for Phoenicia appointed by the governor are H. Lee Breithaupt, John J. McGrath and Theodore A. Voss.

Charles Van Steenburgh died at the home of his son Wilbur Van Steenburgh in this place on Friday morning. He had been ill since the first week in January. He leaves a son Wilbur and three sisters. The funeral service was held from the home of Wilbur Van Steenburgh on Sunday morning at 9:30 and was conducted by the Rev. E. Bohne-Echolt. Interment was at Woodstock.

Net Law to be Enforced.

Game protectors of the Hudson division have been orderd by Division Chief Protector Joseph M. De Silva to prosecute all persons found hauling nets after sunset and before sunrise which is a violation of Section 273 of the Conservation Laws. The definition of "nets" includes seines, gill nets, pound nets, trap nets, scap nets, fyke nets, dip nets, scoop nets and stake nets. All persons found hauling the above mentioned nets after sunset and before sunrise will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Two Groups.

Some fellows divide their friends into assets and liabilities.

SERVICES SUNDAY WERE IMPRESSIVE

At Rondout Presbyterian Church—Thirty-three Persons United With Church—Every Member Canvass Held—Dr. Ellis Preached Scholarly Sermons.

Impressive services were held on Sunday morning at the Rondout Presbyterian Church at which time the Sacrament of Our Lord's Supper was observed and thirty-three new members welcomed into the church. The Rev. Dr. C. G. Ellis, pastor of the church, preached a stirring sermon, taking as his topic "Consider Christ Jesus."

The new members were: Louis Beeres, George C. Linkletter, Watson Short, Mrs. Louis Beeres, Dr. John L. MacKinnon, Mrs. Watson Short, Mrs. Franklin L. Williams, Dorothy Beeres, Dr. Charles D. Carter, John C. Connelly, Mrs. Samantha A. Conner, Frank D. Dewey, Mrs. Harvey E. Decker, Mrs. Herbert F. Finley, Charles E. Fox, Mrs. Catherine A. McClung, Rachel M. North, Eleanor DuBois Reading, Helen G. Smith, Elsie Elizabeth Soper, Mrs. Isabel Stokes, Earl Stokes, Alice E. Stokes, Charles E. Williams, Franklin L. Williams, Esther M. Watson, Iva L. M. Finley, Sarah LeFever, William H. Metcalf, Margaret N. Rodie, Ruth Scott, Mrs. Nicholas Shultis and B. Frank Stevens.

During the afternoon the "Every Member" canvass was held and the men of the church visited the homes of the congregation securing pledges for the support of the work of the church.

At the evening service Dr. Ellis preached, taking as his topic "Poor Relations," and special music was rendered by the chorus choir under the direction of Miss Los Kamp. The evening service was preceded by a young people's meeting held in the chapel, which was largely attended.

This evening the Westminster Guild will meet in the chapel and the Whatsoever Band will meet Friday afternoon.

At the prayer services Thursday evening the tabernacle hymn book will be used and the subject will be "The Stolen Christ."

The Boy Scouts, Tiger Troop, will meet in the chapel Friday evening.

The Woman's Missionary Society will hold the last of the series of sewing bees in the chapel on Thursday afternoon, commencing at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Charles G. Ellis, backed by a competent committee, will have the supper in charge, which will be served for the usual price of ten cents. All the women of the congregation are urged to be present and are invited to remain for the prayer service that evening.

Use of Glycerin.

For bad bruises—mix five spoonfuls of glycerin and one spoonful of subacetate of lead. Shake up in a bottle and keep corked. Apply some on a piece of lint and cover with a bandage. For coughs—A small teaspoonful of glycerin should be swallowed slowly. Those who dislike the sweetness of glycerin may mix it with a little lemon or orange juice, or even vinegar.

SUFFRAGE SCHOOL.

Oratory and Art of Holding Meetings to be Taught.

Woman suffrage from its A B C's to its most complicated workings will be taught at the suffrage school, which will be held here in the supervisors' room of the court house Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The sessions will be called at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock in the evening. The school mistress, Miss Elinor Byrns, of New York city, is a brilliant young lawyer, having graduated from the New York University Law School in 1907. One of her most effective methods of instruction is to divide the school into suffragists and antis and then make the former convert the latter.

Some of the pupils will practice making three-minute speeches during one of the sessions; methods of planning and conducting street and class meetings will be considered; and several topics of interest will be developed by Miss Byrns, including "The Legal Status of Women," "A History of the Progress of Man Suffrage" and "Women in War." The school is open to anyone who wishes to attend any or all of the sessions.

Longyear Buys Lunch Room.

Elting Longyear, who secured a judgment of $517 against Richard Ryan, the Broadway lunch room proprietor, was the highest bidder on Saturday when Sheriff Shultis offered the property for sale. Mr. Longyear bid $550 and the outfit and equipment was struck off to him for that amount.

He Smiles—

when he sees a cup of delicious

INSTANT POSTUM

This wholesome food-drink cheers without demanding the after-price of nervous reaction, because it contains none of the harmful elements of tea and coffee.

"There's a Reason"

Sold by Grocers.

Guard Against Jack Frost

with "Exide" Starting & Lighting Service

JACK FROST is a real enemy of the Starting and Lighting Battery. Prepare your battery to resist his attacks by making sure that it is in good condition for its winter's work.

Remember, that your car is much harder to start in winter than in summer, and also that the long winter nights call for greater use of lights.

Drive around to our "Exide" Service Station and let us inspect your battery. We make no charge for this service. Expert attention at this time will assure you good service this winter and save you money.

If you do not run your car this winter—send your battery to us and let us care for it during the cold weather. We will give it proper care and return it to you in the spring in good condition. Our small charge for this service may save you the cost of a new battery in the spring.

STUYVESANT GARAGE

A. H. CHAMBERS, Propr.

TELEPHONE 1176 KINGSTON, N. Y.

The Early Pullet Lays the Early Egg

And the early egg—say late November and through December—commands the top price of the year.

Start a

BUCKEYE INCUBATOR

in March or early April; raise the many chicks you'll hatch in a coal-burning Standard Colony Brooder, and this good money is yours.

We know the Buckeye Incubator and the Standard Colony Brooder will do exactly what we say. We guarantee it, and our guarantee is backed by the manufacturer. Everybody gets a square deal. Nothing beats the "Buckeye," and the Standard Colony Brooder has no equal. Come in and see them.

CANFIELD SUPPLY CO.
16-18 Strand and 35 to 37 Ferry St.
Kingston, N. Y.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against Walter Eckert, late of the town of Hurley, county of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Emily Eckert and Frank H. Snyder, the executors of the estate of said deceased, at the residence of Frank H. Snyder at Hurley, in the said county of Ulster, New York, on or before the 20th day of March, 1917.

Dated, September 18, 1916.

EMILY ECKERT,
FRANK H. SNYDER,
As Executors of the Will of Walter Eckert, Deceased.

V. B. Van Wagonen, Attorney, Kingston, N. Y.

New Spring Hats AWAIT YOUR CHOOSING

Men who wish to find the Hat of their choice have the best selection at our store to select from.

Knox, Stetson's Young's Wilson's and Murphy's

The colors and styles of Soft Hats are very correct and pretty.

Soft Hats, from 50c to $5.00.

THE DERBIES

are popular this spring, and the styles are conservative and particularly good. We'll be pleased to show you.

Derby prices $2 to $5.

C. S. WOOD

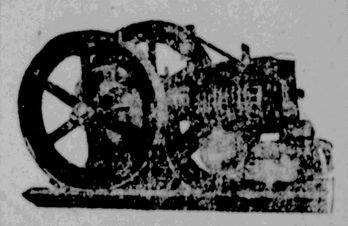
297-299 WALL STREET

Table Bed

A Wonderful Combination

DEMONSTRATED AT

GREGORY & CO.'S



New Way Air Cooled Gasoline Engines

For running Pumps, Separators, Saws, Electric Light Plants, etc. In sizes 1 to 12 h. p.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE.

Canfield Supply Co.

Wholesale Dealers in Plumbers, Tinners, Heating, Engineers, Farm Machinery and Poultry Supplies.

16 to 18 Strand, and 35 to 37 Ferry St., KINGSTON, N. Y.

THE BIG DOWNTOWN STORE.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW York, by the Grace of God, Free and Independent.—To Israel H. Snyder, Kingston, New York; Ira Snyder, Cottekill, Ulster County, New York; Catherine Snyder, Cottekill, Ulster County, New York; Jennie Snyder, Kingston, New York; Russell Snyder, Kingston, New York; Grant Snyder, Fort Lee, New Jersey; Clara Catana, Fort Lee, New Jersey; Sarah Houghtaling, Port Ewen, New York; Cora Van Buren, Hudson, New York; Bruyn Snyder, 1224 Mascher St., Philadelphia, Pa.; Percy Snyder, 510 Hudson St., New York City, New York; Eula B. Snyder, 384 Chestnut St., Arlington, New Jersey; Gertrude Hendrickson, 108 East Ridgewood Ave., Ridgewood, New Jersey; Bertha Snyder, 228 East East Ridgewood Ave., Ridgewood, N. J.; James Snyder, 176 North Maple Ave., Ridgewood, N. J.; Henrietta Dunwoodie, 104 Glen Ave., Philipsburgh, N. J.; Sarah E. Swart, 13 Grove Place, East Orange, N. J.; Emma Codwise, Kingston, New York; Anna Bruyn, 515 Third St., Brooklyn, New York; Jennie Davidson, Saugerties, New York; Hudson Snyder, Parson, Kansas; Sarah Nellis, Fort Plains, New York.

You and each of you are hereby cited to show cause, at a surrogate's court to be held in and for the county of Ulster at the surrogate's office in the city of Kingston, in said county, on the 9h day of April, next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, why the last Will and Testament of Sarah E. Keator, late of the city of Kingston, Ulster County, deceased, presented to said surrogate's court should not be admitted to probate and recorded as a Will of real and personal estate, in pursuance of the statute, on the petition of Clement Keator of the city of Kingston, the executor named therein.

In Testimony Whereof, we have caused the seal of said surrogate's court to be hereunto affixed. Witness, Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of our said county, at the city of Kingston, the 3rd day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

(L.S.) WALTER H. GILL,
Clerk of the Surrogate's Court.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed bids are solicited for labor and materials for the erection of a stone addition to the filter building of the Kingston city water department at Zena, Ulster county, New York, according to the plans and specifications on file at the office of the water commissioners, city hall, Kingston, N. Y.

Bids will be opened at said office on March 22, 1917, at three o'clock p. m.

The board of water commissioners reserve the right to reject any and all bids. Bids must be accompanied with certified check for 10 per cent of the amount of the bid, payable to "Kingston Water Works Department."

Board of Water Commissioners of the City of Kingston, N. Y., by JOHN H. HARRISON,
Superintendent.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against Mary W. Myer, late of the town of Ulster, county of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Philip Elting, one of the executors of the estate of said deceased, at his office, No. 280 Wall St., in the city of Kingston, N. Y., on or before the first day of May, 1917.

Dated, October 2nd, 1916.

PHILIP WOOLSEY and
PHILIP ELTING,
Executors, etc., of Mary W. Myer, Deceased.

Philip Elting, Attorney, 280 Wall St., Kingston, N. Y.

Kingston Daily Freeman.

TERMS:

Per Annum in advance $5 00
Per Month 50

Two Cents Per Week.

Entered as Second-class matter at the postoffice at Kingston, N. Y.

Published by Freeman Publishing Company, at 369 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y. Jay F. Klock, President; Alfred Sutton, Secretary and Treasurer. Address 369 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y. Louise M. Klock, Vice-President, 213 Albany Avenue, Kingston, N. Y.

Member American Newspaper Publishers' Association.
Member New York Associated Dailies.
Official paper of Kingston City.
Official paper of Ulster County.

Please address all communications and make all money orders and checks payable to Freeman Publishing Company, 369 Broadway.

Telephone Calls:
New York Telephone Main Office, Dorstown, 1575. Uptown Office, 822.

KINGSTON, N. Y., MARCH 12, 1917.

When, in opening the Newburgh Automobile Show, State Highway Commissioner Duffey emphasized the necessity for completing the Storm King Highway within another year, he was taking up a matter in which the entire Hudson Valley has a direct interest to say nothing of the State at large and the good folk of Orange county. The Storm King road is one of the two important connecting links in a trunk highway along the west shore of the Hudson: the Rondout bridge is the other. Both are essential numbers on the Highway Department program for the next season. This West Shore highway is entitled to preference from the fact that it would necessarily become a main artery in any scheme of defense, the presence of West Point and the Iona Island munitions station on this side of the river making improved highways an essential. When the few millions that the Federal Government is going to give New York State for highway work are expended, it would seem a most proper step that these should be used solely for the completion of trunk highway systems, or connecting links. Highway preparedness is one of the most useful forms that defense preparations can take, especially within a State occupying the peculiarly valuable strategical position that New York does on the military maps.

That a large proportion of the people of the United States have themselves raised the funds for the carrying on of German propaganda throughout the United States is the disquieting charge which has developed as the result of an arrest of a swindler in New York city. Investigators assert that $5,000,000 raised for the relief of German sufferers never left this country but were put to the dubious duty of footing the bills of the pro-German sentiment builders. It will take more than the mere statement of probers to convince of the truth of this charge. It [illegible] many misled men and women have been wickedly misled into contributing toward a fund to injure their country. In the belief that their contributions were being directly applied to the aid of war sufferers in the Fatherland. In view of the serious nature of these reports, it is the duty of the subscribers to these war relief funds to do a little investigating upon their own hook. It ought not to require any undue effort to ascertain whether such funds ever reached Germany and, if not, whether they were applied to the acceleration of public sentiment and to the furtherance of diabolical schemes with Mexico and other nations to our discredit and damage.

There are found persons in this country as well as in Germany who defend the Kaiser's proposition to Mexico and Japan on the ground that war was expected. But the important fact is that a state of war did not exist and that even now war is still an uncertain matter of the future. Had the two countries been at war, Germany could have justified her effort to secure allies against the United States, but as the case stands she secretly committed an act of war by seeking such alliances while still openly professing friendship for the United States and publicly discussing the continuance of peaceful relations.

Northern folk who are acquainted with rice only in the form of pudding, or as a gummy mush to be eaten with sugar, know little of the qualities of this enormously nutritive cereal that are brought out by the proper cooking—a steaming rather than a boiling so that each swelled grain may remain individual and retain its original shape. Year in and year out the average Southerner daily eats rice thus prepared with unfailing appetite, taking successive helpings of it on his plate with his meat, gravy and vegetables. In a word, rice is made a staff of life second only to bread in its various forms. Now that potatoes are virtually prohibitive in price, Northern and Western victims of the potato habit could not do better than to make trial of the Southern manifestation of the Asiatic methods of rice eating.

The Japanese have spurned the German invitation to an alliance that reached or was to reach them via Mexico and have declared their champions fealty to their present allies. This is only what might have been expected under the circumstances and is sufficient for the present, but you never can tell about the future. No alliances are permanent, and nations seem to be able to join forces after warring with each other much more readily than individual men. Japan and Russia, for example, are now allies, although twelve years ago they clutched each other in a death grapple. Perhaps it would be too much to say that nations are as soulless as corporations, but international alliances are mere matters of policy and policy changes with shifting conditions. The future may yet see Japan and Germany lined up together, to say nothing of Mexico.

LITTLE LAUGHS.

Mrs. Parker—"Our new cook has learned all my ways." Parker—"Don't worry. She may improve."—Life.

Cholly—"Will you marry me if I stop smoking cigarettes?" Miss Bright—"No, Mr. Sappy. I couldn't think of marrying a man who did nothing."—Boston Transcript.

"He speaks several languages fluently." "The accomplishment must be a source of satisfaction." "It isn't. He can't think in one language without getting suspicious of himself in several of the others."—Washington Star.

"Your constituents don't seem to agree with some of your remarks." "No," replied Senator Sorghum. "A whole lot of people never seem to pay the slightest attention to anything I say except when they disagree with it."—Washington Star.

"I met Gilthers just now. He had a hoe, a rake, and a large package of garden seed." "Going to plant something, eh?" "Oh, no. Of course not. I think he got those things together for the purpose of attending a directors' meeting at his bank."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Sparks was talking to Perkins of the latter's recent move to a suburb, and during the course of his remarks, put the following inquiry: "Sparks, now that you're living in the country, don't you miss the early morning noise and the bustle of the city?" "Yes, said Sparks, 'if I miss the 6:35 train."—Puck.

Real Enjoyment.

A man came up to a lecturer in a hotel and said, with enthusiasm:

"Well, sir, I enjoyed your lecture very much last night."

"I didn't see you there."

"Oh, I wasn't there."

"Well, what do you mean by telling me you enjoyed my lecture when you were not present?"

"Oh, I bought tickets for my girl's father and mother and they both went."—Christian Herald.

The Colonel Was Clever.

The soldiers marched to the church and halted in the square outside. One wing of the edifice was undergoing repair, so there was room for about half the regiment.

"Sergeant," ordered the colonel, "tell the men who don't want to go to church to fall out."

A large number quickly availed themselves of the privilege.

"Now, sergeant," said the colonel, "dismiss the men who d'd not fall out and march the others to church—they need it most."—Boston Transcript.

A Good Horse.

Old Mr. Caswell was an inveterate horse trader, and also a good deal of a wag.

One day he swapped a decidedly disreputable looking nag, and after the deal was consummated he said:

"Now, sir, I'll tell yer fair an' square. That horse has got two faults."

"Yes, and more, too, I guess," associated the other. "But what are the two you mention?"

"Well," confided old Caswell, slowly, "if he gets out in the field he's the hardest horse to catch yer ever see, an' when yer catch him he ain't worth a cuss."—National Magazine.

His Funniest Story.

Of all the funny stories I recall at the present moment, I think I can work up the best laugh over the tale of the two Irishmen who were arguing about the relative merits of New York and Chicago. You know there is a type of person who, when he knows nothing about a thing and finds you don't either, will start in and explain it to you. These two were both of that kind. Said one:

"Why, in New York we have grass growing right on the roof, just the same as down on the ground. You can have your front yard on top of the house."

"That's nothin," declared the other. "In Chicago we play golf on the roofs."

"Golf? You mean that game where you knock a ball back and forth across a net?"

"Yes, that's it."

"You demmed idjut, that's not golf! You're talking about croquet."

"Well, I meant to say croquet."

"Yes," said the other one, "I knew you couldn't mean golf. How would they get the horses up on the roof for a golf game?"—Everybody's Magazine.

TWENTY AND TEN YEARS AGO.

March 12, 1887.—Building at 580 Broadway, owned by E. T. McGill, damaged by fire.

Death of Mrs. Rebecca Shader at West Hurley.

March 12, 1897.—Appellate division of supreme court denied motion of rearrangement of Colonial case, where condemnation of Kingston City's trunk had been denied.

Mayor Wilbur voiced resolution calling for appointment of a committee of aldermen to oppose establishment of a board of public works.

March 13, 1907.—An act amending the city charter and providing for appointment by mayor of three five commissioners introduced in legislature.

Michael Jerson died at his home on West Pierpont street, aged 67 years.

March 12, 1907.—Health board ordered all connections with the Twaalfskill brook discontinued.

Ladies' Aid Society Election.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Church of the Comforter was held Wednesday evening, March 7, in the Sunday school room. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. N. Freer; vice-president, Mrs. G. Shufeldt; secretary, Mrs. A. DeForest; treasurer, Mrs. R. Kelder; flower committee, Mrs. C. Lasher. Mrs. Kelder has held the office of treasurer for the past sixteen years. All reports of the past year were read and accepted, and showed a most successful year. Fifteen new names were added to the society making a total membership of seventy-three. A social hour was spent, to which the ladies' husbands were invited. Refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, coffee, cake and cream.

Contractor Was Beaten Up.

Contractor John McKeefrey, who was held up, beaten and robbed in Brooklyn one night last week, has returned to Saugerties and says he feels none the worse for the experience.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

You'll be glad to see the spring styles in Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

Varsity Fifty Five

Very unusual values; and very desirable colorings and fabrics. You have your choice of 1, 2, or 3 button models; patch pockets; different cuffs and other details.

Belt backs

Every young man and every young spirited man ought to have one of these belt-back variations in his wardrobe this season--they're the big favorites.

Varsity Six Hundred

The best of the spring overcoat styles are the Varsity Six Hundred; some with belts; others loosely draped; variations for everbody. Prices easy.

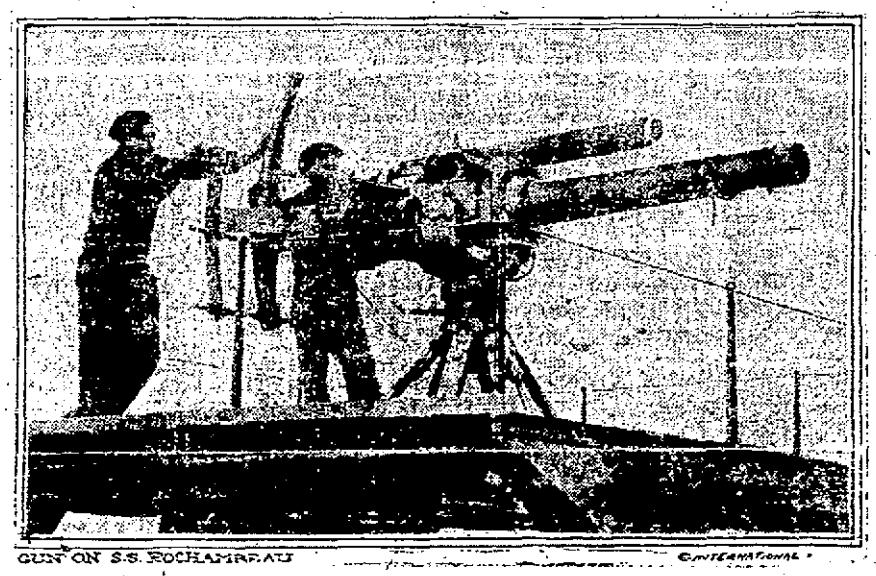
Every fabric used by Hart Schaffner & Marx is strictly all wool; they were the first makers of clothing to adopt that standard at a time when cotton mixtures were very common. They have maintained it always. It's an important point right at this time when the market conditions are so unusual.

They're here: Boys' and Children's Suits and Top Coats. Spring neckwear, hats, shirts, hosiery---A remarkable service for you; the goods are gathered in your interest and sold that way; the more we do for you, the more we do for ourselves.

Boys' and Children's Department 2ND Floor

S. COHEN'S SONS

331 Wall St. Tele. 900 Kingston, N. Y.



GUN ON S.S. ROCHAMBEAU ©INTERNATIONAL

FRENCH 77-MILLIMETRE GUN ON S. S. ROCHAMBEAU.

The French liner Rochambeau was the first Allied merchant ship to arrive at the port of New York armed fore and aft. The picture shows the Rochambeau's 77-millimetre stern gun, attended by two expert French gunners.

Standardized Lines

Less time consumed in the actual selling, means more time for personal contact with our friends.

Our shelves hold only standardized lines—products half sold by a name of merit gained by years of service. They cost more to us—in money—but they leave time for the often hurried motorist to request a fog-lifting explanation of that point. That's what we want. To illustrate, consider, MILLER Geared-to-the-Road TIRES.

Here is an established brand—a product deep-rooted in the regard of thousands of motorists. It is a real pleasure to sell Millers. No arguing—no visions of a scowling, returning face. A quick sale. And the saved time can be devoted to assisting you.

This is the fourth of a weekly series outlining our policies and plans for serving the motorists of Kingston. Watch for them all!

Universal Tire & Rubber Co.
L. G. DUTTON, Mgr.
286 Fair Street
Phone 410 Kingston, N. Y.

Don't Throw It Away--- Have It Replated!

ELECTRO PLATING

In Gold, Silver or Nickel
Brass Plating, Bronzing, Lacquering, Japanning?

We make a specialty of Restoring Antiques, Repairing and Replating Silverware. Save labor by having the metal parts on your Auto Nickel Plated.

Prices Reasonable. Work Guaranteed

The W. G. Browne Manufacturing Co.
'Phone 316-J
Kingston — New York

Richard Tappen

Greenkill Avenue, At Sterling Street

MASONS' BUILDING MATERIAL

Lehigh Portland Cement
King's Windsor Plasters
Plaster Boards
Sewer Pipe & Flues
Fire Brick & Clay
Slate Surfaced Roofing
Tiger Hydrated Lime
Plastic Roofing Cement
Beaver Board

[illegible] OF KINGSTON DRIVE AT [illegible] TION.

Pursuant to the General Municipal Law of the State of New York, Chapter 247 of the Laws of 1913, the City Charter of the City of Kingston, N. Y., and an ordinance passed by the Common Council of said city, on July 5th, 1916, the undersigned treasurer of the City of Kingston, will sell at public auction at the City Hall, in said city, on the 15th day of March, 1917, at 10 a. m., bonds issued for the purpose of paying the school's bonded indebtedness amounting to the sum of "Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars as follows:

Erecting and equipping new high school bonds $10,000 in denominations of $1,000 each, payable April 1st, 1936.

Said bonds must be paid for on day of delivery, on or before the 31st day of March, 1917.

Said bonds will bear interest at the rate of 4½ per cent, payable semi-annually on the 1st days of April and October.

The principal and interest of said bonds will be payable at the office of the treasurer of said city.

Dated, Kingston, N. Y., March 5, 1917.

WARD B. EVERETT,
City Treasurer.

CITY TREASURER'S NOTICE.
Special Assessment.

Notice is hereby given that I have received the warrant for the collection of the special assessment of 75 per cent of the expenses incurred in the construction of a sanitary sewer in Andrew street between a point at or about 150 feet from Broadway and the existing sewer in Andrew street at junction of Lavan street, in the city of Kingston.

The same has been left with me for collection at my office in the city hall, in said city; that for thirty days from the date of this notice the said assessment may be paid without additional fees or charges, and that for the twenty succeeding days 2 per centum additional will be collected.

If any of the said special assessments shall remain unpaid at the time last mentioned, I shall give a written or printed notice to the person or persons against whom such assessment stands charged, requiring them to pay such unpaid assessment to me at my office within thirty days thereafter, with 5 per centum fees thereon, and one dollar for such notice, as required by the city charter.

Dated at the Treasurer's Office, City of Kingston, March 10th, 1917.

WARD B. EVERETT,
City Treasurer.

CITY TREASURER'S NOTICE.
Special Assessment.

Notice is hereby given that I have received the warrant for the collection of the special assessment of 75 per cent of the expenses incurred in the construction of a sanitary sewer in Cornell street between Smith avenue and Tremper avenue, in the city of Kingston.

The same has been left with me for collection at my office in the city hall, in said city; that for thirty days from the date of this notice the said assessment may be paid without additional fees or charges, and that for the twenty succeeding days 2 per centum additional will be collected.

If any of the said special assessments shall remain unpaid at the time last mentioned, I shall give a written or printed notice to the person or persons against whom such assessment stands charged, requiring them to pay such unpaid assessment to me at my office within thirty days thereafter, with 5 per centum fees thereon, and one dollar for such notice, as required by the city charter.

Dated at the Treasurer's Office, City of Kingston, March 10th, 1917.

WARD B. EVERETT,
City Treasurer.

ADVERTISERS ESTIMATE THE VALUE BY THE CIRCULATION.

And The Freeman has a circulation double that of all other Kingston dailies combined.

SAM BERNSTEIN & CO.

WALL ST., KINGSTON, N. Y.
PHONE 14

FIRST SHOWING OF
MEN'S SPRING SUITS
At $14.75 and $11.75

Suits made in a common sense way, of smart, lightweight fabrics, with all those style-touches which mark the up-to-date, correctly clothed man this spring. There are blue, brown and green flannels, cassimeres, tweeds and fancy mixed worsteds. All the newest wrinkles in Belter Models.

LOW PRICED SHOES
WITH STYLE
$4.00

Black and tan calf (button or lace) made on smart looking lasts of the kind you expect in higher priced shoes only.

Men's Spring Suits
—AT—
$18.00 $22.00, $25.00

A dozen different styles at the prices, each with a slight change. English soft rolls predominate in three and four button models but the shapes of the collars and lapels differ widely. The fronts are cut straight with rounded corners. High waisted, semi-form fitting coats for young men. Conservative styles for those who prefer them.

NEW HATS $1.88

Soft hats in all new blocks—drab, stone, navy and other colors. Derbies in several good looking styles of course, are black.

SHOWING BOYS' & JUVENILE CLOTHING
$2.95

Norfolk models, patch pockets, in plain and mixed fabrics, all colors.

$4.85 SUIT

Made in English Style, of newly imported home spuns, tweeds and cassimeres, in correct spring colorings.

TOPCOAT

Top Coats in homespuns, coverts and English mixtures. A complete assortment for boys from two and a half to nine.

$1.00 WASH SUITS

Fresh, crisp, snappy little suits of serviceable tub fabrics, in white; plain colors, stripes, checks and very attractive color combinations.

Bernstein & Co.

Their Limit.

He—Look how many wives you hear of who drive their husbands to drink. She—And think of the very few wives you hear of who can drive their husbands to work.

WIBOW GIVES HER VERSION OF STORY

Mrs. Louise Sully Denier, widow of the late Anthony Denier, stated today in a lengthy telephone communication to The Freeman that a published statement of the amount of the settlement of the judgment secured by her late husband was in error. Mrs. Denier said that the judgment for $3,222 was settled by her payment to Mr. Denier on March 2d of $3,000 and that to raise this amount with $900, her lawyers' fees, made it necessary for to mortgage her possessions. She was not informed of Mr. Denier's death until a neighbor brought in a copy of The Freeman Saturday night and although she had been sick for ten days past, she came to Kingston but was told at the hospital that the body had been already shipped to Chicago. This was incorrect, she afterward learned, she said, as it was then at the railway station. Contrary to opinion, the widow stated that Mr. Denier had property in Chicago and Denver, Colorado and she said that he had made a will making a Chicago man his executor. Mrs. Denier also said that she understood it was her late husband's wish that she should not be notified of his death.

ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL.

A Reason For Some of the Automobile Accidents at Night.

Frequently when there is an accident, where the automobile runs off the road, hits an obstruction or is upset, the driver or some other occupant of the car or the reporter says that "the steering gear gave way." Yet it is safe to venture that it is not the real reason for the accident. What often happens is that the driver goes to sleep.

In a report of an accident some time ago the driver frankly said he went to sleep and the next thing he knew he was under the car, which was thrown against an abutment. The soporific effect of driving an auto at night for several hours is really responsible for more accidents than defective construction. The constant vibration of the steering wheel, the continuous noise of the machine and the drone of the wind have the same effect as does the buzz of an electric fan on most folk.

Before the driver realizes it he is getting drowsy. The wheel is held more and more loosely. Gradually the car takes the line of least resistance, aided by the slacking (but not totally abandoned) control of the driver. The next thing he knows he is off the road. Sometimes the car overturns. Sometimes the driver escapes, together with the occupants of the car. Oftentimes the dereliction results in injury or death.

If more drivers realized the danger of not keeping awake there would be fewer accidents. At least this is the opinion of experienced drivers.—Chicago Journal.

HOW WARS START.

An Ocean Cable Would Have Averted Our Conflict of 1812.

Had there been an ocean telegraph in 1812 there might not have been a war with England at that time. Five days after President Madison signed the declaration of war England recalled the orders in council which had provoked it. The purpose to recall the orders was unknown in America, while in England nothing was known of the war declaration when the orders were revoked. This war's most important battle, that of New Orleans, was fought fifteen days after the treaty of peace had been signed at Ghent. It was this battle which made Jackson a popular idol and gave him the presidency.

The first step in the Crimean war was Russia's invasion of Moldavia, months before diplomatic rupture with England and France.

The firing on Fort Sumter, which started the war between the states, is a familiar story.

The first shot of the Franco-Prussian war was by a French soldier on guard at Strasburg bridge a day or two before Napoleon III. formally took the field.

The attempt on Bismarck's life as he was walking down the Unter den Linden on May 7, 1866, rallied public sentiment to him and his policy and from a dramatic standpoint may be said to have been the first shot in the Austro-Prussian war.

The blowing up of the Maine was the first blow in the Spanish-American war, which ended Spanish possessions in the new world.—Charlton Bates Strayer in Leslie's.

When Novels Were Really Long.

Though William de Morgan wrote some of the longest novels of recent times, his efforts were conciseness itself compared with the works of some of the seventeenth century romancers. Mlle. de Scudery's once famous story, "Le Grand Cyrus," for instance, fills five folio volumes of 500 pages each in the English translation, and her contemporary, La Calprenede, was even more diffuse, his "Cleopatre" running into twenty-three volumes. The leisurely method of the early novelists is well illustrated in "Parthenissa," by Roger Boyle, earl of Orrery, in which the eight hundredth page finds the two chief characters still engaged in the process of introducing themselves to each other, begun on page one.

Where the Guns Kick Hard.

Duck shooting at an altitude of 14,000 feet, on the Junin pampa, along the shore of the lake of that name, is a sport that can be followed in Peru. Very peculiar effects are noted in this rarefied region, probably the highest altitude for this sport in the world. The guns kick viciously, and the shot does not scatter promptly, making long shots successful. This phenomenon is due to the lack of density of the air, which is only about eight pounds to the square inch against fifteen at sea level. Another interesting fact is that the ducks have no fishy taste, as fish do not exist in this altitude.

The Debutante in All Her Glory

MODELS BY TOBE-GILL COMPANY.

Designers have a way of forgetting the debutante, but Sweet-and-Twenty was thought of most kindly in this charming frock. The dress itself is cut with soft babyish fullness. The trimming is in itself quaint and it is quaintly applied. For the bertha, the jumper back which lengthens into a girdle and the sash and band at the bottom of the skirt, coarse ecru scrim is used.

Smoked gray chiffon swirls over a rose-color satin foundation and makes a frock which looks like an embodiment of sunset on a river. Silver bands outline shoulders and corsage and fall into long sash lines ending in silver tassels. The chiffon floats out from under the arm in a double cascade and fades away like a mist where an old rose velvet flower nestles softly at the front of the corsage.

Convincing Signs.

Clara—"I don't know what to make of your brother. For three months after we met, he did nothing but write poetry to me." Dora—"Has he stopped that?" "Yes. Since then he has made me some nice presents, but he has even stopped that." "H'm! Let—me—see, I have it. The household pages of our newspapers have been clipped terribly of late. No doubt he is making a collection of cooking recipes. He's in earnest."

All He Had Time to Do.

My grandson, four years old, was knocked over by a motor bicycle a few months ago. He was unconscious, but not hurt seriously. A few days later, when he was feeling pretty good, I asked him why he did not think of it that his papa had forbidden him to go across the street. "Oh, grandma, I had no time to think. I could only quick close my eyes," he answered.—Cleveland Leader.

SALESMAN WANTED
Must be a live one
—APPLY—
M. H. HERZOG
293 Wall St. Next to Court House

CITY TREASURER'S NOTICE.
Special Assessment.

Notice is hereby given that I have received the warrant for the collection of the special assessment of 75 per cent of the expenses incurred in the construction of a sanitary sewer in Thomas street between Railroad avenue and Broadway, in the city of Kingston.

The same has been left with me for collection at my office in the city hall, in said city; that for thirty days from the date of this notice the said assessment may be paid without additional fees or charges, and that for the twenty succeeding days 2 per centum additional will be collected.

If any of the said special assessments shall remain unpaid at the time last mentioned, I shall give a written or printed notice to the person or persons against whom such assessment stands charged, requiring them to pay such unpaid assessment to me at my office within thirty days thereafter, with 5 per centum fees thereon, and one dollar for such notice, as required by the city charter.

Dated at the Treasurer's Office, City of Kingston, March 10th, 1917.

WARD B. EVERETT,
City Treasurer.

INDIAN ATHLETE GETS ONE MORE CHANCE WITH GIANTS.

Jim Thorpe, the great Indian athlete has been given one more chance to make good with the New York Giants. This picture shows him in training at the Giants' training camp, Marlin, Tex.

Earned Twice.

But the penny which is said to be earned when it's saved has to be earned first.—Albany Journal.

Daily Thought.

Drops of dew refresh the faded flowers, so do kind words cheer the aching heart.

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS

Never in our 10 years of Real Estate work have we had so few houses to rent. A handsome increase in the value of Kingston Real Estate is sure to follow a scarcity of houses for rent.

Here are some rare bargains, all on the easy payment plan.

7 room cottage, Furnace street, all improvements; hot water heat. Price $3,800.

6 room cottage, O'Reilly street, toilet, gas and water. Price $2,300.

Or we can build you a house according to your own ideas on one of the many lots we have for sale.

SHATEMUCK REALTY CO.
261 Fair St. Kingston, N. Y.

A new thing for a cigarette to do.
Wednesday you'll know all about
Chesterfield

BRAND NEW PIANOS
STANDARD MAKE $195

Made by one of the oldest and largest manufacturers.
Full size, Mahogany case and ivory keys.
Handsome appearance and fine tone
Terms if Desired
REICHARD MUSIC CO.
Supreme in Service
273 FAIR STREET KINGSTON

BEER contains about
92 per cent. water and about
5 per cent. of extract derived from hops and cereals, principally Barley malt, and only about 3 to 4 per cent. alcohol.

The Purity of Beer

Beer is one of the purest and cleanest of all food products. Every grain of barley or other cereal is most thoroughly freed from dust and other foreign elements and every stage of manufacture, from malting to barreling or bottling, is most carefully guarded as the slightest impurity would be fatal to a brewing. No possible precaution is neglected.

The liquid which ultimately becomes beer must be frequently tested during the process of manufacture, but it is never dipped out of the tank or vat but is always drawn off. The modern brewery is absolutely sanitary.

Beer is one of the few beverages that is absolutely free from bacteria. From the time the raw ingredients enter the brewery until the finished product reaches the consumer, beer is absolutely protected against any form of contamination.

H. E. Barnard, the State Food and Drug Commissioner of Indiana, recently stated: "Beer is a wholesome beverage with a distinctive food value. It contains carbohydrates, albuminoids and mineral materials required by our system; it is appetizing; it aids digestion. The milk and butter men ought to go in a body and visit the breweries of this or other States in order to see how clean a food producing establishment can be made. It is a fact that the cleanest and most sanitary food on the market, as food is defined by the Indiana Law, is beer."

When you drink a glass of beer, whether it be draught or bottled, you may rest assured that you are in no danger of ptomaine or other forms of poisoning.

Beer is a pure and temperate drink. It contains about 92 per cent. water and about 5 per cent. of extract derived from hops and cereals, principally barley-malt and only about 3 to 4 per cent. of alcohol.

4 Talk No. 5 will appear in this paper a week from to-day.

NEW YORK STATE BREWERS' ASSOCIATION.

ORPHEUM THEATRE
Matinee - - - 3 P. M.
Evening - - - - 7:15, 9
10c, 15c

TODAY
The Master Mind of Mystery
Not a Picture—Big Production
THE GREAT LaFollette
In His $10,000 Mystery Production, Including
"A NIGHT IN THE ORIENT"
And William Fox Presents
THEDA BARA in
"Her Double Life"

KINGSTON OPERA HOUSE MATINEE AND NIGHT Fri., Mar. 16

COUTTS & TENNIS'S

SPARKLING GEM OF MIRTH AND MELODY

"When Dreams Come True"

A Joyous Gem of Haunting Melodies, Refreshing Fun, Enchanting Beauty and Glorious Colors.

Brimming Over With All That Makes Life Joyful

NOTE THE BARGAIN PRICES

MATINEE - 25c and 50c ALL SEATS RESERVED

NIGHT - - 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00 NO HIGHER

SEAT SALE WEDNESDAY. MAIL ORDERS NOW,

Y. M. C. A.

AUDITORIUM

DAILY - 3:00, 7:15 and 9:00

TONIGHT AND TUESDAY

LASKY-PARAMOUNT Presents MARIE DORO, In

"CASTLES FOR TWO"

A ROMANCE OF OLD IRELAND AND AMERICA.

ALSO TONIGHT—Episode No. 14—THE WONDER SERIAL, "THE SHIELDING SHADOW."

WEDNESDAY.

PALLAS-PARAMOUNT Presents VIVIAN MARTIN in

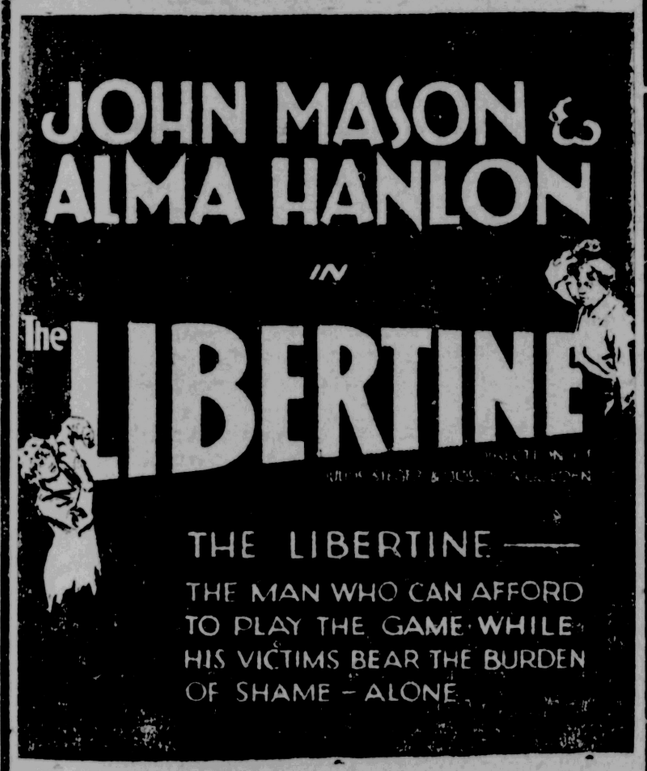
"The Right Direction"

Also the Metro Wonder Serial—"The Great Secret," Episode No. 4.

ORERA HOUSE

Tonight and Tuesday 3 Times Daily 2:30, 7:15, and 9:00

JOHN MASON & ALMA HANLON IN The LIBERTINE



IF YOU CAN'T FIND RUTH CRUGER YOU MAY BE THE MEANS OF SAVING YOUR NEIGHBOR'S DAUGHTER.

Prices: Matinee 10c

Evening Balcony 15c, Main Floor 25c

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Mechanical Decoy Ducks.

For use when duck shooting there are mechanical decoys, which are able when wound up to quack and swim. When the wild birds appear they are easily deceived by the quacking and soon fall victims to the hunter's gun.

The mechanism is so arranged that at certain intervals the decoy gives utterance to a shrill call, swimming about in the water meanwhile by means of a propeller and rudder that gives it a remarkable resemblance to its living prototype.

When it is necessary to clean it or adjust the machinery the decoy can be opened and taken apart. The propeller is driven by clockwork, which also regulates the phonographic apparatus.

Burns' Best Poem.

It is said that a boy was once asked in the poet's presence which of Burns' works he liked best. After taking thought with himself for a little he declared that he liked the "Cotter's Saturday Night" by far the best, "although," he added, "it made me greet (cry) when my father bade me read it to my mither." This statement seemed to impress Burns, for presently he said to the lad, "Weel, my callant (boy), it made me greet, too, more than once when I was writing it by my father's fireside."

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them that precaution seemed unnecessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for crape on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put crape on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Globe.

Disease and Cold Air.

Diseases cured or improved by cold air are specified in a medical magazine as malaria, tuberculosis, digestive disturbances, yellow fever, tetanus and organic troubles affecting the blood pressure. Cold air contains more oxygen, requires fewer respirations and less heart energy—vital matters when the heart is affected, as is the case in fevers and wasting diseases. The magazine hints that a study of arterial tension in cold climates would yield the "key to much which is now locked from us" of the benefits of cold air.

FASHION SHOW TO AID AUXILIARIES

While everyone is talking about the Fashion Show, to be given by the L. B. Van Wagenen Company, together with the musical program which will be presented by noted local musical artists at the opera house on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, of this week, for the benefit of the Woman's Auxiliaries of the Kingston City Hospital, the Benedictine Sanitarium and the Y. M. C. A., a great many people have but a vague idea of just what these auxiliaries do for the institutions with which they are connected.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Kingston City Hospital, Mrs. George Chandler, chairman, is the organization, which for years has provided all bed and table linen, towels, gowns, hangings, blankets and similar supplies for the City Hospital, the corner stone of which was laid on April 22nd, 1893. With the present addition to the hospital the women of this auxiliary find themselves taxed to the limit as far as funds go. The big Flag Ball and Butterfly Ball were given for the creating and increasing of the new building fund, not for the auxiliary work of any sort. This woman's assisting body has had no fund raising entertainment since the Mikado which was given in February of 1911, and this present benefit will be of very real aid to them and highly appreciated.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Benedictine Sanitarium, Mrs. James F. Dwyer, chairman, raises funds for the maintenance of the charity ward of this institution, which was formed in a small way in 1901, with the erection of the present building in 1904. When it is realized that up to March of this year, there were given in the one year, 1,189 free days of treatment, it will be seen that this auxiliary has its hands full under ordinary circumstances, for this would be a fair average for several years past. In addition this auxiliary has now a big pledge on hand toward the building addition fund and this timely offer of the L. B. Van Wagenen Company is appreciated indeed by this body of helpful women.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., Mrs. F. R. Powley, chairman, has been of great service in the promotion and maintenance of our local Y. M. C. A. work especially since the erection and equipment of the new building some five years ago. This auxiliary provides the furnishings of the Y. M. C. A. and makes the boys' work its especial care. Many a boy in the city who could not otherwise afford to do so, is enjoying the privileges of the Y. M. C. A., through the efforts of these women. For the past five years the boys' membership has averaged about 275. Again and again the women of this body have pledged considerable sums of money for the upkeep of this institution for our boys, and have kept their pledges splendidly. At present another such pledge is awaiting fulfillment and the Fashion Show and Concert will prove a real blessing to them in their work.

Two delightful features of the entertainment which have not yet been specially noted in the accounts of this Fashion Show and benefit, will be the Blue Bell Dance, (Aesthetic Solo Dance) to be given by Miss Majorie Richards, and the Oriental Nautche Veil Dance (Aesthetic Solo Dance) to be given by Miss Agnes Dorsey. These two dances will give the finishing touch to the unique entertainment which will include handsome and artistic apparel, clever dramatic action, charming music, and the poetry of motion in these dances.

The performance of the Fashion Show and Benefit Entertainment will begin at 2:30 each afternoon and the tickets are obtainable from auxiliary members, or at the Van Wagenen Store or the opera house.

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, March 12.—Mrs. Luella Updegraff of Kingston spent Saturday with friends here.

Port Ewen Lodge, No. 656, I. O. O. F., will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in their rooms in Pythian Hall.

A cabinet and business meeting of the Epworth League Society will be held Tuesday evening, March 13, at the Methodist chapel. After the business session a social hour will be spent and refreshments served. Subscriptions and renewals to the Epworth Herald will be received at this meeting.

The communion service held in the Methodist Church Sunday morning was very impressive. The pastor, the Rev. Eugene A. Bookhout, prefaced the ritualistic ceremony by a few explanatory and heart-felt remarks. One was received on probation and two transfer letters read.

There will be a meeting of the Ever Ready Club this evening at the home of Mrs. Alanson H. Short on Main street.

Mrs. Emma Mabie of Salem street is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Winchell, in Highland.

A meeting of the Brotherhood of the Methodist Church will be held Wednesday evening in the chapel. Games and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Merwin of Broadway are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson at Glens Falls.

The annual conference supper of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church will be held Tuesday, March 27. A roast beef supper will be served for 30 cents. Children under 12 years, 20 cents.

Rev. Eugene A. Bookhout, pastor of the Methodist Church, preached a deep and inspiring sermon from the 23rd Psalm Sunday evening. The congregation repeated the psalm from memory in unison.

Always Square.

The Golden Rule is the one safe, accurate measure—it hasn't cheated yet.

INCASED POSTAGE STAMPS.

Once Used as Money, They Are Now Rare and Valuable.

New York city was the birthplace of a peculiar sort of money, made by putting United States postage stamps in flat circular brass cases, with the faces protected by a thin sheet of mica. The incased stamps consisted of these denominations: 1, 3, 5, 10, 12, 24, 30 and 90 cent, 1862, and this method of protecting the stamps so they could withstand the wear of circulation was the invention of John Gault, who was in business at Park place, New York city.

Mr. Gault manufactured many kinds to be used by business firms in place of small change, as well as the mutilated and worn postage stamps used for money at the beginning of the war. Many of the incased stamps bore the name of the firm on the reverse side, so that the currency served to advertise the firm that issued it.

Occasionally a subscriber asks us in regard to these stamps and their value. Our reply always is that they are of considerable rarity and not infrequently they command a big premium. This is particularly true of the 12, 24, 30 and 90 cent denominations. These stamps are eagerly sought for by collectors of both stamps and coins, but especially the former, and they fetch good prices whenever offered at auction sales.—American Boy.

FIRST "ONE HORSE SHAY."

Quaint Old "Ad." That Told the Public of the New Invention.

A newspaper advertisement in the London Daily Post of Aug. 22, 1728, a copy of which is in the Wisconsin Historical library, telling of the invention of the one horse chaise, affords an interesting example of the advertising methods at that date. It is as follows:

"His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent bearing the date of the 20th Day of July last, unto William Chapman, of London, Coach and Coach-harness Maker (for the term of 14 years) for his sole making a newly invented Chaise or Chair with two wheels, to be drawn by one Horse between a pair of shafts, which is so contrived as to quarter the Roads with great Ease by the Person riding in it, without Lett, Stop, or Hindrance, the Horse continuing in the same path, so as the Wheels go exactly at all times in the Coach Track, by which means the person in such carriage may travel with more expedition, Safety and Pleasure both to himself and Horse, than in anything of like nature hitherto invented. The great Use and Convenience of the said invention will readily be made to appear by the said William Chapman at his House in Wormwood Street, London Wall, Near Bishopsgate, where several carriages are already made."

Varieties of Bananas.

To most persons in the temperate zones a banana is a banana. But the truth is that there are over sixty known varieties of the fruit, with as great or greater variation in character as the different kinds of apples. Hawaii is said to have something over forty distinct varieties of the fruit, most of which have been introduced by the whites. Some of these are of extremely delicate and delicious flavor, while other kinds are used, if at all, only when cooked in various ways. There is scarcely a city house lot or country "kulcana" or homestead which does not have a clump or two of bananas, which grow with practically no care, new plants or suckers shooting out to replace the ones which have fruited and been removed.

Quail Aids the Farmer.

"The meat value of the quail is inconsiderable—negligible—when compared to the services these birds render to the farm," a bird expert of the University of Oklahoma says. "They prey upon 145 different kinds of destructive insects and consume no less than 129 varieties of noxious weed seeds. They stay on the job twelve months in the year and labor continually when weather conditions permit. I do not believe that the landowners should permit a multitude of so called sportsmen to destroy this powerful ally of the farmer."

A Lily of Asia.

The lilium chalcedonium is supposed to be the lily indicated in the sixth chapter of Matthew, twenty-eighth verse, where it is compared with the gorgeous robes of Solomon, and its color was scarlet or purple. This lily grows profusely in the moist parts of Asia Minor.—Indianapolis News.

FOR THIS WEEK ONLY

DON'T MISS THIS CHANCE

Think of $25 to $35 Suitings made to your measure, cut to your liking and fitted to your satisfaction at

$20 A SUIT

Here is an offering which it will pay you to take advantage of. We have just made great improvements to our store and make this inducement in order to have the men of Kingston become better acquainted with us and our high class tailoring.

KUNST TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT

65 Broadway

An Antidote

It Was Based on the Principle That Like Cures Like.

By WILLIAM CHANDLER

One morning my wife received a letter that seemed to paralyze her.

"Oh, my goodness gracious!" she exclaimed with a gasp.

"Bottom dropped out of the universe, dear?" I asked.

"Worse. Aunt Abigail will have to live with us. She's written that her friend with whom she has had a home is to give up her house the 1st of May, and that throws her out. I am her only relative, and, of course, she expects me to take her in."

"She's a bit cranky, isn't she?"

"Cranky is no name for it."

"Well, we'll have to make the best of it."

Aunt Abigail arrived. We had previously considered our home entirely our own. With the coming of our relative we saw at once that all this was changed. She settled herself down with an appearance of permanency that made my blood run cold.

"Well," she exclaimed, looking about her, "how did you ever come to build this house down in a hollow—it must have been a swamp once—when you could as well have put it up on that hill, where you could see something?"

"We live here winter and summer, Aunt Abigail. Up there we would freeze in cold weather."

"Freeze! Nonsense! Some people are always afraid they'll breathe a little fresh air. I'm not. I sleep with my window open, and I like to have a gale blowing in right on me. You should have fronted your house to the south."

"I can't stand this. We must get rid of her," I said to my wife.

"To turn her out would be awful."

"We needn't do that. We can fix it so that she will go of her own accord."

"For heaven's sake explain."

"You know the homeopathic principle—like cures like. Well, my Uncle Robert is more disagreeable, if that is possible, than your Aunt Abigail. He is a dictatorial old curmudgeon, with no respect for any one's opinion but his own. He is as poor as a church mouse, living in a miserable room in a rookery by himself. He amuses himself abusing his neighbors from his window and shying anything he can get his hands on at the cats. Now, it has occurred to me to bring him here as a foil for your aunt. She can't possibly endure to stay in the house with such a man, and when she's gone I'll find a way to get rid of Uncle Robert. Perhaps they may both go to get rid of each other."

"Your plan seems rather impracticable to me, Billy, but I have a good deal of confidence in those roundabout ways of yours. Suppose we try it?"

So I wrote Uncle Robert offering a home temporarily and, if he liked it, as long as he lived. He accepted eagerly, and it was not long before he was down upon us bag and baggage.

"My dear boy," he exclaimed, patting me on the back, "how you do remind me of your father! He and I were inseparable as boys, and I've carried you on my shoulder often. And to think that I'm to have a home with you! Put me anywhere. A garret is good enough for a broken down old codger like me. Phew! Somebody's been smoking here. Do you smoke? How I hate tobacco! It makes me sick."

"I won't smoke any more in the house since you've come, uncle," I said.

"Oh, don't mind me. I can stand anything; got to stand it. I've made a dead failure of life and don't deserve anything else. You don't mind my opening the window, do you—just to let the odor out?"

"Fanny has a bad cold, you know."

"Just the thing to cure her. Let her breathe the cool air of heaven."

Up went the window, and out of the room went Fanny. Half an hour after my uncle arrived dinner was announced. I was watching our guests when they entered the dining room. It was like a dog and a cat at first catching sight of each other. Both seemed to crouch for an encounter. Neither spoke to the other for some time after taking seats at table. Then a remark of Uncle Robert's ruffled Aunt Abigail.

"This women's voting craze"—he was beginning.

"Voting what, sir?"

"Craze, madam," raising his voice.

"I'm not deaf. I heard you well enough. I object to your calling woman's suffrage a craze."

"Are you an advocate of woman's suffrage, madam?"

"I most assuredly am."

"I believe in any one who advocates a principle standing by that principle and not attempting to straddle"—

"Sir!"

"That is, to equivocate or knuckle down, defending the cause with all his or her strength. Per contra, I reserve the same privilege for myself. Woman's suffrage I consider the most abominable, diabolical, illogical rot that was ever sprung on a Christian people."

"And I consider it one of the holiest causes."

"Aunt Abigail," interposed my wife, "do let me help you to this little bit of wing. You're not eating enough to feed a sparrow."

"I'm inclined to think," remarked Uncle Robert, "that there's a good deal in this new idea of diet. This magwhat's-his-name who is proving that the less we eat the more work we can do is going to create a revolution."

"Have you adopted his idea?" asked Aunt Abigail spitefully.

Considering that I had just filled Uncle Robert's plate for a second time this was unkind.

"I have not, madam, for the reason that I am not yet satisfied that his views are correct. I'm nothing if not scientific. I must see a thing proved before I adopt it."

"Would you prove woman's suffrage before adopting it?"

This was quite bright of Aunt Abigail.

"I admit," replied Uncle Robert, "that to prove it before adopting it would be impossible. It isn't necessary to prove it. Any fool can see that the idea is ridiculous."

"Uncle," I interrupted for the purpose of calling a truce and preventing Aunt Abigail from firing a return shot, "let me fill your glass."

"No, sir," putting his hand over it—"not at all, sir. I drink just one glass of wine with my dinner. And that's enough for any man."

"Quite enough," I replied and filled my own for the third time.

"One is too much for any man, especially an old man," snapped the aunt. "Nothing is so disgusting to me as an old toper."

The shot, while it applied partly to me, was fired at Uncle Robert.

"Not at all," he replied. "One glass is good for the system. You know what St. Paul says, 'Take a little wine for the stomach's sake.'"

"Yes," retorted Aunt Abigail, "and I know that the devil can quote Scripture."

This was so well turned that I felt like patting the old lady on the back. But it did not squelch Uncle Robert for the simple reason that he was unsquelchable. The skirmishing went on, getting hotter and hotter, till at last, to prevent an open rupture, my wife arose from the table. She, poor woman, was dreading a fracas, and I was not anxious to have a break occur so early in the game.

As soon as Fanny and I were alone together we sat down and laughed.

"Did you ever see anything work more beautifully?" I said, slapping my leg.

"Never."

"Let them go their own gait. My opinion is that one or the other will get out within a week."

Every day my uncle came to me and said that he couldn't live in the same house with a cat and was going tomorrow. Every day Aunt Abigail went to Fanny and said she could not possibly endure that opinionated old heathen and she was casting about for another home, but it was dreadful that she should be alone in the world, with no one to love but Fanny, and Fanny must needs be encumbered by all her husband's relatives. I told my uncle that if I were deprived of the comfort of caring for my father's brother in his old age it would break my heart. Fanny made faint hearted attempts to quiet her aunt and agreed with her that my uncle was a pride hard to get on with, regretting at the same time that he had the same claim on me that her aunt had on her. It is true that occasionally there would be a lull in the hostilities and we would find the two chatting quite amicably. But this was when they happened to strike some subject which was a pet with both. As soon as they drifted into topics on which they disagreed the roar of battle recommenced.

Several weeks passed in this way, and Fanny and I were getting impatient for the denouement, when one day uncle came to me and said that he would like to have a few words with me and Fanny alone. He looked very serious, and I felt quite sure he would announce his departure. He was a born gentleman, and nothing would be further from his nature than to hurt one's feelings, and to appear ungrateful would break his heart. I called Fanny into the library, shut the door and waited for the old man to speak.

"My dear boy," he began, taking my hand, "and my dear little girl," taking Fanny's hand, "I have something to announce which will surprise you. I am going to leave you!"

"Oh, uncle!" we both exclaimed, trying hard to appear much disappointed, even shocked.

"Yes, I am going away, and your aunt is also going."

This was indeed a surprise.

"Your kindness has brought about a great change in two lonely lives. For a time it seemed to both of us that we must thwart your plans for the happiness of both of us. It did not seem that we could live under the same roof together."

He paused, and I thought he was going to shed tears. Then he added abruptly:

"We are both going to leave you tomorrow."

"Both?"

"Yes, both. We are to be quietly married at 9 o'clock and leave on a short wedding trip on the 10 o'clock train."

"Goodness gracious!" from Fanny.

"Great Scott!" from me.

"But we shall be gone only a few days."

"And then?" exclaimed Fanny and I breathlessly.

"And then," resumed the old man, putting a hand on each of our heads, "we return to spend the rest of our lives with our dear niece and nephew."

Heaven helps those who help themselves. At any rate, heaven came to our relief. I inherited $20,000 from a maternal uncle. Of this I put $5,000 in a house for the old couple and invested the rest in an annuity for them. Strangely enough, they are quite contented together.

A Monkey and a Knot.

The monkey's intelligence has never been able to arrive at a point which enables that animal to achieve the untying of a knot. You may tie a monkey with a cord fastened with the simplest form of common knot, and unless the beast can break the string or gnaw it in two he will never get loose. To untie the knot requires observation and reasoning power, and, though a monkey may possess both, he has neither in a sufficient degree to enable him to overcome the difficulty.

Skyrockets Before Gunpowder.

It matters very little in the long run to the small boy when, how or where fireworks were first made and of what they are made now. But the fact remains that the despised heathen Chinese first made them and used them and that civilized communities did not know of them until the fourteenth century. The skyrocket was first invented toward the close of the ninth century and at that time was used, so it is said, in India and China in war. That was long before the invention of gunpowder.

Camels bred especially for speed can travel ninety miles per day.

An electrically lighted cross revolves atop a San Francisco steeple.

ACCORD FARMER A SUICIDE IN BARN

Luther Van Vliet's Land Purchase Had Preyed Upon His Mind is Belief—Was Well Thought of in Accord

Some time Saturday night Luther Van Vliet, a well known resident of the town of Rochester, committed suicide by hanging himself to a mow pole on the farm occupied by him as tenant and located opposite the Reformed Church at Accord The farm is owned by B Morse Tremper of Kingston and has been leased by Van Vliet for year This year they farm was sold and it became necessary for him to move so recently Van Vliet bought the Arthur Osterhoudt place near by and according to the judgment of neighbors, paid an exorbitant price for it It is presumed that this preyed upon his mind until he became temporarily insane and while in that state committed the act

Mr Van Vliet and his sister lived alone and it has been his custom evenings to walk out to the neighbors or down to the village and when he went out Saturday night his sister thought nothing of it He did not appear Sunday morning and when his sister went out to the barn she found the doors wide open and her brother body hanging immediately within the door and in full view of the house for he had thrown the doors wide open He had tied a rope over a mow pole and had placed a ladder against it then tied the rope around his neck climbed the ladder and jumped off the effect of the drop breaking his neck It was early noon Sunday morning before his body was discovered

He is survived by two brothers and two sisters Edgar Van Vliet of Josephus and Mrs Cyrus Hendrickson and Miss Lizzie Van Vliet Mr Van Vliet was well thought of by his neighbors and friends He was always kind hearted genial and neighborly and was the last man when in his right mind to commit such an act

GRANITE

Granite March 12—Miss Jessa Decker from Poughkeepsie spent Saturdays at her home here

The social which was held at the home of Mr and Mrs Peter Addis Saturday evening was well attended There were twenty eight present Music singing and games were the amusements and a bountiful supper was served at 10 30 The guests report having spent a very pleasant evening

Fletch Turner is drawing lime from Henry DeVoes lime kiln at Accord

Mrs Adam Turner was a Kingston visitor on Friday last

Mrs Will Addis entertained the members of the M E Ladies Aid Society at a sewing circle Thursday afternoon at her home March 8

Mrs Myron Markle after spending the past week in Wallkill with her sister who is very ill returned home Wednesday

Mrs Adam Turner entertained a number of friends on Thursday to a

Harris Van Wagenen is very sick at this time His many friends hope for his speedy recovery

The Rev Mr Prime and wife of Kerhonkson were the guests of Mr and Mrs Selah Sheldon on Saturday last

Miss Hazel Turner of this place and Miss Delia Hanker of Kerhonkson were visiting friends in Ellenville Saturday

Miss Dorothy Sheldon was the guest of her friend Miss Olive Sherman on Friday evening

The Misses Annie and Lucy Rose are ill with the grip

MONTOMA

Montoma March 10—Mr and Mrs Irving Parker of Kingston called on this place one day last week

Miss Kathryn DeGraff who has been spending a couple of weeks with relatives in Kingston has returned home

T W Stoutenburg is employed at Oscar Jones's

C V Keegan took a trip to Kingston on Wednesday

Mr Edward Stoutenberg and children and Mrs Truman Phillips and daughter Elmira visited Mrs D F DeGraff on Friday

The Misses Ruth Stratton and Elizabeth DeGraff spent Thursday evening with Viola Moore of Glenford

The Boy Scouts of this place were in Woodstock Saturday afternoon drilling

Lucas Stoutenberg called in Woodstock Saturday morning

Mrs Edward Stoutenberg and children spent Saturday with Mrs Bone leel

Mr Alfred DeGraff and Miss Merry called in this place Saturday afternoon

There will be a play and an oyster supper in the Glenford M E Hall on Tuesday evening March 13 come one and all

Need Catskill Bridge Guard

Enterprising junk thieves have carried off the 80 pound bronze memorial tablet on the concrete bridge spanning Catskill creek The tablet said to be worth $17 for old metal was placed in 1906 and carried the names of town officials of that year

For Polishing Furniture

The polish generally used on mission furniture is the dull wax finish If instead of applying only wax alternate coats of boiled linseed oil and wax used a polish will be obtained which is brighter and more durable than the ordinary finish

SPRING 1917

The New Season's Styles

in apparel, fabrics and accessories are daily drawing the women who get THE NEW THINGS FIRST to Van Wagenen's—recognizing style authority.

Tickets May be Obtained

from any Auxiliary members or through
Mrs Geo Chandler
Mrs James Dwyer
Mrs F R. Powley.

Announcing

Van Wagenen's

Spring Fashion Show

And Benefit Concert

Kingston Opera House

Wednesday and Thursday—March 14th and 15th

At 2:30 Each Afternoon.

The Correct Spring Fashions

will be worn by two score charming young women of Kingston, Saugerties, Ellenville and Tannersville

An Exceptional Musical Program

will be rendered by the following Kingston Artists—

Miss Helen Stern, Soprano
Earle Hummel, Violinist
Hermann La Tour, Tenor
Harry P. Dodge, Pianist

Aesthetic Solo Dances

By Miss Agnes Dorsey and Miss Marjorie Richards

Local Institutions to Be Benefited

The entire proceeds to be divided between the Women's Auxiliaries of the Kingston City Hospital Benedictine Sanitarium
Young Men's Christian Association

THE FREEMAN'S CENT-A-WORD ADLETS SAVE MONEY, TIME AND WORRIMENT---PUT YOUR "WANTS" UP TO THE LITTLE HUSTLERS

WARM WEATHER WASTING ICE

Ice Still Holds in River, But With Continued Warm Spell Will Soon Break Up—Tug Rob Frees Lower Creek.

While the ice in the Hudson river in this vicinity still holds the warm weather of the past few days is wasting it badly and it is only a question of days, if the warm spell continues, when it will break up. The lower Rondout creek was free of ice today when the tug Rob went through to the mouth of the creek and a short distance down the river breaking a channel for the floating ice in the creek to flow into. From the Island Dock down to the mouth the creek was open. The swells of the Transport in making its regular trips also assisted in breaking up the ice.

Sleighing in the city is practically finished, and today all vehicles were on wheels. The warm rays of Old Sol has caused the snow to disappear at a rapid rate, and it is hardly likely that there wil be any more sleighing this season unless there is an unforeseen change in the weather.

ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville March 12.—The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will hold a curio tea in the lecture room of the church Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Curios from India, Japan, China and other mission fields will be exhibited. An interesting program will be given in which the Standard Bearers will assist.

The Rev. F. S. Smithers, rector of Grace Church, Middletown, will preach in St. John's Episcopal Church Wednesday evening. Lenten services are held every Wednesday and Friday afternoons at 4:15. Wednesday evenings at 7:45.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will hold the March meeting at the home of Mrs. C. T. Hawxhurst on Park street Thursday afternoon. The subject is India. Mrs. W. H. Moser, leader.

Mrs. E. J. Bailey is in town in the interest of her property on Center street, which has been leased to H. B. Lauber. Mrs. Bailey expects to sell at auction a lot of household effects, the date to be announced later.

Mrs. Henry Lapp will entertain the members of the Sewing Circle of the Lutheran Church Tuesday afternoon and the Misses Shaffer will entertain the members of the Y. P. L. A. at their home on Clinton avenue Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Cookingham of Red Hook spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Coons, and family on Center street.

Mrs. P. H. Decker entertained the members of the Whist Club at the home of Mrs. H. C. Derby on Center street Saturday afternoon. Following the games the guests enjoyed delicious refreshments served by the hostess.

John McDowell purchased the family horse, harness, blankets, sleigh, etc., from the Eastgate estate at the Scoresby home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Eugene Clark are to move from Mrs. Dixon's house on Canal street, to the Lefevre residence, Maplewood, on Maple avenue.

The Ladies' Aid of the Reformed Church have had the Sunday school class rooms re-decorated and a new floor laid in the vestibule.

Pioneer Engine Co. is to celebrate the 60th anniversary in a fitting manner on Friday evening, March 16.

Miss Olive D. Schoonmaker of New York spent Sunday with her cousin, Mrs. H. S. Wells.

Ties Itself In a Knot.

How fishes get off the hook is always interesting, for the most talked of fish is the fish that got away. Chapman Grant, who gets fish for the Aquarium, has witnessed the remarkable manner in which morays will disengage themselves from the hook. If held dangling in the air the moray will double on himself, tie the knot and pull his head out backward.

"At this juncture," says Mr. Grant, "it has always been my experience that the hook or line broke, allowing the fish to escape. Mr. Mowbray, however, states that he has seen morays strangle themselves when caught with strong tackle."—New York Sun.

A Hair's Breadth.

Measurement by less than a hair's breadth now has a definite meaning in machine shops. In all of the large shops there are instruments that will measure the thickness of a cigarette paper, much thinner than a hair. An inch can be divided into 10,000 parts, and seventeen of these parts will make a "hair's breadth." Some of the most delicate measurements are made at the government gun factory at Washington, where many of the great guns for the army and navy are manufactured.

Tea Drinking In Siam.

Tea is to be found in every tent and dwelling in Siam. There is always a kettle on the fire filled with tea and prepared for drinking, which is done by adding milk, butter and salt. This is their way of fixing this beverage. A peculiar mode of hospitality is shown by these people in reference to their tea. It is always at the disposal of every stranger and traveler. He need not ask for it. Neither is it expected that he should, but he must have his own cup. This is imperative, and accordingly every one carries a cup with him at all times. Some of these utensils are marvels of workmanship and are highly valued.

The Vengeance of a Woman Scorned

By F. A. MITCHEL

One day a good many years ago John Dale, a Massachusetts Yankee, went to Louisiana to buy sugar for a northern firm. He met there a creole girl, Louise la Marche, who, not being especially attractive and there being few marriageable men in that region, laid siege to him with a view to marrying him. Dale did not reciprocate. Louise persisted, and when she found that nothing would move the flinty hearted Yankee she appealed to her brother, Antoine, telling him that Dale had made love to her and then jilted her.

Now, Antoine and his sister, who was older than he, did not get on very well together, and he wished that she would handle her love affairs without troubling him in the matter. But when a woman makes up her mind to utilize a man he may as well come down at once, like Davy Crockett's coon. Antoine was weak enough to be cajoled into taking up his sister's cause, and she laid down for him a plan for doing so.

"These Yankees," she said to him, "are not fighting men at all. They are shopkeepers and pumpkin raisers. The way to impress John Dale with the enormity of his treatment of me is to insult him. He will be obliged either to challenge you to fight him or do justice to me."

Antoine held out as long as possible against this method of procedure and at last yielded. He waited till he found Dale on a street in the village where the La Marche family lived and, going up to him, slapped him in the face. But the affair did not turn out as expected. The Yankee contented himself with returning the slap.

That would have ended the matter had not Louise been behind it. She told her brother that he must challenge Dale or he would be cut by all his acquaintances. Antoine, who was not a fighter even if he was a southerner, refused, whereupon Louise persuaded several of her friends to treat him sneeringly, and he at last yielded under duress and sent the challenge.

What was her surprise and consternation to find that Dale accepted the challenge, but as the challenged party named the conditions under which the contest was to take place. He chose pistols in a dark room.

It is hard lines for a man to be obliged to risk his life in a cause in which he takes no interest. Antoine looked with horror on being shut up in a dark room with a man who was there to kill him.

Had Antoine not been propped up by his sister, who by this time, considering herself a woman scorned, desired vengeance, he would have collapsed under the appalling situation. But Louise shamed him into standing up to his work, and he permitted the arrangements to be made for the meeting.

There was a vacant house in the place with two large rooms on each side of a hall on the second story. It was agreed that the duel should take place in one of these suits. Both rooms possessed large open fireplaces. In order that no light should permeate them, the affair was appointed to come off at 10 o'clock at night.

Now, Dale had no more heart for the affair than his opponent. Had the matter concerned the woman alone who was at the bottom of it he would have fled ingloriously. But he could not bring himself to flee from a male enemy. He accepted the situation, resolved that he would not kill Antoine if he could help it and if either should die it would be himself.

At 10 o'clock the duelists were placed, one in the front room and one in the rear room. As soon as they heard the doors closed and the bolts shot they were at liberty to fire.

Dale trusted to his ears, which were very keen, to let him know where his enemy was, and, hearing a sound as of one walking on tiptoe, he listened to it and after awhile fancied that his enemy was in the same room with him. Dale at once slipped into the other room, where he stood stock still for some time, when he began to move around the wall, feeling his way as he went. Presently he struck the fireplace.

By this time some twenty minutes had elapsed, with no prospect of an ending of the affair. It had been arranged that the seconds should not come into the room until after hearing one shot. If after five minutes they did not hear a second shot they should enter. It occurred to Dale that by firing up the chimney he would not risk killing his enemy and it would prepare the way for an end to the contest. Thrusting his arm into the fireplace, he fired up the old fashioned large flue of former times.

Something dropped.

"I am done for," said a voice that he recognized as that of La Marche.

Dale realized at once that the boy, in order to protect himself, had crawled up the chimney. He at once fired a second shot at random in order to bring help. The seconds rushed in with lights. Antoine was examined by the surgeon, who found that a bullet had inflicted a flesh wound in the back.

"How could he have been wounded"—

"Never mind how," interrupted Dale. "The brave boy has saved his honor. Let us out of this."

Dale, now having only a woman to flee from, lit out before morning and never stopped till he reached New England.

Those Efficient Systems.

Willis—"Bump has a very up-to-date office." Gillis—"Yes. He has one of these office systems where you can find just what you want when you don't want it by looking where it wouldn't be if you did want it."—Life.

EX-ENVOY'S LADY

American Born Wife of Former German Ambassador.

EXPATRIATED BY DIPLOMACY.

The Break In the Relations Between Germany and the United States Has Necessitated the Countess von Bernstorff Leaving the Land of Her Birth and Many Washington Friends.

As far as is known, Countess von Bernstorff is the only American woman married to a German diplomat, and the fact is a strong reminder at this time of the desire of Kaiser Wilhelm in sending Count von Bernstorff to Washington in 1908 to strengthen the bonds of friendship between the United States and Germany.

Before her marriage to the count on Nov. 14, 1887, Countess von Bernstorff was a Miss Jeahne Luckemeyer of

Photo by American Press Association.

COUNTESS VON BERNSTORFF.

New York. She is a woman of gracious personality and before the war was one of the most popular hostesses in the diplomatic set in Washington. When the war broke out she was visiting in Berlin, and it was not until last fall that she was able to rejoin her husband in Washington.

The countess leaves many warm friends in her social circle at the capital, who will sincerely regret her absence.

MEDICINAL GARDENS.

What the Commonest Vegetables Do For Your Liver.

Every vegetable garden is a medicine chest recognized by physicians as of considerable value in the treatment of diseases. Onions, for example, contain sulphur oil and are recommended for insomnia and as an aid to gastric digestion. They also help to allay rheumatic pains.

Turnips and parsnips have peculiar oily principles which are of value as an aperient and diuretic. They are also claimed to be good for coughs and hoarseness. Carrots are useful for correcting derangements of the liver. They are excellent as a dressing for painful wounds and swellings.

The tomato exercises medicinal effects not completely explained by the presence of alkaline salts. There is a principle present which, in a concentrated state, produces salivation and a free stimulation of the liver.

Satin Hats.

The type of satin hat that dominates in the smart shops is made of black satin, with so small a headband that it is merely a ribbon and so large a brim that it eclipses the crown. This brim convolutes around the head in a series of curves and irregular lines. If it were not made by an expert it would be utterly impossible for any woman to wear. Every line of it must be nicely calculated to the fraction of an inch, so that the face beneath will appear at its best.

Rarely is there a touch of trimming on turbans, but the introduction of two flaunting, bright wings in front of a black satin turban gives us a new idea—wings are evidently coming back to fashion, and one goes up and one goes down.

Avalanche of Pockets.

Pockets started to be the fashion a couple of seasons ago. No one looked, however, for the avalanche of pockets which seem to have tumbled on to dresses for all times of day. On sport coats and dresses they are so large that they are really draped on to the sides of the garment. They are mostly patch pockets, the tops adorned with a narrow fur band. In one or two models the whole pocket is of fur like the collar and cuffs.

New Millinery.

Among the new features for the south are suede finished felts combined with lisere, tagal straws embroidered or braided with soutache, and cottons and silks printed or embroidered in Paisley, East Indian and Roumanian designs and colors. These novelty straws and fabrics are used in conjunction with the plain straws, including cocoanut effects, lisere and milan hemp.

His Idea of Being Even.

First Poker Player—"Let's quit while we're even." Second Ditto—"But we're not even. How do you make that out?" "Why, you had all my money a while ago, and now I've got all of yours."—The Lamb.

EXTRA SPECIAL

For Tuesday and Wednesday ONLY

MURESCO

THE SANITARY WALL FINISH

29c---5 lb. Package

3 Packages Limit No Telephone Orders Accepted

WALL PAPER AND PAINT DEPT.---SECOND FLOOR

Quality First

ROSE-GORMAN-ROSE, INC

"FORMERLY CARLS"

Two Heroes.

Miss Martineau in her "History of the Thirty Years' Peace" tells a touching story of the wreck of the Rothesay Castle. "Two men, strangers to each other, found themselves holding on to the same plank, which, it soon appeared, would support only one. Each desired the other to hold on, the one because his companion was old, the other because his companion was young, and they quitted their grasp at the same moment. By extraordinary accidents both were saved, each without the knowledge of the other, and they met on shore in great surprise. Few greetings in the course of human life can be so sweet and moving as must have been that of these two heroes."

Evidently a Bachelor Burglar.

"Did you get her jewelry?" asked the outside man.

"Nope," replied the burglar. "I couldn't find it nowhere."

"Where did you look for it?"

"Searched her jewel case and every drawer in the bureau, and it wasn't there."

"Did you look to see if she had it on?"

"Yep. She was asleep, but she didn't have no rings on her fingers."

"Shucks. You don't know nothing about the ways of women. Why didn't you go into the bathroom? You'd have found the whole outfit where she left it on the washstand."—Detroit Free Press.

Unbreakable Windows.

Repeated coats of raw or boiled linseed oil applied to a newly meshed wire fabric will give a good substitute for window glass. The wire may be used for many purposes and is especially good where glass might easily be broken. The fabric may be dipped in the oil instead of applying it with a brush.—Exchange.

The Gate to Tibet.

Just outside Tachienlu is the stone bridge which is called "the gate to Tibet." Tachienlu is a narrow little city which had to conform its shape to the contour of the mountains which shut it in. There is hardly a foot of level ground within the walls. It is the great emporium of trade between China and Tibet, where the Chinese exchange tea for musk and gold dust. Many red frocked lamas are to be seen about the city, most of whom live in large lamasaries outside the walls. On the flat roofs of the houses flutter innumerable prayer flags, giving to the winds the universal Tibetan hymn of praise.

The Walking Steeple.

At Holywell church, in Wales, an old bell is kept which was used in a novel way to call people to worship. The position of the church causing any bell rung there to be inaudible in some parts of the town, a peripatetic ringer used to be employed, whose performances were thus described: "A leather strap is suspended round his neck, and a large and heavy bell attached to it, which rests upon a cushion buckled over his knee. Thus accoutered, he traverses the town, jingling his bell, to the suprise of those who are unacquainted with the custom. 'The walking steeple,' he was called by the townspeople."

Honest, Anyhow.

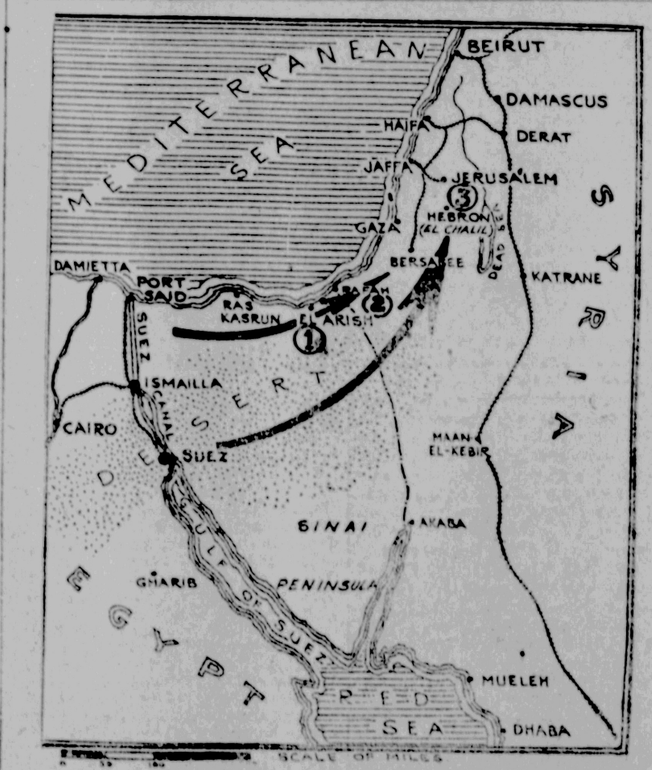
There is a young lawyer of this town who is as modest as he is witty.

"How much," asked a client of his, "will your opinion be worth in this case?"

"Really," said the young legal light, "I can't say. But I can tell you what I am going to charge you for it."—Exchange.

By La Raconteuse.

A close rival of the "slip-on" middy blouse is the sport shirt, belted loosely at the waistline, with huge collar, deep pockets and cuffs to accentuate its comforts. Illustrated here is one in two-toned, rose striped taffeta, which fastens down the front with large pearl buttons. White taffeta supplies an interesting contrast on the pockets, collar and cuffs, also forming all but the border of the sash.



BRITISH NEAR JERUSALEM.

Working north from the Suez Canal a British force drove the Turks from (1) El Arish, on the Mediterranean, and two months ago from (2) Rafah. The latest advices put the army at (3) El Chalil, fifteen miles south of Jerusalem. A hard battle is expected before the Turks yield the city. If the British occupy the Holy City it will be the first time it has been under the control of a Christian people since the time of the Crusaders.

ONE MAN SOUP KITCHEN ©INTERNATIONAL

HOW SOUP IS CARRIED TO FIGHTING MEN IN THE TRENCHES.

Getting food to the men in the trenches is no easy task. Obviously soup kitchens cannot be rolled up to the trenches. Soldiers crawl through the trenches with cold victuals, but now the British have devised a means of getting hot soup to the men on the firing line. This picture shows what the "Tommies" call a "one-man soup kitchen." The soup is carried through the trenches on the backs of soldiers and is ladled out to the men at the rifles and machine guns.

Classified Advertisements

ONE CENT A WORD

Classified advertisements in this department will be inserted at the uniform rate of one cent per word for [illegible] on. If an advertisement is [illegible] for more than one month [illegible] cent per word will be charged [illegible] the first month. No advertisement less than 15 cents, if inserted but [illegible]. Orders may be left at our main [illegible] Broadway, or at our branch office 280 Fair St. Also at the following places:

[illegible] DIAMOND, [illegible] Broadway.
[illegible], [illegible] Broadway.
FRANK McNALLY, 590 Broadway.
WM. O'REILLY, 530 Broadway.
[illegible], 742 Broadway.

For the convenience of out-of-town advertisers, orders will be accepted at the following places:

CHARLES W. CARD, Port Ewen, N. Y.
WM. CONNORS, High Falls, N. Y.
WM. HUBEN, Rosendale, N. Y.
W. J. GREEN, Woodstock, N. Y.
WM. McMULLEN, Ellenville, N. Y.
[illegible] VAN STEENBERG, Saugerties, N. Y.
[illegible] VONDERLINDEN, Rhinebeck, N. Y.
[illegible] D. WINNE, Ashokan, N. Y.

One Cent Per Word

No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—New and second hand stoves and ranges and second hand furniture bought, sold and exchanged. All kinds of stove repairs furnished. Complete line of new stoves. Morris Kaplan, 68 North Front St., Kingston. 'Phone 681-J.

GOOD Luck Butterine. Johnson's, 112 W. Pierpont St. 'Phone 1029.

FOR SALE.—Six cylinder Chandler runabout, just overhauled; a bargain; will sacrifice. Louis Stock, 86 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y.

FOR SALE.—100 White Leghorns, 25 White Rocks; selected stock. 'Phone 1292-R.

FOR SALE.—Stock and fixtures country grocery; will rent store. Address "A. B. C." Uptown Freeman.

FOR SALE.—Good pair of horses, 7 and 8 years old; kind and true in all harness, two sets of heavy log sleighs, two lumber wagons, wide tires, all hand made. H. S. Land, Lanesville, N. Y.

FOR SALE.—Saxon runabout, in good condition. 26 Grand St.

FOR SALE.—Cheap, for quick buyer, 5 room house and store, downtown; directly opposite school; gas and water. Address "A." 530 Broadway.

FOR SALE.—Harness, two sleighs and two wagons. Gregory & Co.

FOR SALE.—Two Cyphers incubators; used once. E. B. Sheldon, Esopus, N. Y.

FOR SALE.—9 room house, including gas, electricity, stationary range, toilet, bath, stationary tubs; above West Shore R. R. Near trolley. Large garden; some fruit. Price $3,500; $500 cash needed. Address "M. R." Uptown Freeman.

FOR SALE.—For hatching, pure bred B. Plymouth Rocks and S. C. B. Leghorn eggs; $1.00 a setting. J. W. Allen, Spillway, N. Y.

FOR SALE.—Salt hay and straw, damaged by fire; cheap. Edw. T. McGill.

FOR SALE.—House, eight rooms, part improvements, Sleightsburgh; reasonable. DuBois & McCausland, 23 Broadway.

FOR SALE.—Incubators, brooders and poultry supplies. Canfield Supply Co., Strand & Ferry St., Kingston, N. Y.

FOR SALE.—Team bay horses; very suitable for farm work. Gregory & Co.

FOR SALE.—Team of mules. Inquire Stryker-Youmans Garage.

FOR SALE.—1916 7-passenger Studebaker, like new, for sale cheap. Stryker-Youmans Co., garage.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.—House, 115 Spring St.; all improvements. F. J. Walter.

FOR SALE.—Square piano; cheap. 'Phone 1737-J.

FOR SALE.—Automobile truck; also runabout top, Prestolite tank, two 50-gallon pump tanks; see them at garage. 221 Downs St.

FOR SALE.—5 passenger Studebaker, run 5,500 miles. A. L. Harder, Lake Katrine.

FOR SALE.—Salt hay. Edw. T. McGill, 537 Broadway.

FOR SALE.—Photo supplies, films, plates, cameras, printing paper, etc. O'Reilly's, 530 Broadway.

FOR SALE.—Piano—one Matchless Mathushek. Regular price $350, sale price, $250 cash. Will be at conservatory by appointment. 'Phone 1706-J. A. E. Thomas, 23 Crown St.

FOR SALE.—Good as new, Hoosier kitchen cabinet, wardrobe; reasonable. Apply 65 Liberty St.

FOR SALE.—I have for sale or exchange car load of good second hand horses, suitable for all purposes. Mr. L. Basch, Chambers St.

FOR SALE.—A two year old black Percheron colt, weighs 900 now; will make a horse that will weigh 1,400. Mr. L. Basch, Chambers St.

FOR SALE.—Ford motor truck, with enclosed delivery body; has run about 2,000 miles. Also new Ford roadster with enclosed rear body, suitable for commercial traveler, besides regular runabout body; has run about 2,000 miles. Address 112 North Front St., Kingston, N. Y.

LIKE to exchange house and lot in village of Arkville for a farm near Kingston, Poughkeepsie or New Paltz. Jay A. Noxon, Arkville, N. Y.

EXCHANGE.—Until March 15, 52 shares of American Voting Machine stock, now selling at $5 per share, for 15 shares at $10, or 20 at $7.50 per share of the Universal Tire and Rubber Co. stock. Both stocks advance soon. I am retaining the company quota of 104 shares Am. Voting stock. Purely personal reasons for this offer. Lou Merrill, Box 932, Kingston, or Pennington's Studio.

FOR SALE.—Two 60-egg incubators. 'Phone 1693-J.

FOR SALE.—Second hand clothes. 311 Fair St.

FOR SALE.—Good second hand range, double oven. 'Phone 1697-W or 371-J.

FOR SALE.—Hotel on Albany Ave., known as the Maple Inn; 12 rooms, barn, wagon shed, 3½ acres of farm land. Hawksworth, Kingston Hotel.

FOR SALE.—Young sow with 10 pigs; also young pigs. M. J. Brown, Marbletown.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.—7 room house, 6 Green, all improvements; best neighborhood. Mrs. Boice, Fair St.

ADVERTISEMENT WRITING.

UNWISE advertising economy is an acquired habit with many merchants, like olives and moving pictures, but when the habit is continued—curtain! They seem to believe that each time they blackjack a dollar and lay it away on ice, withdrawing it from their advertising expenditures, they have done wisely. Really, such business men are short-changing themselves. Well written advertisements are business getters. The other kind won't do at all. Let me write you ads. with "pep and punch." George M. Zellmer, care of Kingston Freeman.

One Cent Per Word

No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

LOST.

LOST.—Tire chain. Leave at Dwyer's store, Strand.

MALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED.—For position on farm, married man; year round job; good house, wood, milk and garden. Apply to F. B. Raub, Wynkoop Farms, Hurley, N. Y.

WANTED—ERRAND BOYS. FULLER'S SHIRT FACTORY, PINE GROVE AVE.

WANTED.—Firemen, brakemen, beginners $125 monthly; permanent positions guaranteed. Railway, care Freeman.

CHAUFFEUR, first class man, absolutely sober and reliable; 8 years with last employer; desires position with private family; city or country. Rudolf Weber, Saugerties.

WANTED.—Good sized boy with bicycle. Kingston Valet System, 565 Broadway.

WANTED.—Reliable man for an established tea and coffee route. Grand Union Tea Co., 318 Wall St.

WANTED.—Married man to work on fruit farm, near Kingston; no dairy; good money for family willing to work. Address "Fruit Farm," Box 727, Kingston.

WANTED.—Married man to work on fruit farm; good wages, home and garden; state age, size of family and reference. F. W. Vail & Son, Milton, N. Y.

WANTED.—Second-hand who understands burning brick; good wages. Geo. W. Washburn Co., Catskill, N. Y.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

POSITIONS ARE OPEN AT FULLER'S SHIRT FACTORY FOR GIRLS TO OPERATE POWER SEWING MACHINE. EXPERIENCE NOT ESSENTIAL, AS GOOD WAGES ARE ASSURED WHILE LEARNING. FULLER'S SHIRT FACTORY, PINE GROVE AVE.

WANTED.—Experienced ironer for pressing, $1.00 per day while learning. Millen, Aikenhead Co., Inc., Greenkill Ave.

WANTED.—Girl or woman to cook and assist with general housework, in a family of two adults; wages $25 per month. Address "Y. Z." c/o Freeman Office.

POSITIONS ARE OPEN FOR GIRLS TO OPERATE POWER SEWING MACHINES ON SHIRTS; EXPERIENCE NOT NECESSARY. GOOD WAGES PAID WHILE LEARNING. WE HAVE THE MOST MODERN AND UP-TO-DATE FACTORY IN KINGSTON. F. JACOBSON & SONS, SMITH AND CORNELL STS., KINGSTON.

WANTED.—Girl, first class skirt finisher; apply at once. S. Gold, 28-30 Main St.

WANTED.—Experienced examiner, steady work; call at once. Tomasian Shirt Factory, 42 Thomas St. 'Phone 1409.

WANTED.—50 operators; a chance of making the same as already employed hands, which is as high as $20 per week. Apply at once. J. Davis, 662 Broadway.

WANTED.—Girls to operate machines on all parts of shirts; steady work; good pay. Learners taken. Apply Columbia Shirt Co., O'Neil St.

OPERATORS WANTED: BEGINNERS PAID WHILE LEARNING. MILLEN AIKENHEAD & CO., INC., GREENKILL AVE.

TO LET.

TO LET.—Two 6-room flats with all improvements, and one garage. 113 Abeel St.

TO LET.—House, 60 Clinton Ave. Inquire Brinnier & Canfield, 53 John St.

TO LET.—10 rooms and bath, 121 Fair St., or for sale, if let sale is off. Inquire 152 Washington Ave.

TO LET.—From May 1, first floor, to adults; part improvements. 24 Maiden Lane.

TO LET.—House, 29 Orchard St., improvements. Apply Mrs. Terry, 293 Broadway.

TO LET.—One new flat, 356 Washington Ave.; all improvements; from April 1st. $20. 'Phone 1006-R.

TO LET.—Six room house, 61 Staples St. 'Phone 1163-W.

TO LET.—Five rooms, 98 Clinton Ave., improvements. 'Phone 705-W.

TO RENT.—The residence of Josiah Hasbrouck, late of Sleightsburgh, N. Y.; the barn and other buildings about the house; sixty acres of farm lying on the west side of the highway leading from the ferry to Port Ewen. Possession April first. Also the waterfront lying between the ferry house and Baisden & Tremper's shipyard. Apply to G. D. B. Hasbrouck, court house.

TO LET.—House, 87 West Chester St. Inquire A. Eichler.

TO LET.—8 room house and garden, 46 Hurley Ave. 'Phone 1792-M, or inquire 44 Hurley Ave.

TO LET.—31 Janet St. 'Phone 786-W.

TO LET.—Residence, 35 West Chestnut St. L. Hoysradt.

TO LET.—House, 142 Main St., all improvements. C. F. Gray.

TO LET.—Flat, uptown. Apply N. D. J. Murphy.

TO LET.—Store. F. Meyer, 237 Hasbrouck Ave.

TO LET.—10 Cedar St., $10. Inquire 14 Cedar St.

TO LET.—Four nice offices, in Burgevin building, Fair and Main Sts.

TO LET.—3 rooms, first floor, all improvements. 'Phone 1117.

FOR RENT.—Flat, 100 Henry St. Apply 60 Clinton Ave.

TO LET.—Apartments, 215 Delaware Ave., 306 Broadway; house, 59 Green St. Estate of John N. Cordts.

TO LET.—Store and office at 298 Wall St. Offices 272-282 Fair St. Stores Hasbrouck Ave., near Strand. Estate of John N. Cordts.

WANTED.

WANTED.—EXPERIENCED ROLLERS AND BUNCHMAKERS, AND GIRLS AND BOYS TO LEARN CIGAR MAKING. $4.00 PER WEEK PAID WHILE LEARNING. LAST YEAR OUR EMPLOYES SAVED OVER $14,000. G. W. VAN SLYKE & HORTON.

WANTED.—At once, unfurnished room for light housekeeping. Apply 658 Broadway.

WANTED.—Turkey eggs. Address "Subway Lunch," Kingston, N. Y.

WANTED.—To buy, second hand clothes. 'Phone 1660-W.

WANTED.—Second hand typewriter; state price, condition and make. "Typewriter," Uptown Freeman.

WANTED.—Old false teeth. Don't matter if broken. I pay one to ten dollars per set. Send by parcel post and receive check by return mail. L. MAZER, 2007 S. 5th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WANTED.—Man and wife to work on farm, and board with me. E. B. Sheldon, Esopus, N. Y.

WANTED.—Your developing and printing. Prompt 24 hour service. Satisfaction guaranteed. O'Reilly's, 530 Broadway.

WANTED.—Help. Ulster Employment Agency, 336 Clinton Ave. 'Phone 1234-R.

WANTED.—To rent, small modern house, from May 1st. 'Phone 196-W.

WANTED.—Painting and paper hanging. Will do good work at reasonable prices; use best material. Bregman Bros., 51 Murray St. 'Phone 411-W.

TONY DENIER'S WILL IS FILED IN COURT

The will of Anthony, better known as Tony, Denier, the original Humpty Dumpty clown, who died at the Kingston city hospital on Saturday, has been filed with Surrogate Gill in the surrogate's court by his attorney, William H. Grogan.

Tony does not mention his wife, Louise Sully Denier of Woodstock, against whom he recently recovered judgment for $3,200 in his suit to recover $17,000, which he had turned over to her or expended for her on the promise, as he alleged, that she would execute a mortgage to him as security.

The famous clown directs that he be buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago, in the plot in which his first wife, Emma Horne Denier, and his daughter, Lydia Denier, are buried, and for the perpetual care of which plot he has already paid the cemetery association. He directs also that the funeral services be held at the lot in Rosehill Cemetery, and that the same be presided over by some leading actor or orator, the speaker to be chosen by the officers of the Theatrical Mechanical Association. He directs also that his debts, funeral expenses and expenses be paid.

His mechanical acrobats, commonly spoken of as the "Three Wooden Heads," he gives to Ida Maison Sloan, of 1711 Jefferson street, Philadelphia. His securities, etc., he gives to his executors in trust with instructions to convert the same into cash and to pay $100 each to Ida Louise Sloan and Joseph Maison Sloan of Philadelphia; John Bairstow of 8016 Ravenswood Park avenue, Chicago; William H. Bairstow in trust for his daughter, Ethel May Bairstow, to be paid to her when she is 21 years old; George H. Elwyn of Woodstock, in trust for his son, Hugh Elwyn, to be paid to him when he is 21 years old; the Theatrical Mechanical Association, Lodge No. 4, of Chicago; Charles E. Schilling of Los Angeles, Cal., and $100 to Louis and Ray Filher of Leow's Theater, New York city.

His Chicago patent work bench and all tools are given to Wilber Cashdollar of Woodstock. An oil painting known as "Sheep in the Fold," is given to Ida Louise Sloan; an oil painting known as "Cattle in the Polders," is given to John Bairstow or in the event of his death to William H. Bairstow; the balance of his oil paintings are given to his executors personally, share and share alike.

All curiosities are given to Henry Cassius Steele and Joseph M. Sloan of Philadelphia; household furniture, an upright piano and all musical instruments are given to the executors, share and share alike. All manuscript of pantomime acts and books pertaining to them, or books on the stage, and his library are given to Joseph Maison Sloan of Philadelphia. The balance realized from the sale of property is given to the Theatrical Mechanical Association, Lodge No. 4, of Chicago. The executors and trustees are John Bairstow of 8016 Ravenswood Park avenue, Chicago, and Joseph Maison Sloan of Philadelphia. In case of the death of inability of the former, William H. Bairstow is appointed an executor, and in case of the death or inability of Mr. Sloan, he appoints Henry Cassius Steele of 246 North Creighton street, Philadelphia, an executor.

All former wills are revoked.

The will was executed July 22, 1915, and witnessed by William H. Grogan and Elsie A. Boyce.

Other Wills.

The will of Margaret Kerley of this city was filed and a citation was issued returnable April 17. To the Rev. John J. Hickey, pastor of St. Mary's Church, or his successor as pastor, and to the Rev. Stephen Connolly, assistant pastor, the testatrix bequeaths the sum of $50 each with the request that they say masses for the repose of her soul. To her brother, John Roach, of Brooklyn, she bequeaths $500 and a gold watch and chain; to her sister, Elizabeth Roach, of New York, she bequeaths $500; to her niece, Mary Hamilton, she bequeaths all her shares in the Home Seekers' Co-operative Savings and Loan Association of this city with all accumulations of interest, dividends, etc., thereon to James Sullivan, a clerk in her store, she bequeaths $25, and the balance of the estate is given to her sister, Mary Hamilton, and the latter's daughter, Elizabeth Hamilton, share and share alike. Any legatee contesting the will is to forfeit his or her share. Elizabeth Hamilton is appointed executrix. The will was executed November 21, 1916, and witnessed by Christopher A. Murray and Charles McMillan. The value of the estate is $10,000 personal property. Christopher A. Murray appeared for the executrix.

Proof was taken of the execution of the will of Elizabeth Melville Lawrence of this city and the matter of probate was held open. The testatrix bequeaths her life insurance policy of $500 to her children, Mrs. Minnie DeWitt and William F. Melville. No executor is named. A petition for letters of administration with the will annexed was made by the son. The will was executed December 13, 1910, and witnessed by John H. Smith, David A. Smith and Louise Smith, all of West Nyack, N. Y. The value of the estate is $500 personal property. Raymond G. Cox of Ellenville appeared for the petitioner.

The will of Delilah Catherine Myers of the town of Shandaken was admitted to probate. To Mary Cunningham of Shandaken, the testatrix devises the little house adjoining the Cruickshank line, together with sufficient land to include the spring from which water is piped to the house. The balance of the estate is given to William C. Van Anden and Sadie F. Van Anden of this city, who are appointed executors. The will was executed February 18, 1917, and witnessed by Edwin Champlin and Joel L. Keator, both of Fleischmanns. The value of the estate is not stated in papers accompanying the will. Joel L. Keator appeared for the executors.

The will of John L. Jones of the town of Woodstock was admitted to probate. To his wife, Jane Jones, the testator bequeaths all moneys on deposit in savings banks and all joint accounts, and in the event of her death he gives the same to their sons, Stewart Jones and Walter G. Jones. All household effects are given to the wife. All real estate is given to Stewart Jones on condition that his mother shall have her support and maintenance there during her lifetime; that he pay $1,500 to Walter G. Jones or the latter's children, and that Kate S. MacGregor, a sister-in-law, have her board and lodging at the homestead until her marriage. In the event of the death of Stewart Jones, the property is given to his children subject to the same conditions. The balance of the estate is given to Stewart Jones. Any legatee contesting the will is to forfeit the share provided by the will. The two sons are appointed executors. The will was executed May 2, 1916, and witnessed by John E. Kamp and William J. Greene, both of Woodstock. The value of the real estate is $4,500 and the personal property amounts to $1,500. Van Etten & Cook appeared for the executors. An order was also granted appointing George Mead and Henry Pepper appraisers.

Other Estates.

Letters of administration on the estate of Abram C. Tamney of New Paltz were issued to his widow, Daisy Tamney. The value of the estate is $1,400 personal property. Joseph H. Vanderlyn appeared for the administratrix.

Letters of administration on the estate of Catherine D. Smith of the town of New Paltz were issued to Ella A. Mead. The value of the estate is $300 personal property. John N. Vanderlyn appeared for the administratrix.

In the estate of Michael Ambrose of the town of Esopus, an order was granted fixing the cash value of the estate and declaring it exempt from tax under the taxable transfer act. The personal property amounts to $1,523.98; the real estate is valued at $3,000; the debts, commissions, expenses of administration, etc., amount to $393.95. Elizabeth Ambrose and John V. Ambrose, the executors, were represented by John N. Vanderly; Joseph H. Vanderlyn appeared for the state comptroller.

A hearing was had in the matter of the judicial settlement of the account of Florence Wagner as administratrix of the estate of John Wagner of the town of Denning and a decree was granted.

In the estate of James Barry of the town of Marlborough, a petition for a judicial settlement was filed by James Barry, Jr., the executor and a citation was issued returnable April 9. John Rusk appeared for the executor.

In the estate of Malinda Decker of the town of New Paltz, a petition for a judicial settlement was filed by Emmit S. Decker, the executor, and a citation was issued returnable March 26. John N. Vanderlyn appeared for the executor.

Johnson to Resign as Governor.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Sacramento, Cal., March 12.—Governor Hiram Johnson today announced that he will resign the governorship of California on March 15. It s believed that he will go to Washington to be sworn in as United States senator a day or two later.

Cleaning Lower Broadway.

Members of the street force were busy today with pick and shovel clearing away the accumulated ice and snow on lower Broadway.

One Cent Per Word

No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

LOST.

LOST.—Tuesday night, between Baker's 5 and 10 cent store and opera house, purse containing sum of money. Leave at the Huntington.

LOST.—A silver watch, between 76 Foxhall and Sussin's tailor shop. Return to 76 Foxhall. Reward.

FURNISHED ROOMS.

FURNISHED housekeeping rooms. 72 Cedar St.

LARGE, well heated rooms; table board. Sherwood Lodge, 317 Clinton Ave.

DESIRABLE rooms with board. 150 Fair St.

FURNISHED and unfurnished rooms, 27 John St.

SUNNY, pleasant room, with or without board. 14 Warren St.

FURNISHED ROOMS—2 light housekeeping apartments, heated; uptown section. Call 1117.

FURNISHED ROOMS.—112 Hone St.

FURNISHED ROOMS.—36 Hoffman St.

FURNISHED ROOMS.—102 Hone St.

FURNISHED ROOMS, with board, 30 Adams St.

FURNISHED ROOMS.—Single or housekeeping. 320½ Wall St.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PIANOS tuned and repaired; terms reasonable. Marthis, 186 Prospect St. 'Phone 1847-W.

HIGHEST price paid for misfit and second hand clothes. 'Phone 1474-M.

MONEY to loan—liberal terms. Home-Seekers' Co-operative Savings & Loan Association, 23 Broadway.

DEVELOPING and printing a specialty; 20 years' experience. We use all kinds developing paper. Longyear, 95 John St.

SPENCER'S BUSINESS SCHOOL, INC. Large study halls, fine equipment, best instructors. Enter now, day or evening.

I AM still in business and will keep a stock of doors, sash, blinds, molding, frames, glass, roofing and some lines of lumber for sale. General insurance and real estate. Albert Mauterstock, 113 Broadway.

MORAN BUSINESS SCHOOL, Fair and Main Sts. Commercial, Stenographic, English. Day and Night. Experienced Instructors. Graduates in Demand. ENTER NOW.

FURNITURE storage. Mouse-proof, sanitary, fire-proof. Frederick C. Winters, Kingston. 'Phone 1113-J, or Brown Auto Supply Co. 'Phone 1066.

FURNITURE storage; best in city. Harry P. Carr. 'Phone 1178-J, 5-F3.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, March 12.—Trading in the railway issues continued on a large scale in the late forenoon. While advances in these issues were in progress many industrials were supplied at material concessions. Money loaning at 2¼ per cent.

The railway issues dropped sharply when it was announced that no Adamson decision was handed down. Union Pacific sold down from 137½ to 135¾, and Reading from 97⅛ to 95¾. The losses in these stocks had a disturbing effect on the rest of the list causing declines ranging from one to two points.

Dealings in the last hour were also wholly professional. The bear traders made the most of various rumors from Washington and offered stocks at concessions. The final tone was steady.

Quotations furnished by John D. Kline Warren Building Fair street, Kingston, N. Y., Tel. 1423. Correspondent of C. H. Van Buren & Company, members of Consolidated Stock Exchange of New York.

THE CLOSING QUOTATIONS.

Allis-Chalmers	27¼
American Beet Sugar	92⅞
American Car & Foundry	66⅝
American Can	45⅛
American Cotton Oil
American Locomotive	71
American Smelting & Ref. Co.	104⅜
American Sugar	112¼
Anaconda Copper Mining	83¾
Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe	102¼
Baldwin Loco	52¼
Baltimore & Ohio	76¼
Bethlehem Steel Co.	139
Brooklyn Rapid Transit	68½
Canadian Pacific	153½
Central Leather	91¼
Chesapeake & Ohio	59
Chicago, Mil. & St. Paul	82½
Colorado Fuel & Iron	47
Corn Products	23½
Crucible Steel	65¾
Distillers' Securities	20⅞
Erie	26½
Erie, 1st pfd	39⅞
Goodrich Rubber	55½
Great Northern, pfd	113⅜
Great Northern Ore	34
Interborough Con
Inter. Con., pfd	64½
Kansas City Southern	22
Lehigh Valley	68⅛
Maxwell Motor	55¼
Maxwell Motor, 1st pfd	71¼
Maxwell Motor, 2d pfd	35½
Mexican Petroleum	87¼
National Lead	57
New York Central	96
N. Y., N. H. & H.	48⅞
New York, Ontario & Western	24½
Norfolk & Western	130
Northern Pacific	103⅜
Pennsylvania Railroad	53⅞
People's Gas, Chicago
Pittsburgh Coal	47½
Pressed Steel Car	79½
Railway Steel Sp'g	52⅛
Reading	95
Rep. Iron & Steel	79½
Southern Pacific	94¼
Southern Railway	27⅝
Southern Railway, pfd	58½
Studebaker	104¼
Union Pacific	136¼
U. S. Steel	110⅞
U. S. Steel, pfd	117¾
U. S. Rubber	94¼
Utah Copper	111
Virginia Car. Chem
Westinghouse Electric	51

A Poet's Custard Bath.

A custom which has now disappeared used to afford much amusement to the guests at the banquet on lord mayor's day. In the household of the lord mayor there existed the offices of jester and city laureate. On the day of the feast a huge quaking custard was made in a dish as large as a bathing machine. It was the duty of the laureate, clad in official garb, to spring from his chair into the depths of the custard, splashing the contents over the table and the nearest guests.

In return for this feat the laureate was allowed to eat as much of the custard as he wished, which was probably very little.—London Tatler.

Roumanian Courtesy.

The Roumanians are among the handsomest races in Europe, but that, says a correspondent of the London Telegraph, is only a part of their fascination. Some enthusiast has said that the ladies of Bukharest "combine the beauty of the Hungarian, the grace of the Austrian and the wit and style of the Parisian." But still we have not all the truth. It is the distinction and kindliness of the manners of Bukharest which mark it out among the cities of the world. No one ever found there anything but courtesy. Many have pronounced the people the politest on earth, and the politeness is not a matter of civility or readiness to oblige, but a high bred distinction of manner.

Importance of the Beard.

The importance of the beard was fully recognized in the middle ages. Here is a passage (quoted by J. A. F. Orbaan in "Sixtine Rome") from a letter of the writer, Bartolomeo Catena: "It is well that those who have to lead and govern should have a long and fine beard. And I can assure you that the government of cities and provinces has been given to more than one prelate because he had a long and fine beard; otherwise he were not worthy that honor."

Cairo's Books.

Books printed in Cairo are read by the camp fires of the Sahara, in the market of Timbuktu, under the very shadows of the Kaaba and are treasured in the mosques of Java and western China.

The Round World.

"I hear you have a brother abroad?"

"I have."

"Is he a long way off?"

"Yes; he could hardly get any farther away without coming nearer."—Boston Transcript.

WHEAT MARKET SLUMPS SUDDENLY

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Chicago, March 12.—Wheat closed 5¼c lower today for May as a result of heavy rains in Nebraska and Kansas and fear that a railroad strike would follow failure of the supreme court to pass upon the constitutionality of the Adamson eight hour law. Fair buying of the breaks, however, prevented a bigger break. Other grains also closed lower.

Closing Prices.

Wheat.—May 180⅜ to ⅛; July 153 to 152¾; Sept. 143 to 142¾.

Corn.—May 107¼ to ⅛; July 106¾ to ⅝; Sept. 105¾.

Oats.—May 57⅝ to ½; July 55¾ to ⅝.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

Charles H. Wiggins of Shandaken died at the tuberculosis hospital on Sunday evening. He was 43 years old and resided in Brooklyn before removing to Shandaken where he was employed in a chair factory.

The funeral of Michael J. Condon, formerly of Saugerties, who died at his home in Albany on March 9, was held in St. Mary's Church, Albany, this morning, and the remains brought to Saugerties this afternoon for interment in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Russell, aged 5 years, son of Samuel Goldberg, manager of the Wilson Co. in Saugerties, died Saturday afternoon at the home of his father on Livingston street, after an illness of one day. The funeral was held Monday afternoon, the Rev. J. H. Jones of the Congregational Church, officiating. The remains were placed in the mortuary vault.

The funeral of Otis B. Whittaker was held Sunday afternoon at his late residence, Cross street. The Rev. F. M. Turrentine of the M. E. Church officiated. 75 members of Esopus Tribe, No. 482, I. O. R. M., of which the deceased was a member, attended and rendered the burial service of the order in Mountain View Cemetery, where the burial took place.

Mrs. Lena M. Kless, wife of George Distle, died at her home at Ulster Heights on Friday after an illness of several weeks of complications at the age of 33 years. Surviving are her husband and four children and her father, Fred Kless. The funeral will be held from St. Andrew's Church, Ellenville, Monday morning and burial will be made in the Fantinekill cemetery.

Cornelius G., the 6 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius J. Heitzman, died early this morning, after a short illness. The parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. The funeral will be held from their home, No. 93 Hoffman street, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock and 9:30 at St. Peter's Church. Interment will be in St. Peter's Cemetery.

On Saturday, March 10, the fifth annual floral tribute was placed on the grave of the late S. Arthur Safford by four Masonic friends, Herman J. Eekhoff, Harry C. Arnold, William V. A. Poe and Theodore M. Poe of New York city. It is worthy of note that four young men a hundred miles away from a grave of a departed brother should continue to place flowers on the grave year after year as they intend to do "as long as they live." Mr. Safford during his lifetime was a member of Republic Lodge, No. 690, F. & A. M., of New York city.

The death of Franklin M. Carver at his home on Park street, Ellenville early Saturday morning removes one of the village oldest citizens. Mr. Carver was in his 89th year. He had been confined to his home and bed for several weeks, apparently no ailment but weakness and all that loving hands could do was done for this honored husband and father. Mr. Carver was born in Pennsylvania, a son of Israel Carver and Charity Dean, his wife, but had been a resident of the town of Wawarsing the greater part of his long life. He was a veteran of the Civil War. At the time of enlisting he resided at Napanoch, N. Y., but had been a resident of Ellenville many years; by trade a carpenter and builder. Always a bright, cheerful disposition, a friendly greeting to all, a man who will be missed from the community, as he has been during his illness. Surviving are his wife, who was Miss Sarah Blanshan before marriage, and four sons, Emmor S. Carver, Harry R. Carver, and John Carver of Ellenville and Fred Carver of Middletown. The funeral will be held at the late home of deceased on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be made in Fantinekill cemetery. The service will be in charge of the Rev. W. S. Maines of the Reformed Church and Ward Post, G. A. R., of which deceased was a member.

Same Old Suits.

"Where have you been until this hour?" said Mrs. Lawyer Towit to her late returning hubby.

"I've been looking after some suits," alibied Towit.

"Yes, I know those suits—the old diamonds, hearts, spades and clubs. Well, this is the last night I'll let you out."—Buffalo Express.

EVENTS THIS EVENING.

"The Libertine," photoplay, at Kingston Opera House.

"Castles for Two," photoplay, at Y. M. C. A. Auditorium.

LaFollette in his mystery production at Orpheum.

ABOUT THE FOLKS.

Irving V. E. Barth of No. 400 Hasbrouck avenue, having finished his course at the Kingston High School, left Sunday evening for Tri State College, Indiana, where he expects to take up a course of five years studying law.

THE JOINERS.

News of Interest to Members of Fraternal Societies.

The following lodges hold regular meetings this evening:

Colonial Rebekah Lodge, No. 48, I. O. O. F., in Odd Fellows' Hall, 36 East Strand.

J. R. B. Smith Lodge, No. 4,473, G. U. O. O. F., at 103 Cornell street.

Maben Camp, No. 11,156, Modern Woodmen of America, at 635 Broadway.

Division No. 4, Ancient Order of Hibernians, at 15 Hasbrouck avenue.

Division No. 5, Ancient Order of Hibernians, at 635 Broadway.

Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association, No. 57, at 15 Hasbrouck avenue.

Abraham Lincoln Circle, No. 192, Protected Home Circle, at J. O. U. A. M. Hall, Henry street.

Rondout Lodge, No. 343, F. & A. M., in Masonic Hall, Strand, corner of Broadway.

Camp No. 30, P. O. A., in Mechanics' Hall, No. 14 Henry street.

Franklin Lodge, No. 37, Knights of Pythias, will confer the rank of Knight on a class of candidates at their regular convention tonight.

The regular convention of A. W. Reynolds Temple of Pythian sisters will be held Wednesday evening, March 14. As matters of importance are to come before this meeting, a large attendance is desired. The meeting night of the Pythian sisters has been changed from Friday evening to Wednesday evening indefinitely.

New York Produce Market.

Wheat.—Unsettled, lower. May Chicago 182 @ 182⅛; July Chicago, 155⅝ @ ¾; Sept. Chicago, 145¼ @ ⅝; Spot No. 2 red winter, 204, c. i. f. New York to arrive, 207 f. o. b. to arrive.

Corn.—Firm. No. 2 yellow new, 122½; No. 3 yellow new, 121½.

Oats.—Barely steady. Fancy white, 79 @ 81; ordinary clipped, 77 @ 79; standard, 75 @ 75½; No. 3 white, 74½ @ 75½; No. 4 white, nominal.

Rye.—Easy. No. 2 western, 166, c. i. f. New York; state, 169 f. o. b. New York.

Barley.—Easy. Malting, nominal, c. i. f. Buffalo; feeding, 118 c. i. f. Buffalo.

Hay.—Steady. No. 3, 100 @ 110; No. 2, 65 @ 75; clover mixed, 50 @ 92½.

Straw.—Steady. No. 1 straight rye, 60 @ 70.

Flour.—Quiet. Spring patents, 925 @ 950; straights, 890 @ 915; clears, 800 @ 825; winter patents, 875 @ 900; straights, 840 @ 865; clears, 805 @ 830.

Potatoes.—Steady. White, nearby, $7.00 @ $8.50; Bermudas, $8.00 @ $11.50; southerns, $1.50 @ $7.00; Southern Jersey sweets, $1.00 @ $2.50 per basket.

Dressed Poultry, quiet. Broilers, Capons and chuckens, 18 @ 45; fowls, 18 @ 23½; turkeys, 18 @ 34; ducks, 18 @ 23; L. I. ducks, 24 @ 25; geese, 15 @ 20.

Live Poultry. Firm. Chickens, 17 @ 20; fowls, 23; turkeys, 20 @ 25; roosters, 15½; ducks, 22 @ 23; geese, springs, 14 @ 17.

Butter. Steady. Held and fresh. Creamery extra, 38½ @ 41; creamery firsts, 37 @ 40; higher scoring, 38¾ @ 42½; state dairy, tubs, 29 @ 40; process extra, 33 @ 33½; imitation firsts, 31 @ 32.

Eggs. Weak. Nearby white, fancy, 33 @ 34; nearby brown, fancy, 31 @ 32; extras, 30; firsts, 29.

Milk—The nominal wholesale price is 5¼ @ 5½ cents a quart.

Permitted Raillery.

The raillery which is consistent with good breeding is a gentle animadversion on some foible, which, while it raises the laugh in the rest of the company, doth not put the person rallied out of countenance, or expose him to shame or contempt. On the contrary, the jest should be so delicate that the object of it should be capable of joining in the mirth it occasions.—Fielding.

Good Substitute.

If you are afraid white or ivory woodwork is too difficult to keep clean, consider the substitute of a very deep old ivory. This gives the general effect of white woodwork and does not show the dirt.

Matrimony.

"The Midge," H. C. Bunner's charming romance of New York life, was dashed off in a house in Seventeenth street in order to provide its author with funds "to get married on."

We develop your films and print your pictures on Velox paper in 24 hours. We have our own plant and do our own work.

KODAKS; FILMS AND PHOTO SUPPLIES

E. WINTER'S SONS

Open Evenings — John Street

Every Thing For the Sport Girl and the Simple Gowned Woman

Dame Fashion has certainly shown her handiwork this spring season in the new creations she has decreed to be worn by the fair sex. Never has there been a season for such beautiful novelties and never have we been more abundantly prepared to meet this demand.

A Novelty Season in Wash Goods

This season will surpass every previous season in novelties; every thing in Wash Goods are novelties.

Reception Voiles—38 inches wide, the popular wash fabric, in floral, plaids, black and oriental designs. Specially priced 29c

Embroidered Voiles—38 inches wide, white grounds in colored, striped embroidered, in spot designs 39c

Wofen Embroidered Voile—38 inches wide, in beautiful combination stripe effects 50c

Shadow Printed Ombre Effects—38 inches wide, in the two tone colorings, interwoven in cord effects 50c

New Skirtings—38 inches wide; these are expected to be extremely popular, heavy cord effects in colored stripes .....50c and 69c

White Gabardine Skirtings—36 inches wide in all the newest weaves of its class. Priced, 39c to 15c

Sport Coatings

Among the new arrivals this past week were some handsome sport coatings, 54 inches wide, beautiful color combination, in the wide stripe and plaid effects, with a rich lustre finish of velour, $1.50 to $2.85

Plain Coating Velour—54 inches wide, colors chartreuse, gold, green and blue. These are light weight coatings, suitable for afternoon and evening wear, especially adapted for opera capes $3.00

Silk and Lingerie Waists

Georgette Crepe and Lace Silk Waists—In all the new colors of chartreuse, gold, shadow lawn, green, maize, flesh and white, from .....$3.95 to $10.00

Lingerie Waists—Of Batiste and Novelty Voiles, of checks and stripes, all white filet lace and embroidery trimmed, priced from $2.00 to $5.75

Sport Stripe Shirt Waists—Beautiful new voile waists in rich color combination of sport stripes with corded effects .. $3.00 and $4.95

WATCH OUR ADVERTISEMENT NEXT WEEK

Wonderful Array of Cretonnes

Cretonnes for draperies are the popular favorite this spring season. The combinations are really beautiful and many are the copies of the oriental and French designs, in bird and floral designs. Prices from .....25c to 50c

Window Shades—We are prepared to make estimates in furnishing homes with window shades, same may be had in the oil opaque, linoline and lonsdale, colors white, ecru or green, prices according to size of shade from...35c to $1.00

Scrims—Now is the time to make up you summer curtains for the cottage or home. We have a beautiful line of the newest effects in plain and figured .....25c to 50c

Gloves! Gloves!

It is a well known fact that in another season if the war continues Kid Gloves will be at a premium. There are few skins or gloves being imported today and many domestic skins are being substituted.

We congratulate ourselves that we are prepared to offer all imported French Kid Gloves and Washable Kid Gloves (the latter are made in America but the skins are imported) thus insuring you of the best gloves obtainable.

Monopole Kid
Alexander Kid
Washable Kid
$1.75 a pair

NOTE—We know these same gloves are selling in New York stores for $2.00 and $2.25.

Silk Dresses for Easter at Popular Prices

We offer here a fine collection of all that is new in Silk Dresses;

at $15.00 This lot comprises of Silk Taffeta and Georgette Dresses, beautifully made, some daintily embroidered, others with overskirts and some in coat effects, specially priced at $15.00

at $19.50 This lot includes Taffeta Dresses with Georgette Sleeves and overskirt effect, large pocket trimmed, at $19.50

at $21.50 Dresses of Georgette Crepe and Crepe Meteor, all box plaited, also Taffeta dresses in the latest styles, at $21.50

at $25.00 These are very stylish models, made of Taffeta, in stripes and checks and plain colors, trimmed in large Georgette collars, some long overskirt effect, velvet trimmed $25.00

SEE OUR AD. NEXT WEEK

G. A. HART and CO.
KINGSTON, N.Y.

SEE OUR AD. NEXT WEEK

SILK FLAG FOR ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

At the Sunday morning service at St. John's Church, this city, the new silk flag presented by parishioners of the church, was used for the first time. This handsome flag, the size of the regulation government flag is of rich silk, with a finish of gold colored silk fringe. The flag staff is surmounted by a gilt eagle, and a gold colored silk cord and, tassels complete the appointments. Dean Kleiss, of the Boy Scouts of St. John's was the fortunate first color bearer, and at the close of the processional he placed the flag in its standard beside the lectern. In speaking to the congregation, of the gift of the flag, the rector, the Rev. J. I. Blair Larned, called attention to the fact that it was the gift, not of one, but of the majority of the parishioners, all of whom were interested in the idea of such a gift. The fact of the many donors, proved the truth of the statement, "in union here is strength," whether applied to state or church. Mr. Larned then spoke of the need of aroused patriotism at this time, and reminded his congregation that in the early days of history religion was practically patriotism. Today, there is only one word greater than patriotism, and that is Christianity. Now, as never before the two should be used together as symbols of the highest living for every man, woman, boy and girl. In closing, Mr. Larned paraphrased the New Testament words as follows: "How can you love God whom you have not seen if you love not your country which you have seen?"

SAUGERTIES.

Saugerties, March 12.—On Saturday employes of the Saugerties Manufacturing Co. received a bonus of 5% on their earnings for the past six months.

The Rev. J. V. Wemple of the Reformed Church Monday afternoon conducted the funeral services in the mortuary chapel over the remains of Mrs. Charles Abeel, who died at Schenectady on March 9. The interment was in Mountain View Cemetery.

Contractor John McKeefrey of Brooklyn spent Saturday at his summer home on Market street.

Trinity Episcopal Church was opened for services Sunday, after an expenditure of $16,000, made for improvements, decorations and organ repairs. During the past six months the church services were held in the chapel. The dedication ceremonies will be held later when Bishop Greer will be present.

Miss Helen Stern of Kingston rendered a solo in an artistic manner at the morning service in Trinity Episcopal Church Sunday morning.

The Saugerties Ministers' Association met Monday afternoon at the home of the Rev. H. I. Hoag on Ulster avenue. The Rev. R. P. Ingersoll of the Baptist Church addressed the association.

Frank Hillebrant of Partition street is in New York city for a few days.

Miss Beatrice Whittaker of Valley street spent Sunday in Poughkeepsie.

George DuBois is ill at his home on Dock street.

The Rev. Father Roche of Esopus, N. Y., preached in St. Mary's Church on Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. A. Hurry and Mrs. Rutger Hurry of New York city are spending a few days at the Maxwell House.

First Aid Classes Tuesday.

In view of word just received from Washington Headquarters of the American Red Cross, the three classes in first aid work for women, will be enabled to hold their first meeting in the downstairs room of the Kingston City Library Tuesday, at the following hours: Class at 10 a. m. Class at 2 p. m. Class at 4 p. m. All class members are asked to bring pencils and note books with them, and to be in attendance promptly on time, as promptness is one of the first requisites of valuable service.

Divorce Decree Granted.

Catherine Markle has been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from her husband, Frederick J. Markle, by Justice G. D. B. Hasbrouck. The action was brought by Mrs. Markle against her husband before Judge Hasbrouck in supreme court. According to final decree filed with the county clerk Mrs. Markle is allowed $50 counsel fees and is given the custody of the two children. Alimony in the sum of $5 a week is allowed.

Bought Meyer Property.

The Meyer property at No. 90 Broadway has been bought by Jacob Balzam, who conducts the barber shop in the building. Mr. Balzam will make many improvements to the property and completely renovate the building.

Sensible Rejoinder.

"Don't you think," asked the young man with the long nose, "that Miss Quickstep dresses as much like a man as possible in order to get herself talked about?" "On the supposition that she does," replied the other young man, with a frosty glitter in his eye, "I suggest that we defeat her purpose by not talking about her. Understand?"

Stains on Leather.

Ink stains on brown leather can be removed by a weak solution of oxalic acid. Apply with a small paint brush, but only allow a few minutes to elapse before wiping the solution away. Two or three applications may be necessary to remove an old deep-seated stain.

LIGHTWEIGHT OVERCOATS FOR SPRING

Copyright 1917 The House of Kuppenheimer

Relations have been broken off with King Winter.

Ambassador Frost has been handed his passports-- it's time to think of your new Spring Overcoat.

THE HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER

has scored a hit with their new overcoat creations.

The new coats are alive with the military spirit--some belted all'round, others with the saddle bag pocket effect. Swagger models, loose and shaped in--dress coats and all 'round coats. Our assortments include every new fabric, color and pattern,

$18 $20 $25

"The Kuppenheimer House in Kingston."

MARBLESTONE'S

GERMAN PRISONERS. ©INTERNATIONAL

GERMAN PRISONERS SEARCHING FOR THEIR WOUNDED COMRADES.

Many German mines buried at a recent mine explosion near Douaumont resulted in the death of a great number of Germans. The French immediately after the explosion sent newly captured German prisoners to search the ruins for their comrades among the debris. The picture shows them at work.

Deceived by a Cloud.

The instinct of animals is sometimes supposed to be more infallible than human reason, but a scientist's observations of the katydid rather contradict that opinion. The katydid, with its musical membranes, produces two distinct "songs," one peculiar to the night and familiar to everybody, the other a daytime tune, which is rather a rasp than a melody. According to the scientist mentioned, it is sometimes quite comical to hear the singers suddenly change their tune when a dark cloud obscures the sun, immediately resuming their daytime song when it has passed. This recalls the hens that go to roost during a solar eclipse.

Old and Modern Customs.

Palm Sunday in certain places is called "Fig Sunday" from the custom of eating figs on this day, as snapdragons on Christmas eve, plum pudding on Christmas day, oranges and barley sugar on St. Valentine's eve, pancakes on Shrove Tuesday, salt codfish on Ash Wednesday, frumenty on "Mothering Sunday" (mid-Lent), cross buns on Good Friday, gooseberry tart on Whitsunday, goose on Michaelmas day, nuts on Allhallows, and so on.—London Chronicle.

Absurd.

Bootmaker (who has a deal of trouble with his customer)—I think, sir, if you were to cut your corns I could more easily find you a pair. Choleric Old Gentleman—Cut my corns, sir! I ask you to fit me a pair of boots to my feet, sir! I'm not going to plane my feet down to fit your boots!—London Telegraph.

MRS GERARD ON LEFT. ©INTERNATIONAL

MRS. JAMES W. GERARD LEAVING PARIS FOR U.

Mrs. James W. Gerard, wife of the former ambassador to Germany, saying good-by in the corridor of the special train at the Gare de Lyon in Paris, to Miss Sharp, the daughter of the American ambassador to France. From Paris the ex-ambassador, Mrs. Gerard and the entire staff proceeded to Spain to board the steamship Infanta Isabel for Havana. From Havana the party is to proceed to Key West, where a special train will convey Mr. Gerard to Washington.

PURITY IN OUR BEVERAGES

Absolute purity ought to be a factor included always in your Whiskey and Wine buying, but positively when it's for family use. We lay great stress upon Purity. The age and flavor of our stimulants appeal instantly to those who know the genuine article from the spurious. We can give you the pure, straight Whiskey that will at once commend itself to all for family use. If it's a question of quality at the price you will be well suited.

If you live at some place remote from Kingston, order from us by mail.

New York Wine & Liquor House

52 STRAND and 58 FERRY ST.
KINGSTON, N. Y.

—the one thing you've always wished a cigarette would do.

Wednesday you'll get the facts about

Chesterfield

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against William G. Kingsley, late of the city of Kingston, county of Ulster, deceased, intestate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Merritt B. Kingsley, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, at his residence, 311 W. Thomas street, in the city of Rome, Oneida county, N. Y., on or before the first day of May, 1917.

Dated, October 24, 1916.

MERRITT B. KINGSLEY, Administrator.

Ward J. Cagwin, Attorney, Rome, N. Y.

WANT "ADS" INSERTED AT THE SMALL COST OF CENT-A-WORD

MONDAY, MARCH 12, 1917.

Sun rises, 6:16; sets, 6:04.
Weather, clear. Humidity, 49 to 55.

The Temperature.

The lowest point registered by the Freeman's thermometer last night was 38 degrees. The highest point registered up to noon today was 44 degrees.

Weather Forecast.

Washington, March 12.—Fair, colder tonight. Tuesday partly cloudy, fresh northwest to north winds.

TROUT SEASON OPENS EARLY.

Anglers Anticipating Some Sport on April 7th Next.

Fishermen are furbishing up their rods and reels in anticipation of the opening of the brook trout season on April 7th, more than a week earlier than in former years. Weather indications now point to an early run-off of the snow in the mountains and it is believed by many that the water in the streams will be pretty nearly normal and permit of good fishing on the opening day. A ten pound creel is the legal limit for a day's sport and, to judge from the size of the German brown trout taken last year, it will not be difficult to make the limit. The trout streams of the Catskills are pretty nearly at the peak of their finny population, the result of good work in past years in stocking the same.

Trout make a most acceptable variation in the average menu and the w. k. h. c. of l. will be an added impetus to effort on the part of anglers this season.

BONTICOU.

Bonticou, March 12.—Miss Lillian and Arthur Geary spent the week end at the home of relatives in Kingston.

Mrs. Henry Schaff visited Kingston on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Slater and Mrs. Slater's brother spent the week end with their relatives at Ulster Park.

The Breezy Lawn House is making quite a few alterations. Mr. Dunn of Tillson is doing the work.

Spring is coming! Our farmers are looking after their incubators and some have already sets hens.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schaff will celebrate their twentieth wedding anniversary on the 15th of March.

At the Y. M. C. A.

There will be another match game in the Y. M. C. A. Church Bowling League on Tuesday evening at which time the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church bowlers will clash with the St. James M. E. Church representatives. The team of the Albany Avenue Baptist Church still leads the league.

Preparations are underway for the big indoor circus to be held at the Y. M. C. A. on March 27 and 28 and indications point to the fact that it will be bigger and better than ever.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

ON SALE IN NEW YORK.

The Daily Freeman is on sale at the following stands of the Schultz News Agency in New York city:
102 W. 42nd St.
42nd St. & Park Ave. (opposite Grand Central Depot.)
30th St. & Broadway (S. W. Cor.).
42nd St. & 6th Ave. (S. W. Cor.).

Elmer Palen will have at his next sale, Tuesday, March 13, at 682-684 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y., some good second handed horses in addition to his regular run of commission horses.

NEWSPAPERS DELIVERED.

Call 1509 and have your daily or Sunday paper delivered. Prompt service. O'REILLY'S, 530 Broadway.

YOUR OWN GOLD

Re-made into band or wedding rings. No waste. Watch the work in our store. C. V. L. PITTS & SON, 314 Wall street.

NOVELTIES

for St. Patrick's Day and fine Irish music. Big line of favors for dinner and card parties.
O'REILLY'S, 530 Broadway.

FOR RENT.

Peck's 1917 limousine; day and night taxicab service. 'Phone 1161.

ORANGES.

Just received a carload of California Sun-Kist Navel Oranges. Extra fancy EDWARD T. McGILL.

CIGARETTE

coupons redeemed. Trade or cash. MCTAGUE, 48 Broadway.

YOU NEVER

Think of flowers but you think of Burgevins. BURGEVINS' FLOWERS, Fair and Main streets.

STATIONERY AND KODAKS.

A wonderful line of high grade stationery, Kodaks and supplies. Parker and Waterman's fountain pens. MURPHY, 12 E. Strand.

FACTORY SECONDS AND SAMPLES
$1.00 Neckwear .....60 cent
75c Neckwear .....35 cents
Shirts .....50c, 75c, $1.
MCTAGUE, 48 Broadway.

Awnings, Upholstering, Furniture Repairing, Auto Tops Recovered. HENRY EIGHMEY, 94 Highland avenue.

LOCAL TEAMS WIN ALL THREE GAMES

Kingston High School Talent Defeated Newburgh and Rhinebeck on Saturday, Two of the Games Being of the Closest—A Splendid Showing.

All three of the Kingston high school basketball teams won their games Saturday. The girls defeated Quassaick Hall at Newburgh in the third and deciding contest between the two schools by the close score of 45-44, and annexed for a second year the championship of the Hudson. The varsity came out ahead after a hard struggle with Rhinebeck at that place in the evening, the score being 32-29. The Midgets celebrated the occasion of their last home game in the afternoon when they gave the Newburgh Y. M. C. A. Midgets a 55-14 drubbing.

The girls' game at Newburgh was the prettiest match ever staged in these parts, as the large score will testify. The Newburgh girls had won the first game played at that place; then the Kingstonians grabbed the second tussle by one lone point. Saturday's game was the deciding affair. It was played in the gymnasium of the Grace M. E. Church.

At the end of the first quarter the Newburghers were leading, 18-17; at half time they had gained a little more, the score being 28-25; by the finish of the third quarter they had increased their margin and led by a 34-27 score. Then the Colonials had their sensational spurt, which ended just after Captain Schmid had caged the deciding basket, when the timer's whistle was sounded.

Miss Safford was Kingston's chief scorer, but Miss Schmid, shifting from guard to forward in the last half, played a remarkable game, netting eight field goals. Miss Carvey, a tall lass, was Newburgh's mainstay on the firing line and but for the careful guarding of Miss Bell might have been still more dangerous. This game wound up the girls' season, successful from every standpoint. The line-up was as follows:

Kingston High School.

Safford, rf.	13	1	27
Hurley, lf.	1	0	2
Schmid, rg., lf.	8	0	16
Joslovitz, c.	0	0	0
Wood, lg.	0	0	0
Bell, rg.	0	0	0
Bruyn, sub.	0	0	0
Totals	22	1	45

Quassaick Hall.

Carvey, lf.	20	2	42
Corwin, rf.	1	0	2
Galt c.	0	0	0
Round, lg.	0	0	0
Taggart, rg.	0	0	0
Totals	21	2	44

Varsity Noses Out Rhinebeck.

Open baskets and a scrappy group of huskies came near causing the downfall of the varsity lads at Rhinebeck Saturday night. The game was a fierce affair marked by the rough playing of the Dutchess county lads with whom the locals were every bit equal when aroused. As a result a large number of fouls were called—26 on Kingston and 21 on Rhinebeck. In the first half the losers put up such a stiff battle that they were even at its close, 17-17. The second period was closer still but Kingston forged ahead in the last few minutes.

The whole village forgot its week end shopping and were out in force. The locals put up for the night at one of the taverns. The line-up:

Kingston.

Kiernan, rf.	2	0	4
Dolson, lf.	2	14	18
Johnson, c.	2	0	4
Joyce, rg.	2	0	4
Hallinan, lg.	1	0	2
Totals	9	14	32

Rhinebeck.

Briggs, rf.	1	0	2
Tator, lf.	2	0	4
Lynch, c.	3	0	6
Tremper, rg.	1	15	17
Supperly, lg.	0	0	0
Totals	7	15	29

Midgets, 55; Newburgh, 14.

The Midgets were keyed up for one of the hardest games of the year Saturday afternoon but the preparation was useless as the team representing the Newburgh Y. M. C. A. was sort of a miscellaneous collection and fell by the wayside languidly. Anyway the local kids had a merry time.

Eleven fouls were called on Newburgh and seven on Kingston by Johnny Joyce, referee. The line-up:

Kingston Midgets.

Schoonmaker, rf.	8	1	17
McAndrew, lf.	0	1	1
Quick, lf.	3	0	6
Smith, c.	11	0	22
Kirchner, rg.	4	0	8
Dwyer, lg.	0	0	0
Nickerson, lg.	0	1	1
Totals	26	3	55

Newburgh Midgets.

Groth, rf.	3	0	6
Dell, lf.	1	1	3
Hedge, c.	2	1	5
Wood, rg.	0	0	0
Schonberger, lg.	0	0	0
Totals	6	2	14

New Priest at Tivoli.

The Rev. Peter P. Conaty, at one time stationed in Saugerties, has been appointed pastor of St. Sylvia's Church in Tivoli.

SHERLOCK HAS WISH FULFILLED

But in Unexpected Manner—Demanded That Mrs. MacMillan Pay His Way to Albany—Recorder Lang Gives Him Free Transportation to Albany Pen.

Samuel Sherlock, 35 years old, who says he lives in Paterson, N. J., had his wish of getting to Albany fulfilled in an unexpected manner this morning after he had paid a visit to the Social Service Bureau on Saturday afternoon and demanded that Mrs. Laura MacMillan, the social worker, pay his fare to Albany. Sherlock is one of the numerous fakers who travel about the country working on the sympathy of housewives by showing them a crippled hand and asking them to buy court plaster or some similar article.

Just how long Mr. Sherlock had been in Kingston is not known, but on Saturday afternoon he visited the Social Service Bureau in the Municipal building on East O'Reilly street, and informed Mrs. MacMillan that he expected her to pay his fare to Albany, and he wanted the money right away as he was in a hurry. He said that a Mrs. Fay had sent him to the bureau and had told him that Mrs. MacMillan would pay his fare. Sherlock became very impudent in his demands and Mrs. MacMillan finally told him to sit down.

She then got in touch with police headquarters on the telephone and asked Sergeant Hanley, who answered the 'phone to send a man over immediately. By this time Sherlock became somewhat suspicious and Mrs. MacMillan informed him that if he wished to he could come back later when she would inform him regarding whether he got free transportation to Albany.

Sherlock left but ran into the arms of Sergeant Hanley who was on his way over and was escorted over to police headquarters. There Sherlock displayed a crippled hand. Chief Wood was somewhat suspicious, however, and decided that Sherlock was faking.

The chief then proceeded to take Sherlock's finger prints and delayed the job as long as possible thinking, to catch Sherlock. For fully fifteen minutes Sherlock kept his hand and arm in crippled position but finally became tired and relaxed somewhat. That was what Chief Wood was waiting for and he promptly informed Sherlock he was a faker and Sherlock seeing the game was up gave in. Sherlock has a wonderful knack of throwing the bone of the wrist out of position and clenching his fingers in a crippled manner.

This morning when arraigned before Recorder Lang he said that he was an old soldier and was not a cripple.

"I understand you want to go to Albany," said the court.

"No your honor," replied Sherlock, "If you let me go I will go back to Paterson."

"Its too late to change your mind now" replied the court, "and as you were so anxious to go to Albany Saturday I will see that you get there today without paying your fare. Four months in the Albany penitentiary."

Sherlock later in the day was accompanied to Albany by Policeman Shader.

The fact that there are a number of fake cripples soliciting at this time of the year should be borne in mind by householders and when one appears at the door it would be better to notify police headquarters instead of feeling sorry for the "cripple" and buying court plaster from them, as any spare change would be used to good advantage if turned over to the Social Service Bureau in the care of widows and children.

BRODHEAD.

Brodhead, March 12.—Loring Allen is spending some time in Kingston having been called to serve as a member of the grand jury.

During the past week, William Votee assisted by Herbert Every has been busy hauling gravel to improve the grounds around the summer cottage of Mayor Canfield.

William Hughes, Sr., of New Jersey, who spent a vacation with relatives in this place returned to his employment Friday.

Miss Sarah Jordan entertained a party of friends and relatives last Sunday, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Delamater and family of Kingston.

Van Crispell and son Oscar cooked and served the beef steak supper given by the men of the Community Club of Shokan last Monday evening.

Henry Bell was a visitor at the district school Wednesday.

Harlow McLean and Harry Votee enjoyed a fine sleigh ride to Samsonville on Wednesday evening.

Justin Bell and sister Chloe of West Shokan called on friends in this place one evening recently.

OLIVEREA.

Oliverea, March 12.—Wilbur J. Turck of Roxbury is at home with his parents here for a few days.

Charles L. Dutcher of Shavertown spent a day or two in Oliverea last week. Mr. Dutcher was formerly a resident of this place. He now has charge of the Shavertown Hotel.

Charles T. Andrews has returned home from a few weeks' stay in New York and Brooklyn.

Mrs. Van Wyck Knight spent a few days in Kingston last week.

Mrs. H. R. Berry of Brooklyn is a guest of her niece, Mrs. E. C. Chase, in this place.

OLIVE BRIDGE.

Olive Bridge, March 12.—Mrs. Ezra D. Palen made a business trip to Poughkeepsie on Thursday.

Mrs. Wager of Alberta, Canada, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Davis.

Prayer meeting at Martin L. Crispell's on Friday evening, March 16. All are invited.

Miss Edna R. Crispell called on Mrs. Ellen Palen Thursday afternoon.

Miss Ruth Trowbridge is spending a few days in Kingston.

Miss Jennie Crispell spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. E. H. Palen.

THEODORE KEMLER VIOLATED PAROLE

Butter Thief Released from Dannemora on Parole, Picked up by Sergeant Hanley—Kemler Would Not Work and Got Drunk.

Theodore Kemler, who some time ago was sentenced to Dannemora on a charge of stealing a tub of butter from the West Shore railroad, was released on parole, and placed in custody of Mrs. Laura MacMillan, the social worker, to report at certain intervals. Later Recorder Lang, at the request of Mrs. MacMillan, appointed Secretary Thornberry, of the Y. M. C. A., as parole officer to whom Kemler was to report. Kemler violated his parole in refusing to work and getting drunk. The Dannemora authorities were notified and asked the local police authorities to arrest Kemler and hold him until they sent for him.

FLAG ON BASEBALL UNIFORM
© INTERNATIONAL
WAVE OF PATRIOTISM HITS BASEBALL WORLD.

Preparedness and patriotism have hit the baseball world together. Captain Huston, having decided to train the Yankees in military tactics, Charley Ebbets was not to be outdone, and as the photograph shows, has caused American flags to be placed upon the uniforms of all of the members of the Brooklyn team.

COTTEKILL.

Cottekill, March 12.—The following people from this place attended the basketball game at Stone Ridge on Friday evening, March 9: Mr. and Mrs. Chris Snyder, Mrs. James Snyder, Mrs. Andrew Pine, Mrs. Burton Roosa, Mrs. Abner Osterhoudt, Verna Pine, Hazel Hinkley, Kathryn Snyder, Nellie Elting, Marion and Kathryn Osterhoudt, Douglas Snyder, Harry Osterhoudt, Walter Pine, James Styles, Robert Stalls, Kenneth Krom, Bennie Osterhoudt, William Eselby and Edward Hinkley.

A number from this place attended the variety supper at Stone Ridge on March 9.

Mrs. Cummings Winchell and children of Kingston spent the week end with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Barley.

The Boy Scout basketball team of this place met with defeat Friday evening, March 9, at Stone Ridge by the score of 19 to 11.

The Boy Scouts were entertained by the Camp Fire Girls at the school house Thursday evening, March 8.

Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Snyder.

Mrs. Andrew Pine and daughter, Verna, spent Wednesday at Bloomington.

William Barley of Walton spent the week end with his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Barley.

Charles Rider of Bridgeport, Conn., spent the week end here on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunbar of Lawrenceville spent Sunday with Mrs. Dunbar's parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pine.

James Pine and Andrew Pine butchered eighteen pigs for Fred Gillespie on Thursday.

Douglas Snyder had the misfortune to cut off the end of his thumb. Dr. Hutchins of High Falls attended to the wound. The thumb is getting along as good as can be expected.

Leroy Styles was called to New York on account of sickness of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Conner expect to move to this place in Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Snyder's house.

A. J. Keator spent Sunday with his parents here.

Garton Keator is kept busy splitting wood on his wood pile.

Oscar Rider is slowly improving from his long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wood were called to High Falls on account of the serious accident of their daughter.

Completing New Building.

Work was started Monday on the firemen's building completing the ceiling and laying floor in the hall. It is hoped to have the hall in readiness for the weekly dancing class. The hall is 34 by 60 feet and will provide an excellent place for dancing, basketball and a meeting hall.—Fleischmann Herald.

Columbia Shirts
All men like them. Full bodies, fast colors.
$1.00 and $1.50

S. E. Eighmey
Broadway, Downtown

Men's Neckwear
Four-in hands for Spring. Brocades, stripes and plaids.
50c

SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS GOODS

Regardless of present price conditions you never bought better values than these in early spring.

A Popular Chemise Dress
McCall Pattern No. 7653, one of the many new designs for March
McCALL PATTERNS FREE
With every dress goods purchase amounting to $2.50 or more, until March 10th.

Silk Poplin, $1.00 yd.
36 in. width, in all the good selling colors, including white and black.

Georgette Crepe, $1.50 yd.
40 in. width, all the good selling colors, white, black, flesh, pink, rose.

Chiffon Cloth, $1.00 yd.
40 in. width, black, white and colors.

Plain Colored Voile, 39c yd.
44 in. width, black, white, maize, light blue, copen, navy and rose. Extra good values 39c yd.

Printed Voile, 25c yd.
Fancy corded stripes with printed floral design on white cloth. Make your selection early at 25c yd.

Auto Delivery Twice Daily to All Parts of the City
Best Values and Efficient Service at Minimum Cost

American Mineral Oil

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Use of Mineral Oil.

Dr. Le Tanneur contributes to the Paris Medical some practical points in the use of mineral oil in constipation. The oil, he says, is in no way digested or even modified by the juices of the stomach and intestines. It acts as a lubricant and nothing else, though it tends to heal abrasions of the intestinal wall caused by rough particles of food.

The New York Medical Journal says mineral oil should be taken either before breakfast or after dinner, two tablespoonfuls being a dose. Its use should be continued every day for at least a fortnight, when the bowels will continue to work naturally without it, for the mineral oil is in no sense a cathartic, but it will cure constipation.—Kingston Daily Freeman, February 17, 1917.

Pint Bottles, 50 Cents; Half Pints, 30 Cents

Use Your 'Phone—261

CHAS. L. McBRIDE
634 Broadway Kingston, N. Y.

Spring Opening Sale OF Fashionable Furniture

The new spring styles, representing the latest and most advanced types in fashionable furniture, fresh from the workshops of the best furniture makers in the world, are here and ready for the inspection of those who demand good quality, style and finish.

A range of styles wide enough to meet everyone's ideas, and a range of prices equally wide, to meet all purses, too.

High Class Furniture, moderately priced.

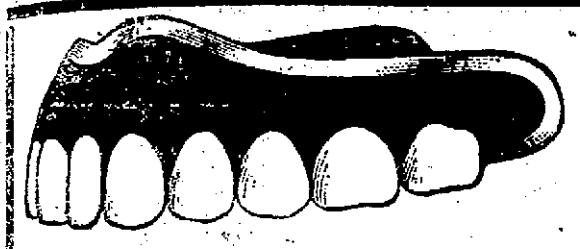
We enjoy showing it. Come and see it. Remembering that you're always welcome.

Furniture of Distinction and Character

THE HOUSE OF QUALITY
STOCK-CORDTS INC.
KINGSTON, N.Y.

Agents for New Edison Diamond Disc Musical Instrument

Flora Bella
RECORDS AT
W. H. Rider's, Piano Store
304 WALL STREET



Cady "Fee Bill"

Examination Free; Painless Extraction of teeth, with Local Anaesthetic, each 50c; Silver Filling $1.00; Porcelain Filling $2.00; Gold Filling, from $2.00; Gold Inlays, from $3.00; Porcelain Crowns, $5.00; Gold Crowns, $5.00; Bridgework, per tooth, $5.00; Porcelain Gum Plates, $20.00; Roofless Plates $20.00; Gold Plates, $50.00; Rubber Plates, $8.00, $10.00 and $15.00. No charge for extractions when plates are ordered.

Hours—9 to 5. Sunday, 9 to 1 p. m.

CADY DENTAL OFFICE

324 Wall St. Kingston, N. Y.

Shirt Operators Wanted At Once

Who will work in a spotlessly clean day light factory, good healthful sunshine in every nook and corner.

At noon you can spread out your lunch in a clean up-to-date lunch room.

An enjoyable noon hour is assured in our large reception room—singing, dancing and all other amusements.

We guarantee to give you work all year—no slack seasons.

Positions are open for all the different parts of shirts.

F. Jacobson & Sons

SMITH AVENUE AND CORNELL STREET

KINGSTON, N. Y.

THE FAMOUS

METZ CAR

IS COMING TO TOWN

Winner of Glidden Tour

And Holder of Many Other Records

Runabout Touring $600

Most Economical Car, 24 miles to Gallon

Mr. George Starr, our representative, will be at the Eagle Hotel, March 12th and 13th.

ROBT. LURIE & CO., Eastern Distributors

240 West 56th St. New York City

Good Proposition for Live Agents

THE LABEL ON THE BOTTLE

is what tells the story, you don't have to look farther. Our beer is appreciated most by those who base their choice upon merit, and know it when they find it. The man who has found our beer, always demands it, he will never take a substitute, because no other will suit him quite as well. Be sure the label on your bottle bears the name of Red Monogram.

Geo. Hauck & Sons' Brewing Co.

Guarantee Radiator Works

EXPERT REPAIRING ON

AUTO RADIATORS, LAMPS AND WINDSHIELD GLAZING

Fenders, Tanks and Floor Trays Made to Order and Repaired

Radiators, Lamps, Windshields Sold and Exchanged

7 MAIN ST. Phone 223 Kingston, N. Y.

POST DITTUS NOT OFF MILITIA MAP

Bayonets Dipped Into Ink These Spring-like Days and Guardsmen Gambol, Making One Another Goats for Kidding Comment.

We received a bundle of magazines today and you ought to see Jack Reed. (Read.)

Clear the way men. Private Krueger (Sitting Bull) has been painted up, and is now on the war path. Private Basch (Old Iron Tail) did the painting.

Discovered—A couple of new hairs on Jim Howard's bald head.

Private Basch is in his glory. We have received a keg of fish.

We wonder why Private Saulpaugh does not go to Gardiner any more? (This double duty is awful. Is it not Frank?)

Private Bunten received six letters today. Oh, please Bunt ask them to write to some one else once in a while.

A debate is to be held tomorrow night. The topic will be, "Will Sergt. Duncan mop the floor each morning or not?"

Sergeant Luedtke says they need not think he will mop the floor if Duncan wins. We expect another debate very soon then.

The boys out here have organized an orchestra.

Post Dittus is some place. And we extend a most cordial invitation to all people to visit us.

Privates Howard and Norton were seen chopping wood today. And the only reason for it was: Could not leave dear old Kingston on time. But they say, "We should worry. That's how Lincoln got his start."

Cook Carter, better known as steeplejack, took an ascension today. Old Glory was caught on the top of the pole and it took little Bob to release it.

Private Simmons expects to get a hair cut soon. Will some kind person send Barber Schupp a lawn mower?

Bill Clarke is acting chauffeur for Lieut. Dittus. Remember the old saying, "Safety First," lieutenant!

Private A. Schupp wishes to challenge any women to a dish washing contest. Better not accept ladies, as he sure is some dish washer.

Sergt. Duncan amused the men recently with a few stunts. The first was tumbling through a putty blower and he got through it very nicely.

Here's to Lieut. Dittus,
The commander of our post,
Of all the officers we ever met,
Him we love the most.
We'd swear for him. We'd tear for him.
The Lord knows we'd bear for him.
We'd lie for him. We'd sigh for him.
We'd drink the reservoir dry for him.
We'd curse for him. We'd do worse for him.
Kick up a thundering fuss for him.
We'd weep for him. We'd leap for him.
We'd go all night without sleep for him.
We'd fight for him. We'd bite for him.
We'd stay on guard all night for him.
We'd plead for him. We'd bleed for.
We'd go without any feed for him.
We'll shoot for him. We'll root for him.
When anyone tries to rival him.
We'll duel for him. We'll steal for him.
Such is the love we feel for him.
We'll slide for him. We'll ride for him.
We'll swim against the tide for him.
We'll try for him. We'll cry for him.
But we'll be gosh darned if we'll die for him.

PHOENICIA.

Phoenicia, March 12.—John E. Wright, died at his home in Chichester on Wednesday evening. He had been sick most of the winter. The funeral service was held in home on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. E. Bohne-Echoit of the M. E. Church officiated. Interment at the lower cemetery at Chichester.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lord, who have been spending some time in New York city, returned home last week.

Miss Grace Smith is home for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Emma Simpson returned home on Friday, last week, after a long visit with friends in Binghamton and Brooklyn. We are glad to see her home again.

We have heard that Howard Winnie plans to move to Kingston. We are mighty sorry to Mr. and Mrs. Winnie leave us.

The three notaries public for Phoenicia appointed by the governor are H. Lee Breithaupt, John J. McGrath and Theodore A. Voss.

Charles Van Steenburgh died at the home of his son Wilbur Van Steenburgh in this place on Friday morning. He had been ill since the first week in January. He leaves a son Wilbur and three sisters. The funeral service was held from the home of Wilbur Van Steenburgh on Sunday morning at 9:30 and was conducted by the Rev. E. Bohne-Echolt. Interment was at Woodstock.

Net Law to be Enforced.

Game protectors of the Hudson division have been orderd by Division Chief Protector Joseph M. De Silva to prosecute all persons found hauling nets after sunset and before sunrise which is a violation of Section 272 of the Conservation Laws. The definition of "nets" includes seines, gill nets, pound nets, trap nets, scap nets, fyke nets, dip nets, scoop nets and stake nets. All persons found hauling the above mentioned nets after sunset and before sunrise will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Two Groups.

Some fellows divide their friends into sweets and Bolshiks.

SERVICES SUNDAY WERE IMPRESSIVE

At Rondout Presbyterian Church—Thirty-three Persons United With Church—Every Member Canvass Held—Dr. Ellis Preached Scholarly Sermons.

Impressive services were held on Sunday morning at the Rondout Presbyterian Church at which time the Sacrament of Our Lord's Supper was observed and thirty-three new members welcomed into the church. The Rev. Dr. C. G. Ellis, pastor of the church, preached a stirring sermon, taking as his topic "Consider Christ Jesus."

The new members were: Louis Beeres, George C. Linkletter, Watson Short, Mrs. Louis Beeres, Dr. John L. MacKinnon, Mrs. Watson Short, Mrs. Franklin L. Williams, Dorothy Beeres, Dr. Charles D. Carter, John C. Connelly, Mrs. Samantha A. Conner, Frank D. Dewey, Mrs. Harvey E. Decker, Mrs. Herbert F. Finley, Charles E. Fox, Mrs. Catherine A. McClung, Rachel M. North, Eleanor DuBois Reading, Helen G. Smith, Elsie Elizabeth Soper, Mrs. Isabel Stokes, Earl Stokes, Alice E. Stokes, Charles E. Williams, Franklin L. Williams, Esther M. Watson, Ira L. M. Finley, Sarah LeFever, William H. Melcalf, Margaret N. Rodie, Ruth Scott, Mrs. Nicholas Shultis and B. Frank Stevens.

During the afternoon the "Every Member" canvass was held and the men of the church visited the homes of the congregation securing pledges for the support of the work of the church.

At the evening service Dr. Ellis preached, taking as his topic "Poor Relations," and special music was rendered by the chorus choir under the direction of Miss Los Kamp. The evening service was preceded by a young people's meeting held in the chapel, which was largely attended.

This evening the Westminster Guild will meet in the chapel and the Whatsoever Band will meet Friday afternoon.

At the prayer services Thursday evening the tabernacle hymn book will be used and the subject will be "The Stolen Christ."

The Boy Scouts, Tiger Troop, will meet in the chapel Friday evening.

The Woman's Missionary Society will hold the last of the series of sewing bees in the chapel on Thursday afternoon, commencing at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Charles G. Ellis, backed by a competent committee, will have the supper in charge, which will be served for the usual price of ten cents. All the women of the congregation are urged to be present and are invited to remain for the prayer service that evening.

Use of Glycerin.

For bad bruises—mix five spoonfuls of glycerin and one spoonful of subacetate of lead. Shake up in a bottle and keep corked. Apply some on a piece of lint and cover with a bandage. For coughs—A small teaspoonful of glycerin should be swallowed slowly. Those who dislike the sweetness of glycerin may mix it with a little lemon or orange juice, or even vinegar.

SUFFRAGE SCHOOL.

Oratory and Art of Holding Meetings to be Taught.

Woman suffrage from its A B C's to its most complicated workings will be taught at the suffrage school, which will be held here in the supervisors' room of the court house Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The sessions will be called at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock in the evening. The school mistress, Miss Elinor Byrns, of New York city, is a brilliant young lawyer, having graduated from the New York University Law School in 1907. One of her most effective methods of instruction is to divide the school into suffragists and antis and then make the former convert the latter.

Some of the pupils will practice making three-minute speeches during one of the sessions; methods of planning and conducting street and mass meetings will be considered; and several topics of interest will be developed by Miss Byrns, including "The Legal Status of Women," "A History of the Progress of Man Suffrage" and "Women in War." The school is open to anyone who wishes to attend any or all of the sessions.

Longyear Buys Lunch Room.

Elting Longyear, who secured a judgment of $517 against Richard Ryan, the Broadway lunch room proprietor, was the highest bidder on Saturday when Sheriff Shultis offered the property for sale. Mr. Longyear bid $550 and the outfit and equipment was struck off to him for that amount.

He Smiles—

when he sees a cup of delicious

INSTANT POSTUM

This wholesome food-drink cheers without demanding the after-price of nervous reaction, because it contains none of the harmful elements of tea and coffee.

"There's a Reason"

Sold by Grocers.

Guard Against Jack Frost

with "Exide" Starting & Lighting Service

JACK FROST is a real enemy of the Starting and Lighting Battery. Prepare your battery to resist his attacks by making sure that it is in good condition for its winter's work.

Remember, that your car is much harder to start in winter than in summer, and also that the long winter nights call for greater use of lights.

Drive around to our "Exide" Service Station and let us inspect your battery. We make no charge for this service. Expert attention at this time will assure you good service this winter and save you money.

If you do not run your car this winter—send your battery to us and let us care for it during the cold weather. We will give it proper care and return it to you in the spring in good condition. Our small charge for this service may save you the cost of a new battery in the spring.

STUYVESANT GARAGE

A. H. CHAMBERS, Propr.

TELEPHONE 1176 KINGSTON, N. Y.

The Early Pullet Lays the Early Egg

And the early egg—say late November and through December—commands the top price of the year.

Start a

BUCKEYE INCUBATOR

in March or early April; raise the many chicks you'll hatch in a coal-burning Standard Colony Brooder, and this good money is yours.

We know the Buckeye Incubator and the Standard Colony Brooder will do exactly what we say. We guarantee it, and our guarantee is backed by the manufacturer. Everybody gets a square deal. Nothing beats the "Buckeye," and the Standard Colony Brooder has no equal. Come in and see them.

CANFIELD SUPPLY CO.
16-18 Strand and 35 to 37 Ferry St.
Kingston, N. Y.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against Walter Eckert, late of the town of Hurley, county of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Emily Eckert and Frank H. Snyder, the executors of the estate of said deceased, at the residence of Frank H. Snyder at Hurley, in the said county of Ulster, New York, on or before the 20th day of March, 1917.

Dated, September 18, 1916.

EMILY ECKERT,
FRANK H. SNYDER,
As Executors of the Will of Walter Eckert, Deceased.

V. B. Van Wagenen, Attorney, Kingston, N. Y.

New Spring Hats AWAIT YOUR CHOOSING.

Men who wish to find the Hat of their choice have the best selection at our store to select from.

Knox, Stetson's Young's Wilson's and Murphy's

The colors and styles of Soft Hats are very correct and pretty.

Soft Hats, from 50c to $5.00.

THE DERBIES

are popular this spring, and the styles are conservative and particularly good. We'll be pleased to show you.

Derby prices $2 to $5.

C. S. WOOD

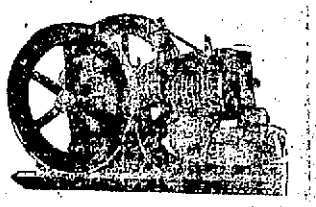
297-299 WALL STREET

Table Bed

A Wonderful Combination

DEMONSTRATED AT

GREGORY & CO.'S



New Way Air Cooled Gasoline Engines

For running Pumps, Separators, Saws, Electric Light Plants, etc. In sizes 1 to 12 h. p.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE.

Canfield Supply Co.

Wholesale Dealers in Plumbers, Tinners, Heating, Engineers, Farm Machinery and Poultry Supplies.

16 to 18 Strand, and 35 to 37 Ferry St., KINGSTON, N. Y.

THE BIG DOWNTOWN STORE.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW York, by the Grace of God, Free and Independent.—To Israel H. Snyder, Kingston, New York; Ira Snyder, Cottekill, Ulster County, New York; Catherine Snyder, Cottekill, Ulster County, New York; Jennie Snyder, Kingston, New York; Russell Snyder, Kingston, New York; Grant Snyder, Fort Lee, New Jersey; Clara Cutana, Fort Lee, New Jersey; Sarah Houghtaling, Port Ewen, New York; Cora Van Buren, Hudson, New York; Bruyn Snyder, 1224 Mascher St., Philadelphia, Pa.; Percy Snyder, 510 Hudson St., New York City, New York; Eula B. Snyder, 384 Chestnut St., Arlington, New Jersey; Gertrude Hendrickson, 103 East Ridgewood Ave., Ridgewood, New Jersey; Bertha Snyder, 228 East East Ridgewood Ave., Ridgewood, N. J.; James Snyder, 176 North Maple Ave., Ridgewood, N. J.; Henrietta Dunwoodie, 194 Glen Ave., Philipsburgh, N. J.; Sarah E. Swart, 13 Grove Place, East Orange, N. J.; Emma Codwise, Kingston, New York; Anna Brown, 915 Third St., Brooklyn, New York; Jennie Davidson, Saugerties, New York; Hudson Snyder, Parson, Kansas; Sarah Nellis, Fort Plains, New York.

You and each of you are hereby cited to show cause, at a surrogate's court to be held in and for the county of Ulster at the surrogate's office in the city of Kingston, in said county, on the 9th day of April, next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, why the last Will and Testament of Sarah E. Keator, late of the city of Kingston, Ulster County, deceased, presented to said surrogate's court should not be admitted to probate and recorded as a Will of real and personal estate, in pursuance of the statute, on the petition of Clement Keator of the city of Kingston, the executor named therein.

In Testimony Whereof, we have caused the seal of said surrogate's court to be hereunto affixed. Witness, Hon. Walter N. (L.S.) Gill, surrogate of our said county, at the city of Kingston, the 3rd day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

WALTER H. GILL,
Clerk of the Surrogate's Court.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed bids are solicited for labor and materials for the erection of a stone addition to the filter building of the Kingston city water department at Zena, Ulster county, New York, according to the plans and specifications on file at the office of the water commissioners, city hall, Kingston, N. Y.

Bids will be opened at said office on March 22, 1917, at three o'clock p. m.

The board of water commissioners reserve the right to reject any and all bids. Bids must be accompanied with certified check for 10 per cent of the amount of the bid, payable to "Kingston Water Works Department."

Board of Water Commissioners of the City of Kingston, N. Y., by JOHN H. HARRISON, Superintendent.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against Mary W. Myer, late of the town of Ulster, county of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Philip Elting, one of the executors of the estate of said deceased, at his office, No. 280 Wall St., in the city of Kingston, N. Y., on or before the first day of May, 1917.

Dated, October 2nd, 1916.

PHILIP WOOLSEY and PHILIP ELTING, Executors, etc., of Mary W. Myer, Deceased.

Philip Elting, Attorney, 280 Wall St., Kingston, N. Y.

SAM BERNSTEIN & CO.

WALL ST., KINGSTON, N. Y.
PHONE 14

FIRST SHOWING OF

MEN'S SPRING SUITS

At $14.75 and $11.75

Suits made in a common sense way, of smart, lightweight fabrics, with all those style-touches which mark the up-to-date, correctly clothed man this spring. There are blue, brown and green flannels, cassimeres, tweeds and fancy mixed worsteds. All the newest wrinkles in Belter Models.

LOW PRICED SHOES WITH STYLE $4.00

Black and tan calf (button or lace) made on smart looking lasts of the kind you expect in higher priced shoes only.

Men's Spring Suits
—AT—
$18.00 $22.00, $25.00

styles at the prices, each with a slight change. English soft rolls predominate in three and four button models but the shapes of the collars and lapels differ widely. The fronts are cut straight with rounded corners. High waisted, semi-form fitting coats for young men. Conservative styles for those who prefer them.

NEW HATS $1.88

Soft hats in all new blocks—drab, stone, navy and other colors. Derbies in several good looking styles of course, are black.

SHOWING
BOYS' & JUVENILE CLOTHING
$2.95

Norfolk models, patch pockets, in plain and mixed fabrics, all colors.

$4.85 SUIT

Made in English Style, of newly imported home spuns, tweeds and cassimeres, in correct spring colorings.

TOPCOAT

Top Coats in homespuns, coverts and English mixtures. A complete assortment for boys from two and a half to nine.

$1.00 WASH SUITS

Fresh, crisp, snappy little suits of serviceable tub fabrics, in white; plain colors, stripes, checks and very attractive color combinations.

Bernstein & Co.

Their Limit.

He—Look how many wives you hear of who drive their husbands to drink. She—And think of the very few wives you hear of who can drive their husbands to work.

WIDOW GIVES HER VERSION OF STORY

Mrs. Louise Sully Denier, widow of the late Anthony Denier, stated today in a lengthy telephone communication to The Freeman that a published statement of the amount of the settlement of the judgment secured by her late husband was in error. Mrs. Denier said that the judgment for $3,222 was settled by her payment to Mr. Denier on March 2d of $3,000 and that to raise this amount with $900, her lawyers' fees, made it necessary for to mortgage her possessions. She was not informed of Mr. Denier's death until a neighbor brought in a copy of The Freeman Saturday night and although she had been sick for ten days past, she came to Kingston but was told at the hospital that the body had been already shipped to Chicago. This was incorrect, she afterward learned, she said, as it was then at the railway station. Contrary to opinion, the widow stated that Mr. Denier had property in Chicago and Denver, Colorado and she said that he had made a will making a Chicago man his executor. Mrs. Denier also said that she understood it was her late husband's wish that she should not be notified of his death.

ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL.

A Reason For Some of the Automobile Accidents at Night.

Frequently when there is an accident, where the automobile runs off the road, hits an obstruction or is upset, the driver or some other occupant of the car or the reporter says that "the steering gear gave way." Yet it is safe to venture that it is not the real reason for the accident. What often happens is that the driver goes to sleep.

In a report of an accident some time ago the driver frankly said he went to sleep and the next thing he knew he was under the car, which was thrown against an abutment. The soporific effect of driving an auto at night for several hours is really responsible for more accidents than defective construction. The constant vibration of the steering wheel, the continuous noise of the machine and the drone of the wind have the same effect as does the buzz of an electric fan on most folk.

Before the driver realizes it he is getting drowsy. The wheel is held more and more loosely. Gradually the car takes the line of least resistance, aided by the slacking (but not totally abandoned) control of the driver. The next thing he knows he is off the road. Sometimes the car overturns. Sometimes the driver escapes, together with the occupants of the car. Oftentimes the dereliction results in injury or death.

If more drivers realized the danger of not keeping awake there would be fewer accidents. At least this is the opinion of experienced drivers.—Chicago Journal.

HOW WARS START.

An Ocean Cable Would Have Averted Our Conflict of 1812.

Had there been an ocean telegraph in 1812 there might not have been a war with England at that time. Five days after President Madison signed the declaration of war England recalled the orders in council which had provoked it. The purpose to recall the orders was unknown in America, while in England nothing was known of the war declaration when the orders were revoked. This war's most important battle, that of New Orleans, was fought fifteen days after the treaty of peace had been signed at Ghent. It was this battle which made Jackson a popular idol and gave him the presidency.

The first step in the Crimean war was Russia's invasion of Moldavia, months before diplomatic rupture with England and France.

The firing on Fort Sumter, which started the war between the states, is a familiar story.

The first shot of the Franco-Prussian war was by a French soldier on guard at Strasburg bridge a day or two before Napoleon III. formally took the field.

The attempt on Bismarck's life as he was walking down the Unter den Linden on May 7, 1866, rallied public sentiment to him and his policy and from a dramatic standpoint may be said to have been the first shot in the Austro-Prussian war.

The blowing up of the Maine was the first blow in the Spanish-American war, which ended Spanish possessions in the new world.—Charlton Rates-Strayer in Leslie's.

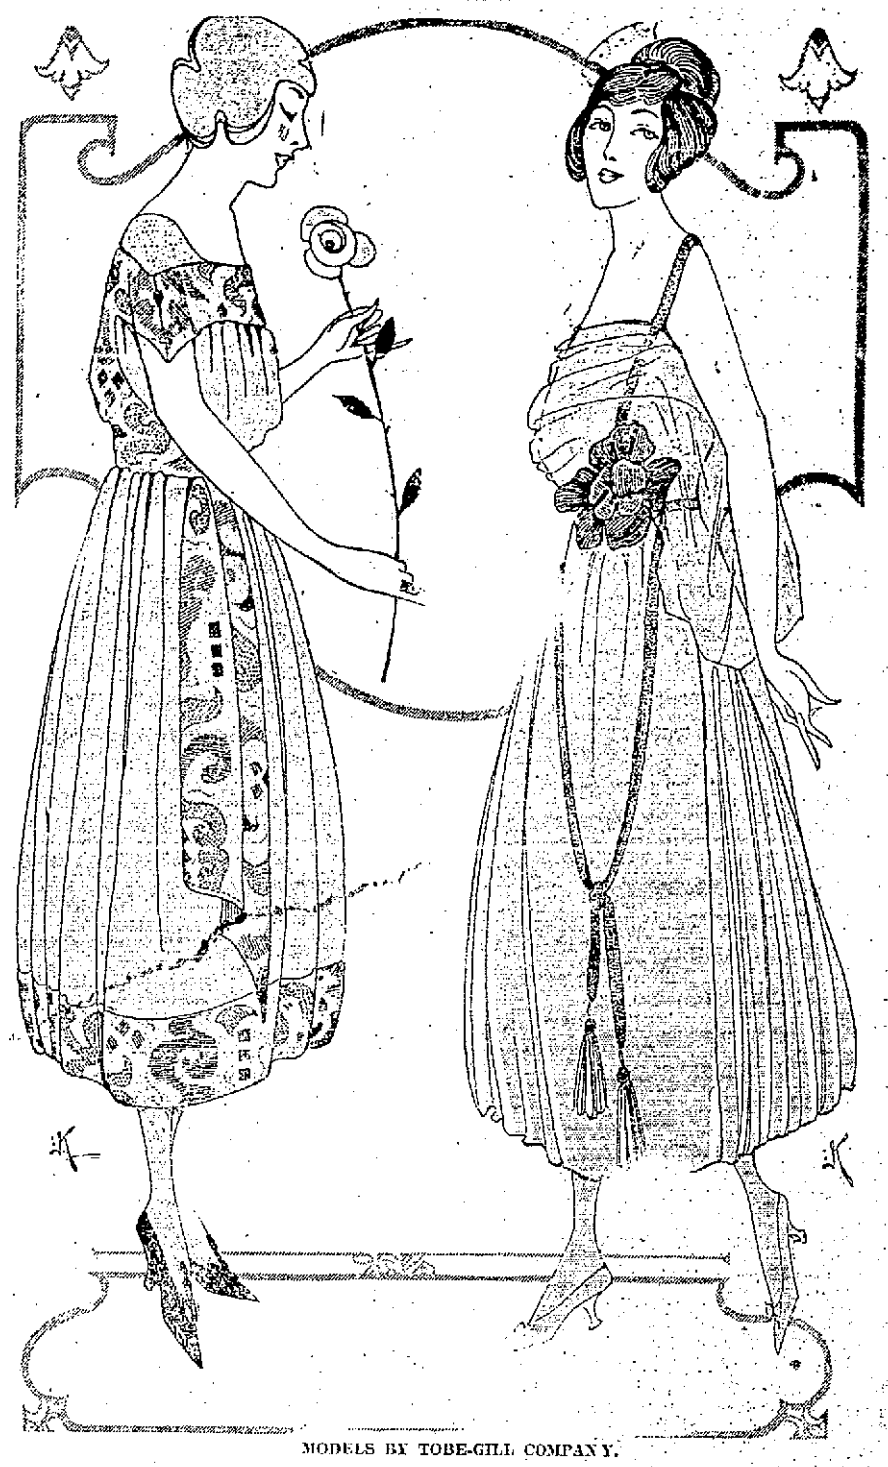
When Novels Were Really Long.

Though William de Morgan wrote some of the longest novels of recent times, his efforts were conciseness itself compared with the works of some of the seventeenth century romancers. Mlle. de Scudery's once famous story, "Le Grand Cyrus," for instance, fills five folio volumes of 500 pages each in the English translation, and her contemporary, La Calprenede, was even more diffuse, his "Cleopatre" running into twenty-three volumes. The leisurely method of the early novelists is well illustrated in "Parthenissa," by Roger Boyle, earl of Orrery, in which the eight hundredth page finds the two chief characters still engaged in the process of introducing themselves to each other, begun on page one.

Where the Guns Kick Hard.

Duck shooting at an altitude of 14,000 feet, on the Junin pampa, along the shore of the lake of that name, is a sport that can be followed in Peru. Very peculiar effects are noted in this rarefied region, probably the highest altitude for this sport in the world. The guns kick viciously, and the shot does not scatter promptly, making long shots successful. This phenomenon is due to the lack of density of the air, which is only about eight pounds to the square inch against fifteen at sea level. Another interesting fact is that the ducks have no fishy taste, as fish do not exist in this altitude.

The Debutante in All Her Glory



MODELS BY TOBE-GILL COMPANY.

Designers have a way of forgetting the debutante, but Sweet-and-Twenty was thought of most kindly in this charming frock. The dress itself is cut with soft babyish fullness. The trimming is in itself quaint and it is quaintly applied. For the bertha, the jumper back which lengthens into a girdle and the sash and band at the bottom of the skirt, coarse ecru serim is used.

Smoked gray chiffon swirls over a rose-color satin foundation and makes a frock which looks like an embodiment of sunset on a river. Silver bands outline shoulders and corsage and fall into long sash lines ending in silver tassels. The chiffon floats out from under the arm in a double cascade and fades away like a mist where an old rose velvet flower nestles softly at the front of the corsage.

Convincing Signs.

Clara—"I don't know what to make of your brother. For three months after we met, he did nothing but write poetry to me." Dora—"Has he stopped that?" "Yes. Since then he has made me some nice presents, but he has even stopped that." "H'm! Let—me—see, I have it. The household pages of our newspapers have been clipped terribly of late. No doubt he is mailing a collection of cooking recipes. He's in earnest."

All He Had Time to Do.

My grandson, four years old, was knocked over by a motor bicycle a few months ago. He was unconscious, but not hurt seriously. A few days later, when he was feeling pretty good, I asked him why he did not think of it that his papa had forbidden him to go across the street. "Oh, grandma, I had no time to think. I could only quick close my eyes," he answered.—Cleveland Leader.

SALESMAN WANTED

Must be a live one
—APPLY—
M. H. HERZOG
293 Wall St. Next to Court House

CITY TREASURER'S NOTICE.
Special Assessment.

Notice is hereby given that I have received the warrant for the collection of the special assessment of 75 per cent of the expenses incurred in the construction of a sanitary sewer in Thomas street, between Railroad avenue and Broadway, in the city of Kingston.

The same has been left with me for collection at my office in the city hall, in said city; that for thirty days from the date of this notice the said assessment may be paid without additional fees or charges, and that for the twenty succeeding days 5 per centum additional will be collected.

If any of the said special assessments shall remain unpaid at the time last mentioned, I shall give a written or printed notice to the person or persons against whom such assessment stands charged, requiring them to pay such unpaid assessment to me at my office within thirty days thereafter, with 5 per centum fees thereon, and one dollar for such notice, as required by the city charter.

Dated at the Treasurer's Office, City of Kingston, March 6th, 1917.

WARD B. EVERETT,
City Treasurer.

INDIAN ATHLETE GETS ONE MORE CHANCE WITH GIANTS.

Jim Thorpe, the great Indian athlete, has been given one more chance to make good with the New York Giants. This picture shows him in training at the Giants' training camp, Marlin, Tex.

Earned Twice.

But the penny which is said to be earned when it's saved has to be earned first.—Albany Journal.

Daily Thought.

Drops of dew refresh the faded flowers, so do kind words cheer the aching heart.

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS

Never in our 10 years of Real Estate work have we had so few houses to rent. A handsome increase in the value of Kingston Real Estate is sure to follow a scarcity of houses for rent.

Here are some rare bargains, all on the easy payment plan.

7 room cottage, Furnace street, all improvements; hot water heat. Price $3,800.

6 room cottage, O'Reilly street, toilet, gas and water. Price $2,500.

Or we can build you a house according to your own ideas on one of the many lots we have for sale.

SHATEMUCK REALTY CO.

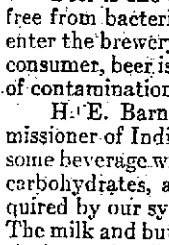
261 Fair St. Kingston, N. Y.

A new thing for a cigarette to do.

Wednesday you'll know all about

Chesterfield

BRAND NEW PIANOS STANDARD MAKE $195



Made by one of the oldest and largest manufacturers.

Full size, Mahogany case and ivory keys.

Handsome appearance and fine tone
Terms if Desired

REICHARD MUSIC CO.

Supreme in Service
273 FAIR STREET KINGSTON

BEER contains about 92 per cent. water and about 5 per cent. of extract derived from hops and cereals; principally Barley malt, and only about 3 to 4 per cent. alcohol.

The Purity of Beer

Beer is one of the purest and cleanest of all food products. Every grain of barley or other cereal is most thoroughly freed from dust and other foreign elements and every stage of manufacture, from malting to barreling or bottling, is most carefully guarded as the slightest impurity would be fatal to a brewing. No possible precaution is neglected.

The liquid which ultimately becomes beer must be frequently tested during the process of manufacture, but it is never dipped out of the tank or vat but is always drawn off. The modern brewery is absolutely sanitary.

Beer is one of the few beverages that is absolutely free from bacteria. From the time the raw ingredients enter the brewery until the finished product reaches the consumer, beer is absolutely protected against any form of contamination.

H. E. Barnard, the State Food and Drug Commissioner of Indiana, recently stated: "Beer is a wholesome beverage with a distinctive food value. It contains carbohydrates, albuminoids and mineral materials required by our system; it is appetizing; it aids digestion. The milk and butter men ought to go in a body and visit the breweries of this or other States in order to see how clean a food producing establishment can be made. It is a fact that the cleanest and most sanitary food on the market, as food is defined by the Indiana Law, is beer."

When you drink a glass of beer, whether it be draught or bottled, you may rest assured that you are in no danger of ptomaine or other forms of poisoning.

Beer is a pure and temperate drink. It contains about 92 per cent. water and about 5 per cent. of extract derived from hops and cereals, principally barley-malt and only about 3 to 4 per cent. of alcohol.

4 Talk No. 5 will appear in this paper a week from to-day.

NEW YORK STATE BREWERS' ASSOCIATION.

ORPHEUM THEATRE

Matinee - - - 3 P. M.
Evening - - - - 7:15, 9

10c, 15c

TODAY
The Master Mind of Mystery
Not a Picture—Big Production
THE GREAT LaFollette
In His $10,000 Mystery Production, Including
"A NIGHT IN THE ORIENT"
And William Fox Presents
THEDA BARA in
"Her Double Life"

KINGSTON OPERA HOUSE MATINEE AND NIGHT Fri., Mar. 16

COUTTS & TENNIS'S

SPARKLING GEM OF MIRTH AND MELODY

"When Dreams Come True"

A Joyous Gem of Haunting Melodies, Refreshing Fun, Enchanting Beauty and Glorious Colors.

Brimming Over With All That Makes Life Joyful

NOTE THE BARGAIN PRICES

MATINEE - 25c and 50c ALL SEATS RESERVED

NIGHT - - 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00 NO HIGHER

SEAT SALE WEDNESDAY. MAIL ORDERS NOW,

Y. M. C. A.

AUDITORIUM

DAILY - 3:00, 7:15 and 9:00

TONIGHT AND TUESDAY

LASKY-PARAMOUNT Presents MARIE DORO, In

"CASTLES FOR TWO"

A ROMANCE OF OLD IRELAND AND AMERICA.

ALSO TONIGHT—Episode No. 14—THE WONDER SERIAL, "THE SHIELDING SHADOW."

WEDNESDAY.

PALLAS-PARAMOUNT Presents

VIVIAN MARTIN in

"The Right Direction"

Also the Metro Wonder Serial—"The Great Secret," Episode No. 4.

ORERA HOUSE

Tonight and Tuesday 3 Times Daily 2:30, 7:15, and 9:00

JOHN MASON & ALMA HANLON IN

The LIBERTINE

DIRECTION OF KLEIN SIEGEL & JOSEPH A GOLDEN

THE LIBERTINE—

THE MAN WHO CAN AFFORD TO PLAY THE GAME WHILE HIS VICTIMS BEAR THE BURDEN OF SHAME—ALONE

IF YOU CAN'T FIND RUTH CRUGER YOU MAY BE THE MEANS OF SAVING YOUR NEIGHBOR'S DAUGHTER.

Prices: Matinee 10c

Evening Balcony 15c, Main Floor 25c

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Mechanical Decoy Ducks.

For use when duck shooting there are mechanical decoys, which are able when wound up to quack and swim. When the wild birds appear they are easily deceived by the quacking and soon fall victims to the hunter's gun.

The mechanism is so arranged that at certain intervals the decoy gives utterance to a shrill call, swimming about in the water meanwhile by means of a propeller and rudder that gives it a remarkable resemblance to its living prototype.

When it is necessary to clean it or adjust the machinery the decoy can be opened and taken apart. The propeller is driven by clockwork, which also regulates the phonographic apparatus.

Burns' Best Poem.

It is said that a boy was once asked in the poet's presence which of Burns' works he liked best. After taking counsel with himself for a little he declared that he liked the "Cotter's Saturday Night" by far the best. "although," he added, "it made me greet every time my father bade me read it to my mither." This statement seemed to impress Burns, for presently he said to the lad, "Well, my callant dear, it made me greet, too, more than once when I was writing it by my father's fireside."

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them that precaution seemed unnecessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for crape on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put crape on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Globe.

Disease and Cold Air.

Diseases cured or improved by cold air are specified in a medical magazine as malaria, tuberculosis, digestive disturbances, yellow fever, tetanus and organic troubles affecting the blood pressure. Cold air contains more oxygen, requires fewer respirations and less heart energy—vital matters when the heart is affected, as is the case in fevers and wasting diseases. The magazine hints that a study of arterial tension in cold climates would yield the key to much which is now locked from us of the benefits of cold air.

INCASED POSTAGE STAMPS.

Once Used as Money, They Are Now Rare and Valuable.

New York city was the birthplace of a peculiar sort of money, made by putting United States postage stamps in flat circular brass cases, with the faces protected by a thin sheet of mica. The incased stamps consisted of these denominations, 1, 2, 5, 10, 12, 24, 30 and 90 cent, 1862, and this method of protecting the stamps so they could withstand the wear of circulation was the invention of John Gault, who was in business at Park place, New York city.

Mr. Gault manufactured many kinds to be used by business firms in place of small change, as well as the mutilated and worn postage stamps used for money at the beginning of the war. Many of the incased stamps bore the name of the firm on the reverse side, so that the currency served to advertise the firm that issued it.

Occasionally a subscriber asks us in regard to these stamps and their value. Our reply always is that they are of considerable rarity and not infrequently they command a big premium. This is particularly true of the 12, 24, 30 and 90 cent denominations. These stamps are eagerly sought for by collectors of both stamps and coins, but especially the former, and they fetch good prices whenever offered at auction sales.—American Boy.

FIRST "ONE HORSE SHAY."

Quaint Old "Ad." That Told the Public of the New Invention.

A newspaper advertisement in the London Daily Post of Aug. 22, 1728, a copy of which is in the Wisconsin Historical library, telling of the invention of the one horse chaise, affords an interesting example of the advertising methods at that date. It is as follows:

"His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent bearing the date of the 20th Day of July last, unto William Chapman, of London, Coach and Coach-harness Maker (for the term of 14 years) for his sole making a newly invented Chaise or Chair with two wheels, to be drawn by one Horse between a pair of shafts, which is so contrived as to quarter the Roads with great Ease by the Person riding in it, without Left, Stop, or Hindrance, the Horse continuing in the same path, so as the Wheels go exactly at all times in the Coach Track, by which means the person in such carriage may travel with more expedition, Safety and Pleasure both to himself and Horse, than in anything of like nature hitherto invented. The great Use and Convenience of the said invention will readily be made to appear by the said William Chapman at his House in Wormwood Street, London Wall, Near Bishopsgate, where several carriages are already made."

Varieties of Bananas.

To most persons in the temperate zones a banana is a banana. But the truth is that there are over sixty known varieties of the fruit, with as great or greater variation in character as the different kinds of apples. Hawaii is said to have something over forty distinct varieties of the fruit, most of which have been introduced by the whites. Some of these are extremely delicate and delicious flavor, while other kinds are used, if at all, only when cooked in various ways. There is scarcely a city house lot or country "kulcana" or homestead which does not have a clump or two of bananas, which grow with practically no care, new plants or suckers shooting out to replace the ones which have fruited and been removed.

Quail Aids the Farmer.

"The meat value of the quail is inconsiderable—negligible—when compared to the services these birds render to the farm," a bird expert of the University of Oklahoma says. "They prey upon 145 different kinds of destructive insects and consume no less than 120 varieties of noxious weed seeds. They stay on the job twelve months in the year and labor continually when weather conditions permit. I do not believe that the landowners should permit a multitude of so called sportsmen to destroy this powerful ally of the farmer."

A Lily of Asia.

The lilium chalcedonium is supposed to be the lily indicated in the sixth chapter of Matthew, twenty-eighth verse, where it is compared with the gorgeous robes of Solomon, and its color was scarlet or purple. This lily grows profusely in the moist parts of Asia Minor.—Indianapolis News.

FASHION SHOW TO AID AUXILIARIES

While everyone is talking about the Fashion Show, to be given by the L. B. Van Wagenen Company, together with the musical program which will be presented by noted local musical artists at the opera house on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, of this week, for the benefit of the Woman's Auxiliaries of the Kingston City Hospital, the Benedictine Sanitarium and the Y. M. C. A., a great many people have but a vague idea of just what these auxiliaries do for the institutions with which they are connected.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Kingston City Hospital, Mrs. George Chandler, chairman, is the organization, which for years has provided all bed and table linen, towels, gowns, bandages, blankets and similar supplies for the City Hospital, the corner stone of which was laid on April 22nd, 1893. With the present addition to the hospital the women of this auxiliary had themselves taxed to the limit as far as funds go. The big Flag Ball and Butterfly Ball were given for the creating and increasing of the new building fund, not for the auxiliary work of any sort. This woman's assisting body has had no fund raising entertainment since the Mikado which was given in February of 1911, and this present benefit will be of very real aid to them and highly appreciated.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Benedictine Sanitarium, Mrs. James F. Dwyer, chairman, raises funds for the maintenance of the charity ward of this institution, which was formed in a small way in 1901, with the erection of the present building in 1904. When it is realized that up to March of this year, there were given in the one year, 1,180 free days of treatment, it will be seen that this auxiliary has its hands full under ordinary circumstances, for this would be a fair average for several years past. In addition this auxiliary has now a big pledge on hand toward the building addition fund and this timely offer of the L. B. Van Wagenen Company is appreciated indeed by this body of helpful women.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., Mrs. F. R. Fowley, chairman, has been of great service in the promotion and maintenance of our local Y. M. C. A. work especially since the erection and equipment of the new building some five years ago. This auxiliary provides the furnishings of the Y. M. C. A. and makes the boys' work its especial care. Many a boy in the city who could not otherwise afford to do so, is enjoying the privileges of the Y. M. C. A., through the efforts of these women. For the past five years the boys' membership has averaged about 225. Again and again the women of this body have pledged considerable sums of money for the upkeep of this institution for our boys, and have kept their pledges splendidly. At present another such pledge is awaiting fulfillment and the Fashion Show and Concert will prove a real blessing to them in their work.

Two delightful features of the entertainment, which have not yet been specially noted in the accounts of this Fashion Show and benefit, will be the Blue Bell Dance, (Aesthetic Solo Dance) to be given by Miss Majorie Richards, and the Oriental Nautche Veil Dance (Aesthetic Solo Dance) to be given by Miss Agnes Dorsey. These two dances will give the finishing touch to the unique entertainment which will include handsome and artistic apparel, clever dramatic action, charming music, and the poetry of motion in these dances.

The performance of the Fashion Show and Benefit Entertainment will begin at 2:30 each afternoon and the tickets are obtainable from auxiliary members, or at the Van Wagenen Store or the opera house.

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, March 12.—Mrs. Luella Updegraff of Kingston spent Saturday with friends here.

Port Ewen Lodge, No. 656, I. O. O. F., will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in their rooms in Pythian Hall.

A cabinet and business meeting of the Epworth League Society will be held Tuesday evening, March 13, at the Methodist chapel. After the business session a social hour will be spent and refreshments served. Subscriptions and renewals to the Epworth Herald will be received at this meeting.

The communion service held in the Methodist Church Sunday morning was very impressive. The pastor, the Rev. Eugene A. Bookhout, prefaced the ritualistic ceremony by a few explanatory and heart-felt remarks. One was received on probation and two transfer letters read.

There will be a meeting of the Ever Ready Club this evening at the home of Mrs. Alanson H. Short on Main street.

Mrs. Emma Mabie of Salem street is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Winchell, in Highland.

A meeting of the Brotherhood of the Methodist Church will be held Wednesday evening in the chapel. Games and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Merwin of Broadway are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson at Glens Falls.

The annual conference supper of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church will be held Tuesday, March 27. A roast beef supper will be served for 50 cents. Children under 12 years, 20 cents.

Rev. Eugene A. Bookhout, pastor of the Methodist Church, preached a deep and inspiring sermon from the 23rd Psalm Sunday evening. The congregation repeated the psalm from memory in unison.

Always Square.

The Golden Rule is the one safe, accurate measure—it hasn't cheated yet.

FOR THIS WEEK ONLY

DON'T MISS THIS CHANCE

Think of $25 to $35 Suitings made to your measure, cut to your liking and fitted to your satisfaction at

$20 A SUIT

Here is an offering which it will pay you to take advantage of. We have just made great improvements to our store and make this inducement in order to have the men of Kingston become better acquainted with us and our high class tailoring.

KUNST TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT

65 Broadway

An Antidote

It Was Based on the Principle That Like Cures Like.

By WILLIAM CHANDLER

One morning my wife received a letter that seemed to paralyze her.

"Oh, my goodness gracious!" she exclaimed with a gasp.

"Bottom dropped out of the universe, dear?" I asked.

"Worse. Aunt Abigail will have to live with us. She's written that her friend with whom she has had a home is to give up her house the 1st of May, and that throws her out. I am her only relative, and, of course, she expects me to take her in."

"She's a bit cranky, isn't she?"

"No, she is no name for it."

"Well, we'll have to make the best of it."

Aunt Abigail arrived. We had previously [illegible] our own. With the coming of our relative we saw at once that all this was changed. She settled herself down with an appearance of permanency that made my blood run cold.

"Well," she exclaimed, looking about her, "how did you ever come to build this house down in a hollow—it must have been a swamp once—when you could as well have put it up on that hill, where you could see something?"

"We live here winter and summer, Aunt Abigail. Up there we would freeze in cold weather."

"Freeze! Nonsense! Some people are always afraid they'll breathe a little fresh air. I'm not. I sleep with my window open, and I like to have a gale blowing in right on me. You should have fronted your house to the south."

"I can't stand this. We must get rid of her," I said to my wife.

"To turn her out would be awful."

"We needn't do that. We can fix it so that she will go of her own accord."

"For heaven's sake explain."

"You know the homeopathic principle—like cures like. Well, my Uncle Robert is more disagreeable, if that is possible, than your Aunt Abigail. He is a dictatorial old curmudgeon, with no respect for any one's opinion but his own. He is as poor as a church mouse, living in a miserable room in a rookery by himself. He amuses himself abusing his neighbors from his window and shying anything he can get his hands on at the cats. Now, it has occurred to me to bring him here as a foil for your aunt. She can't possibly endure to stay in the house with such a man, and when she's gone I'll find a way to get rid of Uncle Robert. Perhaps they may both go to get rid of each other."

"Your plan seems rather impracticable to me, Billy, but I have a good deal of confidence in those roundabout ways of yours. Suppose we try it?"

So I wrote Uncle Robert offering a home temporarily and, if he liked it, as long as he lived. He accepted eagerly, and it was not long before he was down upon us bag and baggage.

"My dear boy," he exclaimed, patting me on the back, "how you do remind me of your father! He and I were inseparable as boys, and I've carried you on my shoulder often. And to think that I'm to have a home with you! Put me anywhere. A garret is good enough for a broken down old codger like me. Phew! Somebody's been smoking here. Do you smoke? How I hate tobacco! It makes me sick."

"I won't smoke any more in the house since you've come, uncle," I said.

"Oh, don't mind me. I can stand anything; got to stand it. I've made a dead failure of life and don't deserve anything else. You don't mind my opening the window, do you—just to let the odor out?"

"Fanny has a bad cold, you know."

"Just the thing to cure her. Let her breathe the cool air of heaven."

Up went the window, and out of the room went Fanny. Half an hour after my uncle arrived dinner was announced. I was watching our guests when they entered the dining room. It was like a dog and a cat at first catching sight of each other. Both seemed to crouch for an encounter. Neither spoke to the other for some time after taking seats at table. Then a remark of Uncle Robert's ruffled Aunt Abigail.

"This women's voting craze"— he was beginning.

"Voting what, sir?"

"Craze, madam," raising his voice.

"I am not deaf. I heard you well enough. I object to your calling woman's suffrage a craze."

"Are you an advocate of woman's suffrage, madam?"

"I most assuredly am."

"I believe in any one who advocates a principle standing by that principle and not attempting to straddle"—

"Sir!"

"That is, to equivocate or knuckle down, defending the cause with all his or her strength. For contra, I reserve the same privilege for myself. Woman's suffrage I consider the most abominable, diabolical, illogical rot that was ever sprung on a Christian people."

"And I consider it one of the holiest causes."

"Aunt Abigail," interposed my wife, "do let me help you to this little bit of wing. You're not eating enough to feed a sparrow."

"I'm inclined to think," remarked Uncle Robert, "that there's a good deal in this new idea of diet. This man what's-his-name who is preaching that the less we eat the more work we can do is going to create a revolution."

"Have you adopted his idea?" asked Aunt Abigail spitefully.

Considering that I had just filled Uncle Robert's plate for a second time this was unkind.

"I have not, madam, for the reason that I am not yet satisfied that his views are correct. I'm nothing if not scientific. I must see a thing proved before I adopt it."

"Would you prove woman's suffrage before adopting it?"

This was quite bright of Aunt Abigail.

"I admit," replied Uncle Robert, "that to prove it before adopting it would be impossible. It isn't necessary to prove it. Any fool can see that the idea is ridiculous."

"Uncle," I interrupted for the purpose of calling a truce and preventing Aunt Abigail from firing a return shot, "let me fill your glass."

"No, sir," putting his hand over it—"not at all, sir. I drink just one glass of wine with my dinner. And that's enough for any man."

"Quite enough," I replied and filled my own for the third time.

"One is too much for any man, especially an old man," snapped the aunt. "Nothing is so disgusting to me as an old toper."

The shot, while it applied partly to me, was fired at Uncle Robert.

"Not at all," he replied. "One glass is good for the system. You know what St. Paul says, 'Take a little wine for the stomach's sake.'"

"Yes," retorted Aunt Abigail, "and I know that the devil can quote Scripture."

This was so well turned that I felt like patting the old lady on the back. But it did not squelch Uncle Robert for the simple reason that he was unsquelchable. The skirmishing went on, getting hotter and hotter, till at last, to prevent an open rupture, my wife arose from the table. She, poor woman, was dreading a fracas, and I was not anxious to have a break occur so early in the game.

As soon as Fanny and I were alone together we sat down and laughed.

"Did you ever see anything work more beautifully?" I said, slapping my leg.

"Never."

"Let them go their own gait. My opinion is that one or the other will get out within a week."

Every day my uncle came to me and said that he couldn't live in the same house with a cat and was going tomorrow. Every day Aunt Abigail went to Fanny and said she could not possibly endure that opinionated old heathen and she was casting about for another home, but it was dreadful that she should be alone in the world, with no one to love but Fanny, and Fanny must needs be occupied by all her husband's relatives. I told my uncle that if I were deprived of the comfort of caring for my father's brother in his old age it would break my heart. Fanny made faint hearted attempts to quiet her aunt and agreed with her that my uncle was a trifle hard to get on with, regretting at the same time that he had the same claim on me that her aunt had on her. It is true that occasionally there would be a lull in the hostilities and we would find the two chatting quite amicably. But this was when they happened to strike some subject which was a pet with both. As soon as they drifted into topics on which they disagreed the roar of battle recommenced.

Several weeks passed in this way, and Fanny and I were getting impatient for the denouement, when one day uncle came to me and said that he would like to have a few words with me and Fanny alone. He looked very serious, and I felt quite sure he would announce his departure. He was a born gentleman, and nothing would be further from his nature than to hurt one's feelings, and to appear ungrateful would break his heart. I called Fanny into the library, shut the door and waited for the old man to speak.

"My dear boy," he began, taking my hand, "and my dear little girl," taking Fanny's hand, "I have something to announce which will surprise you. I am going to leave you!"

"Oh, uncle!" we both exclaimed, trying how [illegible] even shocked.

"Yes, I am going away, and your aunt is also going."

This was indeed a surprise.

"Your kindness has brought about a great change in two lonely lives. For a time it seemed to both of us that we must thwart your plans for the happiness of both of us. It did not seem that we could live under the same roof together."

He paused, and I thought he was going to shed tears. Then he added abruptly:

"We are both going to leave you tomorrow."

"Both?"

"Yes, both. We are to be quietly married at 9 o'clock and leave on a short wedding trip on the 10 o'clock train."

"Goodness gracious!" from Fanny.

"Great Scott!" from me.

"But we shall be gone only a few days."

"And then?" exclaimed Fanny and I breathlessly.

"And then," resumed the old man, putting a hand on each of our heads, "we return to spend the rest of our lives with our dear niece and nephew."

Heaven helps those who help themselves. At any rate, heaven came to our relief. I inherited $20,000 from a maternal uncle. Of this I put $5,000 in a house for the old couple and invested the rest in an annuity for them. Strangely enough, they are quite contented together.

A Monkey and a Knot.

The monkey's intelligence has never been able to arrive at a point which enables that animal to achieve the untying of a knot. You may tie a monkey with a cord fastened with the simplest form of common knot, and unless the beast can break the string or gnaw it in two he will never get loose. To untie the knot requires observation and reasoning power, and, though a monkey may possess both, he has neither in a sufficient degree to enable him to overcome the difficulty.

Skyrockets Before Gunpowder.

It matters very little in the long run to the small boy when, how or where fireworks were first made and of what they are made now. But the fact remains that the despised heathen Chinese first made them and used them and that civilized communities did not know of them until the fourteenth century. The skyrocket was first invented toward the close of the ninth century and at that time was used, so it is said, in India and China in war. That was long before the invention of gunpowder.

Camels bred especially for speed can travel ninety miles per day.

An electrically lighted cross revolves atop a San Francisco steeple.

WARM WEATHER WASTING ICE

Ice Still Holds In River But With Continued Warm Spell Will Soon Break Up—Tug Bob Trees Lower Creek

While the ice in the Hudson river in this vicinity still holds the warm weather of the past few days is wasting it badly and it is only a question of days if the warm spell continues when it will break up The lower Rondout creek was free of ice today when the tug Bob went through to the mouth of the creek and a short distance down the river breaking a channel for the floating ice in the creek to flow into From the Island Dock down to the mouth the creek was open The swells of the Transport in making its regular trips also assisted in breaking up the ice

Sleighing in the city is practically finished and today all vehicles were on wheels The warm rays of Old Sol has caused the snow to disappear at a rapid rate and it is hardly likely that there will be any more sleighing this season unless there is an unforeseen change in the weather

ELLENVILLE

Ellenville March 12—The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M E Church will hold a conference in the lecture room of the church Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock Curios from India Japan China and other mission fields will be exhibited An interesting program will be given in which the Standard Bearers will assist

The Rev I S Smithers rector of Grace Church Middletown will preach in St Johns Episcopal Church Wednesday evening Lenten services be held every Wednesday and Friday afternoons at 4 in Wednesday evenings at 8

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M E Church will hold the March meeting at the home of Mrs C F Hawkhurst on Park street Thursday afternoon The subject is India Mrs W H Moser leader

Mrs F J Bailey is in town on the interest of her property on Center street which has been leased to H H Traber Mrs Bailey expects to sell at auction a lot of household effects the date to be announced later

Mr Henry Lapp will entertain the members of the Sewing Circle of the Lutheran Church Tuesday afternoon and the Misses Shaffer will entertain the members of the Y P S C E at their home on Clinton avenue Tuesday evening

Mrs Conklin-Ihm of Red Hook spent Sunday with her daughter Mrs H W Coons and family on Maple street

Mrs P H Decker entertained the members of the Whist Club at the home of Mrs H C Derby on Center street Saturday afternoon Following the games the guests enjoyed delicious refreshments served by the hostess

John McDowell purchased the family horse harness blankets sleigh etc from the Lasgate estate at the Scotchy home

Mr and Mrs R Eugene Clark are to move from Mrs Dixon's house on Canal street to the Lefevre residence Maplewood on Maple avenue

The Ladies Aid of the Reformed Church have had the Sunday school class rooms redecorated and a new floor laid in the vestibule

Pioneer Engine Co is to celebrate the 60th anniversary in a fitting manner on Friday evening March 16

Miss Olive D Schoonmaker of New York spent Sunday with her cousin Mrs H S Wells

Ties Itself In a Knot

How fishes get off the hook is always interesting for the most talked of fish is the fish that got away Chapman Grant who gets fish for the Aquarium has witnessed the remarkable manner in which morays will disengage themselves from the hook If held dangling in the air the moray will double on himself tie the knot and pull his head out backward

At this juncture says Mr Grant it has always been my experience that the hook or line broke allowing the fish to escape Mr Mowbray however states that he has seen morays strangle themselves when caught with strong tackle —New York Sun

A Hair's Breadth

Many a business man a hair's breadth now has a definite meaning in machine shops In all of the large shops there are instruments that will measure the thickness of a cigarette paper much thinner than a hair An inch can be divided into 10000 parts and seventeen of these parts will make a hair's breadth Some of the most delicate measurements are made at the government gun factory at Washington where many of the great guns for the army and navy are manufactured

Tea Drinking In Siam

Tea is to be found in every tent and dwelling in Siam There is always a kettle on the fire filled with tea and prepared for drinking which is done by adding milk butter and salt This is their way of taking the beverage A favorite mode of hospitality is shown by the presence of tea in reference to the latter It is also used as the disposal of evil smells and flavors He need not ask for it No host expected that he should be forced to have his own cup This is interesting and accounts for every one carries a cup with him at all times Some of these utensils are marvels of workmanship and are highly valued

The Vengeance of a Woman Scorned

By F A. MITCHEL

One day a good many years ago John Dale a Massachusetts Yankee went to Louisiana to buy sugar for a northern firm He met there a creole girl Louise la Marche who not being especially attractive and there being few marriageable men in that region laid siege to him with a view to marrying him Dale did not reciprocate Louise persisted and when she found that nothing would move the flinty hearted Yankee she appealed to her brother Antoine telling him that Dale had made love to her and then jilted her

Now Antoine and his sister who was older than he did not get on very well together and he wished that she would handle her love affairs without troubling him in the matter But when a woman makes up her mind to utilize a man he may as well come down at once like Davy Crockett's coon And Louise was weak enough to be cajoled into taking up his sister's cause and he laid down for him a plan for doing so

These Yankees she said to him are not fighting men at all They are shopkeepers and pumpkin eaters The way to impress John Dale with the enormity of his treatment of me is to insult him He will be obliged either to challenge you to fight him or do justice to me

Antoine held out as long as possible but this is the usual procedure and at last yielded He waited till he found Dale on a street in the village where the La Mar family lived and going up to him slapped him in the face Dale for a moment was astonished The Yankee contented himself with returning the slap

That would have ended the matter had not Louise been found out She told her brother that he must challenge Dale or he would be ill at all his acquaintance Antoine who was not a fighter even if he was a soldier refused whereupon Louise persuaded several of her friends to ridicule him sufficiently and he at last yielded under duress and sent the challenge

What was her surprise and consternation when she found Dale accepted the challenge But as the challenged party had the choice of weapons he chose pistols in a dark room

He had imagined for a man to be killed with Life in a case in which he takes an interest Antoine to fight with a man who was then in full him

But Antoine not been propped up by his sister who by this time considered her self a woman's rights woman he would have collapsed under the appalling situation But Louise shamed him into standing up to his work and he permitted the arrangements to be made for the meeting

There was a vacant house in the place with two large rooms in each side In built on the courtyard It was agreed that the duel should take place in one of these suits both rooms possessing large open fireplaces In order that no light should permeate them the affair was appointed to come off at 10 o'clock at night

Now Dale had no more heart for the affair than his opponent Had the matter concerned the woman alone who was at the bottom of it he would have fled ingloriously But he could not bring himself to flee from a male enemy He accepted the situation resolved that he would not kill Antoine if he could help it and if either should die it would be himself

At 10 o'clock the duelist were placed one in the front room and one in the rear room As soon as they heard the doors closed and the bolts shot they were at liberty to fire

Dale trusted to his ears which were very keen to let him know where his enemy was and hearing a sound of one walking in the room he himself In turn and after awhile found that his enemy was in the same room with him Dale at once slipped into the other room where he stood as still for some time when he began to move in and the wall feeling his way as he went Presently he struck the fireplace

By the time some twenty minutes had elapsed with no prospect of an ending of the affair It had been arranged that the seconds should not come into the room until after hearing one shot If after five minutes they did not hear a second shot they should enter It occurred to Dale that by firing up the chimney he would not risk a fatal wound and it would prepare the way for an end to the contest Thrusting his arm into the fireplace he fired up the old fashioned large flue of former times

Something drippe

I made no for said a voice that he recognized as that of La Marche

Dale realized at once that the boy in order to get himself had crawled up the chimney He at once fired a second shot at random in order to bring help The seconds rushed in with lights Antoine was examined by the surgeon who found that a bullet had inflicted a flesh wound in the back

How could he have been wounded

No or until how interrupted Dale The brave boy has saved his honor let us say of this

Dale now facing only a woman to face from that hour forward and never again did he read New Leonard

Three Efficient Systems.

Will — Bumps are to me only office Clerk — Yes he has one of these office systems where you can find just what you want when you don't want it by leaving where it wouldn't be if you had put it —Life

EX-ENVOY'S LADY

American Born Wife of Former German Ambassador.

EXPATRIATED BY DIPLOMACY.

The Break In the Relations Between Germany and the United States Has Necessitated the Countess von Bernstorff Leaving the Land of Her Birth and Many Washington Friends

As far as is known Countess von Bernstorff is the only American woman married to a German diplomat and the fact is a strong reminder at this time of the desire of Kaiser Wilhelm in sending Count von Bernstorff to Washington in 1908 to strengthen the bonds of friendship between the United States and Germany

Before her marriage to the count on Nov 14 1885 Countess von Bernstorff was a Miss Jeanne Luckemeyer of

Photo by American Press Association

COUNTESS VON BERNSTORFF

New York She is a woman of gracious personality and during the war was one of the most popular hostesses in the diplomatic set in Washington When the war broke out she was visiting in London and it was not until last fall that she was able to rejoin her husband in Washington

The countess leaves many warm friends in her social circle at the capital who will sincerely regret her absence

MEDICINAL GARDENS

What the Commonest Vegetables Do For Your Liver

Every vegetable garden is a medicine chest recognized by physicians as [illegible] of diseases Onions for example contain sulphur oil and are recommended for insomnia and as an aid to gastric digestion They also help to allay rheumatic pains

Parsnips and parsnips have peculiar oily principles which are of value as an aperient and diuretic They are also claimed to be good for coughs and hoarseness Carrots are useful for correcting derangements of the liver They are excellent as a dressing for painful wounds and swellings

The tomato exercises medicinal effects not completely explained by the presence of alkaline salts There is a principle present which in a concentrated state produces salivation and a free stimulation of the liver

Satin Hats

The type of satin hat that dominates in the smart shops is made of black satin with so small a headband that it is merely a ribbon and so large a brim that it eclipses the crown This brim convolutes around the head in a series of curves and irregular lines If it were not made by an expert it would be utterly impossible for any woman to wear Every line of it must be nicely calculated to the fraction of an inch so that the face beneath will appear at its best

Rarely is there a touch of trimming on turbans but the introduction of two dominating bright wings in front of a black satin turban gives us a new idea—wings are evidently coming back to fashion and one goes up and one goes down

Avalanche of Pockets

Pockets started to be the fashion a couple of seasons ago No one looked however for the avalanche of pockets which seem to have tumbled on to dresses for all times of day On sport coats and dresses they are so large that they are really draped on to the sides of the garment They are mostly patch pockets the tops adorned with a narrow fur band In one or two models the whole pocket is of fur like the collar and cuffs

New Millinery

Among the new features for the south are suede finished felts combined with linen braid straws ombred or braided with sonia beaded cottons and silks printed or embroidered in Paisley East Indian and Persian designs and colors These novelty straws and fabrics are used in combination with the plain straws in long cravenette effects linen and mull lamp

His Idea of Being Even

First lawyer—Let's take a walk while we are waiting Second lawyer—But we've taken How do you make that out Why you had all my money a while ago and now I've got all of yours —The Lamp

EXTRA SPECIAL

For Tuesday and Wednesday ONLY

MURESCO

THE SANITARY WALL FINISH

29c---5 lb. Package

3 Packages Limit No Telephone Orders Accepted

WALL PAPER AND PAINT DEPT -SECOND FLOOR

Quality First

ROSE-GORMAN-ROSE, INC

"FORMERLY CARLS"

Two Heroes

Miss Martineau in her History of the Thirty Years Peace tells a touching story of the wreck of the Rothesay Castle Two men strangers to each other found themselves holding on to the same plank which it soon appeared would support only one Each desired the other to hold on the one because his companion was old the other because his companion was young and they quitted the grasp at the same moment By extraordinary accidents both were saved each without the knowledge of the other and they met on shore in great surprise How great things in the course of human life can be so sweet and moving as must have been that of these two heroes

Evidently a Bachelor Burglar

Did you get her jewelry? asked the police man

Nope replied the burglar I couldn't find it nowhere

Where did you look for it?

Searched her jewel case and every drawer in the bureau and it wasn't there

Did you look to see if she had it on?

Yep She was asleep but she didn't have no rings on her fingers

Shucks You don't know nothing about the ways of women Why didn't you go into the bathroom? You'd have found the whole outfit where she left it on the washstand —Detroit Free Press

Unbreakable Windows

Repeated coats of raw or boiled linseed oil applied to a newly meshed wire fabric will give a good substitute for window glass The wire may be used for many purposes and is especially good where glass might easily be broken The fabric may be dipped in the oil or tend of applying it with a brush —Exchange

The Gate to Tibet

Just outside Tachienlu is the stone bridge which is called the gate to Tibet Tachienlu is a narrow little city which had to conform its shape to the contour of the mountains which shut it in There is hardly a foot of level ground within the walls It is the great emporium of trade between China and Tibet where the Chinese exchange tea for musk and gold dust. Many red frocked lamas are to be seen about the city most of whom live in large lamaseries outside the walls. On the flat roofs of the houses flutter innumerable prayer flags giving to the winds the universal Tibetan hymn of praise

The Walking Steeple

At Holywell church in Wales an old [illegible] was employed to call people to worship The position of the church causing any bell rung there to be inaudible in some parts of the town a peripatetic ringer used to be employed whose performances were thus described A leather strap is suspended round his neck and a large and heavy bell attached to it which rests upon a cushion buckled over his knee Thus accoutered he traverses the town jingling his bell to the surprise of those who are unacquainted with the custom The walking steeple he was called by the townspeople

Honest Anyhow

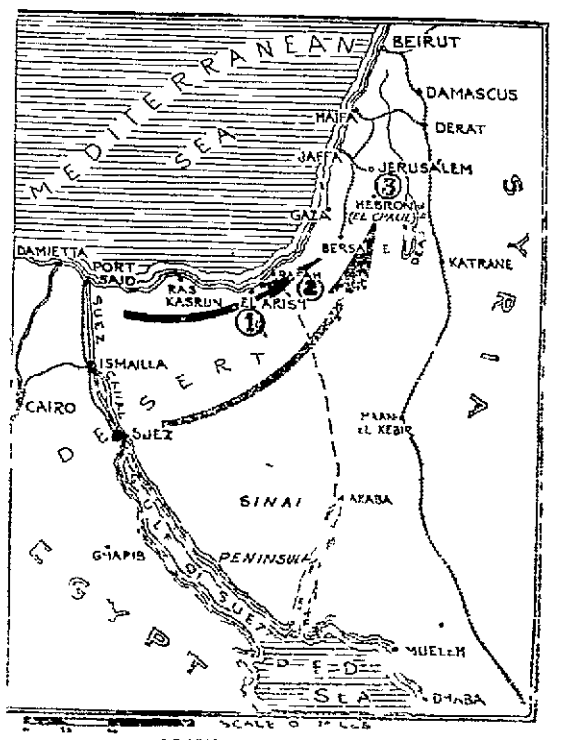
There is a young lawyer of this town who is as modest as he is witty

How much asked a client of his will your opinion be worth in this case

Really said the young legal light I can't say But I can tell you what I am going to charge you for it —Exchange

By La Riconteuse

A close rival of the slip on middy blouse is the sport shirt belted loosely at the waistline with huge collar deep pockets and cuffs to accentuate its comforts Illustrated here is one in two toned rose striped taffeta which fastens down the front with large pearl buttons White taffeta supplies an interesting contrast on the pockets collar and cuffs also forming all but the border of the sash



BRITISH NEAR JERUSALEM

Marching northward from the Canal a British force drove the Turks from (1) El Arish on the Mediterranean and two months ago from (2) Rafah The latest advance put the army at (3) El Chalil 20 miles south of Jerusalem A hard battle is expected before the Turks yield the city If the British occupy the Holy City it will be the first time it has been under the control of a Christian people since the time of the Crusaders.

ONE MAN SOUP KITCHEN

HOW SOUP IS CARRIED TO FIGHTING MEN IN THE TRENCHES.

Getting food to the men in the trenches is no easy task Obviously soup kitchens cannot be rolled up to the trenches. Soldiers crawl through the trenches with cold victuals but now the British have devised a means of getting hot soup to the men on the firing line. This picture shows what the "Tommies" call a "one man soup kitchen." The soup is carried through the trenches on the backs of soldiers and is ladled out to the men at the rifles and machine guns.

Classified Advertisements

ONE CENT A WORD

Classified advertisements in this department will be inserted at the uniform rate of one cent per word for each insertion. If an advertisement is ordered for more than one month, one-half cent per word will be charged after the first month. No advertisement for less than 15 cents. If inserted but once. Orders may be left at our main office, 250 Broadway, or at our branch office 250 Fair St. Also at the following places:

E. DIAMOND, 670 Broadway.
A. DEVIN, 452 Broadway.
FRANK McNALLY, 580 Broadway.
WM. O'REILLY, 533 Broadway.
J. STEPHEL, 712 Broadway.

For the convenience of out-of-town advertisers, orders will be accepted at the following places:

CHARLES W. CARD, Port Ewen, N. Y.
WM. CONNORS, High Falls, N. Y.
WM. HUBEN, Rosendale, N. Y.
E. J. OPPEN, Woodstock, N. Y.
WM. McMULLEN, Ellenville, N. Y.
S. VANSTEENBURG, Saugerties, N. Y.
W. VONDERLINDEN, Rhinebeck, N. Y.
L. D. WINNE, Ashokan, N. Y.

One Cent Per Word

No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—New and second hand stoves and ranges and second hand furniture bought, sold and exchanged. All kinds of stove repairs furnished. Complete line of new stoves. Morris Kaplan, 66 North Front St., Kingston. 'Phone 661-J.

GOOD Luck Butterine. Johnson's, 112 W. Pierpont St. 'Phone 1050.

FOR SALE. Six cylinder Chandler runabout, just overhauled; a bargain, will sacrifice. Louis Stock, 56 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y.

FOR SALE—100 White Leghorns, 25 White Pekin selected stock 'Phone 1292-R.

FOR SALE.—Stock and fixtures country grocery, will rent store. Address "A. F. C." Uptown Freeman.

FOR SALE. Good pair of horses, 7 and 8 years old; kind and true in all harness two sets of heavy log sleighs, two lumber wagons, wide tires, all hand made. H. S. Land, Lanesville, N. Y.

FOR SALE—Saxon runabout, in good condition. 26 Grand St.

FOR SALE.—Cheap, for quick buyer, 5 room house and store, downtown; directly opposite school; gas and water. Address "A." 530 Broadway.

FOR SALE—Harness, two sleighs and two wagons. Gregory & Co.

FOR SALE—Two Cyphers Incubators; used once. B. B. Sheldon, Esopus, N. Y.

FOR SALE.—9 room house, including gas, electricity, stationary range, toilet, bath, stationary tubs above West Shore R. R. near trolley. Large garden; some fruit. Price $3,500; $500 cash needed. Address "M. R." Uptown Freeman.

FOR SALE.—For hatching pure bred B. Plymouth Rocks and S. C. B. Leghorn eggs; $1.00 a setting. J. W. Allen, Spillway, N. Y.

FOR SALE.—Salt hay and straw, damaged by fire; cheap. Edw. T. McGill.

FOR SALE.—House, eight rooms part improvements, Sleightsburgh; reasonable. DuBois & McCausland, 23 Broadway.

FOR SALE.—Incubators, brooders and poultry supplies. Canfield Supply Co., Strand & Ferry St., Kingston, N. Y.

FOR SALE.—Team bay horses; very suitable for farm work. Gregory & Co.

FOR SALE.—Team of mules. Inquire Stryker-Youmans Garage.

FOR SALE.—1916 7-passenger Studebaker, like new, for sale cheap. Stryker-Youmans Co., garage.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.—House, 115 Spring St.; all improvements. F. J. Walter.

FOR SALE.—Square piano; cheap. 'Phone 1167-J.

FOR SALE.—Automobile truck; also runabout top, Prestolite tank, two 50-gallon pump tanks; see them at garage. 221 Downs St.

FOR SALE.—5 passenger Studebaker, run 5300 miles. A. L. Harder, Lake Katrine.

FOR SALE.—Salt hay. Edw. T. McGill, 57 Broadway.

FOR SALE.—Photo supplies, films, plates, cameras, printing paper, etc. O'Reilly's, 530 Broadway.

FOR SALE.—Piano—one Matchless Mathushek. Regular price $350, sale price, $150 cash. Will be at conservatory by appointment. 'Phone 1706-J. A. E. Thomas, 23 Crown St.

FOR SALE.—Good as new, Hoosier kitchen cabinet, wardrobe; reasonable. Apply 65 Liberty St.

FOR SALE.—I have for sale or exchange car load of good second hand horses, suitable for all purposes. Mr. L. Basch, Chambers St.

FOR SALE.—A two year old black Percheron colt, weighs 900 now; will make a horse that will weigh 1,400. Mr. L. Basch, Chambers St.

FOR SALE. Ford motor truck, with enclosed delivery body; has run about 2,000 miles. Also new Ford roadster with enclosed rear body, suitable for commercial traveler, besides regular runabout body; has run about 2,000 miles. Address 112 North Front St., Kingston, N. Y.

LIKE to exchange house and lot in village of Arkville for a farm near Kingston, Poughkeepsie or New Paltz. Jay F. Nixon, Arkville, N. Y.

EXCHANGE—Until March 15, 52 shares of American Voting Machine stock, now selling at $5 per share, for 15 shares at $18, or 20 at $7.50 per share of the Universal Tire and Rubber Co. stock. Both stocks advance soon. I am retaining the company quota of 104 shares Am Voting stock. Purely personal reasons for this offer. Lou Merrill, Box 832, Kingston, or Pennington's Studio.

FOR SALE.—Two 60-egg incubators. 'Phone 1893-J.

FOR SALE.—Second hand clothes. 311 Fair St.

FOR SALE.—Good second hand range, double oven. 'Phone 1597-W or 371-J.

FOR SALE.—Hotel on Albany Ave., known as the Maple Inn; 12 rooms, barn, wagon shed, 3½ acres of farm land. Hawksworth, Kingston Hotel.

FOR SALE.—Young sow with 10 pigs; also young pigs. M. J. Brown, Marbletown.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.—7 room house, 8 Green, all improvements; best neighborhood. Mrs. Boice, Fair St.

ADVERTISEMENT WRITING.

LIKEWISE advertising economy is an accepted habit with many merchants, like wars and moving pictures, but when the rule is continued—certain! They seem to believe that each time they blackjack a dollar and lay it away on ice, withdrawing it from their advertising expenditures, they have done wisely. Really, such business men are short-changing themselves. Well written advertisements are business getters. The other kind won't do at all. Let me write your ads, with "pep and punch." George E. Zeamer, care of Kingston Freeman.

One Cent Per Word

No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

LOST.

LOST.—Tire chain. Leave at Dwyer's store, Strand.

MALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED.—For position on farm, married man; year round job; good house, wood, milk and garden. Apply to F. E. Baub, Wynkoop Farms, Hurley, N. Y.

WANTED—ERRAND BOYS. FULLER'S SHIRT FACTORY, PINE GROVE AVE.

WANTED.—Firemen, brakemen, beginners $125 monthly; permanent positions guaranteed. Railway, care Freeman.

CHAUFFEUR, first class man, absolutely sober and reliable; 8 years with last employer; desires position with private family; city or country. Rudolf Weber, Saugerties.

WANTED.—Good sized boy with bicycle. Kingston Valet System 565 Broadway.

WANTED.—Reliable man for an established tea and coffee route. Grand Union Tea Co., 318 Wall St.

WANTED.—Married man to work on fruit farms near Kingston; no dairy; good money for family willing to work. Address "Fruit Farm," Box 727, Kingston.

WANTED.—Married man to work on fruit farm; good wages, home and garden; state age, size of family and reference. F. W. Vail & Son, Milton, N. Y.

WANTED.—Second-hand who understands burning brick; good wages. Geo. W. Washburn Co., Catskill, N. Y.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

POSITIONS ARE OPEN AT FULLER'S SHIRT FACTORY FOR GIRLS TO OPERATE POWER SEWING MACHINE. EXPERIENCE NOT ESSENTIAL AS GOOD WAGES ARE ASSURED WHILE LEARNING. FULLER'S SHIRT FACTORY, PINE GROVE AVE.

WANTED.—Experienced ironer for pressing, $1.00 per day while learning. Millen Aikenhead Co., Inc., Greenkill Ave.

WANTED.—Girl or woman to cook and assist with general housework in a family of two adults; wages $25 per month. Address "T. Z." c/o Freeman Office.

POSITIONS ARE OPEN FOR GIRLS TO OPERATE POWER SEWING MACHINES ON SHIRTS. EXPERIENCE NOT NECESSARY. GOOD WAGES PAID WHILE LEARNING. WE HAVE THE MOST MODERN AND UP-TO-DATE FACTORY IN KINGSTON. F. JACOBSON & SONS, SMITH AND CORNELL STS., KINGSTON.

WANTED.—Girl first class skirt finisher; apply at once. S. Gold, 28-30 Main St.

WANTED.—Experienced examiner, steady work; call at once. Tomasian Shirt Factory, 42 Thomas St. 'Phone 1409.

WANTED.—50 operators; a chance of making the same as already employed hands, which is as high as $20 per week. Apply at once. J. Davis, 662 Broadway.

WANTED.—Girls to operate machines on all parts of shirts; steady work; good pay. Learners taken. Apply Columbia Shirt Co., O'Neil St.

OPERATORS WANTED: BEGINNERS PAID WHILE LEARNING. MILLEN AIKENHEAD & CO., INC. GREENKILL AVE.

TO LET.

TO LET.—Two 6-room flats with all improvements, and one garage. 113 Abeel St.

TO LET.—House, 60 Clinton Ave. Inquire Brinnier & Canfield, 53 John St.

TO LET.—10 rooms and bath 121 Fair St., or for sale, if let sale is off. Inquire 152 Washington Ave.

TO LET.—From May 1, first floor, to adults; part improvements. 21 Malden Lane.

TO LET.—House, 29 Orchard St., improvements. Apply Mrs. Terry, 203 Broadway.

TO LET.—One new flat, 356 Washington Ave.; all improvements; from April 1st, $20. 'Phone 1006-R.

TO LET.—Six room house, 61 Staples St. 'Phone 1103-W.

TO LET.—Five rooms 98 Clinton Ave., improvements. 'Phone 705-W.

TO RENT. The residence of Josiah Hasbrouck, late of Sleightsburgh, N. Y.; the barn and other buildings about the house; sixty acres of farm lying on the west side of the highway leading from the ferry to Port Ewen. Possession April first. Also the waterfront lying between the ferry house and Baisden & Tremper's shipyard. Apply to G. D. B. Hasbrouck, court house.

TO LET.—House, 87 West Chester St. Inquire A. Eichler.

TO LET.—8 room house and garden. 46 Hurley Ave. 'Phone 1792-M. or inquire 44 Hurley Ave.

TO LET.—31 Janet St. 'Phone 756-W.

TO LET.—Residence, 35 West Chestnut St. L. Hoyeradt.

TO LET.—House, 142 Main St., all improvements. C. F. Gray.

TO LET.—Flat, uptown. Apply N. D. J. Murphy.

TO LET.—Store. F. Meyer, 237 Hasbrouck Ave.

TO LET.—10 Cedar St., $10. Inquire 14 Cedar St.

TO LET.—Four nice offices, in Burgevin building. Fair and Main Sts.

TO LET.—5 rooms, first floor, all improvements. 'Phone 1117.

FOR RENT.—Flat, 100 Henry St. Apply 60 Clinton Ave.

TO LET.—Apartments, 215 Delaware Ave., 598 Broadway; house, 59 Green St. Estate of John N. Cordts.

TO LET.—Store and office at 293 Wall St. Offices 272-282 Fair St. Stores Hasbrouck Ave., near Strand. Estate of John N. Cordts.

WANTED.

WANTED.—EXPERIENCED ROLLERS AND BUNCHMAKERS, AND GIRLS AND BOYS TO LEARN CIGAR MAKING. $4.00 PER WEEK PAID WHILE LEARNING. LAST YEAR OUR EMPLOYES SAVED OVER $14,000. G. W. VAN SLYKE & HORTON.

WANTED.—At once, unfurnished room for light housekeeping. Apply 658 Broadway.

WANTED.—Turkey eggs. Address "Subway Lunch," Kingston, N. Y.

WANTED.—To buy, second hand clothes. 'Phone 1860-W.

WANTED.—Second hand typewriter; state price, condition and make. "Typewriter," Uptown Freeman.

WANTED.—Old false teeth. Don't matter if broken. I pay one to ten dollars per set. Send by parcel post and receive check by return mail. L. MAZER, 2007 S. 5th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WANTED.—Man and wife to work on farm, and board with me. E. E. Shelden, Esopus, N. Y.

WANTED.—Your developing and printing. Prompt 24 hour service. Satisfaction guaranteed. O'Reilly's, 530 Broadway.

WANTED.—Help. Ulster Employment Agency, 335 Clinton Ave. 'Phone 1234-R.

WANTED—To rent, small modern house, from May 1st. 'Phone 195-W.

WANTED.—Painting and paper hanging. Will do good work at reasonable prices; use best material. Brigham Bro., 21 Murray St. 'Phone 411-W.

TONY DENIER'S WILL IS FILED IN COURT

The will of Anthony, better known as Tony, Denier, the original Humpty Dumpty clown, who died at the Kingston city hospital on Saturday, has been filed, with Surrogate Gill in the surrogate's court by his attorney, William H. Grogan.

Tony does not mention his wife, Louise Sully Denier of Woodstock, against whom he recently recovered judgment for $3,200 in his suit to recover $17,000, which he had turned over to her or expended for her on the promise, as he alleged, that she would execute a mortgage to him as security.

The famous clown directs that he be buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago, in the plot in which his first wife, Emma Horne Denier, and his daughter, Lydia Denier, are buried, and for the perpetual care of which plot he has already paid the cemetery association. He directs also that the funeral services be held at the lot in Rosehill Cemetery, and that the same be presided over by some leading actor or orator, the speaker to be chosen by the officers of the Theatrical Mechanical Association. He directs also that his debts, funeral expenses and expenses be paid.

His mechanical acrobats, commonly spoken of as the "Three Wooden Heads," he gives to Ida Maison Sloan, of 1711 Jefferson street, Philadelphia. His securities, etc., he gives to his executors in trust with instructions to convert the same into cash and to pay $100 each to Ida Louise Sloan and Joseph Maison Sloan of Philadelphia; John Bairstow of 8016 Ravenswood Park avenue, Chicago; William H. Bairstow in trust for his daughter, Ethel May Bairstow, to be paid to her when she is 21 years old; George H. Elwyn of Woodstock, in trust for his son, Hugh Elwyn, to be paid to him when he is 21 years old; the Theatrical Mechanical Association, Lodge No. 4, of Chicago; Charles E. Schilling of Los Angeles, Cal., and $100 to Louis and Ray Filber of Leow's Theater, New York city.

His Chicago patent work bench and all tools are given to Wilber Cashdollar of Woodstock. An oil painting known as "Sheep in the Fold," is given to Ida Louise Sloan; an oil painting known as "Cattle in the Polders," is given to John Bairstow or in the event of his death to William H. Bairstow; the balance of his oil paintings are given to his executors personally, share and share alike.

All curiosities are given to Henry Cassius Steele and Joseph M. Sloan of Philadelphia; household furniture, an upright piano and all musical instruments are given to the executors, share and share alike. All manuscript of pantomime acts and books pertaining to them, or books on the stage, and his library are given to Joseph Maison Sloan of Philadelphia. The balance realized from the sale of property is given to the Theatrical Mechanical Association, Lodge No. 4, of Chicago. The executors and trustees are John Bairstow of 8016 Ravenswood Park avenue, Chicago, and Joseph Maison Sloan of Philadelphia. In case of the death of inability of the former, William H. Bairstow is appointed an executor, and in case of the death or inability of Mr. Sloan, he appoints Henry Cassius Steele of 246 North Creighton street, Philadelphia an executor.

All former wills are revoked.

The will was executed July 22, 1915, and witnessed by William H. Grogan and Elsie A. Boyce.

Other Wills.

The will of Margaret Kerley of this city was filed and a citation was issued returnable April 17. To the Rev. John J. Hickey, pastor of St. Mary's Church, or his successor as pastor, and to the Rev. Stephen Connolly, assistant pastor, the testatrix bequeaths the sum of $50 each with the request that they say masses for the repose of her soul. To her brother, John Roach, of Brooklyn, she bequeaths $500 and a gold watch and chain; to her sister, Elizabeth Roach, of New York, she bequeaths $500; to her niece, Mary Hamilton, she bequeaths all her shares in the Home Seekers' Co-operative Savings and Loan Association of this city with all accumulations of interest, dividends, etc., thereon to James Sullivan, a clerk in her store, she bequeaths $25, and the balance of the estate is given to her sister, Mary Hamilton, and the latter's daughter, Elizabeth Hamilton, share and share alike. Any legatee contesting the will is to forfeit his or her share. Elizabeth Hamilton is appointed executrix. The will was executed November 21, 1916, and witnessed by Christopher A. Murray and Charles McMillan. The value of the estate is $10,000 personal property. Christopher A. Murray appeared for the executrix.

Proof was taken of the execution of the will of Elizabeth Melville Lawrence of this city and the matter of probate was held open. The testatrix bequeaths her life insurance policy of $500 to her children, Mrs. Minnie DeWitt and William F. Melville. No executor is named. A petition for letters of administration with the will annexed was made by the son. The will was executed December 13, 1910, and witnessed by John H. Smith, David A. Smith and Louise Smith, all of West Nyack, N. Y. The value of the estate is $500 personal property. Raymond G. Cox of Ellenville appeared for the petitioner.

The will of Delilah Catherine Myers of the town of Shandaken was admitted to probate. To Mary Cunningham of Shandaken, the testatrix devises the little house adjoining the Cruickshank line, together with sufficient land to include the spring from which water is piped to the house. The balance of the estate is given to William C. Van Anden and Sadie F. Van Anden of this city, who are appointed executors. The will was executed February 18, 1917, and witnessed by Edwin Champlin and Joel L. Keator, both of Fleischmanns. The value of the estate is not stated in papers accompanying the will. Joel L. Keator appeared for the executors.

The will of John L. Jones of the town of Woodstock was admitted to probate. To his wife, Jane Jones, the testator bequeaths all moneys on deposit in savings banks and all joint accounts, and in the event of her death he gives the same to their sons, Stewart Jones and Walter G. Jones. All household effects are given to the wife. All real estate is given to Stewart Jones on condition that his mother shall have her support and maintenance there during her lifetime; that he pay $1,500 to Walter G. Jones or the latter's children, and that Kate S. MacGregor, a sister-in-law, have her board and lodging at the homestead until her marriage. In the event of the death of Stewart Jones, the property is given to his children subject to the same conditions. The balance of the estate is given to Stewart Jones. Any legatee contesting the will is to forfeit the share provided by the will. The two sons are appointed executors. The will was executed May 2, 1916, and witnessed by John E. Kamp and William J. Greene, both of Woodstock. The value of the real estate is $4,500 and the personal property amounts to $1,500. Van Etten & Cook appeared for the executors. An order was also granted appointing George Mead and Henry Pepper appraisers.

Other Estates.

Letters of administration on the estate of Abram C. Tamney of New Paltz were issued to his widow, Daisy Tamney. The value of the estate is $1,400 personal property. Joseph H. Vanderlyn appeared for the administratrix.

Letters of administration on the estate of Catherine D. Smith of the town of New Paltz were issued to Ella A. Mead. The value of the estate is $300 personal property. John N. Vanderlyn appeared for the administratrix.

In the estate of Michael Ambrose of the town of Esopus, an order was granted fixing the cash value of the estate and declaring it exempt from tax under the taxable transfer act. The personal property amounts to $1,523.98; the real estate is valued at $3,000; the debts, commissions, expenses of administration, etc., amount to $393.95. Elizabeth Ambrose and John V. Ambrose, the executors, were represented by John N. Vanderly, Joseph H. Vanderlyn appeared for the state comptroller.

A hearing was had in the matter of the judicial settlement of the account of Florence Wagner as administratrix of the estate of John Wagner of the town of Denning and a decree was granted.

In the estate of James Barry of the town of Marlborough, a petition for a judicial settlement was filed by James Barry, Jr., the executor and a citation was issued returnable April 9. John Rusk appeared for the executor.

In the estate of Malinda Decker of the town of New Paltz, a petition for a judicial settlement was filed by Emmit S. Decker, the executor, and a citation was issued returnable March 26. John N. Vanderlyn appeared for the executor.

Johnson to Resign as Governor.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Sacramento, Cal., March 12.—Governor Hiram Johnson today announced that he will resign the governorship of California on March 15. It is believed that he will go to Washington to be sworn in as United States senator a day or two later.

Cleaning Lower Broadway.

Members of the street force were busy today with pick and shovel clearing away the accumulated ice and snow on lower Broadway.

One Cent Per Word

No Advertisement Less Than 15 Cents.

LOST.

LOST.—Tuesday night, between Baker's 5 and 10 cent store and opera house, purse containing sum of money. Leave at the Huntington.

LOST.—A silver watch, between 76 Foxhall and Sussin's tailor shop. Return to 76 Foxhall. Reward.

FURNISHED ROOMS.

FURNISHED housekeeping rooms. 72 Cedar St.

LARGE, well heated rooms; table board. Sherwood Lodge, 317 Clinton Ave.

DESIRABLE rooms with board. 150 Fair St.

FURNISHED and unfurnished rooms. 27 John St.

SUNNY, pleasant room, with or without board. 34 Warren St.

FURNISHED ROOMS—2 light housekeeping apartments, heated; uptown section. Call 1117.

FURNISHED ROOMS.—112 Hone St.

FURNISHED ROOMS.—35 Hoffman St.

FURNISHED ROOMS.—102 Hone St.

FURNISHED ROOMS, with board. 20 Adams St.

FURNISHED ROOMS.—Single or housekeeping. 320½ Wall St.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PIANOS tuned and repaired; terms reasonable. Marthis, 136 Prospect St. 'Phone 1847-W.

HIGHEST price paid for misfit and second hand clothes. 'Phone 1474-M.

MONEY to loan—liberal terms. Home-Seekers' Co-operative Savings & Loan Association, 23 Broadway.

DEVELOPING and printing a specialty; 20 years' experience. We use all kinds developing paper. Longyear, 25 John St.

SPENCER'S BUSINESS SCHOOL, INC. Large study halls, fine equipment, best instructors. Enter now, day or evening.

I AM still in business and will keep a stock of doors, sash, blinds, molding, frames, glass, roofing and some lines of lumber for sale. General insurance and real estate. Albert Mauterstock, 112 Broadway.

MORAN BUSINESS SCHOOL, Fair and Main Sts. Commercial, Stenographic, English. Day and Night. Experienced Instructors. Graduates in Demand. ENTER NOW.

FURNITURE storage. Mouse-proof, military, fire-proof. Frederick C. Winters, Kingston. 'Phone 1112-J, or Brown Auto Supply Co. 'Phone 1866.

FURNITURE storage; best in city. Harry P. Carr. 'Phone 1178-J, 6-F2.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, March 12.—Trading in the railway issues continued on a large scale in the late forenoon. While advances in these issues were in progress many industrials were supplied at material concessions. Money loaning at 2¾ per cent.

The railway issues dropped sharply when it was announced that no Adamson decision was handed down. Union Pacific sold down from 137½ to 135¾, and Reading from 97⅛ to 95¾. The losses in these stocks had a disturbing effect on the rest of the list causing declines ranging from one to two points.

Dealings in the last hour were also wholly professional. The bear traders made the most of various rumors from Washington and offered stocks at concessions. The final tone was steady.

Quotations furnished by John D. Kline Warren Building Fair street, Kingston, N. Y. Tel 1423. Correspondent of C. H. Van Buren & Company, members of Consolidated Stock Exchange of New York.

THE CLOSING QUOTATIONS.

Allis-Chalmers	27¼
American Beet Sugar	92⅝
American Car & Foundry	66⅛
American Can	45⅜
American Cotton Oil
American Locomotive	71
American Smelting & Ref. Co.	104⅜
American Sugar	112¾
Anaconda Copper Mining	83¾
Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe	102¼
Baldwin Loco	52¼
Baltimore & Ohio	76¼
Bethlehem Steel Co.	139
Brooklyn Rapid Transit	68½
Canadian Pacific	153½
Central Leather	91¼
Chesapeake & Ohio	59
Chicago, Mil. & St. Paul	82½
Colorado Fuel & Iron	47
Corn Products	23½
Crucible Steel	65¾
Distillers' Securities	20⅞
Erie	26½
Erie, 1st pfd	39⅞
Goodrich Rubber	55⅛
Great Northern, pfd	113⅝
Great Northern Ore	31
Interborough Con
Inter. Con., pfd	64½
Kansas City Southern	23
Lehigh Valley	66⅝
Maxwell Motor	55¼
Maxwell Motor, 1st pfd	71¼
Maxwell Motor, 2d pfd	35½
Mexican Petroleum	87¼
National Lead	57
New York Central	96
N. Y., N. H. & H	43⅜
New York, Ontario & Western	24½
Norfolk & Western	130
Northern Pacific	103¼
Pennsylvania Railroad	53⅞
People's Gas, Chicago
Pittsburgh Coal	47⅝
Pressed Steel Car	78½
Railway Steel Sp'g	52¼
Reading	95
Rep. Iron & Steel	79½
Southern Pacific	94¼
Southern Railway	27⅝
Southern Railway, pfd	58½
Studebaker	104¼
Union Pacific	136½
U. S. Steel	110⅝
U. S. Steel, pfd	117¾
U. S. Rubber	94¼
Utah Copper	111
Virginia Car. Chem
Westinghouse Electric	51

A Poet's Custard Bath.

A custom which has now disappeared used to afford much amusement to the guests at the banquet on lord mayor's day. In the household of the lord mayor there existed the offices of jester and city laureate. On the day of the feast a huge quaking custard was made in a dish as large as a bathing machine. It was the duty of the laureate, clad in official garb, to spring from his chair into the depths of the custard, splashing the contents over the table and the nearest guests.

In return for this feat the laureate was allowed to eat as much of the custard as he wished, which was probably very little.—London Tatler.

Roumanian Courtesy.

The Roumanians are among the handsomest races in Europe, but that, says a correspondent of the London Telegraph, is only a part of their fascination. Some enthusiast has said that the ladies of Bukharest "combine the beauty of the Hungarian, the grace of the Austrian and the wit and style of the Parisian." But still we have not all the truth. It is the distinction and kindliness of the manners of Bukharest which mark it out among the cities of the world. No one ever found there anything but courtesy. Many have pronounced the people the politest on earth, and the politeness is not a matter of civility or readiness to oblige, but a high bred distinction of manner.

Importance of the Beard.

The importance of the beard was fully recognized in the middle ages. Here is a passage (quoted by J. A. F. Orbaan in "Sixtine Rome") from a letter of the writer, Bartolomeo Catena: "It is well that those who have to lead and govern should have a long and fine beard. And I can assure you that the government of cities and provinces has been given to more than one prelate because he had a long and fine beard; otherwise he were not worthy that honor."

Cairo's Books.

Books printed in Cairo are read by the camp fires of the Sahara, in the market of Timbuktu, under the very shadows of the Kaaba and are treasured in the mosques of Java and western China.

The Round World.

"I hear you have a brother abroad?"

"I have."

"Is he a long way off?"

"Yes; he could hardly get any farther away without coming nearer."—Boston Transcript.

WHEAT MARKET SLUMPS SUDDENLY

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Chicago, March 12.—Wheat closed 5¾c lower today for May as a result of heavy rains in Nebraska and Kansas and fear that a railroad strike would follow failure of the supreme court to pass upon the constitutionality of the Adamson eight hour law. Fair buying of the breaks, however, prevented a bigger break. Other grains also closed lower.

Closing Prices.

Wheat—May 180⅝ to ½; July 153 to 152⅞; Sept. 143 to 142¾.

Corn—May 107¼ to ⅛; July 106⅜ to ⅝; Sept. 105¾.

Oats—May 57⅝ to ½; July 55¾ to ⅝.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

Charles H. Wiggins of Shandaken died at the tuberculosis hospital on Sunday evening. He was 43 years old and resided in Brooklyn before removing to Shandaken where he was employed in a chair factory.

The funeral of Michael J. Coudon, formerly of Saugerties, who died at his home in Albany on March 9, was held in St. Mary's Church, Albany, this morning, and the remains brought to Saugerties this afternoon for interment in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Russell, aged 5 years, son of Samuel Goldberg, manager of the Wilson Co. in Saugerties, died Saturday afternoon at the home of his father on Livingston street, after an illness of one day. The funeral was held Monday afternoon, the Rev. J. H. Jones of the Congregational Church, officiating. The remains were placed in the mortuary vault.

The funeral of Otis B. Whittaker was held Sunday afternoon at his late residence, Cross street. The Rev. F. M. Turrentine of the M. E. Church officiated. 75 members of Esopus Tribe, No 482, I. O. R. M., of which the deceased was a member, attended and rendered the burial service of the order in Mountain View Cemetery, where the burial took place.

Mrs. Lena M. Kless, wife of George Distle, died at her home at Ulster Heights on Friday after an illness of several weeks of complications at the age of 33 years. Surviving are her husband and four children and her father, Fred Kless. The funeral will be held from St. Andrew's Church, Ellenville, Monday morning and burial will be made in the Fantinekill cemetery.

Cornelius G., the 6 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius J. Heitzman, died early this morning, after a short illness. The parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. The funeral will be held from their home, No. 93 Hoffman street, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock and 9:30 at St. Peter's Church. Interment will be in St. Peter's Cemetery.

On Saturday, March 10, the fifth annual floral tribute was placed on the grave of the late S. Arthur Safford by four Masonic friends, Herman J. Eckhoff, Harry C. Arnold, William V. A. Poe and Theodore M. Poe of New York city. It is worthy of note that four young men a hundred miles away from a grave of a departed brother should continue to place flowers on the grave year after year as they intend to do "as long as they live." Mr. Safford during his lifetime was a member of Republic Lodge, No. 690, F. & A. M., of New York city.

The death of Franklin M. Carver at his home on Park street, Ellenville early Saturday morning removes one of the village oldest citizens. Mr. Carver was in his 89th year. He had been confined to his home and bed for several weeks, apparently no ailment but weakness and all that loving hands could do was done for this honored husband and father. Mr. Carver was born in Pennsylvania, a son of Israel Carver and Charity Dean, his wife, but had been a resident of the town of Wawarsing the greater part of his long life. He was a veteran of the Civil War. At the time of enlisting he resided at Napanoch, N. Y., but had been a resident of Ellenville many years; by trade a carpenter and builder. Always a bright, cheerful disposition, a friendly greeting to all, a man who will be missed from the community, as he has been during his illness. Surviving are his wife, who was Miss Sarah Blanshan before marriage, and four sons, Emmor S. Carver, Harry R. Carver, and John Carver of Ellenville and Fred Carver of Middletown. The funeral will be held at the late home of deceased on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be made in Fantinekill cemetery. The service will be in charge of the Rev. W. S. Maines of the Reformed Church and Ward Post, G. A. R., of which deceased was a member.

Same Old Suits.

"Where have you been until this hour?" said Mrs. Lawyer Towit to her late returning hubby.

"I've been looking after some suits," alibied Towit.

"Yes, I know those suits—the old diamonds, hearts, spades and clubs. Well, this is the last night I'll let you out."—Buffalo Express.

EVENTS THIS EVENING.

"The Libertine," photoplay, at Kingston Opera House.

"Castles for Two," photoplay, at Y. M. C. A. Auditorium.

LaFollette in his mystery production at Orpheum.

ABOUT THE FOLKS.

Irving V. B. Barth of No. 400 Hasbrouck avenue, having finished his course at the Kingston High School, left Sunday evening for Tri State College, Indiana, where he expects to take up a course of five years studying law.

THE JOINERS.

News of Interest to Members of Fraternal Societies.

The following lodges hold regular meetings this evening:

Colonial, Rebekah Lodge, No. 45, I. O. O. F., in Odd Fellows' Hall, 36 East Strand.

J. R. B. Smith Lodge, No. 4,473, G. U. O. O. F., at 103 Cornell street.

Maben Camp, No. 11,156, Modern Woodmen of America, at 636 Broadway.

Division No. 4, Ancient Order of Hibernians, at 15 Hasbrouck avenue.

Division No. 5, Ancient Order of Hibernians, at 635 Broadway.

Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association, No. 57, at 15 Hasbrouck avenue.

Abraham Lincoln Circle, No. 193, Protected Home Circle, at J. O. U. A. M. Hall, Henry street.

Rondout Lodge, No. 343, F. & A. M., in Masonic Hall, Strand, corner of Broadway.

Camp No. 30, P. O. A., in Mechanics' Hall, No. 11 Henry street.

Franklin Lodge, No. 37, Knights of Pythias, will confer the rank of Knight on a class of candidates at their regular convention tonight.

The regular convention of A. W. Reynolds Temple of Pythian sisters will be held Wednesday evening, March 14. As matters of importance are to come before this meeting, a large attendance is desired. The meeting night of the Pythian sisters has been changed from Friday evening to Wednesday evening indefinitely.

New York Produce Market.

Wheat.—Unsettled, lower. May Chicago 182 @ 182½; July Chicago, 155⅝ @ ¾; Sept. Chicago, 145¼ @ ¾; Spot No. 2 red winter, 204, c. i. f. New York to arrive, 207 f. o. b. to arrive.

Corn.—Firm. No. 2 yellow new, 122½; No. 3 yellow new, 121½.

Oats.—Barely steady. Fancy white, 79 @ 81; ordinary clipped, 77 @ 79; standard, 75 @ 75½; No. 3 white, 74½ @ 75½; No. 4 white, nominal.

Rye.—Easy. No 2 western, 166, c. i. f. New York; state, 169 f. o. b. New York.

Barley.—Easy. Malting, nominal, c. i. f. Buffalo; feeding, 118 c. i. f. Buffalo.

Hay.—Steady. No. 3, 100 @ 110, No. 2, 65 @ 75; clover mixed, 50 @ 92½.

Straw.—Steady. No. 1 straight rye, 60 @ 70.

Flour.—Quiet. Spring patents, 925 @ 950; straights, 890 @ 915; clears, 800 @ 825; winter patents, 875 @ 900; straights, 840 @ 865; clears, 805 @ 830.

Potatoes—Steady. White, nearby, $7.00 @ $8.50; Bermudas, $8.00 @ $11.50; southerns, $1.50 @ $7.00; Southern Jersey sweets, $1.00 @ $2.50 per basket.

Dressed Poultry, quiet. Broilers, Capons and chickens, 18 @ 45; fowls, 18 @ 23½; turkeys, 18 @ 34; ducks, 18 @ 23; L. I. ducks, 24 @ 25; geese, 15 @ 20.

Live Poultry. Firm. Chickens, 17 @ 20; fowls, 23; turkeys, 20 @ 25; roosters, 15½; ducks, 22 @ 23; geese, springs, 14 @ 17.

Butter. Steady. Held and fresh. Creamery extra, 38½ @ 41; creamery firsts, 37 @ 40; higher scoring, 38¾ @ 42½; state dairy, tubs, 29 @ 40; process extra, 33 @ 33½; imitation firsts, 31 @ 32.

Eggs. Weak. Nearby white, fancy, 33 @ 34; nearby brown, fancy, 31 @ 32; extras, 30; firsts, 29.

Milk—The nominal wholesale price is 5¼ @ 5½ cents a quart.

Permitted Raillery.

The raillery which is consistent with good breeding is a gentle animadversion on some foible, which, while it raises the laugh in the rest of the company, doth not put the person rallied out of countenance, or expose him to shame or contempt. On the contrary, the jest should be so delicate that the object of it should be capable of joining in the mirth it occasions.—Fielding.

Good Substitute.

If you are afraid white or ivory woodwork is too difficult to keep clean, consider the substitute of a very deep old ivory. This gives the general effect of white woodwork and does not show the dirt.

Matrimony.

"The Midge," H. C. Bunner's charming romance of New York life, was dashed off in a house in Seventeenth street in order to provide its author with funds "to get married on."

We develop your films and print your pictures on Velox paper in 24 hours. We have our own plant and do our own work.

KODAKS, FILMS AND PHOTO SUPPLIES

E. WINTER'S SONS

Open Evenings — John Street

MONDAY MARCH 12 1917

Sun rises 6 16 sets 6 04
Weather clear Humidity 40 to 55

The Temperature

The lowest point registered by the Freeman's thermometer last night was 38 degrees The highe point registered up to noon today was 44 degrees

Weather Forecast

Washington March 12—Fair colder tonight Tuesday partly cloudy fresh northwest to north winds

TROUT SEASON OPENS APRIL

Anglers Anticipating Some Sport on April 7th Next

Fishermen are furnishing up their rod and reels in anticipation of the opening of the brook trout season on April 7th more than a week earlier than in former years Weather indications now point to an early run off of the snow in the mountains and it is believed by many that the water in the streams will be pretty nearly normal and permit of good fishing on the opening day A ten pound creel is the legal limit for 1 days sport and to judge from the size of the German brown trout taken last year it will not be difficult to make the limit The trout streams of the Catskills are pretty nearly at the peak of their game population the result of good work in past years in stocking the same

Trout make a most acceptable variation in the average menu and the wholesome effort on the part of anglers this season

BONTICOU

Donticou March 11 —Miss Lillian and Arthur Gerow spent the week end at the home of relatives in Kingston

Mrs Henry Schiff visited Kingston on Saturday

Mr and Mrs Slater and Mrs Slater's brother spent the week end with their relatives at Ulster Park

The Breezy Lawn House is making quite a few alterations Mr Dunn of Tillson is doing the work

Spring is coming! Our farmers are looking after their incubators and some have already sets hens

Mr and Mrs Henry Schiff will celebrate their twentieth wedding anniversary on the 15th of March

At the Y M C A

There will be another match game in the Y M C A Church Bowling League on Tuesday evening at which time the Clinton Avenue M E Church bowlers will clash with the St James M E Church representatives The team of the Albany Avenue Baptist Church still leads the league

Preparations are underway for the big indoor circus to be held at the Y M C A on March 27 and 28 and indications point to the fact that it will be bigger and better than ever

BUSINESS NOTICES

ON SALE IN NEW YORK

The Daily Freeman is on sale at the following stands of the Schultz News Agency in New York city
102 W 42nd St
42nd St & 1st Ave (S E cor opposite Grand Central Depot)
30th St & Broadway (S W Cor)
42nd St & 6th Ave (S W Cor)

Elmer Dalen will have at his next sale Tuesday March 13 at 65 Broadway Kingston N Y some good second handed horses in addition to his regular run of commission horses

NEWSPAPERS DELIVERED

Call 1500 and have your daily or Sunday paper delivered Prompt service ORRILLS 560 Broadway

YOUR OWN GOLD

Be made into band or wedding rings No waste Watch the work in our store C V I PITTS & SON 711 Wall street

NOVELTIES

for St Patrick's Day and fine Irish music The line of favors for dinner and card parties
ORRILLS 6 Broadway

FOR RENT

Peck's 1917 Improved day and night taxicab service Phone 1161

ORANGES

Just received a carload of California Sun kist Navel Oranges Extra fancy EDWARD T McGILL

CIGARETTE

upons redeemed Trade or cash CIGCLE 48 Broadway

YOU NEVER

saw such BARGAINS AS NOW at RUS Fair and Main streets

STATIONERY AND KODAKS

A wonderful line of high grade stationery kodaks and supplies Parker and Waterman's fountain pens MURPHY 12 E Strand

FACTORY SECONDS AND SAMPLES

Men's 60c Neckwear 50 cent
Ladies' 75c Neckwear 50 cents
Shirts 50c 75c $1
RETAGLE 48 Broadway

Awnings Upholstering Furniture Repairing Auto Tops Recovered HENRY FIGHMEY 94 Highland avenue

LOCAL TEAMS WIN ALL THREE GAMES

Kingston High School Talent Defeated Newburgh and Rhinebeck on Saturday, Two of the Games Being of the Closest—A Splendid Showing

All three of the Kingston High school basketball teams won their games Saturday The girls defeated Quassaick Hall at Newburgh in the third and deciding contest between the two schools by the close score of 45 44 and annexed for a second year the championship of the Hudson The varsity came out ahead after a hard struggle with Rhinebeck at that place in the evening the score being 32 29 The Midgets celebrated the occasion of their last home game in the afternoon when they gave the Newburgh Y M C A Midgets a 55 14 drubbing

The girls game at Newburgh was the prettiest match ever staged in these parts is the large score will testify The Newburgh girls had won the first game played at that place then the Kingstonians grabbed the second tussle by one lone point Saturday's game was the deciding affair It was played in the gymnasium of the Grace M E Church

At the end of the first quarter the Newburghers were leading 18 17 at half time they had gained a little more the score being 28 25 by the finish of the third quarter they had increased their margin and led by a 34 27 score Then the Colonials had their sensational spurt which ended just after Captain Schmid had caged the deciding basket when the timer's whistle was sounded

Miss Safford was Kingston's chief cog but Miss Schmid lifting from guard to forward in the last half played a remarkable game netting eight field goals Miss Carver at all less was Newburgh's mainstay on the losing line and but for the careful guarding of Miss Bell might have been still more dangerous This game wound up the girls season successful from every standpoint The line up was as follows

Kingston High School

Safford rf	13	1	27
Hurley lf	1	0	2
Schmid tg lf	8	0	16
Josselyn c	0	0	0
Wood lg	0	0	0
Bell rg	0	0	0
Brown sub	0	0	0
Totals	22	1	45

Quassaick Hall

Carver lf	20	2	42
Corwin rf	1	0	2
Cutler c	0	0	0
Pound lg	0	0	0
Fingut rg	0	0	0
Totals	21	2	44

Varsity Notes Our Rhinebeck

Open basketts and a scrappy group of hustlers were neat causing the downfall of the varsity lads at Rhinebeck Saturday night The game was a fierce affair marked by the rough playing of the Dutchess county lads with whom the locals were even but on the floor. As a result a large number of fouls were called—6 on Kingston and 21 on Rhinebeck In the first half the losers put up such a stiff battle that they were even at its close 17 17 The second period was closer still but Kingston forged ahead in the last few minutes

The whole village forgot its week end shopping and were out in force the locals put up for the night at one of the taverns The line up

Kingston

Kiernan rf	2	0	4
Dolson lf	7	14	18
Johnson c	2	0	4
Joyce rg	2	0	4
Hallinan lg	1	0	2
Totals	9	11	29

Rhinebeck

Briggs rf	1	0	2
Tatro lf	2	0	4
Lynch c	3	0	6
Hempel rg	1	1	13
Supperds lg	0	0	0
Totals	7	1	29

Midgets 55 Newburgh 14

The Midgets were keyed up for one of the hardest games of the year Saturday afternoon but the preparation was useless as the team representing the Newburgh Y M C A was sort of a miscellaneous collection and fell by the wayside languidly Anyway the local kids had a merry time

Eleven fouls were called on Newburgh and seven on Kingston Johnny Joyce referee The line up

Kingston Midgets

Schoonmaker rf	5	1	11
McAndrew lf	0	1	1
Quick lf	3	0	6
Smith c	11	0	22
Mitchell lg	4	1	9
Dwyer lg	0	0	0
Nickerson lg	0	1	1
Totals	26	3	55

Newburgh Midgets

Croth rf	2	0	4
Dell lf	1	1	3
Hedge c	2	1	5
Wood rg	0	0	0
Schonberger lg	0	0	0
Totals	6	2	14

New Priest at Tivoli

The Rev Peter P Conats at one time stationed in Saugerties has been appointed pastor of St Sylvia's Church in Tivoli

SHERLOCK HAS WISH FULFILLED

But in Unexpected Manner—Demanded That Mrs MacMillan Pay His Way to Albany—Recorder Lang Gives Him Free Transportation to Albany Pen

Samuel Sherlock 30 years old who says he lives in Paterson N J had his wish of getting to Albany fulfilled in an unexpected manner this morning after he had paid a visit to the Social Service Bureau on Saturday afternoon and demanded that Mrs Laura MacMillan the social worker supply his fare to Albany Sherlock is one of the numerous fakers who travel about the country working on the sympathy of housewives by showing them a crippled hand and asking them to buy some plaster or some similar article

Just how long Mr Sherlock had been in Kingston is not known but on Saturday afternoon he visited the Social Service Bureau in the Municipal building on East O Reilly street and informed Mrs MacMillan that he expected her to pay his fare to Albany and he wanted the money right away as he was in a hurry He said that a Mrs Lay had sent him to the bureau and had told him that Mrs MacMillan would pay his fare Sherlock became very impudent in his demands and Mrs MacMillan finally told him to sit down

She then got in touch with police headquarters on the telephone and asked Sergeant Hanley who answered the phone to send a man over immediately By this time Sherlock became somewhat suspicious and Mrs MacMillan informed him that he wished he could come back later when she would inform him regarding whether he got free transportation to Albany

Sherlock left but ran into the arms of Sergeant Hanley who was on his way over and was escorted over to police headquarters There Sherlock displayed a crippled hand Chief Wood was somewhat suspicious however and decided that Sherlock was faking

The chief then proceeded to take Sherlock's finger prints and delayed the job as long as possible thinking to catch Sherlock For fully fifteen minutes Sherlock kept his hand and arm in crippled position but finally became tired and relaxed somewhat This was what Chief Wood was waiting for and he promptly informed Sherlock he was a faker and Sherlock seeing the game was up gave in

Sherlock has a wonderful knack of throwing the bone of the wrist out of position and clenching his fingers in a crippled manner

This morning when arraigned before Recorder Lang he said that he was an old soldier and was not a cripple

I understand you want to go to Albany said the court

No your honor replied Sherlock I know a time go I will go back to Albany

It is too late to change your mind replied the court and as you were so anxious to go to Albany Saturday I will see that you get there today without paying your fare For three months in the Albany penitentiary

Sherlock later in the day was accompanied to Albany by Policeman Linder

The fact that there are a number of able cripples soliciting at this time of the year should be borne in mind by householders and when one appears at the door it would be better to notify police headquarters instead of feeling sorry for the cripple and buying some plaster from them as any spare change would be used to good advantage by the police or the Social Service Bureau in the case of widows and children

THEODORE KEMLER VIOLATED PAROLE

Butter Thief Released from Dannemora on Parole, Picked up by Sergeant Hanley—Kemler Would Not Work and Got Drunk

Theodore Kemler who some time ago was sentenced to Dannemora on a charge of stealing a tub of butter from the West Shore railroad was released on parole and placed in custody of Mrs Laura MacMillan the social worker to report at certain intervals Later Recorder Lang at the request of Mrs MacMillan appointed Secretary Thornberry of the Y M C A as parole officer to whom Kemler was to report Kemler violated his parole in refusing to work and getting drunk The Dannemora authorities were notified and asked the local police authorities to arrest Kemler and hold him until they sent for him

FLAG ON BASEBALL UNIFORM

WAVE OF PATRIOTISM HITS BASEBALL WORLD

Preparedness and patriotism have hit the baseball world together Captain Hugh Jennings of the Detroit baseball team has decided to train the Yankees in military tactics Charles Ebbets was not to be outdone and has the photograph shows has ordered American flags to be placed upon the uniforms of all of the members of the Brooklyn team

COTTEKILL

Cottekill March 12 The following people from this place attended the basketball game at Stone Ridge on Friday evening March 9 Mr and Mrs Chris Snyder Miss James Snyder Mr Andrew Pine Mrs Burton Roosa Miss Abner Osterhoudt Verna Pine Hazel Hinkley Kathryn Snyder Nellie Elting Marion and Kathryn Osterhoudt Douglas Snyder Hart Osterhoudt Walter Pine James Styles Robert Stalls Kenneth Krom Bennie Osterhoudt William Feelbs and Edward Hinkley

A number from this place attended the variety supper at Stone Ridge on March 9

Mr Cummings Winchell and children of Kingston spent the week end with her parents here Mr and Mrs Jacob Butler

The Boy Scout basketball team of this place met with defeat Friday evening March 9 at Stone Ridge by the score of 19 to 11

The Boy Scouts were entertained by the Camp Fire Girls at the school house Thursday evening March 8

Mr and Mrs James Snyder spent Sunday at the home of Mr and Mrs Ira Snyder

Mrs Andrew Pine and daughter Verna spent Wednesday at Bloomington

William Bailey of Walton spent the week end with his parents here Mr and Mrs Jacob Bailey

Charles Fider of Bridgeport Conn spent the week end here on business

Mr and Mrs Henry Dunbar of Lawrenceville spent Sunday with Mr Dunbar's parents here Mr and Mrs Andrew Pine

James Pine and Andrew Pine butchered eighteen pigs for Fred Gillespie on Thursday

Douglas Snyder had the misfortune to cut off the end of his thumb Dr Hutchins of High Falls attended to the wound The thumb is getting along as good as can be expected

Leroy Styles was called to New York on account of sickness of relatives

Mr and Mrs Walter Conner expect to move to this place in Mr and Mrs C A Snyder's house

A J Keator spent Sunday with his parents here

Garton Keator is kept busy splitting wood on his wood pile

Oscar Fider is slowly improving from his long illness

Mr and Mrs John Wood were called to High Falls on account of the serious accident of their daughter

Completing New Building

Work was started Monday on the firemen's bowling competing the ceiling and laying floor in the hall It is hoped to have the hall in readiness for the weekly dancing class The hall is 74 by 60 feet and will provide an excellent place for dancing basketball and a meeting hall—Tivoli Times Herald

BRODHEAD

Brodhead March 12 Tommy Allen is spending some time in Kingston having been called to serve as a member of the grand jury

During the past week William Votee is listed by Herbert Every has been busy hauling gravel to improve the grounds around the summer cottage of Mayor Canfield

William Hughes Sr of New Jersey who spent a vacation with relatives in this place returned to his employment Tuesday

Mrs Sarah Jordan entertained a party of friends and relatives last Sunday among whom were Mr and Mrs Henry Demarest and family of Kingston

Van Crispell and son Oscar cooked and served the beef steak supper given by the men of the Community Club at Shokan last Monday evening

Henry Bell was a visitor at the district school Wednesday

Hurlow McLean and Harry Votee enjoyed a fine sleigh ride to Samsonville on Wednesday evening

Justin Bell and sister Chloe of West Shokan called on friends in this place one evening recently

OLIVEREA

Olivereа March 12—Wilbur J Turck of Roxbury is at home with his parents here for a few days

Charles L Dutcher of Shavertown spent a day or two in Olivereа last week Mr Dutcher was formerly a resident of this place He now has charge of the Shavertown Hotel

Charles T Andrews has returned home from a few weeks stay in New York and Brooklyn

Mr Van Wyck Knight spent a few days in Kingston last week

Mr H R Berry of Brooklyn is a guest of her niece Mrs E C Chase in this place.

OLIVE BRIDGE

Olive Bridge March 12—Mrs Ezra D Palen made a business trip to Poughkeepsie on Thursday

Mr Wager of Alberta Canada is spending some time with her daughter Mrs C A Davis

Prayer meeting at Martin L Cropsie's on Friday evening March 16 All are invited

Miss Edna R Crispell called on Mrs Ellen Palen Thursday afternoon

Mrs Ruth Trowbridge is spending a few days in Kingston

Miss Jennie Crispell spent Friday afternoon with Mrs E H Dates

Columbia Shirts
All men like them Full bodies fast colors
$1.00 and $1.50

S. O. Eighmey
Broadway, Downtown

Men's Neckwear
Four-in hands for Spring Brocades stripes and plaids.
50c

SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS GOODS

Regardless of present price conditions you never bought better values than these in early spring

A Popular Cleanse Dress
McCall Pattern No 7853 one of the many new designs for March
McCALL PATTERNS FREE
With every 25c goods purchase amounting to $2 50 or more until March 10th

Silk Poplin, $1.00 yd.
36 in width in all the good selling colors, including white and black

Georgette Crepe, $1.50 yd.
40 in width, all the good selling colors, white, black, flesh, pink, rose

Chiffon Cloth, $1.00 yd.
40 in width, black, white and colors

Plain Colored Voile, 39c yd.
44 in width, black, white, maize light blue, copen, navy and rose Extra good values 39c yd

Printed Voile, 25c yd.
Fancy corded stripes with printed floral design on white cloth Make your selection early at 25c yd

Auto Delivery Twice Daily to All Parts of the City
Best Values and Efficient Service at Minimum Cost

American Mineral Oil

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT

Use of Mineral Oil

Dr Le Tanneur contributes to the Paris Medical some practical points in the use of mineral oil in constipation The oil he says is in no way digested or even modified by the juices of the stomach and intestines It acts as a lubricant and nothing else Though it tends to heal abrasions of the intestinal wall caused by rough particles of food

The New York Medical Journal says mineral oil should be taken either before breakfast or after dinner two tablespoonfuls being a dose its use should be continued every day for at least a fortnight when the bowels will continue to work naturally without it for the mineral oil is in no sense a cathartic but it will cure constipation —Kingston Daily Freeman February 17, 1917

Pint Bottles, 50 Cents; Half Pints, 30 Cents

Use Your 'Phone—261

CHAS. L. McBRIDE
634 Broadway Kingston, N. Y.

Spring Opening Sale OF Fashionable Furniture

The new spring styles representing the latest and most advanced types in fashionable furniture fresh from the workshops of the best furniture makers in the world are here and ready for the inspection of those who demand good quality, style and finish

A range of styles wide enough to meet everyone's ideas, and a range of prices equally wide, to meet all purses. too.

High Class Furniture, moderately priced.

We enjoy showing it Come and see it Remembering that you're always welcome

Furniture of Distinction and Character

THE HOUSE OF QUALITY
STOCK-CORDTS INC.
KINGSTON, N.Y.

Agents for New Edison Diamond Disc Musical Instrument

Flora Bella
RECORDS AT
W. H. Rider's, Piano Store
304 WALL STREET